THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

The Bellefonte Trust Co. has received a supply of Liberty bonds and is ready to furnish same to all subscribers.

D. Finklestein last week purchased the White Line taxi service from Louis Daggett, and is now operating the same.

The Academy students are now being drilled by a U. S. army officer who was assigned to that institution from State College.

Bernard Williams and Josephine Richards, both of Port Matilda, were granted a marriage license at Cumberland, Md., on Monday.

Morton Bidwell cannot go to war because he is not able physically, but he is doing what he can and last week purchased a fifty dollar Liberty bond.

The Spring creek trout have begun to work, and as proof of the fact is the story that last Friday afternoon Willis Shuey and son caught 31 of the speckled beauties.

"The Price of a Good Time," at the Lyric Wednesday, May 15th, is a Jewel production in seven reels, featuring Mildred Harris, which should be seen by every mother and daughter in the land.

The colored jubilee singers of Bellefonte will give a concert in the High school building on Friday evening, May 10th, for the benefit of the Red Cross. A cordial invitation is extended the public to attend.

Over a dozen men left Bellefonte on Tuesday for Indianapolis, Ind., to drive home a consignment of automobiles for dealer Krader, of Millheim. Among them was mail carrier Eberts, of this place.

Another carload of prisoners were brought in from Pittsburgh and taken to the new penitentiary last Saturday. Among the number was Joseph Wagner, who was only recently sent to the penitentiary from Bellefonte.

The doors will close promptly at eight-thirty Monday evening, May 13th, when, under the auspices of the Bellefonte Chapter D. A. R., Miss Baer, with a talent cast, will present "Robena in Search of a Husband" in Garman's opera house.

The semi-annual rummage sale for the benefit of the Bellefonte hospital will be held on Wednesday, May 15th. Anything in the line of clothing, bric-a-brac, furniture, etc., will be accepted. If articles are to be called for notify Mrs. John M. Shugert or Mrs. R. S. Brouse.

The summer school for teachers will be held at State College this year as usual. Up to date applications have been received from about six hundred teachers and it is probable that the attendance will be in the neighborhood of about that number. The school will not open until June.

C. W. Heilhecker, the new district superintendent of the Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania, has arrived in Bellefonte and taken charge of the Bellefonte district as successor to W. S. Mallalieu. Since Mr. Mallalieu went to Williamsport Roy H. Grove has had temporary charge of the Bellefonte district.

E. H. Gehret, John Anderson, James Stover, Paul Haag, Willis Shuey, H. N. Crider and Col. H. S. Taylor motored to Millheim on Wednesday morning and put in the day fishing in Elk creek. They caught fifty-six of the speckled beauties, enjoyed a trout dinner cooked in the open and brought about three dozen trout home.

Mrs. Munson has left the Bush house to open her house on Allegheny street. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morris and their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, and Mrs. Harvey and her two children will leave early in the week, the Morris' to open their house and Mrs. Harvey to go to the Orvis home, where Mr. and Mrs. Orvis will join her the latter part of May.

Among the national army men who took the officers' training course at Camp Meade, Md., and have been recommended for commissions as second lieutenants are David A. Deitrick, of Hubersburg, and Armin E. Shirk, of State College, both having been sent from Centre county to Camp Meade. The commissions will be given as soon as there is an opening for the young officers.

Mrs. Parker, of Somerset, mother of G. Ross Parker, of this place, has probably achieved a record for knitting socks not equalled by any other woman in the State. She will be eighty-nine years old on her next birthday and is now working on her seventy-sixth pair of socks. And we venture the assertion that the boys in khaki who were fortunate enough to get a pair of the socks found them of the best.

Bellefonte friends of Joseph A. Twitmore, son of Mr. Wilbur T. Twitmore, of this place, will be glad to know that he is recovering very nicely from injuries sustained several weeks ago in a railroad wreck. He is still in the Lock Haven hospital but able to walk around and the best part of all is that both his arm and his hand were saved, and will probably be so restored that he will have complete use of both members. In fact he is already planning to return to his work as an engineer on the Pennsylvania railroad just as soon as he recovers the use of his hand and arm.

