Belletonte, Pa., July 13, 1917. name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

enterprise is looking Bellefonte over as a possible location.

-The Methodist Sunday school Saturday evening, July 21st. Elaborate arrangements are being made for an enjoyable evening and the public is cordially invited to join them in the sheriff's vault. their pleasure, and to help with their benefit. -Mr. Harry Walkey did a good act recently by presenting an organ to the Advent Sunday school in Boggs township. Learning that the school was without an organ, and having a very good instrument in his possession, Mr. Walkey very gladly gave it to the school unconditionally.

-Mrs. Harry Winton on Sunday received a card from her nephew, William Kelley, which was written on Friday, and which contained the statement that he expected to sail from to attend the sittings of the board. pointed to the Rockview penitentiary. Mr. on Saturday for ----Kelley spent some weeks at the aviation school in Texas and will likely M. J. Locke in the place of Dr. Mcbe among the first contingent of aviators to go to France. below Hecla park owned by John De- whether he will be able to serve or and Pennsyalley and will reach Bellevinney was burned to the ground on not. Friday night, June 29th, and practic-

amount of insurance. empty and no bones were broken, but | Centre county. he has been off duty since.

-Jerome G. Harper on Monday went to work as a traveling salesman for the R. C. Williams company, large wholesale grocers, of New York city, covering the same territory in the central part of the State formerly- Sunday afternoon the citizens of Yar- and very successfully passed the rigwhich is a big asset.

---Clayton Etters, of Oak Hall, driving a Ford delivery Dr. W. S. Glenn Jr., of State College, in his Reo car, met in a collision at the junction of the roads in Lemont on June 28th. Mr. Etters was on his way home from State College and the doctor was returning from a trip up the Branch road. Both cars were somewhat damaged but as the collision didn't seem to be either man's particular fault they decided to call it quits and each man pay for his own repairs. an advertisement of Dr. M. Salm; he dress. Following him Andrew Runis by no means a stranger in this kle, of Bellefonte, was called to the county. He used to make monthly front and recited the poem, "Salute visits here for about twelve years, the Flag." and gave universal satisfaction durcures. His specialty is diseases of chronic diseases. We do not think daughter Esther, of Jersey Shore, and collection was then taken up for the Mr. Forcey's mother, Mrs. G. C. Forcey, were the victims of an automobile car overturned on the state road a collection for the Red Cross amountshort distance east of Bellefonte ed to $13.65, and with what the young breaking the elder Mrs. Forcey's arm and badly bruised the other members of the party. The accident hapturning the car. Fortunately the top saved it from going clear over.

-Benton D. Tate was the victim of an automobile accident on Monday morning of last week in which he suffered a broken collar bone and left at dinner the hospital staff of physishoulder blade, some minor cuts and cians in honor of the two members bruises. He was driving up Bald Ea- who are ready and may soon be called gle valley in the Bell telephone Ford for service at the front. truck and this side of Unionville one Bellefonte hospital where he was un-allowed to go home. -The United Evangelical church Thursday, July 19th. All churches and Sunday schools of this denomination are a part of the reunion association and as many of them as possible should attend this gathering. were exchanged by the doctors. A Everybody is welcome to attend, as the reunion offers an excellent opportunity of renewing general acquainmet for years. Trains will leave Bellefonte for the park at 7 and 9 train in the morning and return home ny's surgeon of the Bald Eagle Valley men spent most of Tuesday in a tour for the hauling of freight as well as passon regular train in the evening.

READY FOR THE DRAFT.

and Received Instructions for Exemption Board.

Sheriff George H. Yarnell and depthe ages of 21 and 31 inclusive who chances are favorable to the plant beregistered on June 5th under the se- ing located there. -And now it is said another big lective conscription act. The list was numbered consecutively from one up and the total number was 3170. A list of the names has been forwarded of Pleasant Gap will hold a festival to Harrisburg and one to Washington. Another list has been posted at the commissioner's office and another locked away as the official record in

The sheriff has requested the "Watchman" to state that any man desiring his serial number should send him a self-addressed postal card and the same will be forwarded to him at once. In the last issue of the "Watchexemption board for Centre county were given as Sheriff Yarnell, County Commissioner D. A. Grove and Since that time Dr. McGirk's name has been withdrawn owing to the fact On Wednesday Governor Brumbaugh recommended the appointment of Dr. Girk, but up to yesterday noon he had -The house on the small farm appointment and it is not known will come by the way of Lewisburg

