Bellefonte, Pa., May 10, 1918.

To Correspondents .- No communications published unless accompanied by the real

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-The Nittany Theatre, State College, offers two good attractions for meeting at Curwensville on Sunday afternoon, and helped to raise $81,000 for the Liberty loan.

sold before that time.

doors will close promptly at eightthirty.

-Engineers of the State Highway Department have been at work this week staking off the grade for the new highway on south Water street, which is one more step in the work of ization have done in your district, espeoughfare.

-J. Will Conley, of the John Meese store, Bellefonte, has been appointed Centre county representative United States Food Administration, should communicate with Mr. Conley. service to your God and your country."

-The new concrete bridge was put in on the Pennsylvania railroad over Buffalo Run last Friday night. The construction crew had everything ready and as soon as the night train pulled out got to work and had the mittee should be taken as a personal bridge in place and everything complete by 4:30 c'clock Saturday morn- committee-woman in the district; for

Mrs. Weston were hostesses, Miss Virginia McCurdy read a paper on the this meeting the Chapter presented Miss Rhoads with a radio wrist watch to be used in her work abroad.

of Enosburg Falls, Vt., have announc- total." ed the engagement of their youngest daughter, Miss Helen Mary Merrill, to Roy E. Strohecker, of State College. Mr. Strohecker is a graduate of State College class of 1917 and is located at Enosburg Falls as a chemist for the Federal Packing company.

A concrete floor reinforced by old railroad iron and supported by a third Liberty loan did good work, as is concrete abutment in the centre has been put in the rear of the Lauder-handed the "Watchman" for publicabach-Zerby building to take the place of the floor which collapsed sometime ago under the weight of the groceries stored therein. The new floor, however, is strong enough to support most any weight.

-Don't forget the "Retreat of the Germans" at the Lyric theatre this (Friday) evening. It is presented by the government and the proceeds will go to the war relief funds distributed by Pathe. A matinee will be given at 3 o'clock and evening performance at 6:40. Next Wednesday evening "The Price of a Good Time," a general production. Matinee and

-The Pennsylvania railroad company has had a force of men at work road street and the ground around the who helped in the good work. freight station to ascertain the cost of paving the same with vitrified blocks. It has always been difficult to keep the street in question and the grounds around the station in good en by George Tate, of Yeagertown, of about $3.50 for each member. It was wrecked on the state road near would be well for each of us to lay the old Titan Metal company plant aside a little change every day so that on Sunday afternoon. The machine we may be ready to contribute our was a new one, having been purchas- share when the campaign opens. ed by Mr. Tate less than a week ago. The latter claims that the steering apparatus stuck which caused the accident. Nobody was injured but the Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland, of the pen-

---Pursuant to a call of the government for additional doctors for the medical reserve corps the Centre County Medical Society held a meeting last week to find out if any additional physicians can be spared from Centre county. Unfortunately only a street. In front of Harry Flack's few physicians were present and residence he ran into the curb on the practically all of them were beyond the south side of the street which turned age limit. Major Huff, who was discharged from the service, stated that notwithstanding that fact he is ready and willing to volunteer for service either at home or abroad, if the government will take him.

-Prof. S. C. Miller, of Chester, writes the "Watchman" that his father, 'Squire D. W. Miller, of Pine Grove Mills, underwent a very successful operation in the Chester hospital last Friday morning for the removal of a and was getting along in such fine at the Scenic on Thursday and Friday, en Sunday. This is considered re- that will make the blood of any man must be made daily. For this reason mer. markable when the fact is considered boil, if he has any red blood in him. it is essential that each day's report that Mr. Miller is seventy-two years Don't forget the dates. In the mean- be entirely accurate. The mission of $862,450 FOR CENTRE COUNTY DISTRICT.

County Went Over the Top With Almost 50 Per Cent. More Than Quota.

Subscriptions to the third Liberty loan in the Centre county district will reach $862,450, almost 50 per cent. more than the allotment of $600,000. The several towns in the district report subscriptions as follows:

lege, offers two good attractions for next week. See advertisement on page 5.

