Petromortis and Its Effects.

S. D. Ray, proprietor of the Bellenarrow escape with his life when he was overcome with gas in the engine room of his plant two weeks ago yesterday, has been at his work as usual this week and is probably the only man in the country who was the victim of petromortis and lives to tell

To a "Watchman" reporter Mr. Ray stated that he had no warning whatever of the attack. That he had gone into the engine room as usual to look at the engine to see if it was working all right and had detected nothing wrong. He had completed his work and remembers going to the steps leading to the factory, and from that on everything was a blank until he awoke to full consciousness in the Bellefonte hospital about midnight. It was not until 8:30 o'clock that evening, about five hours after he was overcome, that Mr. Ray showed positive signs of coming around all right, and in speaking of it he said that he just appeared as if dreaming in his
