In these days of sacrifice and heartaches we read much of the world's happenings; but above all, we wish to include in the annals of history the final decision which W. D. Brungart has arrived at, namely: A Dodge—

The proof of the sight and I could hardly read. Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention and as I had heard that they had done a lot of good for others I got a box. The first few doses relieved me of the awful pain in my back and I continued until I was entirely relieved. I have taken several boxes of Doan's since and they have kept my kidneys in good working order." Q. E. D.