—Col. H. S. Taylor was the principal speaker at a big Liberty loan cipal speaker at a big Liberty loan cipal speaker at a big Liberty loan cipal speaker at a big Liberty loan Sunday (2000)

Subscriptions amounting to $22,000, made through the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., should be added to those from The chart for the home talent Snow Shoe, although reported outside play will be open at Parrish's drug the district. A further addition to in training at State College since store after two o'clock on Saturday the figures given above will be that of March 25th will leave tomorrow mornafternoon next. Positively no tickets the employees of the Pennsylvania ing for Camp Hancock, Ga., to con-_C. T. Gerberich celebrated his $26,000. This brings the total to lines. They will leave the College at eighty-second birthday a week ago $862,450. The amount should be fur- six o'clock. with a small party. Mr. Gerberich is ther increased by sales of upwards of one of the very young old men of $10,000 from Worth township, which were made through the Tyrone banks, -We need not wait quite a week and credited to the Blair county disnow to see the home talent play. It trict, the subscribers refusing to subwill be Monday evening, May 13th, scribe through the Centre county in Garman's opera house, and the banks. The Advisory committee for Pennsylvania has sent the following telegram to chairman Chas. M. Mc-Curdy: "At the close of this momentous campaign we cannot begin to adequately express our appreciation of the magnificent work you and every man in your organrebuilding that much traveled thor- cially in the width of your distribution, inasmuch as every buyer becomes staunch and understanding supporter of the government. We congratulate you and knowing something of the difficulties final totals, when tabulated, so that he tribue by every committeeman and the best county paper published. it is to their intelligent and persistchairman and of the general commit-The Hon. and Mrs. Olin Merrill, efforts added materially to the grand > patriotic interest in the loan. The above figures do not include Philipsburg, which is outside this district.

In commenting on the above and dy said:

REPORT OF WOMAN'S COMMITTEE.

- 0			-
,	tion:
	Bellefonte		$	19,600
	Centre Hall	40		8,050
3	Howard	27		4,300
	Howard	30		11,100
	State College	7		2.000
5	Snow Shoe	14		2,350
	Unionville	27		4,550
	Benner Twp	6		1,250
	Boggs Twp.	9		700
	College Two			3,250
	College Twp			1,700
	Ferguson Twp			11,650
•	Gregg Twp
	Haines Twp	51		7,750
7	Halfmoon Twp	9		1.000
3	Harris Twp	20		6,300
1	Huston Twp	20		5,100
1	Liberty Twp	38		5,600
-	Miles Twp	36		3,600
	Patton Twp	24		3,350
7	Penn Twp			6,350
,	Potter Twp	30		2,350
	Spring Twp			4.550
1	Walker Twp	16		5.200
	Worth Twp.			11,800

during the past week measuring Rail- Beach, wishes to thank every woman

Get Ready for Red Cross Campaign.

The Red Cross will conduct a campaign during the week beginning May 20th to raise a war fund of $100,000,condition, while to pave the same will 000. The amount allotted for the solve the question for years to come. Bellefonte Chapter and its auxiliaries -An automobile owned and driv- is $15,000, which means an average row escape in an automobile accident Wednesday evening. They came to car and when they got to the interthe driver turned east on Logan which renders the blossom fruitful. the car quickly to the left and before Mr. Brinmyer could get control of the steering wheel the car plunged through the fence into the garden of Mrs. Fred Smith. Fortunately it landed against an apple tree which kept it from upsetting. None of the occupants were thrown out and aside from a general shaking up were uninjured. The car, however, was somewhat damaged. --- "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlorsville, in which he was wounded. the Scenic, so that you can't go amiss. piling and making out these returns. Philipsburg.

