Kerlin-Bailey.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Smith, at Centre Hall, was the scene of a happy little wedding last Saturday evening when Miss Freda Helen Bailey, who has made her home there since childhood, was united in marriage to William Wagner Kerlin, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Kerlin. Only the immediate friends were present to witness the ceremony which took place at six o'clock and was performed by Rev. D. S. Kurtz, of the Lutheran church. Immediately following the ceremony a delicious wedding dinner was served, after which the happy young couple left in the bridegroom's car for a wedding trip to Pottsgrove, Milton and other places.

The bride is quite popular among the younger set of Centre Hall and is an accomplished and lovable young woman. The bridegroom has been interested with his father in growing chickens at their large henry at Centre Hall, but is anticipating a call most any time to take his place in the national army. They returned home on Tuesday and for the present will make their home with Mr. Kerlin's parents.

Auman-Slick.—Bruce C. Auman, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Auman, of Millheim, but who is now in training with the Pennsylvania division at Camp Hancock, Ga., and Miss Mary N. Slick, of Centre Hall, were married at the Presbyterian parsonage in Sunbury on Monday, March 18th, by the pastor of that church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Slick and is a graduate of the Centre Hall high school. She will remain with her parents until her husband's return from the war.

Tate-Dreiblebis.—Fred B. Tate and Miss Mary A. Dreiblebis, both of State College, were married at the Reformed parsonage in Boalsburg on Thursday last week by the pastor, Rev. S. C. Stover. The young couple were attended by Paul B. Tate, who was home from Camp Hancock on a furlough, and Miss Edna B. Dreiblebis, a sister of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Tate will locate on a farm near Pine Grove Mills and do their bit to help win the war by growing big crops.

Nihart-Berner.—Deemer Nihart, who went west six years ago, returned last week and on Wednesday was united in marriage to Miss Florence Berner, at her home at Clintondale. On Saturday evening the newlyweds were tendered a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Kimport. They also spent several days with the bride's sister, Mrs. Elmer Rossmann, expecting to leave in a few days for the bridegroom's farm near Dover, Minn.

Threshermen's Meeting.
The Centre county Threshermen and Farmers' Protective association will meet in the grand jury room Saturday, March 30th, at ten o'clock a. m. At this meeting the delegates who attended the State convention will make their report. Important business will be considered and a full attendance is desired.

Threshermen, farmers, saw mill men and every man owning or hiring a steam engine should attend this meeting and learn more about boiler inspection, its object and attainment. Compensation insurance to threshermen will also be considered. State department representatives are expected to be present.

Arrested for Starting Forest Fires.
Following close upon the forest fire which did considerable damage on the mountain near the Purdue and Burnside farms, Sheriff Yarnell on Tuesday went up Buffalo Run valley and arrested two foreigners, Ignatz Benzig and John Bosnik, on the charge of starting the fires. The two men were given a hearing before justice of the peace S. Kline Woodring on Wednesday and the evidence against them was deemed sufficient to hold them for trial at the next term of court.

At the patriotic meeting last Sunday in the Metropolitan opera house, Philadelphia, addressed by the Most Rev. Cosmo Gordon Lang, archbishop of York and primate of England and where every permissible inch of standing room was filled, the North American says, "The Orpheus club and the huge audience furnished the music, Noah H. Swayne, 2nd, singing the 'Battle Hymn of the Republic.'" It will be remembered that the people of Bellefonte had the pleasure of listening to Mr. Swayne's splendid voice many times while he resided here.

The Heffner drug store at State College was broken into one night the latter part of last week and in addition to a sum of money the following articles were stolen: An assortment of white ivory toilet goods in leather case, large bottle of toilet water, two Universal Icyhot bottles, one and two pound boxes of Huyler's candy and several Moore self-filler fountain pens. Mr. Heffner offers a reward of fifty dollars to any person giving information which will lead to the arrest and conviction of the thieves.

MCDONNELL.—Patrick James McDonnell, the well known section foreman on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad at Unionville, died at his home in that place between eleven and twelve o'clock on Wednesday night of uraemic poisoning and blood pressure, after an illness of two weeks, although he had been ailing at times during the past year. During the deep snow in the winter Mr. McDonnell and his crew of men went to Tyrone to help clear away the snow in the yard and while engaged in that work he suffered an attack that was at first thought to be a slight stroke but he recovered in a few days and attended to his work as usual until he was stricken down about two weeks ago.

