

Bellefonte, Pa., June 15, 1917.

Terms of Subscription.—Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates:

Table with subscription rates: Paid strictly in advance $1.50, Paid before expiration of year 1.75, Paid after expiration of year 2.00.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK.

High School Graduation Exercises This Evening.

This has been commencement week at both the Bellefonte High school and The Pennsylvania State College, but owing to the critical war situation and the fact that a number of students in both institutions have enlisted and gone away the commencements have not been marked with the usually elaborate programs.

The High school commencement began with the preaching of the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday evening by Rev. Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt, in the Reformed church. Even on that occasion there was an absence of formality, as the caps and gowns ordered for the graduating class failed to arrive on time.

The alumni reception and dance were dispensed with this year and the Junior declamatory contest usually held on Monday evening was not held until Wednesday evening. In past years there were first and second prizes for this contest, but this year the rule was changed to make two prizes of $7.50 each, to go to the best boy and girl in the contest. The contestants were Richard P. Noll, Gerald Whiting, Clarence H. Smeltzer, Mary Taylor, Rebecca Cruse, Francis Crawford, Betty Lockington, Eleanor Bower, John W. Smith and Grace King. The judges were Edwin Raymond Smith and Asa Earl Martin, of State College, and Miss Margaretta Goheen, of Boalsburg, and they awarded the prizes to Mary Taylor and Clarence H. Smeltzer.

The graduating exercises will be held this (Friday) evening. The usual class exercises will be dispensed with but there will be a commencement address by Prof. John Dennis Mahoney, of the West Philadelphia High school, and immediately thereafter Dr. M. J. Locke, president of the school board, will present the diplomas to the graduating class of thirty-one members. First honors this year were awarded to John Franklin Smith and second honors to Rejina Brandman. The list of graduates is as follows:

Harry Edward Brandman, Regina Brandman, Frederick Carl Cronemiller, Ora Miller Cronister, Vida Davis, Veronica Mildred Fisher, Florence Elsie Gray, Irene Margaret Gross, Bertha Christine Haverstein, Nellie Katharine Hunzinger, Rachel Elaine Lambert, Sara Elizabeth Letzsch, William Richard Malone, Abraham Lincoln McGinley, Eleanor Howard McSuley, Margaret Cecelia Pendleton, Mary Charlotte Reed, Malcolm Lee Rhine-smith, Maude Amelia Rocky, Ann Elizabeth Shaugnessy, Donald Waldo Smith, John Franklin Smith, Jr., Marion Virginia Smith, Russell James Stickler, Robert Bruce Taylor, Jr., Elizabeth Stuart Taylor, Joseph Heates Wagner, Samuel Richard Waite, Harry Woods Wetzel, Malcolm Lingie Weitzler, Frances Elizabeth Willard.

AT STATE COLLEGE.

The State College commencement began informally last Friday with the customary athletic contests, but there was a marked contrast between the crowd this year and those of former years. The baccalaureate sermon on Sunday was delivered by Rev. Hugh Black, of New York city.

The graduation exercises took place on Monday when the diplomas were awarded the class of 388 members. Tuesday was alumni day and the end of the commencement. A feature of the week was the purchase of $800 worth of Liberty Bonds by the Seniors with the money that had been raised to build a limestone gateway at the entrance to the college grounds. Included in the list of graduates were the following from Centre county:

L. D. Whiting, Joseph Ceader and C. E. Garbrick, Bellefonte; J. W. Emigh, J. D. Files and H. L. Lichten-thaler, Philipsburg; L. E. Markle, Hubersburg; O. D. Henry, Jacksonville; David Kessler, Millheim; Sarah L. Pattee, R. E. Strohecker, Mario Cordero, Martha Conner and Mariana Rosich, State College.

Auto Truck Fund of Troop L.