Another Automobile Accident.

white carnation next Sunday, you can purchase them at Yeager's. 19-1t

-Centre county's next continnumber, will be sent away next Tues- whereabouts are unknown. day, to Columbus barracks, Columbus, Ohio. -Advertising car No. 2 of Sparks' circus was in Bellefonte yesterday, and billed the town and surrounding country for their exhibition here on May 23rd.

in the Bush Arcade, where contributions can be sent at once.

-The ordnance unit that has been Railroad in the district aggregating | tinue their work along more intensive

-In yesterday's casualty lists of the killed in battle in France appeartre county.

-Edgar Miles, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Miles, of Milesburg, who was relieved of active duty and sent to an engineering school for officers.

-In renewing his subscription to the "Watchman" postmaster D. M. ancies while during the past week of the Merchants' division of the to convey to Governor Passmore your Kerlin, of Rudd, Iowa, writes: "I see you have some pretty old readers. and any merchant in Centre county may have complete knowledge of the full Now I am sixty-six years old and desiring any information in that line measure of thanks that are due in this have read the "Watchman" ever since I could read anything, so I guess I paid taxes; and this notwithstanding am an old reader too. As you see, I in our town." And we just want to "This message of thanks and con- add that it is the constancy of the old gratulation from the Advisory com- readers of the "Watchman" that makes us feel that we are putting out

----500 tickets must be sold for the ent efforts that we owe the success of Harmonic club concert before work the year at which Miss Rhoads and the subscription. The thanks of the can be begun by the Patriotic League, in sewing for Belgium orphans. When tee are due all of the patriotic workrs, whose services as solicitors and the twenty-five cents you give will be the musicians of Centre county. Do The list of subscribers contains al- not fail to hear them in the High most 4,000 names, showing the wide school auditorium, Monday evening, May 20th.

-Sheriff Yarnell this week reto arrive at the camp.

bility. Fye failed to appear in Belle- students in women's attire. 701 133,450 Lewistown. On February 27th he criterion the prisoners certainly en-The chairman, Mrs. Robert Mills was inducted into service by the local joyed the entertainment and the stuafter three week's service has been ly after nine o'clock. discharged and sent home.

-The horticultural editor of the 'Watchman" predicts a good crop of fruit this year, as well as of all vegetables that grow from the blossom, for Mother's day at Yeager's. 19-1t younger in years.

been in Bellefonte most of the week instructing the force at the Bellefonte postoffice in the matter of keeping ac-

-Remember Mother and wear a Financially Involved Horace M. Mus ser Left Bellefonte Suddenly.

Financially involved Horace M. Musser left Bellefonte quite suddenly gent for the national army, twelve in and unexpectedly and his present known, however, that he left Bellefonte on Sunday, April 28th, ostensibly to visit his daughter in Altoona, but last Friday J. Kennedy Johnston Esq., received a letter from him postmarked East St. Louis in which he admitted that he had left Bellefonte because he was involved financially -The semi-annual rummage sale to such an extent that he could not now being arranged for Wednesday, see his way out and hence decided to May 15th, will be held in the rooms leave. He requested Mr. Johnston to taining to his coal mining interests in that recently occupied by Doll's bakery, take charge of his books and his bus- locality. iness affairs, stating that it was his purpose to go to work somewhere and Margaret Cooney to Clearfield Tuesday, as soon as he could save the money would make good every cent he owed. Just how deeply Mr. Musser is involved has not yet been determined. After the death of his father several years ago he succeeded him for justice of the peace in the North ward, serving out the unexpired term. He their son, W. Frederick Reynolds 3rd, bealso succeeded to his father's insur- fore he sailed for France. ance business, as tax collector for the ed the name of John Deardosky, of borough of Milesburg and agent for fonte Tuesday, coming here from Pitts-Hecla. The "Hecla" referred to is quite a number of property owners burgh, where she had stopped for a few probably the town by that name in Bellefonte. As tax collector for days on her way east from Kansas City. Schuylkill county, as no man by the Milesburg he was under bond in the above name has been sent from Cen- sum of $5,000 with the American been a guest of her sister, Mrs. John Mustive of that company as well as rep- ing, since coming to Bellefonte a week ago. resentatives of the insurance companies for which Mr. Musser was agent private secretary at the Dickinson Semiis with the engineers in France, was have been in Bellefonte this week tryat the front when the Germans start- ing to unravel his tangled affairs but ed their big drive on March 21st and so far they have not succeeded to that saw some real fighting. Recently he extent where any definite statement can be made.

