To Correspondents .- No communications published unless accompanied by the real

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-The regular argument court scheduled for Tuesday was cancelled because there were no cases to argue.

-Samuel Everhart, of State College, has been drawn as a United States juror to serve in the district court of Harrisburg next week.

-Hugh Quigley, son of Judge and Mrs. H. C. Quigley, underwent an operation at the Bellefonte hospital on Tuesday for the removal of his

with a bad cold, and threatened with 153 licenses issued and fines and lithe grip.

Catholic church, about twenty in num-traffic ordinance. ber, with a chicken and waffle supper at Mrs. Morris Yeager's hotel at Pleasant Gap last evening.

Mann and fitted it up for a cheese factory have done some hustling, as they will be ready to receive milk and begin the making of cheese on Monday.

-A brief respite from the intense cold of December came last Sunday and Monday, but on Monday evening it again blew up cold and Tuesday was quite blustery, though for a favorable recommendation. not so extremely cold as the weather last week.

when he slipped on the wet floor in gation and report. the office, while they were cleaning up Monday evening, fell and struck Pine street sewer completed to the his side on a chair.

-After spending six weeks in the Bellefonte hospital going through borough treasurer's receipt for $875 .a siege of typhoid fever, D. Wagner |00, in full payment by G. R. Danen-Geiss has so far recovered that he hower & Son for the rent of the Phoewas able to be taken home on Wed- nix mill up to January 1st, 1918. The less one lived on one of the main is serious. nesday, although it will be some days committee also reported opening up streets, simply because the ice in storyet before he will be able to be around a number of frozen water lines, the age was limited in supply and the tre County committee of Public Safeand look after his business.

---On Thursday of last week Governor Brumbaugh appointed Edgar McKinney, of Tyrone, captain of the troop of new provisional state reserve cavalry to be located at Tyrone and Bellefonte, and on Tuesday of this week Thomas Beaver, of Bellefonte, was named as first lieutenant.

_J. P. Harbold severed his connection with the Abramsen Engineering company on the 15th of last month and has established a foundry and machine shop in the old lock plant building adjacent to the Engineering company's plant. See his ad-

Bellefonte shirt factory, who was just 7:50 o'clock.

overcome with gas last Thursday

NEW COUNC afternoon while making some repairs to his engine, had recovered sufficient-usual. Minn., came a New Year's greeting and a check for the "Watchman" for the year 1918, with the complimentary and Hard P. Harris and J. D. Seibert, remark that "it is a welcome visitor who had been re-elected. every week." Mr. Gates and family prosperity they are now having.

---The new boiler ordered by Dr. Brockerhoff for use in heating the Brockerhoff house has arrived but the perplexing question now is to find a suitable place to install it. Wherever it is installed, however, it will necessitate the building of a chimney from the basement to the top of the in the house originally are large enough for a heating plant of sufficient capacity to heat the building.

morning train west for their respecthey all beamed their satisfaction at informally and discuss matters relathaving again attained their freedom.

-County Auditors Sinie Hoy and C. M. Gramley began work on Monday auditing the county accounts, which include those of the County Commissioners principally, and those of the Sheriff, Treasurer and Prothonotary insofar as they commingle with the accounts of the Commissioner's office. Auditing the accounts of Centre county has grown to be considerable of a job and now requires from six weeks to two months of the Auditors' farm in Chester county and on a vis- Police committee. friends that when he retired from of- delegates of the Logan and Undine dows in the Presbyterian church in have as their opponents in the Y. M. Hon. Charles H. Rowland.

BOROUGH FATHERS ORGANIZE. Old Council Adjourned Sine Die, Borough Officers Sworn In, New Council Organized.

A general change in "borough fathers" took place in the council Howard street on Monday evening and only five old councilmen were present at the death-watch, namely:

ris and Seibert. Prior to the convening of council the retiring burgess, Edmund Blanch-The latter then swore into office bor-David Bartlet Jr.

When council convened the retiring burgess, Mr. Blanchard made his final been housed up several days this week records show a total of 252 arrests, censes collected amounting to $999.65. -Father Downes entertained the He also stated that not a single acci-thanks to the retiring burgess for his hearty co-operation during his term ed the old red store house at Axe of office and that his report be accepted, affirmed and spread upon the minutes, which was so ordered.

