Belletonte, Pa., June 1, 1917.

To Correspondents .- No communications published unless accompanied by the rear name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-John Martin, clerk in Parrish's drug store is off duty owing to an attack of lumbago.

-The planing mill firm of Zettle & Lucas, at Centre Hall, made an assignment last week.

Harrisburg last Sunday.

-Buy a ticket for "Civilization" from members of Troop L and help the fund for their auto truck.

-Levi Miller has been appointed tax collector of Spring township instead of David Miller, deceased.

-A little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Troup, Monday, May 28th, at their home on Thomas

-Shuman Zimmerman, of Hecla, last week sold eighty bushels of wheat for $3.10 a bushel, receiving just $248.00.

ing $1,500,000 for The Pennsylvania State College. The homes of C. D. Casebeer, Forrest Bullock, Albert Schad and Homer Thompson were quarantined for measles this week.

-Mrs. Edward L. Powers will sell all her household goods at public sale at her home on north Spring street on Saturday, June 9th.

-The Sun Bros. circus is booked to show in Bellefonte on June 13th. It be its first visit to Bellefonte.

Tuesday, May 15th, to Mr. and Mrs. Milton Willard, of Gatun, Panama.

-On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stevenson shipped their household goods to Lock Haven and expect to make that place their home in the future, Mr. Stevenson having been employed there for some time past.

-Special music and a soloist accompany each production of "Civilization" which can be seen at the Scenic next Thursday afternoon and evening as a benefit for Troop L. Get your tickets early and be sure of seeing it.

-Reuben Spangler has purchased the home of Mrs. E. L. Powers, on north Spring St., and will make that place his home after moving to Bellefonte. Before moving here, however, he expects to make some repairs to Hunter.

-- Invitations have been issued by and Mrs. Edward Powell, of Media, for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ruth Powell, and J. Reynolds Pierpont. 'The wedding to take place Saturday, the sixteenth of June, at Allendale Farm, Media, Pa.

-While fishing down in the Titan Metal company dam on Tuesday Edgar Burnside landed a twenty-four inch California trout that resembled a shad in size. Since then the trout has been on exhibition in Heverley's auto supply store on the corner of the Diamond.

prominence back of the pulpit.

you will have to register next Tues- O. Lawrence and David Garver. day, and if you want to see the best motion pictures shown in central Pennsylvania you will have to go to the Scenic to see them. The very best is the standard manager T. Clayton Brown has always maintained and his large patronage every evening is much-coveted appointments speaks proof that the public appreciates his efforts in this respect.

-There was a well-defined frost last Saturday morning as the climax ed in non-commissioned officers, esof last week's cold weather but so far as can be learned it did no damage to Centre county crops and gardens. Inasmuch as the weather since has been more seasonable it is to be hoped that all danger of frost is past and that the crops which have been benefitted a bountiful vield.

-At the May meeting of the Woman's club the following officers were elected: Mrs. John S. Walker, president; Miss Blanchard, vice-president; Miss Hill, secretary; Mrs. Charles Keichline, corresponding secretary; Miss Lillie Smith, treasurer: Mrs. Willard, auditor; Miss McQuistion, delegate-at-large; Mrs. Schloss, chairman Civic committee; Mrs. Lyon, chairman Educational committee, and Mrs. Brown, chairman Charity committee.

-A very delightful party was held at the home of Miss Mildred Ir-Win, on south Water street, last Saturday evening. Those present were Misses Orvilla Stover, Anna Massey, field, Franklin Stover, Dick Adams. ward Hefferiage and John Bedford. refreshments were served.

