Democratic Watchman.

Belletonte, Pa., June 15, 1917.

To Correspondents.-No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-Naturalization court will be held next Monday, when more than twenty applications will be disposed troopers thirty-six strong left home on Friday and camped the first night

-Children's day services will be held in St. John's Reformed church next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The congregation and Sunday school will unite in using the serivce, "The Church of the Word."

-There will be a meeting of the guarantors of Bellefonte Chautauqua, at the Y. M. C. A., Friday evening, June 15th, at 8:30 o'clock. Mr. Alden Jones, of Swarthmore, will be present and a full attendance is desired.

-Walter H. Young, who on May 24th was stabbed in the neck by Thomas Menchio, died in the Cottage State hospital, Philipsburg, on Tuesday evening. Menchio is in the Centre county jail and will now have to stand trial for murder.

-The county board of managers of farmers' institutes met at the court house on Tuesday and selected as the places for holding farmers' institutes the coming season Spring Mills, Centre Hall and Port Matilda. The dates for the institutes will be announced later.

-During the past week the Bellefonte Camp of Maccabees paid over to Mrs. David Miller a check for $1,000, being the amount of insurance held by her late husband in that order. Mr. Miller, by the way, in addition to his real and personal property, left just $7,000 life insurance.

-Sidney Krumrine, the State College druggist who went into voluntary bankruptcy two weeks ago, went down to Philadelphia this week and on Wednesday went to work as manager of Crumble Bros. drug store, corner of Allegheny and North Broad streets. His family will follow him in the near future.

-Miss Eleanor McSuley enterclass of the Bellefonte High school at her home on Tuesday evening. There were various games, music and their departure on Sunday, encamprefreshments and all had a very enjoyable time, though the class missed the absent members who have responded to the call of their country.

-About one hundred farmers for Capt. Boal's hospitality. and neighbors and about fifty women gathered at the Charley Homan farm on the Branch Wednesday and had an old fashioned barn raising. The barn was 40x60 feet and the raising was bossed by W. P. Ward, the builder. A fine dinner under the trees in the orchard was the social feature of the did minstrel performance for the ben-

ENTERTAINED AT CAMP BOAL. -Our ladies' wash skirts at $1.25 and $1.50 are surely beauties for the Five Troops of Cavalry Guests of money .--- Cohen & Co. Capt. Boal Over Sunday.

at Pennsylvania Furnace. The Lock

Haven troopers thirty-two strong, and the Lewisburg troop spent Friday night at Penn's Cave, while the Sunbury troop spent the night at to Boalsburg, all the troopers reach-

All the troopers showed up splendidly, but Troop L was accorded the honor of making the best showing. Later in the afternoon there was a sham battle between the machine gun troop entrenched, and Troops K and M on the offensive, the latter being driven off by the machine gunners. Then just to show the cavalrymen what a deadly thing a machine gun is the gunners did some target work with real cartridges at a distance of six hundred yards and the men showed good results for the training they have had. The rain of Saturday evening spoiled the illuminated sham battle planned for that time, although a small detachment of the troopers engaged in a rocket and hand grenade manoeuvres.

the visiting soldiers.

combat. The Lemont band furnished was attended by quite a number of evening. The other troopers all took

All in all it was a most successful camp and the soldiers were unanimous in their expressions of thanks

The Academy Minstrels.

instead of going home yesterday as was their privilege, having completed to remain over to repeat thair splening for the night enroute home.

ing there by the dinner hour.

-At the graduation exercises on Five troops of cavalry of the first Tuesday of the Massachusetts Instibatallion of the First Pennsylvania tute of Technology, president Richcavalry and the Boal machine gun ard Cockburn Maclaurir. conferred on troop were guests of Capt. Theodore Francis E. Thomas, of Bellefonte, the Davis Boal, at Camp Boal at Boalsdegree of Bachelor of Science. The burg, over Sunday. The troops prestitle of his graduation thesis was ent were Troop B, of Tyrone; Troop "An experimental investigation of L, of Bellefonte; Troop K, of Lock the effect of time of mixing on the Haven; Troop M, of Lewisburg, and strength of gravel concrete.' Troop I, of Sunbury. The Tyrone