A comparison of his tax duplicate and receipt book shows some discrepseveral parties have gone to the treasurer's office with receipts for taxes advertised at treasurer's sale for unthe fact that his sworn statement is office that said taxes were due and unpaid. Whether any effort will be made to locate Mr. Musser and bring him back is not yet known.

Academy Minstrels Play at the Penitentiary.

It is a remarkable exception to the general rule that inmates of a penal institution are accorded the privilege of hearing and seeing a good minstrel early period of Florentine art before the Bellefonte Chapter D. A. R. At speakers have produced such good rethe Bellefonte Chapter D. A. R. At speakers have produced such good rethe body of her sister, Mrs. Inlow, to Pine the pastor, Rev. S. C. Stover. The figures are not at present available, olins, three mandolins, drum, bells and the Bellefonte Academy minstrels, at State College, Zion and Bellefonte. their work was important, and their piano, this club, composed of young who gave three good performances in women, has become very popular with Bellefonte several weeks ago, gave a fonte Saturday to spend a short time with tution.

> The big sleeping dormitory was transformed into a theatre by the erection of a stage, with all the necceived a letter from one of the young The minstrels went to Rockview in Samuel Sheffer will spend the time with evening, and the committee which had men who were sent to Camp Lee on motor busses and automobiles, leav-Mrs. Harris. Tuesday morning of last week in ing Bellefonte about 5:30 o'clock. which he said that the squad all ar- They landed at the penitentiary about from Aaronsburg, where she has had charge rived at the cantonment in good con- six o'clock and while they were get- of the primary schools during the last dition, and when they disembarked ting ready for the opening perform- term of school. Mrs. Bower, whose husfrom the train and fell into ranks to ance an automobile drove up with six band is in service, will spend the summer march to the commanding general's young ladies attired as Red Cross at their home on west High street. headquarters to report they attract- nurses. This fact very much alarmglad they had been drilled by Col. officials, as it is absolutely against trains on their way to Unionville, where Taylor during their stay in Belle- the rules to allow a woman inside of they are visiting with Mrs. Carother's relfonte. They were also complimented any of the penitentiary buildings. upon being the finest body of rookies Finally deputy warden Healy was appealed to to know what to do and -Amos Fye, of Waddle, was dis- when he went to consult headmaster charged from the national army can- James R. Hughes regarding the mat-fonte when first called for service by the local exemption board. Later it fore seven o'clock and continued for was learned that he had gone to Mif- two hours and if the applause given flin county and was working near the amateur players can be taken as a board and went with the Mifflin coun- dents were well repaid for their efty contingent to Camp Lee. He later forts to bring a little sunshine into deserted and was captured in April the lives of the more than seven hun-Camp Lee on April 12th, and now minstrels returned to Bellefonte short-known men of College township, was and also a good supply of honey, badly injured in a fall from a tree Notwithstanding the fact that the one day last week and is likely to be winter was a hard one the bees seem housed up for some time to come. He to have weathered it all right and was trimming trees and had sawed a come out good and strong, and now big limb in on both sides. He then Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brinmyer and Ir. and Mrs. Sutherland, of the peners. Last spring was so cold and wet ed to saw the top of it. The limb Miss Dora Belcher, of Charlotte, Mich. right side of the machine was badly itentiary at Rockview, had a nar- that many bees perished and few of gave way unexpectedly with the rethem could be seen working anywhere. sult that Mr. Lytle lost his hold Billy spent last week in Pittsburgh with on Logan street about 9:30 o'clock on The result was a small fruit crop and on the tree and fell to the ground a Mrs. Zerby's sister, Mrs. Warren Else, little honey stored during the forepart distance of twelve or fourteen feet. leaving here the early part of the week Bellefonte in Mr. Brinmyer's Ford of the year. Bees not only make hon- His right collar bone was broken, two ey but in gathering the nectar from or three ribs fractured and he was section of Logan and Spring streets the blossoms they carry the pollen badly bruised and shaken up. Mr. Lytle is about seventy years of age and his injuries are therefore more -Place your order for carnations serious than they would be for a man

