

County Correspondence

Items of Interest Dished up for the Delectation of "Watchman" Readers by a Corps of Gifted Correspondents.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Frank McFarlane has invested in a new Buick car. Dr. R. M. Krebs was an over Sunday visitor in Altoona. George A. Goss spent the early part of the week in Stonevalley. C. H. Martz, of Birmingham, spent Sunday here with his family. W. A. Dale, of Boalsburg, spent Friday with friends in town. Mrs. Amelia Holmes is suffering with a bad nervous breakdown. James Kline is handling the ribbons over a spanking pair of mules. Farmer C. M. Dale is having a water system installed in his house. Mrs. J. R. Smith spent Saturday on a shopping tour at State College. Hon. John T. McCormick was in town on Tuesday on a business trip. Dr. J. E. Ward spent a short time with friends here on Monday evening. Miss Lucy Krebs was an over Sunday visitor with friends at State College.

W. H. Martz is having his farm home freshened up with a new coat of paint. H. C. Tussey, the Stonevalley drover, was here this week in quest of stock. Mrs. O. P. Bloom and two children visited her mother at McAlevy's Fort last week. W. K. Goss, an employee in the Tyrona car shops, is laid up with a badly scalded foot. Some of our farmers have already started in on haymaking, but so far the crop is short. C. M. Dale and wife and H. L. Dale and wife motored to Altoona on Sunday for the day only. Miss Belle Fortney and mother, of Boalsburg, motored here on Sunday, to spend a few hours with friends. Charles S. Dannelly, of Wadsworth, Ohio, arrived here Saturday evening to visit his aged mother, who is quite frail. Dr. George Bailey Goheen and family, of Coalport, have been visiting friends in and about Baileyville this week. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tussey and two children came down from Juniata and spent Sunday at the N. C. Neidigh home. Joseph B. Goss, of Pittsburgh, has been visiting his mother the past week. He is a son of the late Cyrus Goss. J. A. O'Neil, of Ore Hill, spent the latter end of the week at the home of his son-in-law, Clifford Close, at Fairbrook. A. L. Bowersox and family motored to Houserville to spend Sunday with Boyd Williams and family in their new home. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Johnson are now snugly fixed up and taking their first lessons in housekeeping on east Main street. Miss Geraldine D. Osman, of State College, is making a two week's visit at grandpa Smith's home on east Main street. Mrs. Sarah E. Murphy spent Monday at State College on business pertaining to the settlement of her husband's estate. Farmer Elmer Rossman is now sporting a new Buick car and treating his less fortunate neighbors with a ride therein. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith and daughter Adaline motored down from Altoona and spent Sunday at the grandpa Port home. Samuel Zettle and wife, of Pleasant Gap, and Charles Zettle and wife, of Dale Summit, were Sunday callers on old acquaintances in town. Merchant E. M. Watt has moved his stock of store goods from his former place of business to the big room in the Archey corner building, one of the most desirable sites in the town. Mrs. Charlotte Kepler came in from Pittsburgh for a brief visit at the old Kepler home in the Glades before going to New York State to spend the summer with her daughter Florence. During the writer's brief sojourn in Johnstown last week we thoroughly enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. O. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Smith. On Friday evening, June 15th, J. D. Neidigh gave his wife a birthday surprise party by inviting in a large number of her warm, personal friends. A big dinner was a feature and Mrs. Neidigh received many useful presents. The children's service held in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening proved quite interesting. Dr. G. H. Woods was in charge and the children all took their parts very well. Rev. L. V. Barber made the closing address. Russell Whitmer and bride, of Bellefonte, were given a reception at the J. B. Whitmer home at White Hall on Sunday. In the party were Ed. Whitmer, Aunt Emma, William Bilger and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bilger, of Pleasant Gap. Ross Robert Dickey, of State College, and Miss Beulah E. Johnson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Johnson, of this place, were married in Bellefonte on Tuesday of last week. A reception was tendered the bridal couple at the home of the bride's parents on Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Dickey will reside at State College. A Red Cross organization was perfected here on Flag day with Mrs. W. E. Reed as president; Mrs. G. H. Woods, vice president; Mrs. J. N. Everts, secretary, and Mrs. G. R. Dunlap, treasurer. The organization was started with thirty-six members and they have secured a room at W. H. Goss' as a meeting place for the auxiliary.

A big flag raising took place at Rock Springs on Tuesday evening. Mr. J. S. Miller was master of ceremonies. Rev. R. M. Campbell opened the exercises with prayer and then followed addresses by J. L. Holmes, of State College, and Rev. Campbell. There was also a big parade. The flag raised was made by the ladies of the village. The exercises closed with a big festival.

The young ladies constituting the committee soliciting funds here for the Red Cross reported as follows: Misses Grace Elder and Lillie Musser, $61.00; Misses Mary Kepler and Grace Dale, $61.40; Miss Lizzie Goheen and Miss Heien Ward, $55.50; Miss Helen Gearhart, $2.25; Miss Ruth Gearhart, $2.00; Mrs. Charles Louck, $3.85; Misses Ned Lyle and Sara M. Williams, $48.25, a total of $243.25.

John Emmett Brett, a former Pine Grove boy who took Horace Greeley's advice and went west a quarter of a century ago, is back looking over his old stamping ground. After spending a week here he went to Lock Haven on Monday for the Normal school commencement. Before returning home he will visit Washington, Philadelphia and New York city. He is a son of former prothonotary Robert G. Brett, who died in Bellefonte while holding office.