-Troop L received just $250.00 as its share of the receipts from the exhibition of the motion picture, "Civilization," at the Scenic last Fritate. day afternoon. This is indeed a very gratifying amount and very agreeably surprised Capt. Curtin when the 24-1t

Woodward. Troop L, twenty-eight final figures were summed up on Wedstrong, left here about seven o'clock nesday night. Manager T. Clayton phia. on Saturday morning and rode direct Brown, of the Scenic, is also to be commended upon his patriotic generosity in accepting nothing from the Saturday afternoon there was an exhibition drill and review, the reactual expense, every cent of the bal- dercoffer. viewing officer being Major Fetzer. ance being turned over to Capt. Curtin for the auto truck fund.

-Three flag raisings took place home from attending commencement at in the county the past week. Two of State College.

them were on Sunday afternoon, the -Mrs. J. A. Aiken and her daughter, first being at the Lutheran church in Miss Aiken, returned Monday from a six this place, where Prof. Sloop was the week's visit in Ohio, and with Mr. and principal orator, though the exercises Mrs. George B. Johnson and their family. incident to the raising were quite in Beaver Falls.

lengthy. Later in the afternoon a spending the summer at Howard, came flag was raised at the round house of here the after part of last week, expecting the Central Railroad of Pennsylvato be at the Bush house while in Bellenia, at which speeches were made by fonte for two weeks. Rev. W. K. McKinney, Burgess -Miss Maude Motz left Tuesday for her Blanchard, Col. Taylor and J. Kennedy Johnston Esq. On Tuesday evening a large flag was raised at Lemont at which Col. Taylor was the speaker. visit in Hopewell, Pa. -Philip Taylor, the youngest son of Col. and Mrs. H. S. Taylor, had the music for Saturday afternoon's a bad fail on Monday evening and was very fortunate in escaping as with Mrs. Clowes, in Richmond. The social part of the affair was lucky as he did. With some other Saturday evening when a dance was boys he was playing soldier and Philheld in the gun troop armory which ip climbed on a small building on the ture on Monday, going to Philadelphia to rear of the Taylor lot. The building spend a week or so with her sister before had a tin roof and he slipped off, fall-There was a parade drill on Sun- ing on his head on a pile of brick. He day morning but the march to State sustained a cut on the forehead three Miss Mary McQuistion, will leave tomor-

scheduled for the afternoon had to be and quite a number of bruises on the part of next week visiting with Mr. Mccancelled on account of the hard rain, head and body. But he was game so that the troopers spent the most of | through it all, for after being picked the time under cover. Troop L left up and taken into the house, with the tained the members of the graduating there at four o'clock in the afternoon blood streaming down his face, he and arrived home at seven in the said: "Mother, I'm wounded at last."

-Announcement has been made of the engagement of Prof. John A. Hunter, head of the department of mechanical engineering at the University of Colorada, and Miss Alice Downing, of Denver, Col., a graduate of the class of '09, University of Colorada and who later took an advanced daughter. The Bellefonte Academy students degree at the University of Chicago and during the past two years has been one of the instructors at the Un- coming here for a farewell visit before bie Noll; going from here to their future last week Col. J. L. Spangler, a memtheir examinations that day, decided iversity of Colorada. Prof. Hunter, leaving Tuesday for Iowa and Illinois, home in Altoona. better known among his college asso- where she will visit with relatives during ciates as "Uncle John," is a son of the the greater part of the summer. Mrs.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mrs. George O. Benner, of Centre Hall, was a Bellefonte visitor on Wednesday. -Miss Ida Green is anticipating a visit from her brother and his' wife, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Green, of Erie

-David Bohn, one of Linden Hall's repesentative citizens, was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Friday. -Col. William Teller went to Williams port Monday to enter the hospital, where he will be under the care of Dr. Haskins while recovering from an operation Tues-

-Miss Isabelle Huston, daughter of the late Dr. J. H. Huston, of Clintondale, was in Bellefonte last Friday on business connected with the settling of her father's es-

-Miss Anna Massey, who spent the winter in Bellefonte with her aunts, the Misses Powers, while attending school, will leave today for her home in Philadel-

--Mrs. Joseph Undercoffer went to Carnegie a week ago to be present at the christening of her grand-daughter, the receipts for the day aside from his only child of Mr. and Mrs. William Unday.

