Items of Interest Dished up for the Delectation of "Watchman" Readers by a Corps of Gifted Correspondents.

REBERSBURG.

J. W. Bright Jr. has a new house-keeper.

Peace and amity reign again in Smulton.

The Zieglers, as their name implies, are at the front of enterprise.

There will be a lively bout at the coming election, for some local offices.

Many of our automobilious people visited the Union county fair last week.

Those farmers who cultivated their corn in season will have about 100 bushels to the acre.

William Zeigler, having bought the Reuben Cramer house, is looking around for out lots.

John W. Bright visited his little nephews and returned to Cresson, where he is carpentering.

The "Watchman's" double-barreled salute last week stirred up the valley. Send your solicitor down.

Elmer Bierly's sawmill was moved to the Millheim Narrows, where there is still good sawmill stuff to be found.

The war tax has already gone on tobacco and nearly every other article taxable. "The consumer pays it all."

Who is to be the winner of first place in the graduating class next year? Hop to it! It is worth winning.

Singing Brook is a favorite place for chachinating lovers on Sundays as no one lives there now but the Bunny family.

The squirrel hunting season opened with a few sharp reports, but squirrels are as scarce as hickory-nuts, hereabouts.

Berencie Crouse, of Smulton, holds the palm as a swift memorizer of piano music of the highest grade and her execution is marvelous.

Frank Waite, who spent the summer industriously in the edificial up-building of State College, spent Sunday at home. A few more weeks will close his contract.

The Moyer family find open-air sleeping conducive to health and hardiness, but the last few mornings found Jack Frost's nippers hunting exposed noses.

The only kind of chestnuts that are plentiful here this autumn are those with gray whiskers that are cracked in the stores these frosty evenings by the masculine gossips.

There are always a few scandals dangling around on the pale fence, like squirrel tails on Kidder's barn when K. is around. But people don't get agitated any more.

Harvey Burd, who has been a paralytic for some time and lived with Mrs. Jonathan Spangler, left on Saturday for Philadelphia, where Mrs. Burd is a hospital employee.

Miss Byrd Stover on Monday evening availed herself and pupils of the presence of K. Reed Bierly here, by giving a recital, with Mr. Bierly as violinist, all of which was thoroughly enjoyed.

"Perfumery for all by aerial route," is the motto of our town dudes. It has a sinister, sylvan scent, but is in keeping with the current of thought that pervades the atmosphere of juvenile training of this era.

The legal gentleman who comes from Erie, Pa., in his Chevrolet frequently to pay his devoirs to one of our eligible belles, is said to be a chivalrous widower, but his good taste is commendable. Brush Valley girls against the world!

Road supervisor William Bair, although past seventy, is as husky as many a young ruttler. He has built some dandy highways with limestone basis that defies the wear and tear of the big sporting vehicles as well as the heavy lumber wagons.

William James Mallory has become quite content with the old house since his Aztec "babes" have arrived from Arizona. The babes are two parrots, one "Polly" and one "Billy." But they refuse to talk since they came east. They scold in Mexican.

Ed. Frank has returned from the Bellefonte hospital, after a ten weeks' siege. He still walks on crutches but is hopeful. He was injured by a cave-in while working on the public road and will receive from Miles township a snug little sum of compensation insurance.

The chief entertainers at Miss Stover's musical entertainment were Karl R. Bierly, violinist, and Hilda Bierly and Bernice Crouse, accompanists and piano soloists. The musical selections were from Greig, Rapp, Schuman, Schubert and other great composers.

Dr. Jacob Spangler, of Tylersville, made his periodical circuit at the week-end and everything is "dandy." Jake says that the "lovely love" who took French leave of her lonely lord in Tylersville has not yet returned and he is no longer singing that sweet old song: "I was never so happy in all my life."

Harry Corman's studio is a wonder. Besides a fine library of medical, eugenic, phenological and hypnotical books, he has a collection of curios, tools and handicraft for "kunde wite," which, in tout ensemble, makes it worth $1,000 or more. Harry is a student of biology and burns the midnight oil.

As the farmers take up their potatoes they find that the crop is far from the "bumper" variety set forth in early agricultural guesses as made by men, etc., at Harrisburg, who rest their weary innominata on $75 chairs, by cubic measure. Consequently potatoes are rising in price to the consumer.

Miss Byrd M. Stover wears a handsome gold ring presented to her by her sixty-eight music pupils, who each contributed a piece of silver to purchase it as a testimonial of their appreciation of her services. It bears on the signet the inscription: "B. M. S., by her Pupils, 1917." She is justly proud of it.