Harry C. Valentine, treasurer, reports the names of the following subscribers to the Auto Truck fund for Troop L. These subscriptions are all the more gratifying inasmuch as they were entirely voluntary, and without personal solicitation, but in prompt recognition of the Troop's pressing need of the truck.

Table listing names and amounts for the Auto Truck fund: James R. Hughes $5.00, Col. J. L. Spangler 5.00, J. S. McLaughlin 2.00, H. S. Linn 2.00, A. G. Morris 5.00, Anna J. Valentine 5.00, Caroline M. Valentine 5.00, Andrew McNitt 2.00, St. John's Episcopal Guild 10.00, Rev. M. DeFue Maynard 1.00, H. C. Valentine 2.00, Mrs. E. B. Callaway 1.00.

Total to date $45.00

While no concerted campaign has been made throughout Centre county for the sale of Liberty Bonds Centre county has displayed considerable patriotism in buying them, if the estimate given by a certain Bellefonte gentleman yesterday is any way near correct. He stated that while he had no late definite figures he estimated that anywhere from $600,000 to $1,000,000 would be taken in the entire county.

NOONAN.—Following an illness that dated back a number of months James Augustus Noonan, landlord of the Brant house, died at 1:30 o'clock p. m., on Tuesday.

He was a son of Dominic and Elizabeth Noonan and was born at Exe-Mann on April 27th, 1865, hence was 52 years, 1 month and 15 days old. Practically his entire life was spent in Bellefonte and he had been landlord of the Brant house for thirteen years. He was a member of St. John's Catholic church, a member of the Logan Fire company and the Bellefonte Lodge of Moose. Mr. Noonan was a good citizen and a man who was upright and honest in all his dealings with his fellowmen.

There were two outstanding characteristics in the life of the deceased that should serve as a lesson to living men of more ambition. His integrity was unimpeachable, in fact he carried to extremes his scrupulous honesty and his insistence on dealing fair with all men. His devotion to his family was rare and it has had its very proper reward. He is gone, but if there were nothing else that he had to leave the memory of these two cardinal principles of real manhood that he possessed would be a comforting heritage to those who are bereaved and a splendid fingerboard for others of us to follow.

On May 16th, 1893, he was united in marriage to Miss Louise Gleason, in St. Mary's Catholic church, Tioga, and she survives with two daughters, the Misses Margaret and Geraldine Noonan, both at home. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Mary Brown, of Howard street.

Funeral services will be held in St. John's Catholic church at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning by Rev. Father Gallagher, after which burial will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

MILLER.—Mrs. Sarah Bathurst Miller, widow of Ellsworth Miller, died at her home near the Forge at nine o'clock on Sunday morning after just one week's illness with pleurisy and stomach trouble.

She was a daughter of Thomas and Charlotta Bathurst and was born at Curtin, being fifty-four years old last September. She was married to Mr. Miller over thirty years ago and most of her life since had been spent near the Forge. She was a member of the Free Methodist church and had many friends who mourn her death.

Mr. Miller met death in an accident about two years ago but surviving her are the following children: Mrs. Mary Mackay, of Snow Shoe; Mrs. Carrie Garbrick, of Milesburg; Mrs. Alice Watson, of Tyrone; David, at home; Mrs. Agnes Gordon, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Ella Saylor, of Bellefonte; Alfred and Zebulum, at home. She also leaves three brothers and one sister, Calvin Bathurst, of Curtin; Rev. Zeb. W., of Retort; Edward, of Niagara Falls, and Mrs. Jeremiah Hinds, of Hecla.

Funeral services were held in the Forge church at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon by the Free Methodist minister, after which burial was made in the Sunnyside cemetery. The family desires to thank all friends for their assistance in their bereavement.

CROSBY.—W. D. Crosby Esq., a well known attorney of Philipsburg, died at seven o'clock on Tuesday morning following an illness of over a year with a complication of diseases.