Deceased was a son of Patrick and Mary McDonnell and was born at Newport, County Mayo, Ireland, on January 19th, 1854, making his age 64 years, 2 months and 8 days. He came to this country when sixteen years of age and a year or two later worked at Unionville and went to work for the Pennsylvania railroad company as a track hand. His carefulness and close attention to detail won the approval and commendation of his superiors and in due course of time he was appointed foreman of the section on which he first went to work, a position he held for many years.

The same constructive principles that he used in his work on the railroad he applied in his life as a citizen of Unionville. He was always a great believer in education as the greatest uplift in life and over sixteen years ago he sought the office of school director in Unionville and was elected, and during his first term he so proved his interest in the schools of his home town and his ability as a director that he was re-elected and re-elected, so that he held the office ever since, notwithstanding the fact that he was a Democrat and Unionville a Republican district. The voters and patrons of the school recognized his worth and he was always elected by a good majority.

Mr. McDonnell always stood in the front line with the foremost citizens of Unionville for every movement for the good of the town and that locality. He was big-hearted, public-spirited and broad-minded, and his efforts to improve and uphold conditions in his home town were entirely unselfish and directed to the public generally. In his social life Mr. McDonnell was a most genial and companionable gentleman, and the circle of his friendship extended throughout central Pennsylvania.

Politically he was a Democrat and in the time of the old party conventions Pat McDonnell was always a familiar figure at the gatherings, almost invariably representing his district as a delegate. On several occasions he was sent as a delegate to state conventions.

Like his ancestors before him Mr. McDonnell was a member of the Catholic church and he was always a faithful and devout attendant.

On September 27th, 1881, he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Loughey, of Snow Shoe intersection, by Rev. Father McArdle, and the thirty years and more of their married life has been spent in Unionville. In addition to the bereaved wife the following children survive: John, a train dispatcher located in Tyrone; James, who is a student at the Bellefonte high school, and Mary, at home. Five children preceded their father to the grave. He also leaves three sisters, Mrs. Berry, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. William McLaughlin and Miss Annie McDonnell, both of Altoona.

Funeral mass will be held in St. John's Catholic church, Bellefonte, at ten o'clock on Monday morning by Rev. Father Downes, after which burial will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

HENDERSHOT.—Mrs. Matilda Hendershot, widow of the late Levi Hendershot, died at her home at Pennsylvania Furnace on Saturday evening. She sustained injuries in a fall early in the winter and never fully recovered therefrom.

She was a daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Robinson and was born in Morrison's Cove, Blair county, on February 3rd, 1832, hence had reached the advanced age of 86 years, 1 month and 21 days. When a young girl her parents moved to Pennsylvania Furnace and practically all her life was spent at that place. In 1854 she was united in marriage to Levi Hendershot who preceded her to the grave twenty-four years ago, but surviving her are the following children: Mrs. James Heberling and Mrs. Albert Eyer, of Mill Hill; W. W. Hendershot, of Pennsylvania Furnace.

For fifty-seven years Mrs. Hendershot had been a faithful member of the Methodist church and in a quiet, unostentatious way, lived a good Christian life. Funeral services were held at her late home at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning by Rev. R. M. Campbell, after which burial was made in the cemetery near Pennsylvania Furnace.

SWITZER.—George Switzer, who lived above the Hartle farm on Spring Creek, died on Wednesday noon after an illness of some days. He was about 78 years of age and for many years worked as a carpenter. Later he purchased a little home of four or five acres of ground on Spring creek and lived there with his sister Mary as housekeeper. The latter is also quite ill, having been brought to the Bellefonte hospital on Sunday. He never married and in addition to his sister is survived by one brother, Abraham Switzer, of Halfmoon hill. The time of the funeral could not be learned up to the time the "Watchman" went to press.

DONACHY.—Thomas VanValzah Donachy passed quietly away some time during Sunday night at his home on Bishop street. He had not been very well of late although he was able to be down stairs on Sunday morning. In fact he felt no worse than usual when he retired in the evening. Early in the morning he was discovered dead by his wife.

He was a son of Alexander and Fannie Seites Donachy and was born in Lewisburg on July 18th, 1834, hence was 83 years, 8 months and 7 days old. When the Civil war broke out he enlisted at Lewisburg in the first call for seventy-five thousand volunteers in the Fifty-first regiment, and was later discharged on account of illness with typhoid fever. When he fully recovered he enlisted in the 183rd regiment and served until the close of the war, or a period of three years and three months.

After the close of the war Mr. Donachy joined an engineering corps and while making a survey for a railroad that was never built came to Bellefonte along about 1867. He remained here until his marriage in 1869 to Miss Mary E. Schrock, of this place, going immediately afterwards to Lock Haven where they lived fourteen years. In 1883 they came to Bellefonte and this had been his home since. For a number of years he worked in Crider's canteen at the court house and later worked at the match factory. He was an enthusiastic member of Gregg Post G. A. R. and a consistent member of the Methodist church.

