

P. O. S. of A. Held Big Picnic.

Between fifteen hundred and two thousand people attended the annual picnic of the P. O. S. of A. Alliance of Centre county held at Grange park, Centre Hall, on Labor day.

Most of those present partook of a basket dinner at the noon hour, though the refreshment stand on the grounds had sufficient food to feed all those who did not go prepared.

Facts of Interest to National Army Men.

Washington, Sept. 6.—Drafted men of the first five per cent. of the contingent for the new national army when they leave for mobilization camps are directed in regulations recently issued to take a minimum of civilian clothing and personal belongings.

Attention is called to the fact that civilian clothing will be discarded when camp is reached and to those not desiring to send such apparel back home, it was suggested that clothing not worth keeping be worn.

MEN CALLED GET PAY.

Harrisburg, Sept. 6.—Colonel Frank G. Sweeney in charge of the state draft headquarters, on Monday telegraphed to the local draft boards to notify him whether arrangements had been made for the dispatch of the first men assigned to go to mobilization camps.

Governor Appoints New Commissioners.

Harrisburg, September 3.—State Insurance Commissioner J. Denny O'Neil, of McKeesport, was today appointed State Highway Commissioner to succeed Frank B. Black, of Somerset, who resigned a month ago, at the request of the Governor and Charles L. Ambler, of Abington, Speaker of the Lower House in the 1915 General Assembly, was appointed to succeed Mr. O'Neil.