William Dickey Crosby was a son of David W. and Catharine Crosby and was born at Oxford, Pa., on June 10th, 1853, making his age 64 years and 2 days. He was a graduate of Lafayette College and the law school of Ann Arbor, Mich. In 1886 he located in Philipsburg and entered upon the practice of his profession. Several years ago he associated with him M. Ward Fleming, under the partnership name of Crosby & Fleming, and since that time most of the business of the firm had been done by the latter.

On July 7th, 1887, he married Miss Jessie Morrow who survives with two sons, D. Harold and Thomas. Three children preceded him to the grave. He was a lifelong member of the Presbyterian church and Rev. R. P. Miller had charge of the funeral services which were held at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, burial being made in the Philipsburg cemetery.

RESIDES.—Charles Resides, a well known resident of Sandy Ridge, died on Friday night following an illness of several weeks with a complication of diseases.

He was a son of the late John Resides and was born at Sandy Ridge thirty-eight years ago. He worked at the Sandy Ridge brick works all his life and was always a faithful employee. Surviving him are his mother, two brothers and two sisters, namely: Henry, of Derry; William, Mrs. Amos Garland and Mrs. Greeley Reese, all of Sandy Ridge. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, burial being made in the Philipsburg cemetery.

SOURBECK.—John Sourbeck Jr., died at the Bellefonte hospital shortly after two o'clock yesterday afternoon, where he had been under treatment for two weeks. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Sourbeck and was born in Bellefonte forty-four years ago. He is survived by his wife and six children; also his father and one sister, Mrs. Bellringer, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Arrangements for the funeral have not been made at this writing.

Subscribe for the "Watchman".

MURPHY.—James L. Murphy, one of the best known and most highly esteemed citizens of Ferguson township, passed away at his home in Philipsburg last Friday night after a brief illness as the result of a stroke of apoplexy. He was stricken on May 30th while attending Memorial services.

He was a son of James C. and Rebecca Murphy and was born in Pine Grove Mills on September 29th, 1852. He was educated in the Pine Grove Mills public schools and the Academy. He was a resident of Pine Grove Mills all his life and had a large circle of acquaintances. He was a member of the Methodist church for many years and held the offices of steward and trustee. He was also a charter member of Tussey Council No. 515, I. O. A. M., and for twenty-three years was the financial secretary of the order, every year rendering strict accounting of all monetary transactions. In recognition of his services the Council passed lengthy resolutions of condolence. In politics he was a staunch Democrat and always a faithful supporter of his party.

On February 10th, 1902, he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Eleanor Shultz, of Columbia county, who survives with two sisters, Mrs. D. Y. Brouse, of Houtzdale, and Mrs. Mary Orr, of Florida.

Funeral services were held at his late home at two o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Rev. Victor Nearhoff officiated and was assisted by Revs. Fleck, Long and Kapp. Burial was made in the new cemetery.

DUBBS.—Following an illness of many weeks with a complication of diseases John G. Dubbs, the well known implement dealer of Bellefonte, died at his home in Bush's Addition at eight o'clock last Saturday morning.

He was a son of Jeremiah and Elizabeth Dubbs and was born in Pennsylvania on January 11th, 1849. His early life was spent in the locality of his birth but many years ago he located in Bellefonte and engaged in the farm implement business in which he was quite successful. He was a member of the Reformed church, of the I. O. O. F. and Encampment. He was quite active and prominent in the councils of the Republican party in Centre county and had served as tax collector and as a school director of Spring township. He was a good citizen and will be missed in the community.

On September 23rd, 1867, he was united in marriage to Miss Eliza Ulrich who survives with one daughter and a son, Miss Grace Dubbs, at home, and John E. Adams Express agent, in Bellefonte. He also leaves four brothers, Thomas R. and James, of Philipsburg; A. G. Dubbs, of Bellefonte; and George W., of Port Matilda.

Funeral services were held at his late home at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon by Rev. Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt, after which burial was made in the Union cemetery.

