Bellefonte, Pa., April 26, 1918.

To Correspondents.-No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-Organ concert by Gatty Sellars, day night. An evening of great pleasure for music lovers.

---The Titan Metal company has opened offices in the Eagle block, Bellefonte, in the rooms formerly occupied by Gettig & Bower.

-A marriage license was granted in Cumberland, Md., on April 19th, to Martin Hillard, of Coleville, and Miss Sylvia Stere, of Bellefonte.

The rebuilt gas plant was fired up on Wednesday morning and the men in charge of the plant expect to be in shape to furnish gas by tomorrow.

-Do not fail to hear Gatty Sellars, the world famous English organefit. All seats 50 cents

-The employees of the Nickelsale closes.

-James G. Bent, superintendent of construction at the new western penitentiary, was this week notified that the announcement of the death of his brother, John T. Bent, in France last week, was an error, and that he is still alive and well, which was good news to Mr. Bent.

-The service flag which was to have been unfurled and dedicated at the Bellefonte Academy last Sunday, Connellsville Casey wrote: but for good and sufficient reasons could not be at that time, will be dedicated next Sunday at two p. m.. three months I am at last in sunshine church should greet this wonderful Prominent speakers will be present down here. During my trip I could organist. All seats at the popular and the public is invited to attend.

-"Bluebird Day" (Monday) at the Lyric theatre has become recogment is assured. Bluebirds are se- ages about the many interesting exlected as plays for their value as enentertainment; they are produced by skilled artisans and played by actors first-class, which aviators and officers and actresses especially selected for only enjoy over here. Our route led every role.

-It is now Major David Dale. U. Bellefonte friends of our popular to his country and so modestly goes on with his work—that is earning fre-Oglethorpe.

-Division employees of the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad from Bellefonte to Lewisburg attended a meeting at the Orpheum theatre, Lewisburg, on Saturday, and after the business for which they were called together was transacted they became patriotic and subscribed for $4,500 worth of Liberty bonds.

—The regular show season al- we saw the famous leaning tower. ways ends with hot weather but not a good picture.

reason seeks patronage for their en- wonderful to explain. tertainment on May 13th.

-M. A. Anderson, whose home is in Connecticut but who during the few miles of Naples, where we saw past school year has been instructor Mt. Vesuvius, an eruption of which in Latin and history at the Bellefonte Academy and also acted as director of athletics, has resigned his position at Naples. I expect to spend the and departed yesterday for Connecticut to enlist for the war. A number of Academy students gave him a fare- than the meals furnished by the well dinner at the Brockerhoff house Italian soldiers. Our bill of fare conon Wednesday.

-The play to be given on May 13th by strong home talent, promises to be one of the best ever staged in Bellefonte. The selection of this particular play and the cast, under the direction of Miss Baer, spells unsurpassed success. The proceeds will be devoted entirely to the war fund now being created by the Bellefonte Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. The Academy orchestra will furnish the music which in itself will give genuine pleasure.

"Watchman" takes this opportunity Eagle, a beautiful insignia. (A later to call attention of lovers of good letter states that "Casey" has passed minstrelsy that Coburn's Minstrels this test). will show at Garman's Tuesday night, April 30th. When this company ap- I stood on the spot where Caesar was ed that the latter is also safe on the other two towns are Port Matilda and peared here last season it was on its killed and saw the places where Marc other side. first tour of Pennsylvania and in our Anthony and other Romans distinjudgment it was far and away superior to any minstrel aggregation that long ago. had ever played in Bellefonte; and this is saying a lot for our experience be- doing real work over the lines, as I Martz. Some eight or ten other gan away back in the days of such feel such confidence in myself. I am members of the troop also came home day evening and sold $18,550 worth of Thursday, by Mrs. William Chambers at companies as I. W. Baird's, Duprey troubled about clothes, the only thing on seventy-two hour furloughs, the bonds, against an allotment for Boggs her home on Curtin street. and Benedict, Hi Henry, Sweeney, in wearing apparel I brought from troop having arrived in New York township of $14,650. Toner A. Hugg Alvido, Gorman and Goetz, Gorton's France was heavy wool and now I after being four days and four nights was in charge of the big street parade Furnace, was in Bellefonte Saturday on New Orleans Minstrels, and John W. am scouring the town for any old on the road from Camp Hancock. Vogel's. As a musical show Thatch- light-weight clothes I can find. This er, Primrose and West, nor Al Fields town has a population of 80,000 in- Camp Dix, N. J., on a brief furlough. number, and included the various civin their palmy days had nothing on Coburn's last year and since they were sadly neglected in building it.