-Miss Anna Gill, of Philipsburg, spent Wednesday in Bellefonte as a guest of Miss Mary McQuistion, while on her way

--Mrs. S. Cameron' Burnside, who is home in Middleburg, after spending the greater part of a week with Mrs. Robert Sechler. Miss Motz was returning from a

-Mrs. John M. Dale has returned to week. Bellefonte and opened her house for the summer, after spending the winter on Long Island, with Mrs. Magargle, and --Miss Gertrude O'Connell, head -milli-going to Vermont for the summer season. -S. A. McQuistion and his daughter, College and exhibition drill there inches long, a small cut on the chin row for Sunbury, expecting to spend a > Quistion's nieces, Mrs. Keefer and Mrs. Smith. -Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cole, with their little daughter and a party of friends, motored to Bellefonte from Lewistown on Saturday and spent the night in Belle-Heverley, returning home on Sunday.

-Orrin Laird, of Minneapolis, came here from Tyrone Tuesday to visit for a short time with some of his old friends, he having been a resident of Bellefonte a numway to Atlantic City to join his wife and -Mrs. Ella Smith, of Altoona, spent the week-end with her father, Joel Johnson,

-Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Runkle are enteraining Miss McKendrick, of Curwensville,

-Forrest Tanner has accepted a posiion in Tyrone, leaving Monday to begin his work. -Harry J. Mueller, former forester of Harrisburg, was in Bellefonte on Monday and Tuesday.

-Mrs. Dollinger, of Ashtabula, Ohio, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haag.

-Miss Mary Hirlinger, of Philipsburg, has been a guest of Mrs. J. Y. Dale within the past week.

-Mrs. Roy Brandon, of Youngstown, Ohio, arrived in Bellefonte yesterday morning for a visit with friends. -Miss Harrison, of Wilkes-Barre, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Reynolds, on Bishop street.

-Mrs. Howard Spangler, of New York city, is visiting here with her mother, Mrs. Agnes McCullough, of Bishop street.

-Mrs. Charles Freeman and little this week of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh N. Crider. Monday owing to the death of Mrs. Hart- the waters of Minnow run. ranft's sister.

-Roger Willard arrived here from the tion with his parents and other relatives in the State.

-Mr. and Mrs. Rush Yarnell, of Detroit. Mich., and their daughter, Ida, are guests of Mr. Yarnell's parents, Sheriff and Mrs. George Yarnell.

-Mrs. Elizabeth Hull, having accepted the position made vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Tuten, is arranging to leave Bellefonte late this month.

-Thomas R. Dubbs, of Philipsburg, and his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Johnson, of Tyrone, were in Bellefonte Tuesday for the funeral of the late John G. Dubbs. -Mrs. A. M. Singhiser will make her home with her brother, Robert Woodring, on Howard street. Mrs. Singhiser's furniture was shipped here from Renovo this

-Mrs. Emma Decker and her daughter, Miss Laura Decker, who had been visiting with Miss Joanna and Miles Decker. returned to their home in Strausburg, Fri- the mission boards; Sunday school day.

--Miss Grace Vallimont went to Altoona boards were considered. The Classis Wednesday as a representative from the adopted strong resolutions on tem-Epworth League of the Methodist church perance and advocated nation-wide to the convention in session there this week.

-Chauncey F. York motored from Michigan last week for commencement and to Lancaster, gave a masterly address join Mrs. York and their son, who with Miss Rebie Noll will accompany him to Detroit upon his return.

-Elwood Breisch, of Cheyenne, Wyoming, and his daughter, Miss Sue Breisch, have been guests for the week of Mrs. fonte as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Breisch's brother. David Washburn. A part gave a review of the mission work of the time was spent at State College.