He was the youngest and last member of his father's family and his only survivor is his wife. Funeral services were held at his late home at two o'clock yesterday afternoon by Dr. E. H. Yocum, assisted by Rev. C. C. Shuey, after which burial was made in the Union cemetery.

Among those here for the funeral was Mrs. M. J. Tucker, of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, who spent her girlhood in the Donachy home, and Mrs. John Schrock, of Altoona.

ROCKEY.—Franklin L. Rockey, a native of Centre county, died at his home at East Peru, Iowa, on Sunday morning following an illness of some months with tuberculosis.

Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Rockey and was born in Buffalo Run valley on October 26th, 1881, making his age 36 years, 4 months and 28 days. His boyhood days were spent on the farm at Altoona where he worked several years, but eight years ago went west to East Peru, Iowa, where he engaged in farming and stock raising. He had been quite successful and had visions of a rosy future when attacked by the insidious disease which eventually caused his death.

He was married in Altoona to Miss Mary Barclay, of that city, who survives with two boys, Harry and Kenneth. He also leaves his parents, living at State College, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. W. H. Macker, of Bellefonte; Andrew and Harry Rockey, of State College; Stuart, of Altoona; Harry, of Fillmore; Elmer E., in the U. S. aviation service now in training at Waco, Texas; Della and Edna at home.

The remains were brought east on Wednesday and taken to the home of his parents at State College where funeral services were held at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, after which burial was made in the Meyers cemetery.

HAUPT.—Mrs. Catharine B. Haupt, widow of the late Isaac C. Haupt, died at her home on North Thomas street at 8:15 o'clock on Monday evening of general infirmities.

She was a daughter of Benedict and Catharine Albert and was born at Lewisburg, Union county, being eighty-two years old last August. She was married to Mr. Haupt at Lewisburg, and about fifty-five years ago they came to Bellefonte and this had been her home ever since. She was a member of the Methodist church for many years and lived a life consistent with her church and its doctrines.

Her husband died in 1896 but surviving her are the following children: Mrs. Walter Metcalf, of Marlboro, N. H.; Mrs. Charles McClellan, Theodore, I. Newton and G. Edward Haupt, all of Bellefonte. She also leaves four sisters, namely: Mrs. Andrew Wilthies, Seattle; Mrs. Abram Brown, in Florida; Mrs. Benjamin Rudy, Canton, Ohio, and Mrs. H. B. Pontius, Bellefonte.

Funeral services were held at her late home at ten o'clock yesterday morning by Dr. E. H. Yocum, after which burial was made in the Union cemetery.

CORMAN.—Miss Elsie Mabel Corman died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Corman, in Millheim, on Wednesday morning, following an illness of some years with Bright's disease. She was born in Millheim and was 37 years and 9 months old. She was a member of the Reformed church for a number of years and when her health permitted a regular attendant.

BLAIR.—Benjamin F. Blair died at his home on east Howard street about 4:30 o'clock Monday morning after an illness of some weeks with heart trouble and asthma. He was born at Houserville on August 16th, 1840, hence had reached the age of 77 years, 5 months and 10 days. He followed farming most of his life, for many years being located in Buffalo Run valley. Thirteen years ago he quit farming and had since lived a retired life.

Mr. Blair was twice married. His first wife died about seven years ago and four years later he married Mrs. Elizabeth Eckenroth, of Bellefonte, since which time he has made his home in Bellefonte. In addition to his second wife he is survived by two sons to his first wife, namely: J. W. Blair, of Fillmore, and G. C. Blair, of Wilkensburg. He also leaves an adopted grand-daughter, Mrs. R. L. Rice, of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Blair was a life-long member of the Methodist church and his pastor, Dr. Ezra H. Yocum, officiated at the funeral which was held on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, after which the remains were taken to the Branch cemetery for burial.

WILLIAMS.—Mrs. Catharine Williams, widow of Dr. John Williams, died on Sunday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Williams, in Phillipsburg, of general debility. Her maiden name was Catharine Yeager and she was born in Philadelphia on October 6th, 1827, hence had reached the advanced age of 90 years, 5 months and 15 days. After her marriage to Dr. Williams they located at Julian and lived there many years. During that time she became a member of the Baptist church at Martha and for more than half a century was consistent to its faith and teachings. She is the last of her generation but surviving her are the following children: Mrs. A. C. Williams, of Phillipsburg; C. C. Williams, of Kelsa, Va.; Mrs. L. C. Irwin, of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Lena Hoover, of Philadelphia; Mrs. R. L. Swisher, of Julian, and Mrs. David Adams, of Nanty-Glo. The remains were taken to Martha on Wednesday where funeral services were held in the Baptist church after which burial was made in the church cemetery.