BIG LIBERTY LOAN MEETING. Five Thousand People Attend Patriotic Rally in Bellefonte Last Friday Evening.

Liberty Loan day last Friday was celebrated by the people of Bellefonte with a big patriotic rally in the evening which was attended by at least five thousand people. A leading feature of the gathering was a parade which took place at 7:30 o'clock. The parade formed at the High school building and was composed as follows:

The speakers and guests in automobiles. Chief marshal H. S. Taylor and aides; Our Girls band of Milesburg; Bellefonte Chapter Red Cross; Our Boys band of Milesburg; Logan and Undine fire companies massed; Bellefonte Academy students, Bellefonte band, P. O. S. of A., Bellefonte Lodge of Moose, the Red Men and pupils of the public schools. Over a thousand people were in line and the parade moved south on Allegheny street to the Diamond, west to the railroad, countermarched to Spring street, south on Spring to Bishop, Bishop to Allegheny and north to the Diamond where the parade was dismissed.

Immediately thereafter two meetings were held, one in the court house and one in the opera house. Charles M. McCurdy presided at the former and W. Harrison Walker at the latter. The chief speakers were Lieut. P. G. Might, of the 18th Canadian infantry, who was invalided home after two years' service in the trenches, and Dr. George P. Bible, who just returned from a trip to France.

In his talk Lieut. Might told of the patriotism of the Canadians when a call came from the mother country for men, money and munitions. At the time he was superintendent of one of the largest schools in Toronto, with over a thousand students in his charge. He, along with thousands of others, responded to the call and were among the second contingent to be sent overseas. They got some training in England and a little in France but it was not many weeks until they were sent to the front and got their baptism of fire in the front line trenches. At that time the Germans had control of the air and were able to direct their artillery fire where it would do the greatest destruction, while the British artillery could only fire at random. He told of the Canadians having been driven back at one point but on a counter-attack retook the lost ground and some more, and it was at that time that they found that one of their men, who had been taken prisoner by the Germans, had been crucified by nailing him to a tree. And while surrounding his dead body his comrades took oath that they would never take a German prisoner, and they kept their word. He told of the capture of Vimy Ridge, a duty assigned to the Canadians, and though it cost them dear in killed and wounded it was taken and today is held as a monument of the Canadian's bulldog tenacity.

The Lieut. also paid a glowing tribute to the French and British soldiers and said that he had not the least doubt about what the American soldiers would do. He spoke, however, of the urgent necessity of getting more men there as quickly as possible, but even more than that the urgent need of ample supplies and equipment for those now there and those being sent. And it was then he made his plea for the Liberty Loan. He urged the people to be patriotic and stand by their country in this fight. That only by so doing can the war be won, and won in the shortest possible time.

When the lieutenant had finished speaking to the crowd in the court house he went to the opera house and Col. J. L. Spangler gave a brief talk until the appearance of Dr. George P. Bible. The latter told of his trip to France and what he had seen of the American troops. He spoke of them as being a fine lot of soldiers, but also urged that our people here as well as elsewhere show their patriotism by subscribing liberally to the Liberty loan as well as in the purchase of war savings and thrift stamps.

Both the court house and the opera house meetings were largely attended and it is to be hoped that they will be fruitful of results.

To be called the North precinct of Ferguson township.

Sent to Jail for Furnishing Men Liquor.

James Fetters, of Bellefonte, and Richard Jodon, of Milesburg, were fined $50 each at a session of court yesterday morning and sent to jail for ninety days by Judge Quigley for furnishing liquor to men of known intemperate habits.

Fetters purchased a bottle of whiskey at the Brant house on Tuesday and gave it to Joseph Turner. He was arrested by policeman Yeager. Jodon bought a bottle of whiskey at the Bush house on Wednesday and gave it to Harry Kline. He was arrested by chief of police Harry Dukeman.