-Dr. and Mrs. O. S. Brown, of Warren, were week-end guests of Mrs. Brown's sis- Centre Hall, as its stated clerk and ter, Mrs. Claude Cook, stopping here on elected Prof. C. W. Oldt, of Lewistheir way home from the American Med- town, R. F. D. 4, treasurer. Classis ber of years ago. Mr. Laird was on his ical association convention in New York. adjourned Wednesday evening to -Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Kessler, whose meet next May at a time and place to wedding took place in Bellefonte two be chosen by the officers.

weeks ago, were guests last Sunday of Col. Emanuel Noll and daughter, Miss Re-daughter Miss

-Being summoned to Washington ber of the National Council of De--Mrs. William Boyce, of Clearfield, and fense, was selected as one of the mem-

-----Miss Nellie Barner was taking lessons in horseback riding about ten o'clock on Monday night on west Linn street and in going around Rhoads' corner the horse she was riding slipped and fell, Miss Barner falling un-

-Mrs. E. C. Tuten, who has been

-Pierre de Lagarde Boal, son of 24-tf

Capt. Theodore Davis Boal, of Boals-

burg, was on Monday commissioned a captain in the aviation branch of Big Claim for Damages.

On Monday morning Mrs. Annie Hoffman, in behalf of herself and three children, through her, attorneys Miller & Hartswick, of Clearfield, filed notice in the prothonotary's office at Clearfield of a suit against the Montola Water company, of Osceola, for damages in the sum of $20,000 for the death of the husband and father, William Hoffman, son of John B. Hoffman, of South Philipsburg, who was one of the victims of the typhoid fever epidemic at Osceola Mills early this spring.

The statement filed recites that the home of the Hoffmans is in Howard, this county. William Hoffman was a locomotive engineer employed by the Pennsylvania railroad company and that on January 20th he was sent to Osceola to haul a freight train and while there lived in a cabin car of the daughter, of Altoona, have been guests railroad company and used water supplied by the Montola Water company -Mr and Mrs. H. J. Hartranft have which was taken from the reservoir been in Watsontown this week, going there which it is alleged was polluted from

This is the second suit against the water company growing out of the Canal Zone Saturday to spend his vaca- typhoid epidemic which swept the Osceola section early in the spring. Mrs. James Kenna also has a suit pending for $20,000 damages for the death of her husband, in which case the allegations are similar.

West Susquehanna Classis.

The West Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed church met in its 61st annual sessions in St. John's Reformed church, in Millheim, Monday evening, June 4th. The Classis was represented by twenty-four ministers, in charge of sixty-six congregations, with 6,500 members. Bellefonte was represented by the Rev. Dr. Schmidt and Harry Keller Esq. The retiring president was Rev. W. D. Donat, of Aaronsburg. The newly elected president is Rev. Norman L. Horn, of State College. The usual reports of board; educational and benevolent prohibition as a war measure. Tuesday evening Prof. George W. Richards, of the Theological Seminary at on the subject, "The Debt we Owe to the Reforms." The following evening Rev. James M. Mullen, of Baltimore, Md., who is the eastern secretary of the Board of Home Missions. within the bounds of his territory. Classis continued Rev. R. R. Jones, of day.

-So far as now known no other show is booked for Bellefonte this summer, but the Scenic will be open to be seen in this section of the State. In fact, it is no white elephant when it comes to exhibiting high-class pictures of every kind. Its large patronage is proof of its high quality.

fonte at 1:45 p. m., State College at companiment was beautiful.. 5 p. m.

-The Susquehanna Trap-shootseason, the first of which will be held at State College today (Friday.) The others will be at Milton, July 12th; Sunbury-Selinsgrove, August 16th; Jersey Shore, September 20th, and Lock Haven, October 12th. League and individual trophies will be contested for.

Howley.

Mills, claims to be the champion fisherman in Centre county to date this year. On Thursday evening of last week he caught a trout out of little Penns creek which measured twenty-seven inches and weighed seven pounds. The reason for the weight of Cross organization were Mrs. J. ed until he was back with the wages further the cause.

every evening and that is one of the of their excellent program were enand to say that the several numbers summer. best shows in the motion picture line thusiastically received is expressing the truth very mildly indeed. The overture which lasted just one any ever presented by the Academy minstrels. The end songs were espe--The National Council on De- cially well sung and the jokes kept fense has requested the railroads of the audience in convulsions of laughthe United States to curtail passen- ter. Messrs. Kelsch, Carmichael and ger train service and conserve coal Downie were unusually good with and supplies, also equipment. The their songs and dancing, while the duce passenger train service to one Orwig elicited rounds of applause. 18th, 1917. Train will leave Belle- Me at Twilight," with quartette ac-