It is rumored that C. O. Mallory, of Pittsburgh, has his eye on the Rebersburg hotel property with the view of converting it into a couple of dwellings. Don't do it Cal. We need pay here, as it did once before. Very few traveling men are boozers. In any town, Cal., the "boozers" are usually the snoozers around town, and not "the traveling public."

The talent and beauty of our High school on Friday at 2:30 p. m., decided the long controversy as to which is preferable, country or city life. It was settled right, of course, in favor of the country. Now if it will only stay settled until "this cruel war is over," and "Johnny comes marching home again; skeball, sez I." Let it not be like unto the poet who having sung that he would not die in Springtime, etc., finally concluded that he "would not die at all! Skeball sez I!"

A feature in education to be commended is the debate between students of the township High school. On Friday the question was, "Resolved that country life is preferable to city life." The judges chosen were J. N. Moyer, Snyder Miller and Mrs. W. J. Kreider. The affirmative was maintained by Mabel Musser, Ethel Meyer, Stella Weaver, Mary Frank, Gladys Hackenberg, Ruth Doney, Helen Gephart, Harold Hackenberg, etc.

The negative by Sarah Corman, Anna Yearick, Emma Smull, Naomi Hunsicker, Kathryn Ocker, Kathryn Detwiler, Ralph Gramley, Harold Auman. The decision was in favor of the affirmative.

The necessity of having all deeds in a claim of title recorded has again been proven. On the death of John Bierly Sr., his executors, Peter S. Bierly and Samuel Bierly, under a power in his will, sold the land south of the street in parcels. There were eleven purchasers and eleven deeds. Of these but six are recorded. Clark M. Gramley is the present owner of a lot which he wishes to convey, but the executors is not recorded. There are four others that are not recorded and anyone having the custody of these deeds should see that the claim of title is completed. The original patent and claim of title down to 1871 are all right.

Thanks to the public spirit of a number of leading citizens of the Swarthmore Chautauque will hold a winter season in the Evangelical church in Rebersburg, beginning December 10th, and continuing three days, by daylight and candlelight. The program embraces some performers worth going many miles to see and hear. Among them are the stars: Marian Jordan, the most celebrated lady flute player in the world, and her concert company, with whom are Henry Kelly, basso; Maxine Buck, violinist and accompanist; Edna Jones, pianist; Mrs. Titus, lecturer; H. Reid Wilkins, first tenor and parmentier, humorist. There will be great fun and instruction.

BOALSBURG.

Miss Ada Keen is visiting friends at Millheim.

Rev. G. L. Courtney recently purchased a new Ford car.

Mr. John Grove, of Lemont, was a caller in town on Saturday.

Mrs. William Wagner, of Altoona, spent the week-end among friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Keller entertained a few friends at supper on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sellers, of Linden Hall, spent Sunday at the home of Charles Corl.

The first number of the lecture course for the winter will be given in Boal hall on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Plummer, of Altoona, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Rupp.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fry, of Philadelphia, recently visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Kaup.

Mrs. Rine left Tuesday morning for an indefinite visit with her daughter, Mrs. Norris, at Coatsville.

The Boalsburg High school literary society will have their first meeting in Boal hall on Saturday evening.

Rev. S. C. Stover attended Classis at Lancaster last week, and also spent several days with his son John, in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. William Meyer and Mrs. Fred Reitz and daughter Alice left early Sunday morning for a motor trip to Instanter, Pa.

Our nimrods say small game is scarce. Dr. R. M. Krebs was the most successful, securing four squirrels. Grover Corl got three.

Mrs. James Alexander, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. Elmer Royer, of the Old Fort, were guests at the home of W. A. Murray on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther K. Dale and family, of Oak Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. Clement G. Dale, of Houserville, were guests at the home of Austin Dale on Sunday.

Mrs. Jennie Fortney, Misses Beulah Fortney and Rosalind McCormick, and Mr. and Mrs. George Fortney spent Sunday with friends in Pine Grove Mills.

Mrs. Maria Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rossman, of Tusseyville, with a number of Altoona friends, were guests at the home of Samuel Wagner recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Keller and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Baker, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Kidder and daughter on Sunday, for an auto trip through Kishacoquillas valley and Huntingdon.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ripka spent the latter end of the week with relatives down Georges valley.

W. H. Roush is having his residence re-roofed with cedar shingles. Frank Hunsinger has the job.

Mrs. S. E. Tressler departed last Friday for a prolonged visit among relatives in Kansas City, Mo.

The Ross contingent had a family gathering at the old family home tree just west of town, last Sunday.

James Houser and wife and Irene Pletcher drove to the Mountain city and spent the Sabbath with relatives.

Jacob Reish is suffering with congestion of the brain and is in a serious condition at his home at Baileyville.