HONORED THE SOLDIER DEAD. A Large Crowd Attended Wednes- Cohen & Co. day's Memorial Services.

with the first bit of sunshine we had had in several days and it proved a beautiful day in which to pay due try what it is today. And one result tract in Washington county. of the beautiful weather was one of the largest crowds in Bellefonte that has attended these services in a number of years. The parade formed in the Diamond at 1:30 o'clock and moved promptly at two o'clock. It was made up as -Only twelve persons took ad- follows: Our Boys band of Milesvantage of the Pennsy's excursion to burg, public school children, over five hundred in number headed by a half dozen young ladies of the High school bearing the different flags of our allies. Bringing up the rear was the boys' company of High school students. Then came Troop L, mounted, as an escort to the old soldiers who are growing fewer in number every year; the Bellefonte band. Spanish-American war veterans, P. O. S. of A., the Logan fire company and a number of automobiles. The usual services were held at the cemetery and returning the crowd assembled in the court house where a very patriotic and thrilling memorial ---The House Appropriation comaddress was delivered by Dr. E. H. mittee has reported a bill appropriat- Yocum. From four to six o'clock the old veterans were the guests of the Bellefonte Lodge of Elks at their home on High street. Following the ceremony at the cemetery the Bellefonte band, Spanish-American war veterans and Troop L marched to the Bellefonte hospital and serenaded Lieut. E. R. Taylor, who is confined there with a broken

Revolutionary Soldiers.

The names of Revolutionary solis a nine car attraction and this will diers, with headstones, buried in Centre county, in the following cemete--Word has been received in ries, were marked with Betsy Ross Bellefonte of the birth of a daughter, flags on Memorial day by the Bellefonte Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution:

Union Cemetery, Bellefonte.-Col. James Dunlop, Hon. Andrew Gregg, Capt. Joshua Williams, James Harris, Elisa and Harriet DeHass (real Daughters.)

Old Milesburg Cemetery, Milesburg .-Robert Fleming, William Lee, Joseph White, Samuel Howe, Richard Malone Capt. James Miles, Capt. Richard Miles. New Curtin Cemetery, Curtin .- Philip Barnhart and wife, Evan Russell.

Lick Run Cemetery, Jacksonville.-Matthew Allison, Capt. Thomas Askey, David Lamb, Mrs. Mary A. Rishel (real Daugh-

Cemetery, Snydertown .- John Snyder. Cemetery, Pine Grove Mills .- John Go-

Gray's Cemetery.-Elijah Chambers ames McGahagan. Slab Cabin Cemetery, Boalsburg.-Henry Dale, Jacob Keller, Peter Shuey, Andrew

Cemetery, Centre Hall .- Old Fort Marker, John Adam Sunday, Indian Lane, Michael Stiver, John F. Ream, Henry Mc Ewen, James Huston. Cemetery, Rebersburg .- Col. Henry Meyer, Philip Meyer, George Christian Spangler, George Spangler,

Troop L Honored.

On Monday Brigadier General J. Franklin Bell, commander of the Department of the East, named 316 Pennsylvania National Guardsmen to go into training at Fort Niagara and Madison barracks for commissions in the officers reserve corps. The First Pennsylvania cavalry, which is made up of twelve regular troops and the ---On Sunday Hon. A. G. Morris Boal gun troop, was entitled to twenpresented a beautiful silk flag with ty-one men for appointment but only golden fringe to the Presbyterian nineteen were selected, and out of church in commemoration of the mem- that number five were appointed from ory of his wife, the late Mrs. Mary Troop L and two from the Boal gun Elizabeth Schwartz Morris, who died troop. The men selected from Troop on November 18th. The flag was re- L are Sergts. J. Homer Decker and ceived and dedicated at the morning Arthur Deering, supply Sergt. Paul services and then given a place of L. Wetzel and Corps. James Davis and Leslie D. Gordon. Those from -If you are within the age limit the Boal gun troop are Sergts. John

> The selections were made by Gen. Bell on the following six points of merit: Soldierly attainments, clean records, courage, reliability, steadfastness and intelligence and the fact five men from Troop L won the for themselves and their military organization. They were all ordered to report for duty yesterday and their going will leave Troop L short handpecially counting the married men who will be mustered out soon.