The banjo-mandolin club composed of Donald Fulton, Walter Huntzinger's League has arranged for five one-Motter was encored again and again. The glee club also came in for a good ment. The military drill of a squad street last evening that Paul Mallory little nephews of Headmaster James officers in charge at Newport, and for and Miss Catharine Howley, who had R. Hughes. During the evening Prof. some time past has had charge of been absent from their homes here for Hughes presented letters to his ath- the initial training of a squad of one several days, have been married. letic heroes and Capt. H. Laird Cur- hundred rookies. At least that was None of the particulars are known tin thanked the audience and the what he was doing last week when he further than that they were expected Academy students for contributing wrote home, but it is possible that he to return on a night train last even- the last sum of money that assured has been ordered abroad and now on motored over from Kylertown on Friday ing. The groom is a son of Mr. and the purchase of the desired truck. his way to France, inasmuch as he and after spending the night here left on Mrs. Geo. Mailory, his bride being a The banjo-mandolin club started daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas up 'The Star Spangled Banner" and day. the entire assemblage led by the glee

-Ex-Sheriff A. B. Lee, of Spring club arose and sang as the colors were waved before them. The curtain then ed.

----Constable George Glenn attached the Geo. M. Miller show, which Haven. Along about seven o'clock, fore part of the week in Bellefonte and at the trout was that it had been fatten- It isn't "the greatest show on earth," ing for some time past on the refuse of course, but it is a wagon outfit that ley reached down to switch on the Bellefonte, Chapter. Among those made a lightning job of it in Frank jump clear of the car and just in lose so they settled instanter.

efit of the Troop L auto truck fund. late Captain John A. Hunter, of Half-That worthy purpose they accomplish- moon, and graduated from State Coled last evening in Garman's opera lege in the class of 1890. The wedhouse in the presence of fine audience, ding will be solemnized during the

and Mrs. Frank Hazel, who has been in the United States heavy artillery hour brought out talent that exceeded stationed in the Hawaiian Islands, arrived home on Wednesday night, having been given an honorable discharge owing to injuries sustained by James P. Hughes. On the trip north a the kick of a horse. Hazel, who is week ago Mrs. Irvine was accompanied by about thirty years old, enlisted less Mr. Irvine's father, who will spend the than two years ago and was shortly summer in Canada. thereafter sent to the Hawaiian Bellefonte Central railroad will re- ballads of Mr. Zimmerman and Mr. Islands where he has since been sta- has been in Bellefonte during the past will arrive in Bellefonte today from Chamtioned. While his injury is not be- week, coming here on account of the death round trip per day, effective June Mr. Hartman's song entitled, "Meet lieved to be serious it is sufficient to of her sister, Mrs. Rachel Stine, who was the Great Lakes Camp will join his family render him unfit for service. He expects to undergo an operation in the near future which physicians have advised as an almost certain relief from his trouble.

-It is a matter of military record that among the first one hundred G. Willard Hall. From there they will go share of the success of the entertain-men in the U. S. navy reserves to Mrs. Case and her family, bringing with their two daughters, the Misses Mary and volunteer for service in France was them upon their return home, Mrs. Case's Henrietta Quigley, returned from New Jcrof Troop L gave a war-like spice to Gordon Montgomery, son of Mr. and daughter, Katherine, who will spend the the program and then came one of Mrs. J. L. Montgomery, who went to summer in Bellefonte. the most attractive features of the ev- the Newport, R. I. training station ening—the military manoeuvres of upwards of two months ago. On ac- in command of a ship in the U. S. coastwise Col. Riskaworld and his four sons in count of the naval training he receiv- service, has been spending the week in the persons of James, Frederick, ed while taking a tryout at Annapo--A report was current on the Charles and Graham Hughes-four lis he was speedily recognized by the was expecting such an order most any Saturday morning, accompanied by Dr.