The work of the exemption board ally all the furniture and belongings will be very exacting, according to the of the family destroyed. The origin voluminous instructions received by of the fire is unknown. The loss is Sheriff Yarnell on Tuesday. Every ily as they had just gotten their home emption on any grounds whatsoever, cort to Bellefonte. Their headquarkeenly felt by Mr. Devinney and fam- man drawn who desires to claim expaid for and carried only a small will have to do so by affidavit, attested by witnesses, and his reason will -While at work at the Conrad have to be a very convincing one in Miller limestone quarries on Tuesday order to secure exemption. If a man of last week John Mignot had his is not satisfied with the decision of the right foot badly squeezed when one of local exemption board he has the right the wheels of a dinkey car passed over of appeal to the district board. This it. Mr. Mignot was in the act of board consists of six men, all of kicking a switch open when his foot whom are residents within one or slipped and got on the rail underneath more of the counties composing the the car. Fortunately the car was district, but none of whom are from

As yet it is uncertain just when the draft will be made as not half the States have reported their lists of registration.

Flag Raising at Yarnell.

covered by the late Edward R. McEn- nell and that thriving little communi- id examination necessary to entitle tire, of Williamsport. The territory ty in the foothills of the Allegheny him to the commission. is a large one and will take him a mountains joined in a flag raising on month to cover, but he starts in with Sunday afternoon that was uniquely a good line of established customers patriotic in the fact that the flag was purchased and all the expenses defrayed by money contributed by the truck, and young men between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-one inclusive, who, on June 6th, registered themselves for service during the European war under the selective conscrip-

the ceremony took place at 3:30 o'clock. Daniel Boyer presided and the Bellefonte band furnished the music. Following prayer by Rev. T. Hugh MacLeod, of Bellefonte, Burgess Edmund Blanchard was intro--On another page you will find duced and made a very patriotic ad-

The next speaker was Col. H. S. ing that time on account of his many Taylor, who in his usually eloquent manner, not only made an inspiring the eye, ear, throat, catarrh and all address but complimented the young men of Yarnell and vicinity on their you will go amiss in consulting him, display of patriotism. The five year for we know him to be trustworthy old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Powell, of Sandy Ridge, sang very sweetly the "Song of the Flag." A Rev. Prentiss, of Milesburg. Before closing Mr. Boyer announced that the men had already collected made a total of $25.00. The money will be held for a few days until they shall pened when Mr. Forcey turned out to decide as to the organization of a Red Cross Auxiliary, and if they do not his tires blew out ditching and over- do so it will be turned over to organizing doctors for Red Cross Charles M. McCurdy, treasurer of the Bellefonte Chapter.

Entertained the Doctors. Last Thursday evening the nurses at the Bellefonte hospital entertained

The dining room was prettily bankof his front tires blew out and came ed with green and decorated with off throwing it over on its side, Mr. flags and the national colors. Large Tate being caught under the top. He bouquets of red roses added much to was picked up and brought to the the beauty of the room, and with the red glow from lights and candles der treatment until Tuesday when he made a very pretty scene. The table had gotten along so well that he was decorations were in keeping with the occasion and all present enjoyed the delicious meal to the fullest extent. The vocal selections rendered by Miss reunion will be held at Hecla Park on Widan were very enjoyable, as was also an entertaining recitation by Miss Fuller. Short addresses were given by several of those present and camp stories very pleasant evening was spent by all and the success of the affair was an honor to the efforts of the nurses tances among people who have not and a pleasing tribute to the departing surgeons. Hall can go to the park on regular as the Pennsylvania Railrod compa--Dr. David Dale has been ap-

-Mens' gun metal English last dress shoes, also gun metal button Sheriff Yarnell Has List Completed Blucher style, all sizes and widths at $3.50 per pair-Cohen & Co. 27-1t

-Up to yesterday afternoon there was no definite decision as to the Mrs. Mary Payne. published unless accompanied by the real uty sheriff Harrison Kline on Satur- Titan Metal company taking the glass day completed their work of serial works meadow for their new site, but numbering the list of men between negotiations are still on and the several weeks visiting with friends there son every man, woman and child needs son, in Lock Haven. a certain period of pleasant relaxathis be obtained so completely and Hughes has been made one of the State ents, Supt. and Mrs. F. H. Thomas, at the satisfactorily as at the Scenic. In the interest of watching the motion pictures as portrayed upon the screen, all the cares and worries of the day fade away and nowhere else in Bellefonte can the same class of pictures be seen as are shown at the Scenic.