At the hearing yesterday morning Jodon stated that he was working in the limestone quarries and made from $5.00 to $9.00 a day and that he bought the whiskey for Kline simply to get a drink. The hotels were not implicated as both Jodon and Fetters were legally entitled to buy the whiskey.

Runville Residents Excited Over Mysterious Strangers.

Residents of Runville and vicinity have been considerably worked up this week over what they consider very mysterious actions of two strangers who have been in that locality most of the week. They aver that they ramble through the woods during the day, sleep in an old barn or wherever they can find shelter at night and as far as eating goes no one has seen them eat at all.

The two men were in Bellefonte early in the week and interviewed Frank P. Blair, asking permission to look over his lands in Boggs township. They stated that they were from Northumberland county and were interested in starting a birch distilling plant, and were on the hunt for birch wood. They stated that in a casual look through the woods out in the locality of Runville they had seen some birch and they wanted the privilege of making a thorough survey. While so far as known Mr. Blair did not grant them the privilege of making a survey, he didn't forbid them going on his land, and it is since they were to see him that they have been scouring the woods in that locality.

Whether the men told the truth about their mission is not known, but so far as can be learned they have done nothing to warrant any action being taken against them. In fact it is just possible that they are honest in what they represented and if birch is found in sufficient quantity a distilling plant may be built.

Hurt in Automobile Accident.

Thomas S. Williams, superintendent of the Titan Metal company, had a close call for his life on Monday evening. He left the plant about 5:25 o'clock to go to his home at the Forge house and jumped onto the running board of the big Titan truck. When opposite his home he jumped off the truck just as Clyde Lambert in his Maxwell car attempted to pass it.

The men called to Williams but it was too late and he was knocked down in such a way that when the car was stopped one front wheel was right on his back. Edward Kelley jumped from the truck and alone lifted it while other workmen pulled Williams from his perilous position. It was feared his back was broken but an examination at the hospital, where he was rushed as soon as possible, disclosed the fact that not a bone was broken and all his injuries were external and superficial. It was a very miraculous escape and it is the hope of Mr. Williams' friends that he will soon be around as good as ever.

Going Over the Top.

The Liberty loan campaign will close tomorrow (Saturday) evening and if Centre county people make a Garrison finish, which now looks plausible, the county will surely go over the top of its allotment. So far the response has been general and liberal. Notwithstanding the few slackers that are to be found in every community, Bellefonte included, the people have been behind this loan and the final result will no doubt be very satisfactory. In fact when the total reports are in it is believed that they will show that Centre county, now as always, has shown her loyalty and patriotism in a most decisive manner. But this is no reason why you should not buy bonds up until the sale closes tomorrow evening.

Snow Shoe is another Centre county town that has gone over the top. Its quota was $46,750 and it has purchased $61,000 worth of bonds. Milesburg's total is now over $30,000 and they are still working. At the meeting held at Julian last Saturday evening enough bonds were sold to put Huston township $1,300 ahead of its allowance. The employees of the Chemical and Centre County Lime companies have taken $4,000 worth of bonds. On Tuesday little Margaret Haupt, of this place, went to one of the gentlemen selling bonds in Bellefonte and told him she wanted a fifty dollar bond. When asked how she wanted to pay for it she replied, "in cash," and produced the fifty dollars. She is now on the list and will soon be a United States bondholder.

NATIONAL ARMY MEN LEAVE. Forty-two Young Men Sent Away Tuesday to Camp Lee.

Forty-two more young men of Centre county were sent away on Tuesday afternoon for service in the national army, the contingent going to Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va. Of the men summoned last week to appear here on Monday, James F. Shook, of Spring Mills, was discharged, and Henry M. Fleming, of Phillipsburg; Arthur J. Heaton, of Howard, and Philip D. Jones, of State College, failed to appear. In their place, however, were summoned Dorsey Johnson, of Phillipsburg, and John F. Wilbur, of Millheim, while B. C. Evey, of Akron, Ohio, was inducted into the service as a special. There being an extra man at the train John Bryan, of Milesburg, was sent home for the time being.