Under the head of written communications a letter was read from Miss Emma Javne Aiken, clerk of the Christian Science society, asking exoneration of five dollars water taxes on the two rooms the society occupies in the Furst building and the same was referred to the Water committee miscellaneous bills of the State-Cen-Garman house, is laid up with three $211.92 and the same were referred guages at Carmel, N. Y. broken ribs on his left side, sustained to the Water committee for investi-

The Street committee reported the new home of Michael Hazel.

The Water committee reported the Water committee and secretary to plied. get in shape for final action by next meeting night.

ary 5th of $3,759.61.

NEW COUNCIL ORGANIZED. ly by Friday evening to be removed for the West ward, J. M. Cunningham to his home on Howard street and is and William H. Brouse made their now able to look after his business as appearance, and a few seconds after eight o'clock the new member of the -From one of the "Watchman's" North ward, E. H. Richard, entered old friends, Ira Gates, of Winnebago, the council chamber. Burgess W. Harrison Walker then administered the oath of office to the new members

The new burgess then addressed went west a number of years ago and council and stated that it was his purnow conduct the Oakhall dairy farm pose to endeavor to give a good adnear Winnebago, one of the best in ministration and to that end he would that locality, and well deserve the ask the borough solicitor for a written opinion, under the new borough code and in conformity with the borough ordinances as to the liability of the burgess to impose fines or commit to prison persons arrested for minor offenses. He also requested the newspaper reporters to make mention of the fact that it is not within the province of the burgess to hear and hearken to all kinds of complaints. For house, as none of the chimneys built instance: Last Saturday he was called on the telephone and told that a certain resident in Bellefonte had four dead dogs in his cellar. Such -Three prisoners were discharg- complaints should be made to either ed from the western penitentiary at the high constable or the board of Rockview on Monday morning, two health. And all complaints should be foreigners and a colored man, and the made to the proper head and he would three of them lost no time in getting willingly co-operate in any movement dle under his arm, and leaving on the of the people. He then stated that when the weather became warmer tive homes. Notwithstanding the and the time auspicious he would fact that winter weather prevailed make it a point to meet the council

ing to the welfare of the town. ready to hear motions for the organization of council. On motion of Mr. Harris John S. Walker was re-elected president for a period of two years. W. T. Kelly was re-elected secretapresent law that provides for council electing the borough treasurer E. J. small. Gehret was elected for a two year term, every man getting the full vote of council Harry Dukeman for appointment as Memorial hospital at that place on in the southern wing of the Academy

fice he would go to Chester county. fire companies on the election of E. this place, she having been before her C. A. gymnasium this (Friday) evencouncil adjourned.

In another column of this issue is A MILK FAMINE THREATENING an article which might really be termed a synopsis of the inaugural fonte. While we are always more anxious as to the future than we are mindful of the past we wish to arrest the attention of our Bellefonte readchamber in the public building on ers, at least, to consider for a moment the debt we owe our retiring burgess linquished his office on Monday it this will be the last week he will President Walker, Cherry, Flack, Harought to have been with a peculiar serve milk, as next Monday he will ard, administered the oath of office to are Planckard was constructive in the retiring burgess, Edmund Bianch-fulfilling its every obligation. Burthis change owing to the fact that for —Mrs. W. H. Harper, of Centre Hall, his successor, W. Harrison Walker. gess Blanchard was constructive in so ough auditors Edward L. Gates and to be so and many improvements in wagon and was compelled to do it business and with the dentist. report, which was in the form of a casions because of his aptness as a cheese factory he will only have one report, which was in the form of a speaker and his pleasing personality delivery to make, and that in bulk.

Lawrence Redding, landlord of brief resume of his four year's term.

Speaker and his pleasing personality delivery to make, and that in bulk.

And stood for what he believed to be the bear of the brief resume of his four year's term. the Mountain house at Snow Shoe, has He stated that in that time the police and stood for what he believed to be ——Father Downes entertained the means stated that not a single actime man" acclaims the new burgess with man" acclaims the new burgess with the mean account of St. John's dent had occurred under the present man" acclaims the new burgess with the mean account of St. John's dent had occurred under the present man acclaims the new burgess with the mean acclaims the new burgess with the mean acclaims the new burgess with the mean account of the control of St. John's dent had occurred under the present man acclaims the new burgess with the mean acclaims the new burgess with the mean acclaims the new burgess with the mean acclaims the new burgess with the new burges with the new best wishes for a useful term it must council go on record as extending of the people of Bellefonte when it

White Sale.—The largest assort- to supply the demand. ment, the best quality, lowest prices. -LYON & CO.

Miller, the local agent.