William K. Corl and wife and Waldo Corl and wife were Sunday visitors at the George Bell home at Spruce Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bailey, of Hollidaysburg, spent the latter end of the week at his parental home just west of town.

After a two week's visit in and out of town Prof. Paul Martz and wife departed for their home in Cleveland on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Tressler, of Centre Hall, motored up on Sunday morning and spent the day at the J. H. Williams home.

W. H. Glenn, wife and son Guy spent the first day of the week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Glenn, near Lemont.

Clifford McElwain visited over Saturday with friends in Stonevalley, where there seems to be some attraction for these week-end visits.

Mrs. J. Will Kepler, accompanied by her two daughters, Mary and Catharine, motored to Bellefonte on Saturday on a shopping expedition.

Dr. S. S. Markle came down from Tyrone for a few days' hunting and got one squirrel. He also saw a gray fox but failed to bring it to earth.

Miss Estella May Heberling, who recently underwent an operation at the Bellefonte hospital, made an excellent recovery and is home again and quite well.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sunday spent the first day of the week at the Harry Sunday home to add their blessing on the little son, who had just made his arrival.

Last week the Miles Gray farm near Pine Hall was sold to Luther Strouse for $9,500. The present tenant, George Hoy, will have sale in March and retire.

Simon E. Ward is now steering a new Twin-four Oldsmobile, purchased through the Dr. Kidder agency. The family took the first spin in their new car to Altoona on Sunday.

You don't want to miss the Halloween social in the town hall tomorrow (Saturday) evening, by the Chamber of Commerce. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the church.

Our young friend, Charles Gates, is wearing a broad smile since Sunday when a sweet little girl arrived in his home. It is the first arrival in their home and Charley says that girls do not have to enlist but can stay at home with papa and mamma.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Piper, of Alexandria, drove up the valley on Sunday and enjoyed the hospitality of postmaster David Barr. It is twenty years since Jesse left to locate at his present home where he now conducts a garage and automobile repair shop.

Mrs. Fleck, wife of Rev. L. N. Fleck, spent last week in Koser's private sanatorium at Williamsport, where she underwent a minor operation on her eye lids. She returned home a few days ago and has every assurance of her vision being much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Neidigh spent the Sabbath at the David Porter Henderson home near Spruce Creek, and on their return home they brought the aged couple along for a brief outing with friends at White Hall. Comrade Henderson is a Civil war veteran, a member of the 125th Pa. Vols, which he was in the thickest of the fight near the old Dunkard church at the battle of Antietam. Notwithstanding his years he is still in good health and quite active.

AARONSBURG.

Clarence Eisenhauer, of Akron, Ohio, spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. J. G. Eisenhauer.

Mrs. Ray Borland and two children, of Pittsburgh, are visiting Mrs. Borland's father, Henry Mowery, and sister, Mrs. H. C. Stricker.

Horace Stover, who is employed at Youngstown, Ohio, was called home to appear before the exemption board of Centre county to be examined for the army. He passed the examination but claimed exemption, which was granted.

Miss Alice Gross, of Mt. Carmel, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bartlett. This was Miss Goss' first visit to Centre county, therefore, on Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett and daughter Eleanor, Miss Gross and Miss Lois Cunningham motored to the famous Penn's cave, where they were all delighted with its many wonders.

Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Patton, Mrs. C. C. Bell, Mrs. John R. Bell and baby, Margaret Bell, and Mr. Tussey, all of Huntingdon, autted to our burg for the day, taking dinner at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Thomas Hull. They all, with the exception of Mrs. C. C. Bell, returned home the same day, making the run of 66 miles in three hours. Mrs. C. C. Bell remained in town until Monday, when she left for her home in Huntingdon.

Mrs. Marr, of Philipsburg, came down to our burg last Monday and spent the week with her mother, Mrs. H. D. Weaver, whom she took back to her home in Philipsburg, to spend the winter. Mrs. Weaver's neighbors and friends are sorry to lose her but as she has been living alone her children thought best for her to go to stay with her daughter for the winter at least. Mr. Weaver is a very remarkable woman, almost eighty-four years of age, and has been doing all her own work.

PLEASANT GAP ITEMS.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Spicher, on Saturday, a son.

The home of Harry Markle is quarantined for scarlet fever.

Miss Ida Houser has gone to Tyrone, where she will spend several weeks.

Mr. William Bilger, who has been ill, is now able to be out among his friends.

Miss Myrtle Deitrick spent the week-end with her mother at Hubbersburg.

Misses Rose and Ophelia Haupt, of Milesburg, spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. George Showers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zettle and daughter Isabelle, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Poorman.