Pete Saylor was among the Camp Hancock boys who arrived home yessenged then it seems to us that minstrel lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to street lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all to street lovers was among the Camp in the lovers was among the Camp in the lovers was among the Camp in the lovers was among t strel lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to home on Sunday. All told, it is said, ing picture theatre which was ad- he is still the same genial gentleman who

CASEY JONES AT THE BAT. Young Aviator Writes Thrillingly of Work in Italy.

Bellefonte and Centre county peobut when the government called for meeting. men Casey left college and enlisted in the aviation division. He is now in in the Methodist church, next Thurs- Italy and in a letter written to a Bellefonte friend under date of March 22nd he says:

Your letter of February 13th came and Saturday Evening Posts came to day. I can never thank you enough for all those things. I do not believe there is anything that makes a person feel better than letters from the States. When a person feels tired and blue a letter boosts his morale high as the sky and he forgets all his fly from 5 a. m. to 7:30 p. m., only being allowed three-quarters of an hour with Lester Lucas, Edward C. Clif-

Alloys company at Hyde City have al- pect to finish here real soon and then ers Manager Coburn has ever carready taken ten thousand dollars I will go on my first raid. That jour- ried. Don't miss this number and worth of Liberty bonds and so enthu- ney will be about 150 miles and I ex- the always welcome Coburn Minstrels before being invalided home. siastic are the workmen that Dr. C. pect to make it in a little more than next Tuesday, April 30th, at Gar-T. Hennig feels assured that they will an hour. I cannot tell just yet when man's. make it fifteen thousand before the I will leave here, or where I will go, France.

I suppose you have heard of the many raids on Naples. We are in direct line with that place and have heard machines go over at night, but as yet they have not let us have any of their bombs. The nearest attack to us was over one mile distant, and that is quite a long way off.

"Probably you think I am lost, but only drop a card. "First, I must tell you something of our wonderful trip. Just a brief outnized as a time when good entertain- line as you know I could write for periences and sights. We left our former camp in France, traveling north and then south and then through the Alps until we crossed the border S. A. M. C., if you please. And the into Italy. That section of France was wonderful. We were allowed physician who has given his service stop-over privileges at all large cities and places of interest. Coming to the Alps we spent three days in quent promotions-will be delighted looking around the towns in the to learn of his recent advancement at mountains. I cannot describe their beauty. My camera was hot from taking pictures.

"Our first impression of Italy was gained after passing through the great tunnel, 27 miles long, at Modena. We saw our first Italian city when we came to Turin, another wonder. After riding in an open hack (we call them sea-going hacks because they look like boats) for several hours, we entrained and proceeded to Pisa. Here so with the Scenic. The motion pic- I was much surprised, during my tour Tuesday afternoon when his automoture today is one endless stream of of this city to learn that I had seen amusement and the Scenic will fur- three of the seven wonders of the nish its share daily to all who care to world. They are the Collosseum, St. avail themselves of the big offerings Peter's Cathedral and the Forum. I shown there. Go any evening in the rode on the Appian Way; crossed the week and you may feel sure of seeing famous bridge of Horatio (restored in the 15th century) and explored the -The Bellefonte D. A. R. is not ruins of the great Stadium where running in opposition to the Red Titanius Silenus, the negro, built the Cross, but on the contrary, it is a live- wonderful castle. The Stadium had ly factor in both the Red Cross and a seating capacity of 325,000 and was the Navy League. The Chapter de- the scene of the chariot races depictsires, however, to specialize in a line ed in "Ben Hur" and "Quo Vadis." I of patriotic work outside of the ac- went through the Vatican which contivities of other societies, and for this tains 1,200 rooms. Oh! it was all too