The young men answered to the roll call Monday morning and in the afternoon were given a half hour's drill in the armory by Col. H. S. Taylor. Shortly after three o'clock they were marched up street to in front of the court house where a group picture was taken of them, one of the boys holding in his arms H. C. Valentine's bulldog as a mascot.

Monday evening the boys were given a farewell banquet at the Garman house at which the following guests were present in addition to the members of the local exemption board: Deputy warden Fred B. Healy, of the western penitentiary; Judge Henry C. Quigley, Col. H. S. Taylor, Major S. M. Huff, Capt. H. Laird Curtis, Burgess W. Harrison Walker and ex-Burgess Edmund Blanchard, all of whom made brief addresses to the young men. Before leaving the dining room the young men sang the "Star Spangled Banner," and before going to bed that night they gathered in groups on the street and sang various songs.

Tuesday morning the young men were given another half hour's drill by Col. Taylor and immediately after dinner they assembled in the Diamond and led by Stuart M. Breon, who had been placed in charge of the squad, they marched to the depot under escort of the Boys band where they were given a rousing send off before they embarked on the Lewisburg and Tyrone train for their trip to Camp Lee.

At the train Sheriff Yarnell gave each man a khaki handkerchief with the compliments of the Fauble Store, while J. C. McCargar distributed cigarettes among the boys. In commendation of the patriotism of the young men of Centre county it might be said that of the forty-two young men sent away nine of them requested that they be advanced ahead of others so that they could go at this time, and before leaving two of the crowd invested all their savings in Liberty bonds.

MORE MEN CALLED FOR SERVICE.

The local exemption board this week summoned the following men to appear in Bellefonte on Monday, May 13th, to make up Centre county's quota of twelve men to be sent to Columbus barracks, Columbus, Ohio, on Tuesday, May 14th:

Two Fifty Year Members Awarded Badges.

At a special meeting of the Bellefonte Lodge I. O. O. F., last Thursday evening, County Commissioner Isaac Miller and C. T. Gerberich were each presented with gold badges as commemorations of the fact that they had each rounded off fifty years as members of the Lodge. Mr. Miller became a member of the Bellefonte Lodge in January, 1868, and Mr. Gerberich joined in February of the same year. The badges presented are of gold, enameled in blue with the figures 50 in the centre and duly inscribed on the back with the name and date of membership. The badge is suspended from a three-link bar and pin.

The presentation speech was made by J. Kennedy Johnston Esq., and other members present paid tribute to the faithfulness of both men to their obligations to the I. O. O. F. Mr. Miller and Mr. Gerberich are the first members of the Bellefonte Lodge to receive the half-century badges, and they are to be congratulated not only upon that fact, but that they are still in such good health that their Lodge may profit by their wise counsel and active participation in its deliberations for years to come.

The North ward baseball team won the first game in the Red Cross league series on Tuesday evening by defeating the South ward aggregation 6 to 4. Only four innings were played owing to the rain and darkness. This (Friday) evening the South and West ward teams will lock horns on Hughes field. Go out and see the contest. The price of admission is small and the money is for the Red Cross, a most worthy cause.

The big crowds attending the scenic evening are ample proof of the character of the pictures shown there. Nothing like them is shown anywhere else in Bellefonte. They include some of the biggest serials put out by the best companies today, the Pathe weekly of current events and many others just as interesting. A visit to the Scenic will convince anyone of the high quality of the pictures.

Some time ago the government took over the entire output of the Bull Durham brand of tobacco from the American Tobacco company and finding it insufficient the Tuxedo brand has now been taken over, dating May first. The American tobacco company announces that inasmuch as the government has now arranged for an adequate supply of tobacco for the soldiers no more orders from private individuals or firms will be accepted. The fact that the soldiers will thus be supplied with tobacco will also be a relief to those who have friends in the service and who have been unable to send them tobacco owing to the restrictions on mail service.