Andrew Lytle Badly Injured in a Fall.

-Two postoffice inspectors have Centre Hall High School Commence-

The annual commencement of the counts and making reports on the war | Centre Hall High school was held last savings and thrift stamps, etc. Un- evening when a class of seven young der a recent ruling the Bellefonte men and women graduated and were postoffice is a regular clearing house given their diplomas. The Harmonic for all the third and fourth class of- club of Bellefonte furnished the mufices in Centre county, not only fur- sic which was interspersed with the nishing them with their supplies but class orations. The graduates were clearing their sales of war savings James H. Sweetwood, H. Marchie Jogrowth of several years development, lin," will be shown in motion pictures and thrift stamps. The result is the don, M. Catharine Ruble, Carrie R. clerical work of the Bellefonte office Mitterling, Mae E. Shultz, Elizabeth sibly to get away from an office-full of shape that he was allowed solid food May 23rd and 24th. This is a picture has been doubled, inasmuch as reports R. Sweetwood and Rebecca E. Krea-

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-J. Norman Sherer, of Reading, was n Bellefonte over Sunday.

Clearfield, were Bellefonte visitors Saturday and Sunday. ly part of the week, called there by the death of a cousin. -M. A. Landsy left on Wednesday on a business trip to Philadelphia, expecting to return the early part of the week.

-George Yocum, of Scranton, spent a short time in Bellefonte this week with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Ezra Yocum. -William P. Humes went to Oil City on Monday to look after some business per-

-Miss Helen Ceader accompanied Miss expecting to spend the remainder of the week there.

Bellefonte Tuesday, on her way home to Pittsburgh, after a three week's stay at State College.

-Col. and Mrs. W. F. Reynolds spent last week in New York, going over to see -Mrs. M. L. Valentine arrived in Belle--Mrs. John Slack, of Tusseyville, has Sureties company, and a representa- ser, at her apartments in the Harris build--Miss Sara Shuey, who is Dr. Conner's nary at Williamsport, spent Sunday in Bellefonte with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shuey.

-William McFarlane spent the early part of the week here and with relatives at Lemont and Boalsburg, on his way to Lock Haven to visit his mother, Mrs. J K. McFarlane.

-Supt. Joseph J. Rhoads, of Oil City, was in Bellefonte the beginning of the week to see his sister, Miss Rebecca paid Mr. Musser on lands now being Rhoads, before her deprature for Y. M. C. A. canteen work abroad.

-Mrs. Edward Harper, of Cleveland, is here visiting with relatives. Mrs. Harper the campaign in general Mr. McCur- am holding the office of postmaster on file in the County Commissioner's came at this time owing to the condition of her uncle, John D. Sourbeck, with whom she will spend two weeks.

-Mr. Budd Thompson, of Martha, was in Bellefonte on Wednesday, looking after ding trip east and upon their return some business matters. He has recover- will reside at State College where Mr. ed his normal health and looks as fit as he has for some years past. -Mrs. J. F. Miller, her sister, Miss Caroline McClosky and their nephew, William McCormick, all of Potters Mills, have been guests this week of Mrs. Hutchinson at her home on Howard street.