"After eating a wonderful meal we left Rome and proceeded to within a destroyed the cities of Pompeii and Herculaneum. We did not stay long week-end there next week.

"This camp is wonderful, no less so sists of oranges, spaghetti, macaroni and such standard dishes as are common among these people, so I don't but I always hope I will not awaken within a fortnight.

the extremely hot hours of the day at Fort Oglethorpe but who antici- Three Centre County Towns Have when the air is too 'lumpy.' I ex- pates leaving soon, has been promot-The dramatic critic of the pect to pass the test for the Italian ed to the rank of major.

Liberty Loan Meeting.

ing in the Methodist church at Stormstown, Wednesday evening, May 1st, at eight o'clock, to be addressed by ple well remember Casey Jones, a for- Dr. W. K. McKinney, Mrs. Elizabeth mer Bellefonte Academy student and B. Beach and C. C. Shuey, all of consist of a big parade followed by a athlete, who, after finishing his course Bellefonte. Everybody invited to at- meeting in the court house which will at the Academy went to State College tend and make this a real, patriotic be addressed by Lieut. P. G. Might,

Penn Township Boy Wounded in France.

April 13th. Sergt. Stover is with the promptly at 7:15 o'clock. U. S. marines, having re-enlisted in

Always a Fine Quartette.

We are having terribly hot days every season is the splendid quartette the Diamond, where the parade will be pittsburgh yesterday. now and work harder than ever. We of male voices appearing in a singing disband.

opportunity of hearing Gatty Sellars, the world-famed English organist. who will give an organ recital in the Methodist church on Thursday evening of next week for the benefit of the Red Cross. Cathedral chimes from the Queen's hall, London, will be used with the organ. Mr. Sellars In another letter to his mother in plays almost entirely from memory and included in his repertoire is the British patrol, the storm at sea, and after roaming around in France for various military effects. A crowded price of 50 cents.

Dead Soldier Known in Snow Shoe.

The first Lycoming county man lost in the world conflict was Freeman W. Bower, of the 6th regiment engineers. He was killed on the Western front Easter day.

ly and was buried with religious rites cessor. and military honors. Also, that his burial at the close of the war.

in the great conflict for liberty.

Automobile Wrecked by Train.

W. Calvin Meyer, of State College, had a narrow escape from death on bile was run down by the passenger train on the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad at the Ishler crossing in Benner township and literally smashed into kindling wood. Mr. Meyers was thrown from the car but picked himself up and was able to walk to the train. He suffered a few small cuts 227 Men Graduate at State College. and bruises but was brought to Bellefonte and was sent to the hospital. home on Wednesday morning.

Mr. Meyers was on his way home and when he got on the crossing his York. motor stalled and the car stopped were the tires.

News of the Soldiers

The Pennsylvania troops, which in-Word has been received in Belle- H. Teas, of Teas, West Virginia. "We fly constantly, except during fonte that Dr. David Dale, who is still Word has been received of the safe arrival in France of Howard Rowland, and inasmuch as he and Basil Mott

"I can hardly wait until I get to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William ly twice the township's allotment.

BIG LIBERTY LOAN RALLY. There will be a Liberty loan meet- Will be Held in Bellefonte This (Friday) Evening. A Liberty Loan rally will be held in Bellefonte this (Friday) evening to of the 18th Canadian infantry.

