CASTORIA.

Bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. In use for over thirty years, and The Kind You Have Always Bought.

WAR WORRIES ARE WORN WELL BY THE NATION'S LEADER.

If you have pictured President Wilson careworn, haggard and breaking under the strain of his tremendous war problems, change the portrait. It's way wrong. On one of his unannounced strolls from the White House to Secretary Baker's office in the State, War and Navy building he gave press men an opportunity for a good close-up of Woodrow Wilson in war mood. Swinging out from Baker's room and down the tiled corridor, the President had more the manner of a man who had just concluded a pleasant chat with an old crony about nothing in particular, than of a nation's leader who had just discussed a vital world problem whose solution he must find. Clad in snowy linen coat and trousers, a flat topped, broad brimmed straw hat set squarely on his head, the President moved at a brisk pace toward the stairway. There was a spring in his step. His smile was genial, his cheeks ruddy with the glow of health. Realizing the vital importance of keeping himself fit, the President is exceedingly careful to play with his work. Early every morning, long before most Washingtonians are so much as turning over for their pre-getting up nap, the President is out in his knickerbockers and off around the golf course. Mrs. Wilson usually accompanies him. A couple of hours later they may be seen rolling into the White House grounds in one of the big cars with the golden spread eagles in a circle on the door panels. Golf, walking and other mild forms of exercise take care of the President's physical health. For mental diversions and rest he turns from the problems of war to intricate, complex and quite thrilling detective stories. Most of his newspaper reading is done for him by Secretary Tumulty. Thousands of papers from all over the country are carefully gone over for news of interest to the White House, and whatever is deemed sufficient is important to bring to the President's personal attention he gets in the form of pasted up clippings at the proper time. He has cares and worries and burdens galore, has the President, but he isn't breaking down under them.—Ex.

WOLF'S STORE.

George H. Showers autoed to State College on business one day last week. How lonely a man must feel when his co-worker leaves and forsakes him. Mrs. C. C. Miss Mildred Waite, who spent some time with relatives in Pennsylvania, is again in our midst. C. C. Bierly, contractor from Rebersburg, recently placed a new red cedar shingle roof on the local school building. Kaiser Bill went up the hill. To take a whack at France; Kaiser Bill came down the hill. With bullets in his pants—And still he looks for more.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Zeigler and children, Anna and Preston, from Rebersburg, spent Sunday with relatives at this place. With apologies to Emerson we might say that: So near is hunger to our dust. So near is grub to man; When Duty whispers, "can or bust!" The youth replies, "I'll can!" Those from our town who attended the Sugarvalley camp on Sunday were George H. Showers and family, Floyd Bressler and family, M. and Mrs. Henry Showers, W. F. Tyson and family, Mrs. Fieta Meyer, Mrs. C. M. Waite and daughter, Miss Mildred; H. A. Houseman and family, W. F. WHEN GIRLS FALL OUT.

Marietta and Janet had fallen out. They found themselves side by side in a railway train and Marietta made overtures of peace. Janet replied to her conversational efforts only shortly until Marietta unwisely remarked: "I was told yesterday I got my good looks from mother." "I wouldn't repeat that if I were you," said Janet gravely. "Why not?" "Well, you know," said Janet, "people will think your mother was stingy."

WAR IS — A soldier in the English army wrote home: "They put me in the barracks; they took away my clothes and put me in khaki; they took away my name and made me 'No. 575'; they took me to church, where I'd never been before, and they made me listen to a sermon for forty minutes. Then the parson said: 'No. 575. Art thou weary, art thou languid?' and I got seven days in the guardhouse because I answered that I certainly was."

WHY SUFFER SO?

Why suffer from a bad back, from sharp, shooting twinges, headaches, dizziness and kidney and bladder ills? Bellefonte people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Could you ask for stronger proof of merit? Mrs. C. Young, Potter St., Bellefonte, says: "For more than a year I suffered from a dull ache in the small of my back. My back was sore and lame and when I bent over I could hardly get up again. I never felt able to do any housework. I had a languid feeling all the time and mornings I didn't feel like getting at my work. I was troubled a lot by dizzy spells. Doan's Kidney Pills had helped so many people around here with the same trouble, I began taking them. I got my supply at Green's Pharmacy Co. The first box cured me. It has been three years now since I have had any trouble from my back or kidneys." Price 60c. at all dealers.