SHAFER.—Mrs. Louisa S. Shaffer, wife of William B. Shaffer, died very suddenly of heart failure at her home at Zion on Thursday of last week. She had been in apparently the best of health up until a few minutes before her death.

Deceased was a daughter of Daniel and Magdalena Smith Grim and was born at Madisonburg on January 15th, 1840, at the time of her death being 77 years, 4 months and 22 days old. Her girlhood life was spent in the community in which she was born but most of her married life was spent in Nittany valley where she made a host of warm friends who sincerely mourn her death. She was a faithful member of the Lutheran church all her life.

Surviving her are her husband and eight children, namely: Albert, Mrs. Hiram Lutz, Mrs. Gustave Weiland and Mrs. John Corman, all of Zion; Newton Shaffer, of Lock Haven; Mrs. William Rothrock, of Williamsport; Mrs. Luther Musser, of State College, and Miss Cora, of Philadelphia. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Lewis Corman, of Hartleton.

Funeral services were held at her late home at ten o'clock on Monday morning by Rev. W. J. Shultz, assisted by Rev. J. W. Bright, after which burial was made in the Zion cemetery.

STINE.—Mrs. Rachael M. Stine, widow of Washington Stine, died on Friday at the home of her niece, Mrs. Harry Irvin, on south Water street, of chronic nephritis. She left Bellefonte about the first of April and went to Allentown where she spent two months with her daughter. Returning to Bellefonte about two weeks ago she went to the home of her niece, where her death ensued last Friday.

She was the daughter of Elijah and Mary Swaney Gette and was born on March 29th, 1852, hence at her death was 65 years, 2 months and 9 days old. Her husband died many years ago but surviving her are a daughter and a son, Mrs. E. F. Persing, of Allentown, and Ernest P. Stine, of Clay Centre, Kan. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. James T. Chambers, of DuBois. Most of her married life was spent at Pleasant Gap but the past eighteen years she had lived with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Richard. She was a faithful member of the Lutheran church from girlhood.

Funeral services were held at the Irvin home on Monday afternoon after which burial was made in the Pleasant Gap cemetery.

12c large loaves of bread for sale at Cohen & Co.

RUMBERGER.—Mrs. Susan Rumberger, widow of the late Joseph Rumberger, died at her home in Philipsburg on Wednesday morning following an illness of seven months with a complication of diseases.

Her maiden name was Susan A. Bean and she was born in Halfmoon valley, being eighty-two years old last Saturday. Her husband died in 1901 in Benner township but surviving her are the following children: Mrs. John Moore, of Tyrone; Mrs. Annie Clark, of State College; Chester, of Philipsburg, and Miss Grace, at home. She also leaves three brothers and one sister, namely: Alvin A. Bean, of Indiana county; A. Jacob and Daniel H. Bean and Mrs. Emma Martin, of Pittsburgh. Burial will be made in Gray's cemetery near Stormstown tomorrow morning.

GRAZIER.—George Grazier, one of the best known farmers, dairymen and fruit growers of the Warriors-mark valley, died very suddenly at seven o'clock on Tuesday evening as the result of a stroke of paralysis. He was a son of David and Nancy Grazier and was born on April 29th, 1855. He is survived by his wife and four children, as well as six brothers and sisters. Burial will be made this afternoon.

County Field Day Grows in Proportions.

Arrangements for a record breaking crowd are being made at State College for tomorrow (Saturday,) when the county basket picnic and Field Day is to be held. Advance indications point to a large turnout. Letters have been received by the farmers, the Grangers, the Sunday schools and others in every part of the county. Large posters are displayed throughout the county in prominent places.