sults. The work of the women is to charity, in addition to giving you an ers at the new penitentiary at Rock- Grove for burial a week ago, remained in be especially commended, while the evening of good music. With four vi--Mrs. M. L. Person stopped in Belle-performance at the Rockview insti- Mrs. D. Wagner Geiss, on her way home to Philipsburg, N. J., after a visit in Centre Hall with her mother, Mrs. Strohm. Mrs. Sarah Brown went to Williamsport yesterday to visit for the month of May essary scenery and lighting effects. While Mrs. Brown is out of town Mrs. breeze at eight o'clock on Monday

-Mr. and Mrs. Carothers, of Geneva, N. ed considerable attention and were ed the guards, and some of the prison Y., stopped in Bellefonte Tuesday between atives. Mrs. Carothers, before her marriage a year ago, was Miss Lulu Moran. -Miss Rebecca Rhoads has been in New York this week, called there Tuesday for an interview and instructions concerning her preparations for oversea war work tonment at Camp Lee, Petersburg, ter he was tipped off to the fact that Miss Rhoads expects to leave within the Va., last week owing to physical de- the Red Cross nurses were Academy next two weeks to enter service in a canteen in France. -Lawrence Nugent, of Munson, was a Bellefonte visitor on Tuesday and during urdays, when they will keep open una call at this office added his name to the til the usual hours. Patrons should "Watchman's" subscription list, and we'll venture the assertion that it won't be long until he will realize that it was one of the Notice to All Jurors and Constables. best investments he ever made. -Mrs. Louisa V. Harris has returned to Bellefonte to open her house for the summer. Mrs. Harris left here shortly after at Lewistown. He was returned to dred inmates of the penitentiary. The Christmas, spending the time with her Wednesday morning, May 22nd, at 10 nephew, Rev. William VanTries, and his family, near Philadelphia, at Atlantic City all appear in your proper persons. and with friends in Williamsport. -Mrs. George B. Johnston returned home Saturday, after spending a part of the week with her mother, Mrs. J. A. Ai-Andrew Lytle, one of the best ken, Mrs. Aiken leaving Sunday to join Gregg system shorthand classes and her daughter in Beaver Falls, where Miss typewriting, for both boys and girls, E. Jayne Aiken has accepted a position 7:30 Monday and Thursday evenings, in the Farmers bank of that place. -Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes is entertaining able. Enroll with

Mrs. Charles Baxter, of Buffalo. Mrs. 15-tf Baxter was a school mate of Mrs. Hayes and visited her here a number of times shortly after leaving school and will be remembered by Mrs. Hayes' friends as

-Mrs. W. D. Zerby and her son with Mr. Zerby, who went on to Detroit to drive home a car to be delivered at Coburn. Mrs. Zerby and her son returned by rail Sunday.

-Mrs. Grant Pifer came in from Wilknisburg last week for a two week's visit with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Hoy. Mr. and Mrs. Hoy are also entertaining Rev. and Mrs. George B. Eley, of Turbotville, and their family, who motored to Bellefonte Monday. Mrs. Eley is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hoy.

-Mrs. M. B. Garman, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Lukenbach, came t Bellefonte a week ago from Tyrone, and will live with Mr. and Mrs. Menold until they leave at the end of the school term. Mrs. Garman had spent the winter in Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Menold occupying her Curtin street house during her absence.

-John L. Given, of New York and Pitts burgh, is in town for a few days ostenworries, but it is out of the frying pan into the fire for now he is worrying himself back into the condition he came away to escape because Centre county trout aren't -Lawshe Baird, who for years as obliging as the kind found in the Adold. The operation took place on the time remember that every evening the inspectors here was to explain has resided at Osceola Mills, has purificondacks, where they run onto the shore anniversary of the nattle of Chancel- there is a program of good pictures at the best and easiest methods of com- chased himself a home and moved to the moment a good sport gives them the

-Capt. Hoffer Dale is at State College on a short furlough.

-Ralph Kerk, of Philadelphia, spent the week-end here with Mrs. Kerk and their small son.