-A number of changes have been made in the Altoona diocese of the Catholic church necessitated by the man" the men who will serve on the recent death of Father McArdle. Following the transfer of Father Downes from Bedford to the Bellefonte parish Father Charles Gallagher has Dr. C. E. McGirk, of Philipsburg. been transferred to Johnstown as assistant to Father W. E. Carr, at St. Columbia's church and Father O'Hanthat it would be inconvenient for him lon, of State College, has been ap-

-The Business Men's association of Watsontown will make a trade received no official notification of his tral part of the State to-day. They fonte in time for the noon luncheon. Upwards of a hundred people are ex- Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shreffler, of Lamb pected in the party. A number of lo- street, Mr. Price being Mrs. Shreffler's cal automobilists will go to Centre Hall to meet the party and act as es-

-When it is considered that Paul Seaner. there are only about two hundred Eagle Scouts in the United States to be nigh honor and the pride of every Boy Scout in the country, but that is the honor that was conferred upon Phelps Yocum, son of attorney and Mrs. George Yocum, of Scranton, and grandson of Rev. and Mrs. Ezra H. Yocum, of this place. With a companion he was commissioned an Eagle Scout at a big Boy Scout rally held in Scranton last Friday evening. The young man is a member of Boy Scout Troop No. 2, connected with St. Nothing daunted by the rain of Luke's Methodist church, Scranton,

-Mr. and Mrs. Ammon A. Miljaunt to Hayes run, above Orviston, last Friday, and coming across a nice pool which promised some good sport Mr. Miller comfortably installed his wife thereby and proceeded further up the stream to try his own luck. He had gone but a short distance when Pittsburgh Tuesday. his wife gave one terrifying scream. Hastening back he found her in a turned to their home at Buffalo, Monday. twenty-five feet away calmly refreshing itself with a drink from the cool waters of Hayes run. Mr. Miller had no trouble frightening the bear away but it is hardly likely that Mrs. Miller fished alone the balance of the day.

Organized Red Cross Auxiliary. At a largely attended meeting on Tuesday night of last week the people of Centre Hall organized a Red Cross Auxiliary with a membership of fifty-two. Rev. Josiah Still presided at Hall; Mrs. J. Thomas Mitchell and ing Mr. Gheen's mother, Mrs. Jessie Gheen, Mrs. Robert Mills Beach, of Bellefonte. In perfecting the organization Mrs. H. F. Bitner was elected chairman; Mrs. J. F. Alexander vice chairman; Miss Freda Bailey secretary, and Miss Mary Delinda Potter treasthe work with considerable enthusiasm and good results are anticipated.

Organizing Doctors for Red Cross

Work. In a tour through the entire State sisting of Major C. A. E. Codman, president of the State Medical Asso-S. Leon Gans and Lieut. John D. Mc-Lean arrived in Bellefonte Sunday night and remained here until Wednesday. On Monday afternoon there was a meeting of the Centre County Medical society and the visiting physicians explained the urgent need of as many physicians as possible enlisting as medical reserve officers. After they had made the proposition as plain as possible from every standpoint the Drew Theological Seminary. W. U. Irwin, of Unionville, and W. S. Glenn Jr., of State College, enlisted for service. Drs. David Dale and S. M. Huff being already in the service makes four Centre county physicians who will likely see duty in France.