Frank McFarlane and wife, Dr. L. E. Kidder, wife and daughter Mary; Mr. and Mrs. Hall, of Huntingdon, and forester J. W. Keller and wife are planning a ten days' outing at Penn Yan, N. Y. They will make the trip in three automobiles and while in camp will be the guests of Forester Keller. During their stay they will visit Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Fort Niagara, where they can see the boys training for the officers reserves. They expect to start tomorrow.

WOLF'S STORE.

The fellow who does his bit will not feel bitter.

C. E. Beyer and wife were Sunday callers in our midst.

Swat the Colorado potato beetle and reduce the cost of living.

Summer is in full swing and soon the click of the mower will be heard.

Wilmer Stoner, from Aaronsburg, plies his trade in our town frequently.

Rufus Brungart is efficiently assisting our merchant, George H. Showers.

Mrs. Sarah Bartges, from Lock Haven, is again in our midst greeting old friends.

H. A. Hanselman and Clayton Auman have each disposed of a valuable horse recently.

W. A. Winters is the proud owner of an Overland car, while C. D. Weaver sports a Buick.

George Washington Shaffer, from Madisonburg, spent Saturday at the home of C. D. Weaver.

The Misses Hester Smull and Alice Weber, from Smulton, spent a day last week with Mrs. Harry Zeigler.

W. F. Stover and family visited Mrs. Stover's mother and sister in Harrisburg over Saturday and Sunday.

The public sale of Mrs. Edwin G. Hosterman was well attended on Saturday and the goods commanded a fair price.

C. J. Weaver and family have autoed to Orbisonia, where they expect to spend a week visiting Mrs. Weaver's parents and friends.

LINDEN HALL.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Swartz, of Hubersburg, were over Sunday guests at the J. H. Ross home.

Miss Agnes Campbell, of State College, is visiting her aunts, Misses Mary and Phoebe Potter.

Miss Ruth Callahan, after spending the winter at State College, is now at home for the summer.

Our boy's ball team won a victory over the Millheim boys last Saturday, the score being 14 to 4.

Mrs. Abertson, of Philadelphia, has been the guest of Mrs. W. T. Noll for the past week.

The final examination of the teachers training class was held last Saturday evening by Mr. W. W. White, at the home of Mrs. Noll.

Mrs. J. W. Keller and Mrs. Marie Copper, of Tyrone, took advantage of the excursion on Sunday and visited Fort Niagara. Among the other excursionists were, Miss Larne Ishler, William Osman, Howard Callahan, Bud Ralston and Herbert Klingler.

Miss Edwina Wieland spent a few days at her home last week, returning to the Normal Thursday for the commencement exercises and to take in the Junior drama. She expects to leave from school next Friday morning for Eagles Mere, to attend the Y. W. C. A. conference at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Houtz, of Downs, Kansas, spent some time in this section during the past week. Mr. Houtz was formerly from this place but since his very early youth has been a resident of the west. Mr. and Mrs. Houtz were the guests of Mrs. J. I. Ross and while here they paid a visit to Mr. Houtz's old home, the farm now occupied by Mr. James Irvin.

RUNVILLE.

Don't forget Sabbath school Sunday morning at 9:30.

E. S. Bennett made a business trip to Bellefonte on Monday evening.

Miss Erma McClincy, Mrs. Eliza (Continued on page 6, column 3.)

CASTORIA

Bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. In use for over thirty years, and

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

U.S.

Army and Navy Uniforms

The second of a series of 8 beautiful colored supplements showing the uniforms of the United States and her allies will be given FREE with

NEXT SUNDAY'S

PUBLIC LEDGER

This supplement shows the uniforms of Uncle Sam's Army and Navy, also the insignia of the various branches of the service. It is printed in colors, on super-finished paper, and is admirably suited for framing. Order next Sunday's Public Ledger Now.

Sentinels of the Home!

There is a deal of talk on preparedness. ARE YOU PREPARED? This world is full of vicissitudes. You may be in the best of health today, with fine prospects in business. There may come a siege of illness. There may come a loss of position. Be prepared. Start a bank account.

Open Your Account With Us THE CENTRE COUNTY BANK,

BELLEFONTE

Come to the "Watchman" office for High Class Job work.

EVERYTHING HAS NOT GONE UP IN PRICE

All the goods we advertise here are selling at prices prevailing this time last season.

MINCE MEAT.

We are now making our MINCE MEAT and keeping it fully up to our usual high standard; nothing cut out or cut short and are selling it at our former price of 15 Cents Per Pound.

Fine Celery, Oranges, Grape Fruit, Apricots, Peaches, Prunes, Spices, Breakfast Foods, Extracts, Baking Powders, Soda, Cornstarch. The whole line of Washing Powders, Starches, Blueing and many other articles are selling at the usual prices.

COFFEES, TEAS AND RICE.

On our Fine Coffees at 25c, 28c, 30c, 35c and 40c, there has been no change in price on quality of goods and no change in the price of TEAS. Rice has not advanced in price and can be used largely as a substitute for potatoes. All of these goods are costing us more than formerly but we are doing our best to Hold Down the Lid on high prices, hoping for a more favorable market in the near future.

LET US HAVE YOUR ORDER and we will give you FINE GROCERIES at reasonable prices and give you good service.

SECHLER & COMPANY,

Bush House Block, 57-1 Bellefonte, Pa.