Secretary W. T. Kelly reported the position of instructor in mathe- sult of this distribution is that milk- der and Miss Bokel were school mates at matics in the Bellefonte High school. men serving routes cannot gather up -Landlord August Glinz, of the tre Electric company aggregating Miss Shuey had been teaching lan-enough milk to supply the demand

> -A. R. Everett, who for some time past has been a sub-carrier in the Bellefonte postoffice, has been appointed a regular on the route heretofore served by the late Edward

Bishop street. The committee also ply on hand so that there will be no now seems inevitable. presented the statement of John M. danger of a famine, or even a short-Keichline for water taxes uncollected age next year, sufficient that the genand the same was referred to the eral wants of the public can be sup-

-S. D. Ray, proprietor of the the old council adjourned sine die at money than they did six months ago in February. manager T. Clayton Brown still gives his patrons the best that can be had. Shortly after the adjournment of An evening at the Scenic will make the old council the two new members you forget the cares and troubles of a trying day.

-On Sunday morning Lawrence McMullen drove from Hecla to Bellefonte in his Studebaker car to attend early services at the Catholic church. At the conclusion of the services he started home and going up Bishop street his car got into a rut and he gave a hard turn on the steering wheel to get it out with the result that it swerved too far and ran into a tree, breaking the windshield and doing some other damage. The car was towed to Beezer's garage for repairs and Mr. McMullen remained in Bellefonte until the work was done.

-Conservation on Pennsylvania railroad trains is being carried out to the limit, according to Dr. Edwin Erle Sparks, president of The Pennsylvanit State College. He quite recently returned from a trip to Philadelphia and on the main line he could not get a drink of water in the Pullman car. Transferring to the Bald Eagle Valley at Tyrone he tried it again but was unable to get a drink and it was not until he transferred to go on railroad shipments. the Bellefonte Central train at this place that he was able to get a drink of water to quench his thirst.

-Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Zerby ento Bellefonte, each with a small bun- for the good of the town and welfare tertained a number of friends at dinner last Thursday evening and the guests were given a thrill later in the evening when a celluloid comb and have him leave, but withal that, each brush set on the bureau in Mrs. Zer- and every one will wish him Godspeed by's room caught fire from a candle in his new field of labor. one of the children was carrying. The He then announced that he was flames from the burning celluloid leaped three feet in the air but before they had time to communicate with anything especially inflammable one of the gentlemen guests smothered the fire with a rug while another guest ry for a like term and under the threw the charred toilet articles out

> -Mrs. Anne Dorris Chisholm, wife of William Wallace Chisholm thick stone wall between the biologic-Applications were received from Esq., of Huntingdon, died in the Blair al laboratory and a recitation room Secretary W. T. Kelly presented bered by many people in Bellefonte as to that part of the building. the art.

BELLEFONTE.

Ever We Might Soon be Without Milk.

Mr. Lewis Lonsberry, of Benner township, who has been serving a milk route in Bellefonte for many years, Mr. Edmund Blanchard. When he reficial we have ever had could have cheese factory at Axe Mann. Mr. uncle and aunt, landlord and Mrs. August been more diligent, more earnest in Lonsberry was almost forced to make Glinz, of the Garman house. our traffic, police and social regula- himself, and the work is too much for lent dignity to the office on public oc- er farm work. By delivering to the good municipal government, often at other milkmen intend going out of the her home at Pittsburgh Monday. defiance with the wishes of personal business of serving routes in Bellesay the least, and while the "Watchis certain to be a milk famine here. business visitor in Bellefonte on Tuesday nig's big Nickel-Alloy plant. men, with the proper facilities for deextends sincerest gratitude to the old. their ability to procure enough milk uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Spangpart of the business of every farm To prevent coughs, colds and and to some it might therefore seem ler. sore throat call a White Line taxi at incredible that there could ever be a the Bush house. Both phones. 2-4t shortage of milk here, but looking -Robert Roan, who conducts an further into the situation very good auto livery, has purchased a new reasons may be found for causing just grand-father, the late Robert Rosen-Grant Six winter car from Wilfrid I. such a situation. While there are hoover. plenty of cows all about us we have only two or three what might be call--Miss Anna Shuey has accepted ed exclusively dairy farms. The re- Tuesday for a two week's visit. Miss Cenand the farmers are too short of help to carry it to them. The Mill Hall condensary sends trucks right to the farms and gathers up the output each day at prices equally if not more at--Last summer it was almost im- tre of the one field that was not ex- F. Hunter. possible to get ice in Bellefonte un- hausted by the condensary the outlook

There is a possibility that the Cenplacing of a new fire hydrant on dealers did not care for the side street ty may have something to do in de-Linn street and putting three others trade. This winter, however, the vising ways and means for meeting in shape to replace worn out ones on dealers ought to have an ample sup- the situation should a crisis come, as

Rev. Walter Fay Carson to Leave Bellefonte.