The above enlisting crew has covered most of the State and while in Bellefonte Major Jump told a "Watchman" reporter that they had encountered considerable apathy among the physicians in many places, while in others they were quick to respond. When they started out they figured on securing on an average of twenty per cent. of the physicians in every locality and had been successful in reaching that mark in many

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-John Hines, of Lewistown, spent his summer vacation in Bellefonte last week. -Misses Mary Housel and Edith and Mrs. Henry Haupt. Margaret Moore, of Altoona, are guests of

-Miss Angelina Carpeneto left Wednes day for Greensburg, expecting to spend

-Miss Martha Wian returned to Belle--During the busy summer sea- the week with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Steven- and Mary Sebring and other of her young -Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hughes left last > inspectors for the Bell Telephone com- Bush house. pany.

mother, Mrs. Frank Clemson, of Buffalo Del., with Mrs. Shook and their two children, left here Wednesday; after a week's visit with Prof. Shook's mother, Mrs.

James Shook. -Miss Eliza M. Thomas left here ten days ago to join Mrs. Wistar Morris, expecting to spend the remainder of the season with her at her summer home at Jamestown, R. I.

-Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Kroen and two children, of Avalon, Pa., were guests over the Fourth of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk, having come to Bellefonte on Monday of last week and left on Thursday.

-D. Kirk Tate, of Lock Haven, and his daughter Viola, were week-end guests of tour by automobile through the cen- Mr. Tate's sister, Mrs. George A. Beezer, coming here to see Benton Tate, who had been ill at the hospital for a week.

-Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Price, who were recently married in Williamsport, spent several days including the week-end, with

-Mrs. Mary Payne recently returned from DuBois, where she spent a few trip to Niagara Falls with Mr. and Mrs.

-Mr. and Mrs. Gus McCrea and three daughters, of North Tonawanda, motored commissioned as one is naturally a to Bellefonte last Friday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kirk at their farm home south of town until their departure for home yesterday.

-Mrs. Roberta Smith, of the Toggery Shop, and Miss Grace Harvey, one of Clearfield's fashionable dressmakers, left on Tuesday morning on a ten day's vacation which they will spend in eastern cities and at the seashore. -Returning from attending a missionary conference at Chambersburg last Friday Miss Daise Keichline stopped off at Petersburg and spent a few days with her brother, Dr. John Keichline, returning home the fore part of the week.

-Mr. and Mrs. Charles Saxion and their two children, and Mrs. Saxion's mother, Mrs. Andrew Young, and three children, motored to Birmingham on Sunday ler, of Lock Haven, took a fishing where they were guests, of Mr. Saxion's mother, Mrs. James Saxion.

-G. W. Ward, of Pittsburgh, spent Saturday of last week in Bellefonte with his brother, Dr. J. E. Ward, coming here from Pine Grove Mills, where he had been visiting and looking after some business interests for ten days. Mr. Ward returned to

-Mr. and Mrs. John C. Matthews reed on the school house commons and state of collapse on the bank of the Mrs. Matthews had been here with her er the cause of his wife's agitation more than two weeks, while Mr. Matthews, discovered a large black bear not over who is with the D. L. & W. R. R., as fireman, joined her here the early part of last week. -Mrs. Grant Pifer, of Wilkinsburg, who has been in Bellefonte for the greater part of the past two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Hoy, came here on account of the indisposition of her father. During her stay Mrs. Pifer has been visiting with relatives in this locality and about Howard.

--Mrs. Annie Forney, who had been spending two months with her brothers and sisters in and about Williamsport, is with her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Gheen, havthe meeting and addresses were made ing returned to Bellefonte a week ago. Mr. and Mrs. Gheen have also been entertainla May Gheen, and her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gheen, of Bloomsburg.

-The party of young men who went to Williamsport Sunday to attend the installation of the third degree of the Knights of Columbus included, John Woods, Jack urer. The ladies have entered into Lane, Charles Doll, Joseph Ceader, Louis Carpeneto, Joseph Carpeneto, Joseph Carpeneto 2nd, Frank Rosenhoover, Joseph Kane, Basil Mott, Fred Yeager, Michael Hazel and Harry Taylor. The third degree being conferred on all except Messrs. Hazel, Taylor, Lane, Joseph and Louis Carpeneto, who were third degree men.

-Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Tressler, of Pittsburgh, who are now visiting with Mr. Tressler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Tressler, came to Bellefonte for the Tressciation; Major Henry D. Jump, Capt. ler family reunion, held June 30th, in celebration of Mr. William Tressler's seventy-fifth birthday. At the family party, which was held on the Tressler farm near Hunter's Park, were, Mr. and Mrs. Wil- The drive was made by Robert Roan in liam Tressler and all their children, including Thomas M., on the farm; Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Tressler, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Burkett and their daughter, of Warriorsmark; Mr. and Mrs., N. H. Tressler, of Pittsburgh, and Robert, now preaching in New Jersey, where he is at school at

-Hon. J. Will Kepler and 'Squire D. W. Miller, of Pine Grove Mills; T. G. Crownover, of Saulsburg, who not only holds the responsible position as trustee of the Huntingdon reformatory but is a well known lumberman with a big operation on Tussey mountain; J. Emmett Brett, a son of the late prothonotary Robert G. Breii of any kind but the railroad company has

-Miss Nellie Smith spent last Wednesday with friends in Centre Hall.

-Arthur Haupt, of Lock Haven, was a week-end guest of his parents, Mr. and

-Harry Baum, now located in Selinsgrove, has been a guest the past week at the Baum home on Bishop street. -Guy Harris, of Washington, was in Bellefonte visiting his mother, Mrs. Rachael Harris, over Sunday, July first.

-Miss Mary Hawes, of Harrisburg, is in fonte Wednesday, after spending a part of Bellefonte visiting the Misses Henrietta friends.

-Francis E. Thomas is home on a furweek for Minneapolis. Minn., where Mr. lough visiting for the time with his par-

-Mrs. Hugh Boyle, of Hazleton, and -Daniel Clemson was here for several her two children, are guests of Mrs. days the beginning of the week, on his way Boyle's mother, Mrs. Tanner, at her home from Altoona, for a short visit with his on High street. -Lloyd Wilson, manager of the Western Union Telegraph company at Mount -Prof. James Shook, of Wilmington, Union, spent Sunday, July first, with friends in Bellefonte. -Mr. and Mrs. D. Wagner Geiss and sons, George and David, spent last Wednesday in Centre Hall with Mrs. Geiss' mother, Mrs. G. L. Goodhart.

way to Pittsburgh, where she will spend two weeks visiting with relatives. -Russell Whiting, of the State College hospital unit at Allentown, stopped here Heverly and Mr. and Mrs. George Mallory.

last week on his way back from spending -Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Cooke, of Baltimore, arrived in Bellefonte in the beginning of the week for a few days' visit with Mrs. Cooke's sister, Miss Mollie Snyder, and other friends. -Burgess Edmund Blanchard spent last week with Mrs. Blanchard at Ridley Park after business that had accumulated durand at seaside resorts, returning home on | ing the year. Sunday morning. Mrs. Blanchard returned home on Monday.

-Sisters M. Lunis and M. Antoninus, both of Manayunk, near Philadelphia, are visiting in Bellefonte, the former with her them for a number of weeks. sisters, the Misses Pearl, and the latter with Mr. and Mrs. Gus Armour. -Mrs. John VanPelt and little daughter,

.achael, returned home from Detroit, Michigan, on June 30th, owing to the bad fall sustained by her mother, Mrs. Rachael Harris, a few days prior to that.

-Mrs. Annie Fortney, of Milton, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Shields the last week in June. Mrs. Fortney is a Centre countian by birth, her maiden name being Miss Annie Beezer.

-Mrs. M. Ward Fleming and her two children, who have been in Bellefonte for the past two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fleming during the children's grandfather's vacation, will return to their home in Philipsburg to-morrow.

-Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hoy with their two children and Mrs. Hoy's brother, Floyd Hoy, motored here from Buffalo last week and have been visiting with Mrs. Hoy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, of south Allegheny street, and with Mr. Hoy's parents, at Rockview.

-Mrs. C. T. Hennig and Mrs. Russell Blair drove to Buffalo last week in Mrs. Hennig's car, intending to return the forepart of this week, the trip home to be made by the way of East Aurora, where Mrs. Benjamin Bradley would join them for the return drive. -Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Miller, who were married in Chicago a short time ago, with Mr. Miller's relatives before going neer, in which department he has enlisted. to their new home at Wilkinsburg. Dur- Mr. and Mrs. VanDeventer's new son was ing their stay here they were guests of also a reason for Mrs. Elliott's present Mr. and Mrs. James H. Potter. -Mrs. LeRoy Fox and her three children, of Lock Haven, were guests the after part of the week of the children's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haupt. Upon Mrs. Fox's return home she was accompanied by Margaret Haupt, Dorothy Fox remaining here for a visit.

-Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Taylor, of Bridgeport, Conn., and their daughter, are go and will locate there. spending Mr. Taylor's vacation in Bellefonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor, and with Mrs. Taylor's mother, Mrs. Mitchell Leib. Reynolds Taylor spent last week here with his parents, Mr. and Hancock, of Philadelphia, who was a guest Mrs. Henry Taylor.

--Miss Lena D. Miller, with her brother Lester, are visiting at the home of Rev. T. W. Young, on east Bishop street. Miss Miller is one of the very popular teachers in the schools of Ellsworth, Washington county. Rev. and Mrs. Young have their grand-daughter, Isabelle M. Epley, of Pittsburgh, with them for the summer.

-Col. J. L. Spangler returned last Wednesday from his trip through the west as a member of the National Council of Defense to arrange for the necessary help to get in the big crops which are almost ready for the cutting. The Colonel is very enthusiastic over the reception given them wherever they went and the apparent willingness of everybody to do whatever they could to help along with the crops.

-Miss Belle Confer returned from State College early last week to join a motor party going to Vicksburg, Pa., to spend the Fourth with Mrs. C. M. Sanders, who is better known in Bellefonte as Miss Katherine Garthoff. Included in the party were Miss Delphia Wentzel, Miss Virginia Robb, of State College; Miss Emma Lucas, Miss Annie Noll and Miss Irene McGinley. his Paige car.

-Mr. and Mrs. Levi Johnson and Mrs. Edward Nolan, of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Hour are expected in Bellefonte this week. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Nolan, who have been spending some time on a motor trip through the east, were joined in New York by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Owens, of Starbuck, Minn., for the return trip to Chicago, and have planned to stop for a few days with their many friends here on their way back to Illinois.

-Guests who have been entertained recently at Edgefonte, the summer home of the Garman family at Axe Mann, included but who the past twenty-two years has Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lingle, Mr. and Mrs been in Seattle, Wash., and G. W. Ward, a Henry Todd and the Misses Nellie and former Ferguson township boy but now a Ruth Bilger, all of Philipsburg; Frank contractor and builder in Pittsburgh, were Lingle, of Patton; Mr. and Mrs. Pitt, of "Watchman" office visitors on Tuesday, Waverly, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood the three first named gentlemen coming to and Mr. and Mrs. George Davy, of Coates-Bellefonte to enter a protest with the officials of the Bellefonte Central railroad ert Garman, of Tyrone. Mr. and Mrs against abandoning that portion of their Samuel Courson and their two sons mo line from State College to Pine Grove and tored from Williamsport for the week-end, tearing up the tracks. To do so would and were accompanied on their return leave that place without shipping facilities drive by Mr. and Mrs. Barton Maitland, of Bayonne, N. J. Next week Ira D. Garman lan, of Coatesville, and his family, will go

-Mr. and Mrs. William Bottorf spent last week in Atlantic City.

-Miss Frances Ellmore is visiting at the home of Wm. B. Rankin and his family. -Miss Elsie Rankin went to Philadelphia Tuesday to report for duty as a Red Cross nurse. -Miss Elsie Rankin went to Philadelhas been a guest of his aunt, Miss Belle Hoover, within the past week. -Mrs. Howard Watson, of New Kensington, spent last Saturday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. William Daley. -Mrs. George Waite Jr., of Renovo, and her four sons visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. George Waite, of Phoenix ave-

-Miss Emma Montgomery went to Tyrone, Tuesday, expecting to be a guest for the week of her cousin, Mrs. Frank Lukenbach.

-The Misses Veda and Minnie Wetzel and the Misses Ethel and Sara Wetzel left here Saturday of last week to join a camping party at Trout Run. -Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Griffith went to Philadelphia yesterday for their annual visit with their daughter and sons, Mrs. White, and Claude and Harry Dawson.