The parade will form at the High school building and will include Our Boys and Our Girls bands, of Miles-On Wednesday forenoon Mr. and bond sellers of Bellefonte; the Red burg; the Liberty Loan committee and Mrs. H. G. Stover, of Penn township, Cross, Logan and Undine fire compareceived a telegram from the War De-nies, the P. O. S. of A., Odd Fellows yesterday and I beg to say the box partment announcing the fact that and any other civic organization that several weeks, left Friday of last week to their son, Sergt. Gervis Effinger Sto- will fall in line, as well as the school ver, had been wounded in action on children. The parade will form

January after serving for three years. south on Allegheny street to the Dia-The route of the parade will be mond, down High street to the railroad, countermarch to Spring street, One of the most enjoyable features south on Spring to Bishop, Bishop to of J. A. Coburn's Greater Minstrels Allegheny and north on Allegheny to ist, in the Methodist church, Thursday for lunch, and I am so tired at night ford, Perce Dilcher and Jas. W. Bis- house. W. Harrison Walker Esq. will Detroit. Mr. Decker accompanied his I just feel like hopping into bed with hop, each of whom are clever solo- preside and the chief speaker will be mother to look after the settlement of his ists, the Ragapation Four is without Lieut. Might. The Lieut. was through If the fine weather continues I ex- a doubt the finest quartette of sing- some of the fiercest battles in Belgium and France, having been at Vimy Ridge and Lens. He served two years | Mrs. J. Norman Shearer, of Reading, came

An overflow meeting will be held in the opera house and while the Lieut. is talking at one of the meetings but I am hoping to get back to Great Musical Event for Bellefonte. Prof. George P. Bible will address the Bellefonte music lovers will have an 3:15 o'clock in the afternoon, in the court house, for the children, so that their instructor, who is in service. they can hear the soldier-orator and will not need to attend at night.

join in the parade and in that patriotic way show your sympathy and support of the government. And if you have not already done so, buy a Liberty bond.

The members of the Bellefonte Chapter Red Cross are requested to meet at the High school building promptly at seven o'clock this (Friday) evening. Take uniforms and flags and be prepared to march in the who do not have uniforms are also for a short visit with Mrs. Curry's father, urged to get in the parade.

Jonas E. Wagner to Leave Bellefonte.

Jonas E. Wagner has resigned his Private Bower has repeatedly visit- his position as supervising principal ed in Snow Shoe and it will be a of the Bellefonte public schools to acsource of consolation to his friends cept a similar position at Beaver at there to know that the War Depart- an increase of $1,000 a year in salary, ment has communicated with his par- and Arthur H. Sloop, of the Bellefonte ents to the effect that he died gallant- Academy, has been chosen as his suc-

Mr. Wagner first came to Bellegrave has been carefully marked and fonte in 1902 and taught one year his body will be brought home for then was away a year returning in the fall. 1904. The following year he was His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles made principal of the High school and Centre county the after part of last week, Men and Moose lodges for the benefit Bower, of Montgomery, have the in 1909 was elected to the position of coming here to be examined for service, of the Red Cross, was well attended deepest sympathy of their many friends but can feel proud that their pervision the Bellefonte schools have enlisted son was one of the bravest attained a high standard and he will Wiser was accompanied by Walter Gates, examples of what America has to give leave here with the best wishes of his of Warriorsmark, who was also here for many friends for his future success.

Mr. Sloop, who has been at the Bellefonte Academy a number of years as an instructor in physics and chemistry, and during the past few years has been assistant head master, is well known to the people of Bellefonte and will without doubt make a very efficient supervising principal. Mr. Wagner anticipates leaving Bellefonte on or about July first and Mr. Sloop will take charge of the school affairs at that time.