Rev. Walter Fay Carson, pastor of camps. -If you feel blue and depressed the circuit which includes the Prestransact bills to the amount of shown at this popular place of burg Presbyterian church at Holmes-$1,601.11 were approved and ordered amusement. Notwithstanding the burg, near Philadelphia, expecting to paid and upon motion of Mr. Harris fact that good pictures cost more begin his work there the first Sunday dollars a year in salary there is also live paper, like the "Watchman." a bit of sentiment and patriotism back Holmesburg. Before studying for the ministry Rev. Carson worked in his father's mills and through his close application and industry rose to the ical studies.

blankets and by going to Holmesburg Rev. Carson will be in close touch Red Cross work, in which he is an enthusiast. He also will be in a position to assist his father with expert advice in connection with the operagovernment blankets. While Rev. Florida. Carson will leave Bellefonte about the first of February his family will weather and scarcity of coal in the years, coming here from State College where he was located almost two years. Both he and his family have made many warm friends both at he went away. Bellefonte and at his various church appointments who will be sorry to ifying part of it is that a number of of the window. The damage was new students have enrolled, coming here from New York and northern Pennsylvania.

News Notes of the Bellefonte Academy.

During the vacation period the public is invited to attend.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mrs. Charles Moerschbacher is in Philadelphia, called there Monday by the seaddress of the new burgess of Belle- With Just as Many Cows About as rious illness of her brother, Mr. Wad-

> -William Boozer, of Centre Hall, was a Bellefonte visitor on Monday and found time to make a short call at the "Watchman" office. -Mrs. Alice Showers has had as guests this week her cousins, Mrs. Gardner

Grove, of Spring Mills, and Mrs. E. C. Deitz, of Syracuse, N. Y. sense of satisfaction, for no public ofbegin delivering milk to the Greek in Bellefonte spending some time with his delphia, and her daughter, Miss Katherine, some time past he has been unable to drove to Bellefonte Monday, spending the far as his prerogatives permitted him get a man or boy to drive his milk afternoon shopping, looking after some

-Prof. H. F. Bitner, of Centre Hall, ac- and in New York city. tions are due to his initiative. He him to do in connection with his oth-companied by his brother, Joseph Bitner, of near Farmer's Mills, was in Bellefonte on a business trip on Tuesday.

We have been informed that three ley, since before Christmas, returned to Councilman Harris moved that surely voice the heartiest expression livering, could handle all of the busi- last week-to return to her home in Chica- zierville, after spending the Christmas vaness the trouble is not here, but in go, after a visit of five months with her cation with their mother, Mrs. T. A. Shoe-

> Bellefonte is in the heart of a rich -Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McClain, of Spang-63-2-1t agricultural section where dairying is ler, and Mrs. Albert E. Blackburn, of Philadelphia, have been in Bellefonte this week, guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Spang-

> > -Miss Margaret Rosenhoover accom panied her father to Karthaus last week, going out to attend the funeral of her

-Miss Lota Bokel, of Baltimore, is a guest of Miss Helen Ceader, coming here Notre Dame.

-While in Bellefonte the early part of the week, Mr. and Mrs. Logan McCoy, of Overbrook, were guests of Col. and Mrs. W. F., Reynolds. Mrs. McCoy is the grand-daughter of Mrs. Wistar Morris.

-Miss Miriam Reber, of Philadelphia the only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. tractive than the milkmen can offer. William F. Reber, visited in Bellefonte re-And now that a cheese factory has cently, spending the time while here with started operations right in the cen- her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert fonte. Last week the "Watchman" men-

-Mrs. Charles B. Hughes and Mrs. N. Walsh, both of New York city, were in Bellefonte a part of last week and for the week-end, coming here for the funeral of their cousin, Edward Woods, and remaining for a short visit with Mrs. Theodore Kelly.

urday looking after business in Bellefonte. Mr. Rockey's son, Elmer, is among driver in one of the eastern training

-Assessor W. T. Hubler, of Rebersburg, The Finance committee presented of an evening, try the Scenic. There byterian churches at Port Matilda, was in Bellefonte on Monday making his per's East Brushvalley correspondent, without injury, save a bad scare. who, having a few leisure moments while While his new pastorate will carry in town on business just dropped in to with it an increase of one thousand see some of the work of getting out a real

-J. H. neberling, of Tyrone, made a of Rev. Carson's change of pastorates. special trip to Bellefonte recently to re-His father, George Carson, of Phila- new his subscription to the "Watchman" their own safety they ought to take delphia, is a large textile manufac- It is useless to remark upon Mr. Heber- their sports to streets not so much turer whose mills are located in ling's appreciation of a newspaper which used as High and Allegheny streets. he thinks is worth while spending a half day to make sure of its uninterrupted continuation.