> in Mingle's shoe store, is suffering From Harrisburg they motored to Gettysdropped on the most successful per- with a fractured left arm as the reformance the Academy has ever stag- sult of an auto accident last Thursday evening. At the request of his wife he had taken Mrs. Howard J. Thompson on a motor ride to Lock was exhibited at Yarnell on Monday. while motoring along in the neighborthat was thrown into the creek from has been exhibiting in various parts light. As he did so the car swerved of the county. The attachment was to the left and ran over a pile of at Aaronsburg on Tuesday evening, W. Rees to recover wages due Mr. and turned the wheel to get onto the road During the five years both Mr. and Mrs. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto, and Mrs. A. R. Pomeroy, of Philadelphia, and the car swung to the other side, Mullen have been such frequent visitors twenty members were enrolled in an employees of the show. Armed with skidded and turned throwing out both in Bellefonte that they really seem as if Hayes. organization as an auxiliary to the the proper papers constable Glenn the occupants. They managed to they were natives of the town and now the necessity of extending the Red from the time the claim was present- down. Heverley fell on his left arm friends they have made here will be an atand fractured the bone between the traction to draw them back, at least occa-Thomas Mitchell and Mrs. Robert and costs and the Pomeroy's were elbow and wrist. Mrs. Thompson was sionally. For the first time in the five Mills Beach, of Bellefonte. A public boarding a train for Philadelphia. uninjured. A physician was summon- years Mrs. Mullen was not able to come mass meeting will be held in the Re- There was a big sale at Yarnell on ed from Mill Hall who set the broken along to Bellefonte and see her son gradnesday, June 20th, at 8 o'clock, to looked too good to the show people to Mrs. Thompson were brought home Thursday while making preparations for by Israel Beck and C. C. Royer.

Smith will go directly to Coon Rapids. -Miss Eleanor Parker is home from Wilson College to spend the vacation with Boyce with Miss Catherine Allison, a her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Ross Parker. Emily, a younger daughter, has gone with her aunt, Miss Elizabeth Parker, to Som--Clarence Hazel, a son of Mr. erset, where she will visit with her grandthe summer.

> -Mrs. Chester Irvine of Fort Worth. Texas, and her youngest daughter. Ottalie

-Mrs. James T: Chambers, of DuBois, buried Monday from the home of her in Centre county later in the summer. niece, Mrs. Harry Irvin. With Mrs. Chambers was her daughter, Mrs. George Schwem, also of DuBois.

--Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Spigelmyer will leave the beginning of the week for a visit in Harrisburg with their daughter, Mrs

Bellefonte, having arrived here on Friday morning. He has resigned his command in the above service and having passed a successful examination is awaiting orders to go into the United States service as and looking after his business just as mecommander of a transport, collier or any thodically as ever. ship he may be assigned to.

-Dr. and Mrs. George Kirk, with their M. A. Kirk, for Harrisburg, where Dr. George Kirk took the examination for en--Augustus Heverley, chief clerk trance into the U.S. medical reserve corps. burg where they spent Saturday night, returning to Bellefonte on Sunday evening. Dr. and Mrs. George Kirk and family returned home on Monday morning.

-W. A. Mullen, of Shamokin, spent the the American flag.

State College, his son, John Mullen, being -Mr. and Mrs. Edmund P. Hayes, o one of the class of 388 graduates. The Rockford, Ill.; Miss Ellen Hayes, of Welles ley; John H. Hayes, of The State College young man first made his appearance in Bellefonte almost five years ago when he hospital unit No. 1, Allentown; Mrs. Orentered the Bellefonte Academy. After a wig, of Atlantic City; Mrs. Reish, of Mif--A Red Cross meeting was held made on a writ issued by Justice G. ground limestone. Heverley quickly has now graduated from that institution. Frank Foster, all came to Bellefonte withyear there he entered State College and finburg; Mrs. Boyle, of Overbrook, and in the past few days, summoned here by the critical condition of Dr. R. G. H.