Two hundred and twenty-seven men Remarkable as it may seem his inju- graduated at the annual commenceries were very slight and he returned ment held at State College this week. The exercises began on Sunday with the preaching of the baccalaureate from Bellefonte in his big Pilot car sermon by Rev. Vandewater, of New

The exercises during the week indead. All his efforts to start the mo- cluded the Junior oratorical contest tor proved futile and before he could on Monday evening, meeting of the jump the engine struck the car just board of trustees and alumni on forward of the windshield. It was Tuesday and the graduation exercishurled around into the ditch and par- es on Wednesday. A pleasant feature versity club to Dr. H. P. Armsby, Dr. William Frear and Dr. G. G. Pond, all of whom have been on the college faculty thirty years.

A pleasing and unexpected feature cludes the boys from Bellefonte and of the graduation exercises on Wedneed to come to the U.S. A. for a Centre county, started on the move nesday morning was the presentation spaghetti supper. We have brick bar- this week for a port of embarkation. to Dr. G. G. Pond, dean of the departracks, iron beds, sheets and so on. Some of them are traveling north in ment of chemistry, of $5,000.00 in The weather is fine. Today we are big motor trucks and just when they new Liberty bonds. It was an expreshaving weather similar to the hot will embark or at what port is unsion of the affection in which he is days of July in Pennsylvania. Some- known, but it is rumored that the en- held and the gratitude they feel for times I think it must be all a dream, tire division will be on ship-board training under him by a group of his old chemistry students, headed by W.

Gone Over the Top.

Three Centre county towns have gone over the top in the third Liberty loan. Unionville was the first to "I must tell you that while in Rome sailed at the same time it is presum- make this enviable record, and the Milesburg. Although the allotment Clayton Martz, a member of the for Worth township is but $6,750 Torrence Bell, of East Hampton, N. J. guished themselves in the days of Machine Gun troop, arrived at his Port Matilda citizens have purchased home at Tusseyville yesterday to see $12,800 worth of bonds, which is near-which took place at seven o'clock. It business having motored down in their Horace Hartranft is home from was led by Our Girls band, fifty in machine, which he has never essayed to strel lovers would be wise in taking a cool off so we have all decided to home on Sunday. All told, it is said, ing picture theatre which was auchance that this appearance will be close our letters and pick some seventy-two of the boys will be given dressed by John Blanchard Esq., Mrs. Robert Mills Beach and others.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mrs, McMillan, is home from Harrisburg for a visit with her mother, Mrs.

-Miss Mary Eberhart has been spending the past week with friends in Mifflinlyn, is visiting her mother, Mrs. R. S. Brouse.

-Miss Josephine White spent the weekend with her sister, Miss Marie White, in Williamsport.

-Mrs. Henry Bartley went to Millheim Wednesday, called there by the serious illness of her brother, William Smith. -Mrs. H. E. Thornley's mother, who had return to her home in Philadelphia. -Mrs. Lewis Daggett has returned home from a two week's visit with her mother and aunt, Mrs. Canfield and Mrs. Stoddart, at Wyncote, and with friends in Philadelphia

-After spending a week very pleasantthe Shoemaker flats, Mrs. F. W. Miller and two children returned to their home in father's estate. -Mrs. George S. Green, of Lock Haven, with her two daughters and her sister, to Bellefonte Saturday and were guests during their visit of several days of Mrs. W. F. Reynolds.

-J. Harris Olewine, an instructor in the chemistry department at Penn State, is arranging to return to the University Illinois, where he will substitute until the end of the term, in organic chemistry, for -Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Deitrick, of Madisonburg, their daughter, Miss Alma, and The public is urged to turn out to Miss Mabel Vonada, spent a part of Monthis meeting. Come to Bellefonte and day in Bellefonte doing some summer buying. Mr. Deitrick and his party drove over with Charles Rachau in his car. -Mrs. M. L. Valentine, her sister, Mrs.

Weatherley, and Mr. Weatherley are at "The Elms," Excelsior Springs, Missouri, from where Mrs. Valentine will return east after having spent the greater part of the winter with Mrs. Weatherley, in Omaha. -Mrs. Benjamin F. Curry, of Aspinwall, and her small son, were in Bellefonte the early part of the week, stopping here on Charles F. Cook.