-John O. Miles, of Martha, spent Sunday in Centre Hall with his daughter, position of superintendent. He then Mrs. G. O. Benner, returning home on quit the mills and took up his theolog- Monday evening. Mr. Miles is now nearing the three-quarter of a century mark, At the present time half the output but don't look it, and manages to get to street. Dr. McKinney was the speakof his father's mills is government about every place where he deems any- er of the evening. thing worthwhile going on.

-Upon leaving for Florida the early with the making of war supplies and part of the week, Dr. Ball, of Lock Haven, turkey dinners. thus will have a wider field for his and his daughter, Mrs. Armstrong and her two children, were accompanied by Mrs. George S. Green and her two daughters. As Dr. Green is in service, Mrs. Green has rented her house in Lock Haven, expecting to spend a month with Dr. Ball and tion of his mills and the weaving of Mrs. Armstrong at their bungalow in

-Mr. James Krape, father of James Krape, the faithful attendant at the Belleremain here indefinitely, owing to the fonte hospital, is back from Seattle, Wash ington, for a visit at his old home at eastern market, as well as the embar- Spring Mills, stopping with his sister, Mrs. G. C. King, at that place. Mr. Krape Rev. Carson has been a resident of is a miller by occupation and for a num-Bellefonte the past three and a half ber of years ran the old Grenoble mill at Coburn. He went west twenty-nine years ago and this is his first trip east in all that time, but the west evidently agrees with him as he looks younger than when

-In response to a summons from President Wilson Col. J. L. Spangler departed very unexpectedly on Tuesday for Washington to perform any duty required of him. Mrs. Spangler left yesterday to join him in the national capitol and unless the Colonel's duties require a longer stay they will be in Washington three weeks then go to Atlantic City for the remainder The Bellefonte Academy opened on of the winter. Mrs. Albert Engles Black-Wednesday for the winter term, after burn, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. James A. a three week's vacation; and the grat- McClain, of Spangler, who came to Bellefonte, on Saturday, will close the Spangler home for the winter before leaving for their respective homes.

-J. E. Bressler and Clyde Price, of Ferguson township, motored down to Bellefonte on Tuesday to present Clyde's questionnaire to the conscript board in session here. They are the men who make Miss Mary W. Meek's farming enterprise move -Hon. Charles E. Patton, Gov- chief of police and H. Elmer Yerger Monday, following a brief illness with was cut out and arched, throwing the so successfully, but besides being a fine ernor Brumbaugh's Secretary of Ag- for appointment as policeman and pneumonia. Aside from the fact that two rooms into one, which will now little farmer Clyde is a splendid little pariculture, recently purchased a large both were referred to the Fire and she had frequently visited in Belle- be used as a biological and physical triot. If he could have had his way he fonte Mrs. Chisholm will be remem- laboratary, being a big improvement would have been in the navy now and not bothering with questionnaires, for last week, announced to some of his the report of the joint conference of the designer of the stained glass winliamsport to offer himself to Uncle Sam. Unfortunately, however, his sight is very bad and he was rejected. It was better, fire companies on the election of E. Such being the case he will not be a candidate for Congress in this district on the Republican ticket as successor to our present Congressman, the same was approved, after which years in Dresden, Germany, studying called at 8:30 o'clock sharp and the by undertaking to man a gun with eyes

-Frank E. Naginey returned home last evening from a business trip to Pitts

-Mrs. John Bullock and her elder son were guests of relatives at Sunbury for the week-end. -The Misses Mary and Henrietta Quigley, who spent their Christmas vacation in Bellefonte returned to school this week. -Mrs. John W. Stuart, of State College, and Miss Margaret Jacobs, of Centre Hall, will leave tomorrow for a two week's visit with relatives at Steubenville, Ohio.

-While in Bellefonte the early part of were guests of Mrs. Wilbur F. Reeder at the Brockerhoff house

-Mr. and Mrs. Wayne D. Meyer and little son returned last Friday from spending the Holidays with Mrs. Meyer's sister, Mrs. W. T. Roseberry, at Newark, N. J.