SANKEY.—Joseph Cowden Sankey, a native of Centre county and a veteran of the Civil war, died at the soldiers' home in Washington, D. C., on Thursday last week, following a prolonged illness with Bright's disease. He was a son of Thomas and Janet Sankey, and was born in Georges valley on November 28th, 1845. He served with bravery and distinction throughout the Civil war. He entered the soldiers' home about twenty years ago. He never married and his only survivor is one sister, Mrs. William Bell, of this place. The funeral was held on Monday, the old veteran being buried with military honors in the national cemetery connected with the home.

Eating Places Must Sign Pledge Cards.
W. L. Daggett, proprietor of the Bush house, Bellefonte, who was appointed a deputy food administrator by Federal Food Administrator Howard Heinz to secure the co-operation of hotels and eating places in the conservation of food, has received the following notice from Mr. Heinz:

In your drive to secure signed pledge cards from all public eating places in your county who have not signed, please emphasize the fact that the rules and regulations must be complied with by all, whether they sign the pledge card or not, and that the signing of the card will put them in better standing with the Food Administration.

So far as we know, all who have not signed the cards are not co-operating, and they will be dealt with accordingly. We have full authority to close up the business of the offenders. Please call our attention to any who refuse to sign. The closing date for leniency is March 31st.

Howard Chambers, nine-year-old son of County Treasurer and Mrs. David Chambers, of Clarence, was badly hurt last Wednesday when his pony ran away and threw him out of the cart into a barbed wire fence. Howard took his pony out for a drive and just when he was ready to start his grandmother, Mrs. John Gotwald, came out of the Chambers home to return to her own home a short distance away. Boylike Howard insisted on his grandmother getting in the cart so he could take her home. On the way a gust of wind blew a paper bag into the pony's face and quick as a flash it wheeled, upset the cart and threw both Howard and his grandmother to the ground. The boy was thrown into a barbed wire fence and sustained one cut on the face which required thirteen stitches to close, as well as several ugly minor cuts which may mark him for life. Mrs. Gotwald sustained a badly sprained ankle and some bad bruises, but no serious injuries.

On or about February 16th all traffic was suspended on the "Allepopper" railroad, better known as the Pittsburgh and Susquehanna, running from Phillipsburg to Fernwood, Clearfield county, and as a result thirty-one coal mines had to cease operations because they are all dependent on that road as their outlet to market. Congressman Charles H. Rowland is one of the principal owners of the road and financial difficulties were given as the cause of the suspension of traffic. Satisfactory arrangements having been made passenger traffic was resumed on the "Allepopper" on Monday and freight traffic on Tuesday.

BACK TO THE FARM.

Another Appeal to Purchase Thrift Stamps.

The report of the war savings and thrift stamps campaign, for the week ending March 16th shows that Centre county was second for that week, and tenth for the entire campaign in the eastern district of Pennsylvania. We made a gain that week of thirty-three cents, and we now have a per capita of $1.83, but in order that Centre county may "go over the top," we must have not less than 50 cents per capita every week until December 31st.

Every man, woman and child in the county must save and loan these savings to the government. Some are doing this now. Why should we not all do the same. Think it over. If you have not already started, start now. Purchase war savings and thrift stamps from your nearest postmaster.

Your chairman, with the co-operation of your district chairman, which has been assured, will hold meetings in every section of the county. The issues concerning the world war, in which we all, as loyal American citizens, are especially interested, and those concerning the war savings and thrift stamps campaign, farm, food, fuel and Liberty bonds, will be fully discussed. Every person, within a reasonable distance, is urgently requested to attend these meetings. You cannot afford to miss them. Within a few weeks Mr. Edward C. Bendere, of Philadelphia, director for counties in the eastern district of Pennsylvania will come to Bellefonte. Not only will every district chairman be also expected to attend that meeting, but also every person interested in our government and the successful termination of the war.

Resolve right now to do your whole duty, and to do it honestly; be patriotic in the full sense of the term; become enthusiastically interested in every cause wherein the government is concerned, and lend your personal interest and influence in the war savings and thrift stamps campaign, and thereby make it possible for Centre county to head the list of all counties in the eastern district of Pennsylvania.

W. HARRISON WALKER,
Chairman War Savings Committee for Centre County.
