

MITTERLING.—John William Mitterling died at his home at Centre Hall at 11:40 o'clock on Tuesday morning as the result of blood poisoning. During the past year Mr. Mitterling had been a sufferer with diabetes and several weeks ago he pricked his finger with the thorn of a rose bush. The wound became infected and blood poisoning developed.

Deceased was a son of John W. and Catharine Mitterling and was born at Tusseyville on March 4th, 1862, hence was 55 years, 4 months and 20 days old. In early life he followed the occupation of a farmer, later devoting his time to buying and selling stock. In 1890 he built a home in Centre Hall and retired from active life.

In 1882 he was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Bottorf who survives with the following children: Charles A., of Chicago; D. C., of Centre Hall; Mrs. W. Fred Barry, of Cumberland, Md.; Mrs. John Homan and Mrs. Catharine Breen, of Centre Hall; Henry, who just recently enlisted in the First Penna. cavalry hospital corps, and Miss Carrie, at home. He also leaves one brother and two sisters, namely: Dr. J. Mitterling, of Madison, South Dakota; Miss Alice Mitterling, of Woodward, and Mrs. Sarah Walker, of Penn Hall.

Deceased was a member of the Lutheran church and Rev. J. M. Rearick, of Williamsburg, will have charge of the funeral which will be held at two o'clock this (Friday) afternoon, and will be assisted by Rev. Kurtz. Burial will be made in the Centre Hall cemetery.

WAGNER.—James Wilbur Wagner, for many years a resident of Martha Furnace, died at the Methodist hospital Philadelphia, last Friday, following a year's illness with cancer of the stomach.

Deceased was a son of John D. and Phoebe Wagner and was born at Port Matilda on November 1st, 1867, hence at his death was in his fifth year. When but nineteen years of age he became a member of the Methodist church and ever since he had been an active worker in the same and had filled various church offices.

He was united in marriage to Miss Leona Harpster who died fourteen years ago leaving four young children, Helen, May, Margaret and Boyd. With Christian fortitude Mr. Wagner not only bore his loss but worked persistently to keep up his home and keep his children together, a fact he accomplished successfully. In addition to his children he is survived by the following sisters: Mrs. John Gingery, of Woodward; Mrs. Jennie Isenberg, of Mrs. N. H. Weaver, of Altoona; Mrs. Morris Overly, of Spring Mills; Mrs. John Smith, of Clearfield; Mrs. William Richards, of Martha, and Mrs. William Adams, of Woodward.

The body was taken to his home at Martha on Sunday and funeral services held in the Methodist church at Martha on Monday morning by Rev. H. N. Kramer. Burial was made in the Williams cemetery.

MUSSELMAN.—Mrs. Catharine Musselman died at her home at Centre Hall on Friday of last week after an illness of some days with an affection of the heart. She was a daughter of John and Elizabeth Osman and was born in Potter township on April 19th, 1849, being at the time of her death 77 years, 3 months and 1 day old. When twenty years of age she married Levi Puff who died sixteen years later. About twenty-three years ago she married Mr. Musselman who died two years later. Surviving her, however, are a son and two daughters, John Puff, Mrs. Annabelle Whitman and Mrs. Elizabeth Decker, all of Centre Hall. She also leaves three brothers, Jeremiah Osman, living in Missouri; James, of Michigan, and Hiram, in Altoona. She had been a member of the Centre Hall Methodist church the past sixteen years and Rev. W. H. Williams had charge of the funeral services which were held on Sunday afternoon, burial being made in the Centre Hall cemetery.

STERE.—Mrs. Reda May Stere, wife of Joseph Stere, died at her home at Unionville at five o'clock on Sunday morning as the result of peritonitis, following an illness of only a few days. She was a daughter of Morgan and Ellen Reynolds and was born in Bellefonte on March 8th, 1891, hence was 26 years, 4 months and 14 days old. In addition to her husband she is survived by a year old son, J. Reynolds Stere. She also leaves her parents and one sister, Miss Claire Reynolds, all residing in Bellefonte. Funeral services were held in the St. John's Episcopal church of Bellefonte at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. M. DePue Maynard, after which burial was made in the Union cemetery.

CORMAN.—Benjamin Corman, a native of Centre county, died at his home in Nelson, Neb., on Friday of last week after an illness of some months. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Corman and was born in this county on Christmas day, 1841, hence was in his seventy-sixth year. He went west over forty years ago. He was married to Miss Elizabeth Beck, of Jacksonville, who survives with five sons and two daughters, all in the west. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: John, of Oaks, Neb.; Mrs. William Hall, of Nebraska Park, Neb.; Elias, of Spring township; Nathan, of Pleasant Gap, and Emanuel, of Zion. Burial was made at Nelson, Neb.

SHUTT.—Mrs. Mary Ann Shutt, widow of John Shutt, died at the home of Mrs. Christian Armbruster at Hubbersburg, last Saturday afternoon as the result of a stroke of apoplexy. She was a native of Potter township and was sixty-three years old. Her husband died five years ago but surviving her is one brother, William Fye, living in Clinton county. Burial was made in the Jacksonville cemetery on Monday afternoon.

GLENN.—Grover.—An interesting event took place on the top of Nittany mountain about six o'clock on Sunday evening when Dr. William S. Glenn Jr., of State College, and Miss Hazel F. Grover, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Grover, of Rockaway, N. J., were united in marriage by Rev. J. W. Long, pastor of the Methodist church at State College. The only witnesses to the ceremony were Dr. and Mrs. Grover C. Glenn, of State College, the former a brother of the bridegroom.