-After spending the holiday season at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lyon, on east Howard street, Mrs. Harry Williams left for her home in

-Contractor Edward F. Gehret spent Wednesday and yesterday on a business friends. It is not a pleasant post, to fonte. If this should be the case there well to do citizen of Madisonburg, was a completed his work for Dr. C. T. Hen--Mr. J. H. Roush, a substantial and trip to Hyde City, where he has about -The Misses Augusta and Ellen Shoe -Mrs. R. M. Power left Wednesday of maker have gone back to school at Framaker. Upon the breaking up of this family party, Mrs. Hayes and her son Thomas, and Miss Mary S. Thomas returned to Mrs. Shoemaker's.

-Mrs. William A. Lyon left Sunday for Atlanta, Ga., for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. McGinness. Mrs. Lyon was accompanied by Mrs. McGinness, who had been north on a business trip.

-Mrs. E. P. Moore, of Tyrone, was in Bellefonte Tuesday, called here by the death of her aunt, Mrs. Russell. Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Miller, of the toll gate, have been her guests in Tyrone since before Christmas. -With her trunk almost packed in anticipation of going to Elizabeth, N. J., for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Kirby Rath and family, Mrs. F. W. Crider became indisposed on Wednesday and will not be able to make the trip at the present time. -J. C. Wilson, of Nittany, was a Bellefonte visitor vesterday and he says the coal situation down Nittany valley is becoming almost as acute as it is in Belletioned the fact that George M. Harter had been a reader of this paper for forty-three years but he has got nothing on Mr. Wilson, as the two of them subscribed the Boy Hit by Automobile.

Last Saturday afternoon Paul Hever--J. B. Rockey was one of State Colley, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. lege representative men who spent Sat- O. Heverley, was coasting down High street and at the intersection of High and Spring streets he jumped off the the enlisted boys, doing service as a truck sled which ran into the gutter. He started after the sled and ran directly in front of Clark Carson's car, who had just turned from Spring street the borough treasurer's report which is no other kind of entertainment of- Unionville, Howard and Jacksonville, returns for Miles township. In a brief into High. When he saw his predicshowed a balance on hand on Janu- fered every evening in Bellefonte that on Sunday tendered his resignation to visit at this office he acted the part of a ament he stopped in his tracks and will prove as interesting as the even- the congregations he served as he has messenger in bringing us a new subscrib- as the driver of the car was unable to There being no other business to ing programs of motion pictures accepted the pastorate of the Holmes- er from that place, which of course was stop the boy was struck by the car, but fortunately was thrown to one --Among the "Watchman" office callers side instead of being knocked down last Friday was Mahlon Stover, this pa- and run over. As it was, he escaped

This is one instance of the danger of youngsters coasting on the main streets of Bellefonte. While the writer would not for worlds deprive the kiddies of the joys of coasting for Those Who Entertained.

Mrs. Furst, Mrs. John Curtin and Mrs. James Furst were hostesses at the January meeting of the Bellefonte Chapter of the D. A. R. last night, at the home of Mrs. Furst, on Linn

Mrs. George Beezer entertained last night with one of her very popular

-The wedding of Miss Verna Geiss and Wallace Miller, whose engagement was announced in Philadelphia several months ago, will take place at Miss Geiss' home on Green street some time during the month of January. Miss Geiss was formerly from Centre Hall and Mr. Miller from Rebersburg.

-Anywhere, day or night. Three cars. Prompt service. Buy a six trip ticket, $1.00. White Line Taxi Co. Call Bush house, either phone. 2-4t

White Sale .- The largest assortment, the best quality, lowest prices. -LYON & CO.

Sale Register.

February 28, 1918—At the residence of W. H. Coldwell on the Aaron Hall farm, 3½ miles north of Unionville, on the Rattlesnake road, 10 head horses and colts, 6 cows, 9 young cattle, brood sows, shoats and full line of farm implements. Sale at 10 a. m. L. F. Mayes, auctioneer.

Bellefonte Produce Markets. $2.00 to Eggs, per dozen

Bellefonte Grain Markets. The following are the quotations up to six o'clock Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press $2.05 2.00 1.50 1.60 1.60 .75 1.00 Rye, per bushel... Corn, shelled, per bushel... Corn, ears, per bushel... Oats, old and new, per bushel. Barley, per bushel...

Wheat-Red .. Corm —Yellow..... —Mixed new Straw

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening: