COUNCIL PASSED ORDINANCE. Authorizing Sale of Hoover Block, Tyrone, of Pruner Orphanage Estate.

After hanging fire for a period of three months during which time three different ordinances were presented the Bellefonte borough council on Monday night finally passed the ordinance providing for the sale of the Hoover block in Tyrone to the United States government for a postoffice site, and a piece of land in Ness county, Kan., to a private individual.

When council convened on Monday evening Thomas Rishel appeared and made complaint about the surface drainage from the Oscar Wetzel property on Willowbank street flooding his cellar. He was informed that inasmuch as the drainage comes from an abutting property council has nothing to do in the matter, but the question must be settled between he and the abutting property owner.

A letter from the Bell Telephone company of Pennsylvania was read notifying council that the Public Service Commission had approved the ordinance granting them the right to install an underground service.

A communication was read from the Ocean Life Insurance company enclosing a statement of $37.00 due the company on premium for compensation insurance held by the borough in the year 1916.

Chairman Harris, of the Street committee reported that they had made some repairs on west High and St. Paul streets, but to put the latter in proper shape it will have to be regraded. The matter was referred back to the Street committee, borough engineer and borough solicitor with power.

Chairman Seibert, of the Water committee, stated that he had found a fire hydrant that he could use to replace the one at the corner of High and Spring streets. He also reported that material valued at from $75.00 to $80.00 has been stolen or carried off from the Phoenix pumping station.

The Finance committee reported a balance in the hands of the treasurer on June 1st of $984.71. Notes for $2,000 and $1,100 due June 2nd, were presented for renewal for one year and one for $500 due June 6th for six months, all of which were authorized.

The Street committee reported a number of lights out during the month of May and on motion the Secretary was instructed to make the customary reduction from the State-Centre company's bill.

The Fire and Police committee was instructed to make a thorough test of the siren fire alarm as soon as possible.

The Street committee reported that the burgess had decided upon iron pipe portable markers for the regulation of traffic which had been approved by the committee.

A number of requests for exoneration of water taxes were referred to the Water committee for investigation and report.

Bills to the amount of about $1090 were approved and council adjourned.

Fifty-five State College students who will be members of two ambulance units to be furnished by that institution for duty in France, left the College on Friday and Saturday for Allentown where they will undergo a few weeks of intensive training before being sent abroad.

MILLER.—Mr. Jonathan E. Miller died at his home on Reynolds avenue at three o'clock on Sunday morning. He had suffered a breakdown in health but was able to walk around in the house on Saturday so that his death was very unexpected.

Deceased was a son of Jonathan and Catharine Miller and was born in Dauphin county, on November 15th, 1835, hence was 81 years, 6 months and 18 days old. He came to Centre county when a young man and engaged in the milling business living for a while at Centre Hall.

After coming to Bellefonte Mr. Miller and family became associated with the Methodist church in which he always took a great interest. In politics he was a Democrat and while he never sought any big political preference he was frequently honored by his party by the election to various ward offices.

On April 6th, 1864, he was united in marriage to Miss Harriet Toot who survives with four sons, namely: Oliver C. of Scottsdale; Robert P. of Lock Haven; W. Harvey and George A., of Bellefonte. He also leaves one brother, Jerry Miller, of DuBois.

FOSTER.—Mrs. Jane A. Foster, widow of the late Edward Foster, of this place, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Johnston, in Altoona, last Saturday morning, following an illness of three months or more with Bright's disease.

Her maiden name was Miss Jane A. Stewart and she was born in Westmoreland county on November 16th, 1847, hence was in her seventieth year. She was married to Edward Foster in Bellefonte on January 31st, 1876, and all of their married life was spent here.

HOFFMAN.—Alvah Alonzo Hoffman died at his home at Lockport, N. Y., at noon on Saturday after an illness of some weeks with pernicious anaemia, aged 74 years and 11 months.

He was a retired oil producer. He is survived by his wife, and two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Webley, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. Lydia Pitchford, of Bradford. His only child, Mrs. Caroline E. Walker, died in Bellefonte on September 15th, 1907. A nephew he raised from infancy, Clarence E. Hoffman, of Richmond, Ind., accompanied the remains to Bellefonte on Monday, funeral services being held at two o'clock the same afternoon at the home of W. K. McKinney, after which burial was made in the Union cemetery.

JOHNSON.—John Johnson died at his home at Marengo at noon on Thursday of last week from injuries sustained in a fall a week previous, when his spinal column was fractured.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson and was born in Halfmoon valley on July 13th, 1881. He followed farming all his life and was quite successful. He was a member of the Lutheran church and a good citizen in every way.

HOUSER.—Mrs. Minnie Houser, wife of Edward Houser, died on Thursday of last week at her home at State College after a lingering illness with tuberculosis. Notwithstanding her illness she attended and took part in the memorial exercises on Wednesday. Thursday morning she arose feeling fairly well but shortly afterwards had a hemorrhage which caused her death.

She was a daughter of Joseph and Mary Barr Eby and was born on the Branch on November 30th, 1870. All her life was spent in this county.

Potato Pests and Diseases. R. M. Olmstead, the extension representative of the Centre county Farm Bureau, has his work pretty well in hand now, although he has been on the job only about a month.

For both early and late blight and tip burn, Bordeaux mixture, composed of copper sulphate, caustic lime, and water is very good. The proportion for potatoes is 4-4-50. The four pounds of copper sulphate is dissolved in a small amount of water and then diluted to 25 gallons.

MILLER.—Following a lingering illness as the result of a stroke of paralysis Mrs. Mary A. Miller, wife of Squire D. W. Miller, of Pine Grove Mills, quietly slept away at 1:15 o'clock on Wednesday morning.

She was a daughter of Samuel and Rebecca Watt Cooper, one of the pioneer families in the Glades, where she was born seventy-eight years ago. She was educated in the public schools and the Pine Grove Mills Academy and thus obtained an intellectuality which in after life rendered her a most companionable woman in every way.

SCHAD.—Bible.—On Saturday, June 2nd, at eleven o'clock a. m., a quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. John's Episcopal church when Miss Dorothy M. Bible became the bride of Mr. Louis S. Schad. The impressive marriage service of the church was performed by the Rector, Rev. Malcolm DePue Maynard, and was witnessed only by the immediate relatives of both families.

The bride was charmingly gowned in blue taffeta silk with hat to match, and wore a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley and brides roses, and carried a white prayer book from which the service was used. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and was attended by her sister, Mrs. R. Russell Blair, as matron of honor. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. W. Hassell Montgomery as best man.

The wedding party entered the church to the "Bridal Song" from Jensen's "Wedding Music." During the ceremony the hymn, "Oh, Perfect Love," by Barnby, was played as an accompaniment. The recessional music was the wedding chorus from "Lucia di Lammermoor."

The bride is the second daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George P. Bible. As a sincere student of the violin her rare accomplishment has won the admiration of the people in this and many other communities. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schad, and a faithful employee of the First National bank. Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. John Bradley, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. J. A. Riley, of Bradford.

Kessler.—Evans.—A quiet though exceedingly pretty wedding took place in St. John's Episcopal church at ten o'clock last Saturday morning when Frank R. Kessler, of Mt. Carmel, but lately a clerk in the M. Berman jewelry store, Altoona, and Miss Jessie Evans, of Southern Wales, were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. M. DePue Maynard. The only witnesses were Clair M. Seibert, an intimate friend of both of them, and Mrs. Chauncey F. York, of Detroit, Mich., who stood with them at the altar.

Flag-Raising in Front of Lutheran Church. The Stars and Stripes will be raised on a pole of fifty-eight feet in front of the Lutheran church, corner of Allegheny and Linn streets, on next Sunday afternoon, June 10th, at 3 o'clock. The exercises prior to the act of raising the flag will be held in the auditorium of the church.