Dr. Ed. Lewis, director of physical education at the College is working on the athletic program, planning to care for a large number of people. The games will be arranged so that one group may proceed from one game to another making a complete round of a wide number of interesting sports. Miss Pond, of State College, will have charge of the leaders of the girls games. The program starts at 9:30 o'clock in the morning and for an hour and a half the time will be given over to athletic contest group games, including tag, line and ring variations, volley ball, tennis tournaments and play ground baseball and others. At 11 o'clock the entire assemblage will meet at the open air theatre on the front campus at which time there will be addresses by Dean Watts, of the School of Agriculture; Laird Holmes, who is executive chairman of the agricultural commission of the Public Safety committee; C. R. Neff, of Centre Hall, master of the county Grange and others. The Ferguson township band will care for the music. The talks will be along patriotic lines, addresses particularly to the farmers and producers of the county. The basket picnic dinner will take place in the college orchard on the west campus, where hot coffee will be provided by the committee in charge of the days' program.

Doc. Lewis, Weston, Horner, Miss Margaret Hiller and Miss Pond will be in charge of the afternoon events on new Beaver field where there will take place the athletic contests, including 50 and 100 yard dashes, relay races, broad jump, high jump, a tug of war and many other features which will add to the enjoyment of the attendance. Following the athletic meet will be the farm inspection, conducted by the agricultural department of the College. Mr. C. L. Goodling, manager of the college farms, will have charge of the inspection trip, which will include the experimental fertilizer plots, the poultry farm, the experimental orchards, the live stock and dairy barn and other places of interest to the agricultural producers of the county. A similar day was planned last year, but due to rain was postponed. In case of rain Saturday, the picnic will be held on Monday at the same time. Various Sunday schools of the county and public schools will have representative teams for the athletic contests. The program is complete and will furnish ample opportunity for the resident farmers to secure a profitable day's outing before the busy harvest season sets in.

Prize Debate at the Academy.

The annual prize debate took place at the Bellefonte Academy last Friday afternoon. The question discussed was, "Resolved, That the United States government should control the production and distribution, wholesale and retail prices, of all food supplies until the end of the war." The affirmative side was taken by Frank Anderson, of Philadelphia; Daniel Josephson, of Camden, N. J., and James Farrell, of Waynesburg. Those who argued in the negative were Frederick Garfield, of Jamestown, N. Y.; James Pollock, of Waynesburg, and Foster Cooper, of Bradford. The judges were G. R. Spigelmyer, John Bullock and W. D. Zerby Esq., and they decided in favor of the affirmative, awarding first prize of $10 to James Farrell and second prize of $5 to Frederick Garfield.

On Wednesday Sheriff George H. Yarnell, accompanied by J. Thomas Mitchell Esq., and Edward F. Gehret, motored to Harrisburg and delivered in person to Governor Brumbaugh complete returns of Centre county's registration, which included not only the return sheets, a full list of the men registered and such like data, but also a complete duplicate set of every registration card. The sheriff and party will return to-day.

Shoemaker—Snyder.—William Carey Shoemaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Shoemaker, who live on the Cronover farm near State College, and Miss Mildred May Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Snyder, of Petersburg, were married at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday evening of last week by Rev. W. L. Lyle, of the Presbyterian church. The event was one of considerable importance in the Snyder household as at the same time another of their daughters, Miss Bertha Snyder, was married to Chester Stryker by Rev. Merrill Williams. Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker will make their home on the farm near State College where the bridegroom is assisting his father.

DIED ON HER WEDDING TRIP.

It is not often that the marriage and death of an individual is carried in the same paper, but it is our unpleasant duty to record the fact that the above named bride of Mr. Shoemaker died in the Jewish hospital, Philadelphia, on Sunday. She was hurried sick at Atlantic City and was taken to the hospital, Philadelphia, where it was found that she was suffering with an acute attack of appendicitis. An operation was performed but she died shortly thereafter. Deceased was twenty-two years old. The remains were taken to Petersburg for burial, which will be made to-day.

Kelley—Healey.—M. D. Kelley, of Snow Shoe, and Miss Agnes B. Healey, of Erie, were married at nine o'clock last Saturday morning in St. Patrick's Catholic church, Erie, by the pastor, Rev. Father Stephen Caulley. They were attended by Miss Anne Healey, a sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, and P. L. Kelley, of Snow Shoe, as best man.

