-Building operations at State College are almost at a standstill this summer, only four new houses being in course of erection. This is very small compared with the past three years, when from forty to sixty new houses were erected each sum-

---The condition of Dr. Ezra Yocum, who was taken suddenly very seriously ill at his home on Linn street Wednesday, and taken to the hospital Thursday morning, was slightly improved yesterday afternoon.

Fred Bryan resigned his position as foreman in the Centre Democrat office last week and on Monday went to work as a clerk in Claster's store. Mr. Bryan learned the printing trade as a boy and has continued at it ever since until his retirement last Saturday.

-The summer session for teachers at The Pennsylvania State College will open next Monday, 25th. Inasmuch as the majority of teachers who have attended the summer school in past years were women it is not believed the war will have much effect on the attendance this summer.

----Sheriff George H. Yarnell and H. S. Taylor, of Bellefonte. chief of police Harry Dukeman went to Millersburg on Wednesday and brought home the sheriff's new Jackson Eight car. The sheriff got the car on a recent trip to Harrisburg but day evening when the ladder on which after driving it as far as Millerstown something went wrong and he left it the ground a distance of twenty feet

-Jake Kerstetter, of Coburn, is a good second to Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick as a trout fisherman. One evening last week while fishing near Coburn he landed a brown trout which measured 23 inches and weighed 4 pounds and 6 ounces. On Saturday he got eleven trout which measured from 12 to 201 inches and totaled 1713 inches. On ly four of the trout were under 15 inches in size.

---Elliott Lyon Morris, who has enlisted in the Lafayette corps composed of American boys flying for France, left Bellefonte yesterday for New York, expecting to sail for Europe within a few days. Taking his flying test at Newport News Thursday of last week, he qualified for service by remaining in the air for an hour and a half, and for a part of the time at a height of 7000.

-Ferguson township subscribers of the "Watchman" will be compelled to forego the pleasure of reading the ever familiar "Pine Grove Mentions" this week, because the contributor, Capt. W. H. Fry, is attending the encampment of the G. A. R. at Johnstown and therefore unable to write his usual letter. Let us all hope, however, that he is having a very pleasant and profitable time of it.

---John Smith, of Renovo, a prisoner in the Clinton county jail at his escape and up to this time has Lock Haven, awaiting trial at the next term of court on the charge of carrying concealed deadly weapons, made his escape on Sunday evening by scaling the wall surrounding the prison yard. Sheriff Rathberger is now making an investigation to ascertain how he managed to do it. Up to yesterday Smith had not been apprehended.

---O. J. McNitt, of Milroy, with a party of associates who bought the Nittany Valley railroad running from the old Nittany furnace site to the junction with the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania this week sold the rails, etc., to Harry Ableson, an Altoona junk dealer, who will scrap the road as fast as possible. and thus will end the life of the road that at one time was a busy mart in the Centre county Chapter. the handling of coal, ore, pig iron, etc.

STEAM HEAT NEXT WINTER AL-MOST CERTAIN.

Plant Likely to be Taken Over by the J. G. White Co., of New York. Gas Plant Also to be Operated.

Mr. J. W. Murdock, of Ithaca, N. Y., an efficiency engineer in the employ of the J. G. White Co., of New York city. has been in Bellefonte this week making a survey of the town with a view Methodist church at Julian to-morrow of the above company taking over the plant of the Bellefonte Steam Heating -Russell Harding has enlisted and gas company; and the encouragein the State College ambulance unit | ment he has met with so far practically justifies the assertion that the plant will be operated next winter and the people of the town supplied with

Under the direction of Mr. Murdock a canvass of the town is being made in a most methodical manner. Printed pledges are presented to each property resident and they are thus given the opportunity to say in writing whether they will be willing to use gas at $1.75 a thousand feet and steam heat next winter. So far the pledges have been liberally made and the same sentiment prevails throughout the entire town the pledges will be ample, it is said, to justify the J. G. White Co. to take

If they take over in the very near future and at once into meet all demands.

Mr. Murdock is very favorably impressed with the sentiment here in favor of supporting the plant and thinks there is no doubt but that the company he represents will take the plant. He expects to have his work so far advanced that he will be able to leave Bellefonte today, especially as he has an engagement elsewhere to purchase a large supply of coal and also make arrangements for a contract for the company's supply next winter.

Three Flag Raisings.

The people of Axe Mann demonstrated their patriotism by raising a flag to the breeze at seven o'clock on Saturday evening. Our Boys band of Milesburg furnished the music and a very inspiring address was made by Dr. Ezra H. Yocum, pastor of the Bellefonte Methodist church. Following the flag raising a festival was held for the benefit of the church. On band stopped in Bellefonte and gave a short concert in the Diamond

The same evening there was a flag flag raising.

On Sunday evening another flag was flung to the breeze at Scotia. The ceremony incident thereto took place at 6:30 o'clock. There was no band but excellent music was furnished by a selected choir. Addresses were made by Burgess Blanchard and Col.

It was about 5:30 o'clock in the evening and he was about finishing his work for the day, when the ladder on which he was working buckled beneath his weight and he fell to the ground.

A physician was hastily summoned who found that Ewing had sustained four fractured ribs and an injured back. His condition was such that it was impossible to give him proper attention at home so I. J. Dreese, accompanied by the attending physihospital for treatment.

Another Prisoner Escaped. Another prisoner escaped from the western penitentiary at Rockview on Tuesday afternoon in the person of Allie Hammond, alias William Jenkins, alias W. R. Black, of Spangler. He was working near the old Rock mill on Spring creek and made his getaway about 1:30 o'clock. Hammond is 22 years old, 5 feet 7½ inches tall and weighs 123 pounds. He wore a blue coat and trousers and a striped shirt. He was sent in from Somerset county on May 14th, 1917, for a term of three years for burglary and was transferred to the Rockview penitentiary from Pittsburgh on June 1st.

It will be recalled that on May 2nd C. A. Wilson, another prisoner made the large attendance and the great successfully evaded recapture.

Family Troubles Aired.

The following item regarding an occurrence that took place one day last week in the Williamsport police court is taken from the Williamsport

"Sun." "I want this woman right here to promise that she will go back to her home and take care of her five children which she left without support." This statement was made in the Williamsport police station by a man who gave his name as Parker and his residence as State College. Parker claimed the woman, his wife, had left five children at State College without support. He was asked by the captain if he had provided money to buy the groceries at the home and he stated that he had not because his their small son have been visiting with wife worked. Just about that time the wife spoke stating that her husband had not been supporting her and that he had not lived with her in a year's time. She stated that work was scarce at the College and she had come to Williamsport to secure employment and that she was sending money home to support the children. Captain Fincher told the couple that they would have to take their troubles to State College for settlement. Then he put a few questions to the husband. Parker seemed to think that his wife with five children should work and furnish the "eats" support the family himself. Parker inquired of his wife whether or not ing. "If you will support me I will go with you," was the reply of the wife.