A Boost for That Auto Truck. Manager T. Clayton Brown has signed up for exhibition at the Scenic on the afternoon and evening of considerably by the rain of the early Thursday, June 7th, of 'thomas H. part of the week will grow to return Ince's wonderful motion picture production, "Civilization." This picture consists of 12,000 feet of film and 40,-000 people were used in its production. Manager Brown will exhibit this picture as a benefit for the Troop L auto truck fund. The price of the tickets will be fifty cents and they will be sold by members of the Troop. Hence when one of these soldier boys approaches you with a request to buy one or more tickets you will know it is for a worthy cause and we know they will appreciate any help you can give them. Besides that you will have a chance to see the most wonderful moving picture that has ever been staged.

-S. A. McQuistion very quietly celebrated his eighty-seventh birth-Fannie Walker, Calone Fultz, Ethel day anniversary on Tuesday. At that Irvin, Helen King and Frederick Gar- age men are generally termed venerable but in his case it would almost Guy McMean, Ferguson Martin, Ed- be a misnomer, because Mr. McQuistion still looks after his carriage re- branch in order to familiarize him-The evening was spent in social pair business and is now planning to self with the various brands of tobacamusement and music, while choice take a trip to his old home town of co, cigars, etc., handled by the com-Butler some time next month.

is the cause of us selling so many .-62-22-1t

-Governor Brumbaugh last week Wednesday dawned bright and clear signed a bill passed by the Legislature empowering R. B. Taylor, of this place, to bring suit against the State to collect an alleged unpaid honor to the soldiers of past wars claim of about five thousand dollars, who did their bit to make this coun- a balance due on his state road con-

> -M. S. Betz, the Jacksonville merchant, has had a dream the result of which is a design, he has drawn, of a U-boat destroyer. Merv. thinks he has opened the way to solve the problem and if there were more water in Lick run he would probably build one and demonstrate it there at home.

-Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harper are packing their furniture preparatory to moving to Cleveland sometime during the month of June. Their house on Bishop street has been rented by Mr. Olson, of the Abramson Engineering Co., who will take possession of the property as soon as possible.

-The annual meeting of the lot All lot owners are urged to attend this

-The Senate on Tuesday defeated the House bill providing that the penalty for first degree murder shall be either death or life imprisonment, mained at Rebersburg for the reguat the discretion of the jury or by the court. The bill received twenty- at 6 o'clock, Rev. A. M. Spangler three votes, three less than the number required to pass it. Fifteen votes were against it.

-Over four hundred letters were received by "McClure's Magazine" in reply to Cleveland Moffett's article, "How to Have Better Chldren." The ninth prize, of five dollars was awarded Miss Julia Gray, State College, with a note from Charles Hanson Towne, contest editor, "Let me congratulate you on your Splendid Statement." Part of this article was reprinted in the "Watchman," April 27.

-Rev. John W. Bright, of Topeka, Kan., who has been visiting relatives in Milton, is now on his way to Centre county and while here expects to fill lecture engagements at Millheim, Rebersburg, Spring Mills, Centre Hall and State College, intending to leave here in time to attend the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church, which will convene in Chicago on June 20th.

Thomas Menchio, of Philipsburg, is an inmate of the Centre county jail and the charge that will be made against him depends upon the death or recovery of Walter Young, who is now in the Cottage State hos pital, Philipsburg, suffering with a dangerous cut in the neck received at the hands of Menchio. The stabbing affray was the result of a general family quarrel last Thursday even-

-Conforming with the established rule of the other business men of Bellefonte the various grocery stores will adopt the six o'clock closing rule on Monday, June 4th, Wednesdays and Saturdays excepted. They will do this in order to give their employees the evenings to devote to their homes and their gardens, as well as deserved recreation. Bellefonte housewives should make a note of this and don't put off buying until evening.

-Dr. George Tibbens, of Beech Creek, has tendered his services as a surgeon in the army. On Wednesday he was in the barber shop of his home town when a man named Greninger, who is said to be a strong German sympathizer, entered the shop and began to rail about our government. Immediately Dr. Tibbens jumped out of the chair and started in to cleaning up the new comer. He knocked all his teeth out, broke his arm and would probably have injured him far worse had not the barber pulled him

-As an evidence of its desire to do the most possible under the existing conditions of war with Germany, the faculty of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology has recommended for degrees those Seniors who have entered military or naval service or have gone into industries directly connected with the war. In this group is Francis E. Thomas, of Bellefonte, who has been recommended for the degree of B. S., and this will be conferred upon him at the coming graduation exercises in June. Mr Thomas has already taken the examinations for the coast artillery corps but as yet has received no orders.