Dr. Glenn is a son of Dr. W. S. Glenn Sr., of State College, and before coming to the College a few months ago was an interne at one of the hospitals at Brooklyn, N. Y. Since coming here he has become quite popular in his chosen work. His engagement to Miss Grover has been known for some time by his intimate friends and the wedding was set for October. Dr. Glenn's recent enlistment in the medical reserve corps for possible service in France is given as the reason for their sudden marriage at this time, Dr. Glenn taking advantage of a visit his fiancée was making Dr. and Mrs. Grover Glenn.

On Monday morning Dr. Glenn and bride left on a motor trip to Bradford and other sections of the State, expecting to return to the College the latter part of the week. Owing to the uncertainty of the time when he may be called into service no definite arrangements for their immediate future have been made.

LOWERY.—Crawford.—Among the young people who took advantage of the low-rate excursion to Atlantic City last Saturday night were Sherman Lowery and Miss Ella Crawford, of Coleville. But it was not the delights of the City by the Sea that was the attraction that lured them away from home, but the fact that they stopped in Philadelphia where they were married on Sunday, returning home on Monday evening.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford, of Coleville, and is quite accomplished in the art of housekeeping. The bridegroom is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lowery, of Coleville, and is horse-shoer in Troop L. The many friends of the young people are now tendering congratulations.

STRUBLE.—Burnett.—Leland W. Struble, a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Struble, of this place but who has been located at Larimie, Wyoming, and Miss Anne Burnett, of the above city, were married in that place on Wednesday of last week and at once came east on their wedding trip, the past week having been spent with the bridegroom's parents in this place. Later they will return to Larimie where Mr. Struble is a fireman on the Union Pacific railroad.

EVEY.—Wolford.—Russell Evey and Miss Elizabeth Wolford, both of State College, were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage on Linn street, last Thursday evening, by the pastor, Dr. E. H. Yocum. After a brief visit among relatives in the county the young people will go to Akron, Ohio, to make their home.

MULFINGER.—Shreffler.—On Wednesday evening of last week Maurice Mulfinger and Miss Ruth M. Shreffler, both of Pleasant Gap, were married at the parsonage of the United Brethren church by the pastor, Rev. T. Hugh MacLeod.

TAYLOR.—R. B. Taylor, of Bellefonte, is the lowest bidder for the construction of 20,109 feet of the state highway, twenty-six feet in width, in Somerset county, according to the bids opened at the Highway Department in Harrisburg on Tuesday. Mr. Taylor's bid is $81,428.35, while the next lowest is $114,977.30. No award has as yet been made.

Next Tuesday will end the trout fishing season, and the high-priced and low-priced fishing paraphernalia will be snugly tucked away until another season rolls around, and the fish story tellers will just as quietly be laid upon the shelf. Of course it won't be long until the hunting season will open.

The deal has practically been closed whereby C. C. Shuey has sold his home on High street to William Katz. In disposing of his property Mr. Shuey has in mind the building of a smaller house of the half bungalow type as soon as he can find a suitable location for the same.

In the roster of Troop L published last week the names of privates Frederick L. Johnstonbaugh and Paul Haag were unintentionally omitted, and we herewith give the young men the credit of a volunteer enlistment to which they are justly entitled.

The Ladies Aid society of the United Evangelical church will hold a festival on the church lawn, Saturday evening, July 28th. Everybody welcome.

Conditions are bad enough in Russia but imagine what they will be in Germany after awhile.

Dr. Campbell first graduated in the agricultural course at The Pennsylvania State College; then took a course in veterinary work at the University of Pennsylvania and followed this up by a full course in medicine and dentistry and is now devoting his time to the latter work.

Like Tyrone a Kentucky Feud.
The Altoona Times had the following interesting item in last Friday's issue: The Sharrers and Frantz's, of Bald Eagle valley, are again in the lime-light, there having been another shooting affray there Wednesday, according to the story of Mrs. Ephraim Frantz, who came to Tyrone yesterday morning and appeared before Justice of the Peace Howard Calderwood and told of the shooting of Daniel Sharer. It seems that there had been a long standing feud between the two families for some time and that when Sharer is drinking he is the source of more or less devilment in the community. He had been annoying Mrs. Frantz for some time and when advances were made upon her Wednesday she procured a shot gun and left him where she thought he needed it most. Sharer came to Tyrone and had the fine shot picked from his anatomy and, it is said, proceeded to Altoona to secure redress, the local authorities having long since tired of his escapades. Mrs. Frantz admitted the shooting.

During yesterday's severe thunder storm the house owned by Dr. Schad, on Thomas street, occupied by D. I. Willard, was struck by lightning but no serious damage was done. A bolt of lightning also struck the house of Claude Thompson in Beaver and Hoy road and the building is burning as the "Watchman" goes to press.

What's the matter with Philadelphia, anyway? Every day some new tangle is revealed with regard to the conscription process. It would look as though the Quaker city just can't handle lists of names without juggling some.

Milk producers in the Springfield section of Massachusetts practically say that the big crop of hay will have no effect on the price of milk. They agree that hay is the principal food of cattle, but say that grain is the important factor in the production of milk. It is recalled that in recent years, when grass has been poor, this condition has been used as an argument for high charges, and now, reversing the process, consumers ask why the tremendous crops of this year do not correspondingly reduce the prices of milk, which continue merrily in their upward flight.—The Monitor.

A Swiss farmer who now makes his home in California, applying his knowledge of making a living in a mountainous country, settled on what was thought by others to be a hopeless piece of land. This ground sloped at an angle of 45 degrees, and to make anything thrive on it, he had to be terraced in steps. Here chickens, fruit, and vegetables are helping to make the little hillside farm pay its way.
