Two Murderers Electrocuted. James Anthony and Archie Miller, of Cumberland county, were electrocuted at the Rockview penitentiary on Monday morning for the coldblooded murder of John L. Beisser, a railroad policeman, near Carlisle, in October, 1916. Anthony was taken to the chair at 7:03 and was pronounced dead at 7:10. Three minutes later Miller was taken to the chair and at 7:20 he was pronounced dead by Dr. Robert T. Campbell. The two men were convicted at the February term of court in Cumberland county.

-Judge Thomas J. Baldridge, of Blair county, on Monday revoked the license of the Altamont hotel Altoona, because the proprietor, L. F. Mc-Dermott, had been found guilty of selling to minors and soldiers and had cursed the government when approached to buy Liberty Bonds. Now that he don't have his bar to look after he will have plenty of time to speculate upon his past conduct.