-John L. VanPelt, who recently resigned his position as manager of traveling salesman for the Reed Tobacco company, of Milton, and will start on his new job next Monday. He will be assigned to the Altoona branch and his territory will extend from Altoona to Greensburg and all side trips. It will take a month to cover the territory but his trips are so arranged that he will be able to spend every day evening, June 12th at 8 o'clock, Sunday at home. His first three in the lodge rooms in Crider's stone weeks will be spent in the Altoona building. An appropriate program pany and the prices of same.

-Our price on men's straw hats Spangler Monument Dedicated at Rehersburg.

The name of the Spangler family was perpetuated in marble at Rebersburg on Wednesday when a beautiful monument was dedicated in the Rebersburg cemetery to the memory of George Christian Spangler, the first of the family to set foot on Centre county soil. Three automobile loads of friends of the family went down from Bellefonte and representatives S. Russell, of Philadelphia. were present from New Berlin, Carlisle, Mifflinburg, Millerstown, Milroy, Lewistown, Barnesboro and Win-

The crowd of more than fifty people was entertained at dinner at the Rebersburg hotel by Col. J. L. Spangler and the dedication took place in the cemetery promptly at two o'clock in the presence of one hundred and fifty people. The services began with prayer by Rev. Womeldorf which was followed with an address by Rev. Ira E. Spangler, of Carlisle, who spoke of the characteristics of the earlier generations. Dr. A. M. Spangler, of Yeagertown, made a very interesting address on "What's in a Name?" The closing talk was made by Col. J. L. owners in the Union cemetery to elect Spangler. Music for the occasion was a board of managers for the coming furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Norman year, and the transaction of other R. Wright, Mrs. J. E. Harvey and business will be held in the grand ju- Hard P. Harris, while a delightful ry room at the court house on Monday feature of the occasion was the reciafternoon, June 4th, 1917, at 4 o'clock tation by Mrs. Scott Walters, of Mifflinburg.

From the cemetery the gathering proceeded to the Evangelical church where a Spangler family association was formed, Col. Spangler being elected president. Most of the crowd relar Memorial exercises in the evening making the memorial address.

Bellefonte High School Commencement.

The annual commencement of the Bellefonte High school will be held during the week of June 10th, with the closing exercises of the grade schools the same week. The bacca- sister, Mrs. Robert Sechler. laureate sermon will be preached by Dr. A. M. Schmidt in the Reformed church Sunday evening, June 10th, at 7:30 o'clock. The annual Junior de- to spend Memorial day at home. clamatory contest will be held at the High school building at 8:15 o'clock on Wednesday evening, June 13th.

The closing exercises in the grade schools at the brick building will be held at ten o'clock on Thursday morning, June 14th, and those of the grade schools at the new building at ten o'clock on Friday morning, June 15th.

The commencement exercises of the class of 1917 will be held on Friday evening. June 15th, at 8:15 o'clock, in the High school building. The commencement address will be delivered by Prof. John Dennis Mahoney, head of the English department, West Philadelphia High school.

A general exhibit of all kinds of school work will be open throughout the closing events of the week.

Capt. Boal to Entertain Troops. Capt. Theodore Davis Boal has invited a general invasion of his domicile within the next fortnight, having sent out invitations for a general pilgrimage there for a three days camp by Troops L, of Bellefonte; B, of Tyrone; I, of Sunbnry; K, of Lock Haven and M, of Lewisburg. The time is June 8, 9 and 10, and the troops are asked to send their tents and picket since that time, left Wednesday morning line ahead so that the machine gunners can have everything in readiness for the visitors upon their arrival. Food for the men, forage for the horses and amusement for everybody will be furnished free by Capt. Boal. The three day's outing will include some tactical marches, other drills and possibly a sham battle. Another feature will be an exhibition flight by Lieut. Pierre Boal, the only son of Capt. Boal, who is a member of the Royal Aviation corps of France, and who has been awarded a medal of honor for exceptional work in his line.