The bride wore a traveling suit of lavender with seal collar and a picture hat of velvet and maline. She wore a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley and pink Killarney roses. The bridesmaid wore a tailor suit with a picture hat and taupe neck scarf, with a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and Killarney roses.

Following the ceremony the bridal party had a wedding breakfast at the Lawrence hotel after which Mr. and Mrs. Kelley departed on a wedding trip to eastern cities. Returning they will reside at Snow Shoe, where Mr. Kelley is a prominent coal operator.

Stine—Ross.—The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Ross, at Warriorsmark, was the scene of a pretty wedding last Wednesday evening when their daughter, Miss Edna M. Ross, was united in marriage to John G. Stine. The ceremony, which took place at 7:30 o'clock in the evening in the presence of a large number of guests, was performed by Rev. J. C. Moses, of the United Brethren church, the ring service being used. The bridal couple were attended by Miss Mary M. Dickson, of Tyrone, and S. E. Stine, a brother of the bridegroom.

The bride has for the past four years been one of Huntingdon county's efficient school teachers. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Abednego Stine, of Centre Line, and is a progressive and successful farmer, both Mr. and Mrs. Stine having many friends in the western part of Centre county. Following a brief wedding trip they will locate on a farm in Warriorsmark valley.

Frank—Loeb.—A wedding that was very much of a surprise to the people of Bellefonte was that on Monday afternoon of Abraham Frank, a prominent merchant of Nashville, Tenn., and Mrs. Josephine A. Loeb, of Bellefonte, the ceremony being performed by Rabbi M. J. S. Abels, at his home in Altoona. There were no attendants. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Frank departed for Pittsburgh where they will spend a few days with Mrs. Frank's brother, Mr. Newman, then proceed to the bridegroom's home in Nashville.

Mrs. Loeb during the past year or so had been interested with her sister in the Newman's Ladies' shop in the Aiken building and now that she has departed Miss Hannah Newman will conduct the shop until she decides whether to sell out or not.

Schindler—Prince.—A pretty little wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schindler, in Milesburg on Wednesday evening, June 6th, when their son, Nevin E. Schindler and Myra A. Prince, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Prince, of Curtin, were united in marriage by the United Evangelical pastor, Rev. J. Fred Bingman, in the presence of the immediate families of the bride and groom and a few invited guests. They were attended by Miss Caroline Schindler, a sister of the bridegroom, and Mr. Clair Prince, a brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony a bountiful supper was served. May their voyage over life's sea be pleasant and prosperous. Their many friends extend congratulations.

Williams—Lyon.—Harry I. Williams, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Miss Grace A. Lyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lyon, of Bellefonte, were united in marriage on Saturday afternoon at the parsonage of the First Methodist church in Altoona by the pastor, Rev. Edgar R. Heckman. The bride is quite well and favorably known in Bellefonte. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John I. Williams, of Lemont, and is also well known in Bellefonte having at one time worked as solicitor for the Bell telephone company in this place.

Nearhoff—Blair.—Paul William Nearhoff, of Vail, and Miss Blanche Mame Blair, of Fillmore, were married at noon on Wednesday at the home of the bride's grandfather, Mr. F. P. Blair, of Howard street, by Rev. W. M. B. Glanding, of the Lutheran church. The only witnesses were the bride's grandfather and her mother, Mrs. J. M. Blair. Mr. and Mrs. Nearhoff will reside at Vail.

BIRTHS.

Young—On May 19, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Williams Young, of Spring township, a daughter, Alice Young.

White—On May 15, to Mr. and Mrs. George Frederick White, of Benner township, a daughter, Sara Luella White.

Harter—On May 17, to Mr. and Mrs. John R. Harter, of Bellefonte, a son, James Robert Harter.

Ream—On May 12, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Ream, of Spring township, a daughter, Dorothy Arlene.