-Mrs. David Dale was in Bellefonte Tuesday and Wednesday, coming here to look after her house, which she will open in June. Mrs. Dale and her daughter, Anne Dodd Dale, have been in Gettysburg since fall with Mrs. Dale's brother, Judge D. P. McPherson.

-Miss Jane Miller, who has been in the western part of the State since August, came to Bellefonte from Pitcairn Wednes-Mrs. Miller Stewart. Miss Miller will spend the summer in Bellefonte and Pleasant Gap, expecting to return to Pittsburgh in examination.

-Mrs. Jared Miller left Bellefonte the after part of last week to return to her home in DuBois. While in Centre county for a three week's visit. Mrs. Miller was guest of her niece, Mrs. Harvey Miller, her brother, George Harpster, both of Bellefonte, and of relatives in Boalsburg and Centre Hall.

-Ellis and Joseph Gramley, of Freeport, Ill., brothers of Mrs. Bartley; Mrs. Henry Bartley and Mrs. Charles Heisler, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gentzel, of Beaver Falls; Alvin Bartley, of Lock Haven, and Austin Bartley, of Altoona, were all at State College Tuesday, for the funeral of the late Herbert M. Bartley.

-James M. Moyer, who used to keep the hotel at Potters Mills, was a "Watchman" office caller last Friday. Having disposed of his personal property at Potters Mills he went to California during the winter, but decided that Pennsylvania is good enough for him, so several weeks ago was struck in the left eye by a piece returned to Reedsville, Mifflin county, of steel. At the time the injury was where he is making his home at present.

-Mrs. J. G. Butterworth arrived in Bellefonte Monday night from Augusta, Ga., where she had been with Lieut Butterworth since October. After a few days here, Mrs. Butterworth will join her husties who saw it afterwards aver that on Tuesday was a dinner given by band again at Camp Upton for a short the only whole parts that were left members of the faculty at the Uni- visit before he sails, expecting then to return to Bellefonte to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Knisely.

-Mrs. Herbert Bellringer, of Jamaica, L. I., and Joseph Sourbeck, of the U. S. N., daughter and grandson of John D. Sourbeck, have both been in Bellefonte during the past week, called home by Mr. Sourbeck's accident last week. Joseph, who was unable to secure a furlough at 15-tf the time, was later granted a ten day's leave of absence, while being transferred to one of the German transports.

-Mrs. Earl Tuten has rented her house furnished and will leave Sunday for Philipsburg, where she will begin her work at once as manager of the Philipsburg Ledger. Mrs. Tuten's two sons will remain here with their aunt, Mrs. Harold Kirk, until the close of the school term, expecting then to join their mother. Mrs. Ambrose Sloteman, of Lock Haven, has been a guest of Mrs. Tuten during the week.

-All of Mrs. William Bell's children in cluding Mrs. Brooks, of Reading; Mrs. Kessinger, of State College; Dr. J. Finley Bell, of Englewood, N. J., and John and were in Bellefonte this week to be with their mother on the eightieth anniversary Re of her birthday. The celebration was in Milesburg had a big rally on Tues- the form of an all day family party, given

-Mr. John H. Miller, of Pennsylvania

-Mrs. William Doll returned from Williamsport Sunday, after a two week's visit with her brother, Augustus Gillen.

-Mr. and Mrs. Ellis H. Bierley, of Pine Grove Mills, were in Bellefonte yesterday attending to business and doing some shopping.

-Mrs. Frederick W. Topelt, of Brook-turned to Bellefonte Tuesday, after hav--Mr. and Mrs. G. Willard Barnhart reing spent the week-end at Mrs. Barnhart's former home in New Jersey.

-Mr. and Mrs. George Sherry returned a week ago from a visit with their son Oscar, in service at Camp Lee, and with friends in Jacksonville, Florida Base Ball League Will Open Next Tuesday Evening.