L. T. L. Medal Contest. The L. T. L. medal contest and entertainment last Saturday evening proved a very pleasing affair. Miss Hazel Gunsallus was awarded the medal and Miss Alice Davis received honorable mention. The Misses Mildred Gunsallus, Eva Gordon, Sarah Minnemyer, Mabel Poorman and Ethel Bottorf also competed, making the task of the judges no easy matter. Miss Lois Foreman, another member of the L. T. L., is also a medal win-

At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Walter Fay Carson thanked those who had assisted, making mention of the loyalty of the young ladies and of the generous support of the talent, the school board and the newspapers. About fourteen dollars was realized from the sale of tickets.

Bellefonte Boys Sent to Norfolk. A Letter received in the beginning of the week by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Apt from their son, Willard Apt, stated that all the Bellefonte boys who have been at the Newport, R. I., naval training station the past few weeks, were sent to Norfolk, Va., last the Bellefonte branch of the Sperry Friday. Of course that is the only & Hutchinson Green Trading Stamp definite information contained in the company, has accepted a position as letter, but the supposition is that they will be assigned to some ship somewhere in the near future.

I. O. O. F. Memorial Services. Public memorial services will be held by the members of Centre Lodge No. 153, and Crystal Springs Rebekah Lodge No. 25, I. O. O. F., on Tuesis being arranged by the committee. This meeting will be open to the public, and all persons are cordially invited to attend.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Elliott Lyon Morris is home from St.

-Mrs. C. M. Bower has been a guest this week of her brother, David J. Meyer, at Williamsport, Centre Hall. -Miss Helen Williams spent Memorial day with her sister, Mrs. V. Lorne Hummel, in Harrisburg. -Mr. and Mrs. Edward Whittaker are entertaining their daughter, Mrs. Edward

-Miss Janet Scott, who has been studying in Pittsburgh during the winter, is home for her summer vacation.

-The Misses Anne and Eleanor Taylor. both students at Goucher college, Baltimore, returned to Bellefonte yesterday. -Miss Mary O'Day, of Northumberland is visiting her uncle, Andrew B. Young, her first trip to Bellefonte in nine years. -Mrs. Sara Brown went to Newark, N. J., Tuesday, for a visit for a month or Wray. -Mrs. F. W. Crider left yesterday for ly to Boston to continue his military Elizabeth, N. J., to spend several weeks work. with her daughter. Mrs. Rath, and her family.

-Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mingle, of Aaronsburg, are visiting with their sons at Akron, Ohio, having left Bellefonte a week ago.

-Mr. and Mrs. Willis Sellers, of Altoona, were week-end guests of Mr. Seller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sellers, up

-Mrs. A. C. Mingle has been spending part of the week in Centre Hall, visiting with Mrs. William B. Mingle, and other friends. -Mrs. E. C. Tuten and her two sons. Tirrell and John, came over from Hyde

City on Tuesday to attend the Memorial day exercises. -Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas, of New York city, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thomas, at Potters Mills. -Mrs. W. F. Reynolds left Tuesday for Philadelphia and New York, going for a visit with her brother and his wife, Mr.

and Mrs. Albert Hoy. The Misses Maude, Mary and Edna Union cemetery, where their mother, Mrs. Shontz, of Mifflinburg, have been in Bellefonte within the past week, guests of their

-Harold Lyons, car dispatcher at the brick works at Monument, was in Bellefonte Tuesday, on his way to Lyontown

-Miss Verna Dunkle, of Mingoville, went to Syracuse a week ago, intending to accept a position and make her home there with her uncle, one of the business men of she will spend a week attending the comthe city.