Moyer—On May 15, to Mr. and Mrs. William E. Moyer, of Spring township, a son, Bud Clifton Moyer.

Rice—On May 21, to Mr. and Mrs. James O. Rice, Bellefonte, a daughter, Elsie Eloise Rice.

Beamer—On May 2, to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Beamer, of Bellefonte, a son, Charles LeRoy Beamer.

Justice—On May 13, to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Justice, of Spring Twp., a son, Homer Gilbert Justice.

Immel—On May 27, to Mr. and Mrs. James T. Immel, of Spring Twp., a son, John Calvin Immel.

Trammel—On May 30, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Trammel, of Bellefonte, a daughter, Adrianna.

Haupt—On May 12, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haupt, of Bellefonte, a son.

Harris—On Tuesday, June 5, to Mr. and Mrs. John Tonner Harris, of Harrisburg, a daughter.

Carpeneto—On June 8th, to Mr. and Mrs. George Carpeneto, of Bellefonte, a daughter.

Morrow—On June 12, to Mr. and Mrs. J. Emmet Morrow, of Detroit, Mich., a daughter. Mrs. Morrow is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Straub.

EAST BRUSH VALLEY.

On Tuesday Miss Alice Weber visited at the home of O. F. Stover.

C. E. Duck & Co., of Madisonburg, are baling hay in our neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Yearick transacted business in Millheim Monday.

C. C. Brungard, of Loganton, transacted business in our midst Monday.

H. A. Meyer and family visited at the home of W. E. Bair, at Smulton, on last Sunday.

The Robinson circus at Lock Haven was attended by many spectators from our valley.

Wilbur R. Brungard, who was employed at Pittsburgh, is again under the parental roof.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gilbert most royally entertained relatives from Sugar Valley on Sunday.

Warm weather and plenty of rain are being appreciated at this time, and vegetation seems quite encouraging.

Willard Burd, of Aaronsburg, enjoyed a farmer's dinner in our valley last Saturday, at the home of W. A. Winters.

Mrs. Alfred Reed and daughter Frances, of Mifflinburg, spent last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mowery.

Paul Hackman passed his 23rd milestone in life on last Wednesday, and a pleasant surprise was tendered him that evening.

One day last week Thomas B. Stitzer returned to this place, after a month's visit with his brother at Spring Mills, who figured in an accident some time ago.

Miss Anna Yearick and A. S. Winkleblech and family, of this place, spent the first day of the week at Smulton in quest of good dinners, and no one reported a disappointment.

The Reformed Sunday school of this place will render a Children's day program on Sunday morning at 10:30, and the United Evangelical Sunday school will render their bit at 7:30 p. m. The latter is entitled "Earth's Fairest Flowers."

The Junior class of Miles township High school contemplate holding a festival and box social tomorrow evening. Good music and the usual refreshments will be important features. On the same evening the local Lodge will perform their ceremony of memorial. Come one and all and make the town of Rebersburg better by being in it.

PLEASANT GAP ITEMS.

The M. E. Sunday school will hold Children's day services on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Ulrich, of Spring Mills, spent the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. John Eckel.

Fred Mulfinger, who had been in Chicago for several years, returned home last week.

Mrs. Knepp and children, of Curwensville, are spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Lester Gill.

Mrs. Joseph Miller, of Bellefonte, spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Tressler, at this place.

Mrs. Katherine Hunter, of Pittsburgh, is being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Miller.

After spending several weeks at this place Mrs. Oscar Zong and little son returned to their home at Hazleton.

Mrs. Frank Irvin and family have returned to their home at Niagara Falls, after spending a month with her father.

Mr. and Mrs. John Noll and Jean Fatkins attended the commencement exercises at the Loysville Orphan's home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rimmey and family, of Jersey Shore, visited over Saturday and Sunday with friends and relatives at this place.

District Attorney James C. Furst opened his camp on Fishing creek yesterday.