The Red Cross base ball league will open next Tuesday evening at 6:45 o'clock with a game on Hughes field between the North and South ward teams. This was decided at a meeting held by the league magnates on Tuesday evening. The winner of that game will play the West ward on ly with Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Foresman, in Friday evening, after which a regular schedule will be adhered to.

At the same meeting it was announced that John Curtin had been elected manager of the North ward team. J. M. Cunningham, president of the league, appointed the following umpires: North ward, John J. Bower; South ward, Earl Hoffer; West ward, William Rowe. The West ward organization was granted permission to draw players from Bush's Addition and Coleville.

The Red Cross will have charge of the sale of the tickets, etc. Now that the season is about to open it is up to the lovers of the game to boost the league. And not only boost it, but be sure to attend the games. They will afford lots of amusement during the long evenings and also help along a good work.

Woman Grabbed by Strange Man.

At a late hour last Saturday night the police were notified that Mrs. Walter Eberhart, who lives in a house in the rear of Parrish's drugstore, had been attacked by a man in her own house, bound and gagged and left lying on the floor. According to the woman's story she went home about ten o'clock and walked into the house, got a match and their way home from Philadelphia, for a had just lit the lamp when a strange big Liberty Loan parade. Members day at commencement at State College and man stepped out of the other room and warning her to keep quiet, grabbed her, bound her hands and feet, put a gag in her mouth and leaving her lie on the floor took his departure. The woman described the man as of medium height, slight build, and with a light coat and slouch hat. She also said that he had a red handkerchief tied over his face. So far the police have been unable to get any trace of such a man. The woman was uninday, and has been a guest since then of jured and so far as could be learned nothing was stolen from the house.

> -The dance given on Monday night in the Bush Arcade hall by some and the Bellefonte Chapter was presented with the sum of $40.00. The committee in charge consisted of Messrs. Fred Meyers, Edward Howell, Darius Cole, Willis Wyland and Walter Tate, and to these gentlemen is due the credit for the very pleasant evening enjoyed by all present.

Attention, P. O. S. of A.

All members of Washington Camp, No. 887, P. O. S. of A., of Bellefonte, are urged to report at the camp rooms Friday evening at 6:45, to participate in the big Liberty day parade, moving promptly from the High school building at 7:15. The regular meeting of the camp will be held following the parade. T. W. CAIRNS, Secretary,

Thursday of last week, Herbert Gray

Standard Steel works at Burnham,

-Through an accident at the not considered serious. Meeting of Woman's Club. The monthly meeting of the Woman's club will be held in the High school building, Monday evening,

April 29th, at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. CHAS. C. KEICHLINE, Cor. Secy Shorthand and Typewriting.—The Gregg system shorthand classes and ypewriting, for both boys and girls, :30 Monday and Thursday evenings, High school building. Terms reasonable. Enroll with

-Miss Snyder will give a showing today (Friday) of her Phipps hats and the correct models for spring and summer of 1918. 63-17-1t

Miss ANNA M. SHUEY.

Chicks for Sale.—Inquire of Grace E. Dubbs, Commercial phone. 63-17

	Bellefonte Produce Markets.
	Corrected weekly by R. S. Brouse, Grocer.
1	The prices quoted are those paid for produce.
	Potatoes per bushel $ 90
	Onions$1.00 to 1.50
	Eggs, per dozen
	Lard, per pound 25 Butter, per pound 46
	Butter, per pound
	Bellefonte Grain Markets.

The following are the quotations up to six of nursday evening, when our paper goes to	clock press.
d Wheat hite Wheat e, per bushel rn, shelled, per bushel rn, ears, per bushel ts, old and new, per bushel rley, per bushel	$2.10
Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening:
Wheat—Red. $2.17@ 2.19
"—No. 2 2.15@ 2.17
Corn—Yellow. 1,95@ 1,98