going to the training camp at Fort Niaga---Mrs. Morris Hazel, of Altoona, and her being guests during their stay of Mrs. Hazel's aunt and uncle, Mrs. Larimer and William Chambers. -Mr. and Mrs. James D. Seibert have had as guests this week their niece and nephew, Miss Marie Swartz and Edward Swartz, of Detroit, who are motoring and of next week for Holvoke, Mass., Mr. visiting through Pennsylvania. -Mrs. Frank Driscoll, of Pittsburgh.

and her little daughter, were in Bellefonte Monday, on their way to Snow Shoe to visit for an indefinite time with Mrs. Driscoll's mother, Mrs. James Burns. -Miss Katherine Gibboney, of Reedsville, and Miss Helen Kennedy, of Belleville, spent Sunday in Bellefonte with Miss Helen Love, at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gehret. -Miss Josephine Kohlbecker, who came to Bellefonte for the late Father McArdle's funeral and who has been visiting here to return to her home at Jeannette. -Mrs. Martin Fauble, with her daughter and son, Mrs. Schloss and Adolph Fauble, spent the early part of the week on a drive to Harrisburg. Leaving here in the Fauble car Sunday, they made the return drive on Wednesday. -Mr Edward A. Woods, manager of the Equitable Life Assurance society of the Pittsburgh agency, spent part of last week visiting their representative, J. S. McCargar. Mr. Woods addressed the Red Cross meeting Thursday evening.

-James Schofield is arranging to go to Mount Clements next week for treatment, having suffered for a year or more from a bad attack of rheumatism. During Mr. Schofield's absence his business will be in charge of his daughter, Mrs. Larimer. -Mrs. Edward McCalmont, of Philadelphia, and her son, were in Bellefonte Wednesday, having come here from a short visit in Altoona, expecting to go on to State College, to spend several days with Mr. McCalmont's mother, before returning -Mrs. W. P. Moore, of Tyrone, and her daughter, Miss Katherine Moore, were in Bellefonte for the week-end, coming here to visit with Isaac Miller Jr., of Philadelphia, who had been spending a short time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Miller, at the toll gate. -Robert Leepard, son of Mr. and Mrs John Leepard, former residents of Bellefonte but of late years residing in Bloomsburg, was a "Watchman" office caller on Monday morning. He is now a linotype operator in a newspaper office in Akron,

Ohio, and was on his way to Bloomsburg on a business trip. -J. E. Gates, of Monongahela City, bridge inspector of the Monongahela division of the P. R. R., and his son Homer Crissman Gates, were in Bellefonte Monday, spending a short time with friends. From here Mr. Gates left for a visit in Snow Shoe, where he had lived before going to the western part of the State, twenty-one years ago.

-Dr. William S. Glenn Jr. drove to Bellefonte Saturday, from Bradford, having joined Dr. and Mrs. Grover Glenn, who had been spending a short time in Buffalo. Dr. Glenn wil locate for the present at State College, with his brother, definite arrangements being deferred on account of the present war conditions. The people of the community will have an opportunity of becoming acquainted with Dr. Glenn professionally, as he will take entire charge of Dr. Grover Glenn's practice next week, during his absence at the American Medical Association in New York, and the following three weeks will be in charge of his father's, Dr. W. S. Glenn's practice, while he and Dr. Nannie Glenn are in Kentucky at the National Association of Eclectics.

-Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Riling, of Altoona, were guests Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shuey.

-Mrs. W. H. Gephart and her daughter Ellen spent the early part of the week in

-Mrs. John Hinman Gibson, of Rutherford, N. J., is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Andrew Cook. -Dr. H. W. Tate spent the latter part of last week in Buffalo, going there after his new Oakland car. -Mrs. A. Wilson Norris, of Harrisburg, is in Bellefonte, coming here to open her house on Curtin street for the summer. -Mrs. Joseph L. Montgomery will go with her son Jack to Culver, Indiana, on the 27th of June, where Jack will enter a military training school.