-Mr. and Mrs. Trood D. Parker, of -Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Buckius have been entertaining Mrs. Buckius' sister, Mrs. -Father Downes was in Renovo the ear- Brooke, of Chicago, during the past week. -Miss Sara Barnhart went to Hazleton Tuesday, to be a guest for several days of Mr. and Mrs. Seidel, before Fred B. Seidel left for service in a training camp.

-Dr. Kenworthy, Mr. Elliott, Mr. Boyd. Mr. Farrell and Mr Rummell, who drove in from Pittsburgh Sunday in Mr. Farrell's Pierce Arrow car, have been guests of J. Will Conley at the Country club. The party was among those who have been fishing along Fishing creek during the week.

Lyon-Allen.-A wedding that will be of interest to Beilefonte readers of the "Watchman" was that on Thursday, April 25th, of Lieut. Edward -Mrs. Katherine Fye Rhone was in Greenslade Lyon, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lyon, of this place, to Miss Dorothy Barton Allen, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis O. Allen, of Providence, R. I. The wedding took place in St. Stephen's Episcopal church at Providence, the ceremony being performed by the pastor, Rev. Dr. George McClellan Fiske.

The bride wore a gown of white georgette crepe with a tulle veil caught with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Cornelia Barton Hussey, of East Orange, N. J., who wore a frock of white embroidered batiste over pink and carried pink carnations and fresias tied with pink ribbon. The best man was Major J. T. Keenan, of Providence.

Lieut. Lyon is connected with the 518th engineers and is in training for service abroad at Providence. The young couple enjoyed a brief honeymoon in New York.

Stewart-Tidlow.-Grafius I. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stewart, of Flemington, and Miss Edna H. Tidlow, of the same place, were united in marriage last Thursday morning at the parsonage of the Church of Christ in Lock Haven, by the pastor, Rev. Homer C. Boblitt. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart left the same day on a wed-Stewart has charge of the Heffner drug store.

Walker-Houser.-Floyd Walker, of Centre Hall, and Miss Anna Mary Houser, of Linden Hall, were married at the Reformed parsonage in Boals--Miss Marybell Struble, who brought burg on Wednesday of last week by young couple were attended by Miss Flora Walker, a sister of the bridegroom, and Leslie Deitrick. Mr. and Mrs. Walker will engage in farming near Centre Hall.

Bellefonte's Honor Flag Unfurled.

With little ceremony and practically no fuss at all Bellefonte's Liberty loan honor flag was unfurled to the the affair in charge selected as the most appropriate place to hang it the large bronze statue of Governor Curtin in front of the soldiers' monument. The staff of the flag was stuck under the arm of the statue and tied in such a way that it looks as if the replica of the great War Governor third Liberty loan.

Meat Markets Will Close at Six O'clock.

were holding the flag shaft with pride at what Centre county did toward the Beginning next Monday, May 13th, the meat markets in Bellefonte will close at six o'clock in the evening, same as the other stores in town, with the exception of Wednesdays and Satmake a note of this change.

On account of the primaries on Tuesday, May 21st, the regular term of May court will not convene until o'clock a. m., at which time you will

Shorthand and Typewriting.-The High school building. Terms reason-

Miss ANNA M. SHUEY. For Rent.—A desirable 9 room brick house, all conveniences, with newly installed steam-heat plant. In heart of town. Inquire of S. D. Ray or Geo. Bush, Bellefonte, Pa. 63-18-4t Chicks for Sale.-Inquire of Grace

E. Dubbs. Commercial phone. 19-2t -Potted geraniums for porch boxes at Yeager's.

Bellefonte Pro	duce Markets.
The prices quoted are for potatoes per bushel Onions	$.90 1.50 30 25
Bellefonte Gr
The following are the quarter Thursday evening, when	notations up to six o'clock our paper goes to press.
Red Wheat	2.00

Oats, old and new, per bushel	1.10
Philadelphia Markets.
The following are the closing prices of Philadelphia markets on Wednesday eveni Wheat—Red$ 2.176	ng:
" —No. 2	2.17 2 1.98
-Mixed new	2 1.95