-Miss Eleanor Cook arrived home Frithat their son has graduated and they will day from Michigan, where she has been an instructor in the schools of Three Rivers. Miss Cook will remain here with her father. Charles F. Cook, having accepted a position in the schools of Bellefonte. Joseph Cook, of Cleveland, is also spending his vacation at home, and Mrs. Ben Curry, of Aspinwall, joined the family party for a formed church, Aaronsburg, on Wed- Monday and the crowd it had drawn bone after which Mr. Heverley and uate, having become indisposed last short time Wednesday, coming here from State College, where she and Mr. Curry the trip. had been for comment week visiting in Bellefonte, Mrs. Boyce as range the labor situation so that the bers to visit the middle west and ara guest of Mrs. J. C. Harper and Miss farmers will be able to get all the help they will need in harvesting their schoolmate at Drexel. crops next month. The two places the -Miss Elsie Rankin, of Philadelphia, is Colonel was assigned to visit are Duvisiting for a short time with her father, buque, Iowa, and Kansas City, Mo., William B. Rankin, before going to Camp mother and aunts for the greater part of Benjamin Harrison, a Red Cross training and he has been in the former city camp near Indianapolis. Miss Rankin has this week. enlisted for duty in this country.

-Mrs. Katherine Furey Hunter, of Hughes Irvine, are in Bellefonte for a ten Pittsburgh, spent a part of Thursday and day's visit with Mrs. Irvine's father, Rev. Friday in Bellefonte, stopping here for a short visit on her way to Pleasant Gap, where she will be for several weeks, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Levi A. Miller.

-Mrs. John I. Olewine, her son Harris, der the animal. She received a bad with Mrs. Robert Reed and her children, cut over the left eye while her left leg was badly sprained and bruised, but paign, Ill. Mr. Reed, who is at present at at that she escaped quite luckily.

in charge of the Hyde City hotel since -Charles P. Hewes, of Erie, has been in Bellefonte a part of the week, coming here the fore part of February, gave up to spend a few days with his son Cress- her position there and returned to well, who finished at the Bellefonte Acad- Bellefonte last Thursday evening. emy. During his stay Mr. Hewes was a This week she leased the Episcopal guest of his sister, Mrs. Margaret Hutchrectory and moved in on Wednesday, inson. intending to take boarders.

sey on Wednesday, where the Misses Quigley graduated from Kent Place; Judge and Mrs. Quigley having gone down Sunday the signal corps by the War Departfor commencement. -J. H. Griffin, the veteran Stormstown merchant and Democrat, was in town yesterday for his first visit in a year. Despite his seventy-eight years he keeps young like a man of fifty, figure erect, mind clear,

-Men's suits from $9.00 to $17.00. The greatest values at their respective prices .-- Cohen & Co. 24-1t

Sale Register.

Saturday, June 30.—At the residence of the late J. H. Huston, M. D., at Clintondale, full line of household goods, 8 room house, stable, carriages, spring wagon, buggies, saddles, cultivator, ladders, etc., and five acres of land at Palealto. Sale to begin at 10 o'clock. A. C. Mc-Clintick, Auc., Geo. Harter, Clerk.

Bellefonte Produce Markets

1
-	Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer The prices quoted are those paid for produce.
1	Potatoes per bushel $3.00)
1	Onions 1.50
1	Eggs, per dozen)
1	Lard, per pound	ò
1	Butter' per pound)
4

Bellefonte Grain Markets.

The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press. Red Wheat... White Whea $2.25 2.20 1.25 1.50 1.50 .70 1.00 Rye, per bushel..... Corn, shelled, per bushel. Corn, ears, per bushel..... Oats, old and new, per bushel. Barley, per bushel.

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening. Corn —Yellow..... —Mixed new. 1.78@ 1.79 1.75@ 1.76 Flour -Winter, per barrel

Rve Flour per barre	1	11.00@11.75
Baled Hay-Choice	Timothy No. 1	11.00@21.50
	Mixed No. 1	15.00@18.50
Straw		10.00@15.50

to training at once in the Lafayette Flying Corps of France, composed of American airmen, who work in the field unde ment. For Sale .- A good paying business for either a woman or a man. Write or inquire at this office.

-Mrs. Forrest Bullock has had as a guest this week her father, Harry Simler.

of Trafford City. Mr. Simler came to Centre county for the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Adams, of Philipsburg, and while here visited State College, where he had a nephew belonging to the class of 1917. -Elliott Lyon Morris will return to Bellefonte this week from New York and Newport News, where he has qualified for the French aviation service. Sailing for France Friday of next week, he will go in-