-Miss Ruth Altenderfer returned the early part of the week from Philadelphia, where she has been studying music at the Broad street conservatory. -Francis E. Thomas was in Bellefonte more with her daughter, Mrs. Robert over Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Thomas, returning immediate-

-Mrs. Walter Furst, of New Haven, is in Bellefonte for an indefinite time, expecting to visit with Mrs. A. O. Furst for a part of the time Mr. Furst will be in service for the government. -Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler and Miss Daisy Brisbin are all in Spangler, called there on account of the illness of Mrs. James McClain, who will undergo an operation in the Spangler hospital tomor-

-Mr. and Mrs. William B. Wallis with several guests will drive from Pittsburgh Saturday, remaining here for a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Conley, before going on to attend commencement at the Birmingham Seminary.

-The Misses Mary and Sara Graham came over from Lewistown Wednesday to spend Memorial day with their sisters, Mrs. Harper and Mrs. Gordon, and to look after some business transactions of the

-Mrs. W. E. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hall and Blaine Hall, of Harrisburg, were in Bellefonte Wednesday, having come here to look after their lot in the John Hall, is buried. -Both Mrs. Archibald Allison and Robert F. Hunter will spend next week in Philadelphia, going down for the commencement exercises at Drexel, Miss Nancy Hunter and Miss Katherine Allison being members of the graduating class. Mrs.

Allison will go to the city Saturday. -Dr. Edith Schad will go to Oxford, Ohio, the latter part of next week, where mencement of the Western College for -- Paul L. Wetzel, of Erie, was in Belle- Women, where her daughter, Miss Mary fonte Wednesday for a short visit with his Schad, is a Senior. On her way home Dr. mother, Mrs. J. Henry Wetzel, before Schad will stop in Crafton, for a short visit with her niece, Mrs. Childs.

-Mrs. Beaver and Mrs. Thomas R. Haves returned to Bellefonte Tuesday small son, came to Bellefonte Saturday, from State College, where they had been for the greater part of a week, guests of John Hamilton. Mrs. Haves will leave Tuesday for Philadelphia, where she will attend the graduating exercises of Drexel before going on to Atlantic City.

> -Mrs. James Barnhart will leave Friday Barnhart to join her there several days later, going to attend the commencement at the college, where their daughter, Miss Martha Barnhart is a mer of 1917. Later Mr. and Mrs. Barnhart will spend a week or more in Boston and other points of interest through New Eng-

-Another little son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Harper, at their home in Cleveland, Ohio, on Sunday.

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer The prices quoted are those paid for produce Eggs, per dozen

Bellefonte Grain Markets. The following are the quotations up to six o'cloc Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press

Rye, per bushel..... Corn, shelled, per bushel Corn, ears, per bushel...... Oats, old and new, per bushel. Barley, per bushel.... Philadelphia Markets. The following are the closing prices of the

Straw The Best Advertising Medium in Central Pennsylvania. A strictly Democratic publication with independence enough to have, and ability and courage to express, its own views, printed in eight-page form—six columns to page—and is read every week by more than ten thousand responsible people. It is issued every Friday morning, at the following rate:

Paid strictly in advance.....$1.50 Paid before expiration of year 1.75 Paid after expiration of year. 2.00 Papers will not be sent out of Centre county unless paid for in advance, nor will subscriptions be discontinued until all arrearages are settled, except at the option of the publisher.

Advertising Charges. A limited amount of advertising space will be sold at the following rates: Legal and Transient.

All legal and transient advertising running for four weeks or less, No discount allowed on legal advertise-

Business or Display Advertisements. Per inch, first insertion............50 Each additional insertion per inch...25

The following discounts will be allowed on advertisements continued for Four weeks, and under three mos.10 per ct Three mos. and under six mos.... 15 per ct

Advertisers, and especially advertising Agents are respectfully informed that no notice will be taken of orders to insert advertisements at less rates than above, nor will any notice be given to orders of parties unknown to the publisher unless accompanied by the cash.

Wheat-Red

Oats
Flour —Winter, per barrel
Flour per barrel
Rye Flour per barrel
Baled Hay—Choice Timothy No. 1...
Mixed No. 1...

Corn

Oats