Mrs. Elmer Musser and daughter Natalia, of Pitcairne, are spending an indefinite time with the former's father, William A. Hoover, before leaving for their future home in Cleveland, Ohio.

The fall election is near at hand, however, there don't seem to be any life or animation in the contest at the Gap. This lukewarmness can be accounted for since this is an off year and no fat plums are in sight.

The farmers are busily engaged in husking corn. The labor shortage is quite embarrassing to many of them, as so many of our workmen are absent from home, quite a number having secured remunerative positions in munition plants and other desirable pick ups.

House-cleaning is now on in profusion in our town, hence it is that so many men make it suit to be away from home. The honey of milkman Markle has been stricken and in consequence is quarantined. Stringent measures are being resorted to in order to avoid an epidemic of the much-dreaded and loathsome disease. As a result three of our schools have been closed.

The automobile fever knows no abatement at Pleasant Gap. Some forty machines are being operated in our village. Scarcely a week passes by but one or two new machines are being added. Quite a rivalry exists among our motorists. Each owner of a machine wants a superior machine to the one owned by his neighbors. As an illustration, our liverman, Mr. Jack Noll, has been driving a Ford machine for the past three years, but lately his ambition caused him to invest in a higher-priced outfit, and he is now the happy possessor of a six cylinder Buick, and as a matter of course Jack claims that his new machine is the "best ever," and has many important points in its favor. He says with it you not only enjoy the continuous smooth flow of power, with range of speed and lightning "pick-up," but also the satisfying knowledge that you have a vehicle second to none that speeds down the pike.

Pleasant Gap is noted as an unusually healthy locality, hence it is a desirable place to live in. In point of longevity I think we compare favorably with any place in the map. As proof of this contention I will refer to but three of our good old women residents who are still of sound mind and memory, cheerful and happy in.

Medical.

Some Good Advice

STRENGTHENED BY BELLE-FONTE EXPERIENCES.

Kidney disease is too dangerous to neglect. At the first sign of backache, headache, dizziness or kidney and bladder disorders, you should give the weakened kidneys prompt attention. Eat little meat, take things easier and use a reliable kidney tonic. There's no other kidney medicine so well recommended as Doan's Kidney Pills. Bellefonte people rely on them. Here's one of the many statements from Bellefonte people.

Mrs. J. T. Gordon, 130 E. Beaver St., says: "I, and another of my family, found great benefit from Doan's Kidney Pills. We got them at Parrish's drug store. Our trouble was backache and a dull, constant ache through the loins. I was in misery at times and mornings was sore and lame. I decided to begin my housework. Doan's Kidney Pills made my kidneys normal and relieved the backache. I have had no return of the trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills are all right."

Price 60 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Gordon had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mgrs., Buffalo, N. Y. 62-42

the extreme. They have innumerable friends in the community in which they reside and I think I am safe in saying they happily have no enemies. They are nearing the one hundredth milestone. The oldest is Mrs. Jane Tate, better known as "Aunt Jane," who celebrated her 90th birthday one week ago, in Bellefonte. The venerable old lady is now dividing her time between Bellefonte and Pleasant Gap. Next in order is Mrs. Catharine Baumgardner, who will round up her 90th birthday on March 4th next. Following is Grandmother Bilger, who will be 86 years old in the near future. The aged trio were all good old mothers. Somebody has said that "a mother's love is the only virtue that did not suffer by the fall of Adam." Whether Adam fell or not, it is quite clear that the unselfish love of a good mother is the crowning glory of the race. No matter how long and how sorely it may be tried, its arms are ever open to receive the returning prodigal. One faithful heart never loses its affection for the wanderer who has strayed from the fold. Adversity and sorrow may come with all their terrible force but the motherly affection clings its idol closely. We never see a good old mother sitting in the arm-chair that we do not think of the storms which have pelted into her cheerful face without souring it.

How It Worked.

"I told my boss everything had gone up and I wanted my pay raised."

"How did it work?"

"He said he was just about to say to me that as his living was costing him more, my wages would have to come down."—Boston Transcript.

"Is your Smith well furnished with mental paraphernalia?"

"Yes, indeed; his pa got him the most expensive makes of 'em."—Baltimore American.

Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The Old Reliable Blood Builder

Still retains its supremacy. People still take Hood's Sarsaparilla because it is an old family friend, has proved its merit to three generations—in purified blood, expelled humors, restored appetite, relieved rheumatism, banished tired feelings.

It long ago became recognized as the standard blood purifier and general tonic. It originated in a Boston physician's successful prescription, and comprises medicinal roots, herbs, barks and berries such as are often prescribed for ailments of the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys. Buy it in the same style package your mother bought it in—same fine appearance, same pleasant taste, same certainty of good results. 62-42