-Mrs. Jack Norris, of Coatesville, and her sons are visiting here and at Boals--Mrs. Geo. O. Benner, of Centre Hall, burg. guests of Mrs. Norris' mother and passed through Bellefonte Saturday on her sister, Mrs. Samuel Rine and Mrs. Fisher. -Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mallory were in Bellefonte last week, spending the time while here with Mr. and Mrs. Charles

-Mrs. William B. Wallis, of Pittsburgh, a short furlough at home with his parents. is here for her annual summer visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Conley. Mr. Wallis intends joining her later for his vacation.

-C. A. Dolan, of Nittany. one of the representative men of Walker township, spent last Friday in Bellefonte looking

-Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Spicher, of Wilkinsburg, are guests of Mrs. Daniel Heckman, having come in Saturday with Mrs. Heckman, who had been visiting with

-D. W. Eberhart is spending the week with his sister, Mrs. S. D. Burris, of Gregg Station, while his daughter Mary is attending a meeting of the I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs at the Sunbury I. O. O. F. orphanage. -Philip B. Waddle, head clerk at the New Kensington hotel, at New Kensington, came to Bellefonte last Friday and has been spending his vacation with his many friends here and at his old home up Buffalo Run.

-W. L. Antrim, of the firm of Antrim & Landsy, portrait painters of Philadelphia, is expected in Bellefonte today, coming here to put the finishing touches on paintings of the late Mrs. A. G. Morris and Father P. McArdle. -Frank M. Fisher, of Penn Hall, and John H. Beck, of Nittany, were very welcome callers at the "Watchman" office on Tuesday, having come to Bellefonte to attend the quarterly meeting of the Farmer's Mutual Fire Insurance company.

-Claudia and Thelma Gates, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Benner G. Gates, of Lewistown, accompanied their cousin, Miss Winifred M. Gates, to Bellefonte yesterday and will spend two weeks with their uncle, Charles L. Gates, and family, and with their aunt, Miss Ella A. Gates.

grand-son, Elliott VanDeventer, before he were in Bellefonte last week for a visit leaves to do war duty as a mining engivisit. --After spending a month at the family home at Centre Hall Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Boozer with their two children and nurse

-Mrs. George Elliott went to Baltimore

Saturday to spend a short time with her will leave tomorrow in their Premier car to motor back to their home in Chicago. They will be accompanied by George Boozer, a recent graduate of Mercersburg, who has secured a good position in Chica--Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rhoads, Mrs. Charles Stearnes and the Misses Linn, of Williamsport, drove to Bellefonte last week to spend the day with Mrs. E. E. of Miss Mary H. Linn for a part of the week. The women of the party and Mrs. Hancock were renewing a friendship of their school days in Williamsport. -Mrs. LeRoy Plumb, of Newton, Kansas, and her little daughter, who came east two weeks ago with Mrs. Plumb's brother, James Fox, accompanied Mr. Fox to Philadelphia last week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gearhart. Mr. Fox had been spending his summer vacation in Kansas, stopping here on returning to resume his work in Philadelphia, while Mrs. Plumb will return to Bellefonte for the summer, Mr. Plumb expecting to join her here in August.

-Judge and Mrs. Daniel Snyder, of Anderson, Kan., have been visiting Centre county friends the past fortnight or more and were honor guests at a family reunion at the home of Mrs. Henry Robb, at State College, on the Fourth of July. Mrs. Snyder is a sister of Mrs. Robb and they had not seen each other for fifty-three years until their meeting over two weeks ago. Mr. Snyder has filled the office of probate judge in Anderson and also looked after the juvenile court work.

(Continued on page 5, column 1.)

Curan at 83c per lh at our

1	Sugar at 64c. per 10., at our Cut Rate Grocery Dept. Bring your
1	baskets with you.—Cohen & Co. 27-1t
١
-	Bellefonte Produce Markets.
	Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer The prices quoted are those paid for produce. Potatoes per bushel 1.50 Onions 30 Eggs, per dozen 30 Lard, per pound 22 Butter per pound 30
-	Bellefonte Grain Markets.
	The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press.
	Pod Wheat $2.25
	TITL:40 Wheat
	Rye, per bushel
	C care per hishel
	O-ta old and new per bushel
	Barley, per bushel
	Philadelphia Markets.
	The following are the closing prices of the

-Yellow..... -Mixed new.. -Winter, per barrel