What Centre County Has Done. The citizens of Centre county are proving their patriotism by deeds, not words as the following will show:

During the week ending May 4th Centre county's per capita sales were $9.76 for the entire campaign. The county still retains ninth place in the State, but only by the narrow margin of one cent over Snyder county.

The campaign was opened in Bellefonte on Monday by W. Harrison Walker, chairman, going out to the Pennsylvania Match company at 12:30 o'clock to solicit pledges among the employees.

While the above was remarkably good Mr. Walker had even better success at the Abramsen Engineering company Tuesday noon when in less than an hour he secured pledges from every man on the payroll.

CASSATT URGES LIBERTY BUYING. The following telegram received by W. Harrison Walker yesterday morning is self-explanatory: Philadelphia, Pa., May, 15th.

Soldiers in France Remembered Their Mothers. As evidence that the soldiers in France have not forgotten their mothers hundreds of them cabled the National Florists' association in New York ordering carnations to be sent to their mothers for last Sunday.

JOHNSON.—News of the death of Mrs. Owen Johnson at the Emergency hospital, Washington, D. C., was quite a shock to her many Centre county friends, who will recall her better as Miss Cecille de Lagarde. She gave birth to a son about two weeks prior to her death and while she was apparently getting along all right complications developed which caused her death very unexpectedly.

Cecille Denis de Lagarde was born in Chignens, Haute-Savoie, France, about thirty-two years ago. She was educated in Paris and came to this country about fifteen years ago with her sister and brother-in-law, Capt. and Mrs. Theodore Davis Boal, spending the time with the Boal family at Boalsburg and at Capt. Boal's winter home in Washington.

When the European war broke out in 1914 she immediately left this country for France, her native land, and one of her first acts was to give her chateau at Chambray, France, to the French government as a base hospital during the duration of the war.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson spent most of the winter at the Boal home in Washington, where Capt. Boal, who was in training at Camp Hancock, joined them as often as possible. In fact the captain was with them until Tuesday of last week when Mrs. Johnson's condition was so favorable that he left for France.

In addition to her husband she is survived by her little son and two sisters, Mrs. Theodore Davis Boal, of Boalsburg, the other married and living in Russia. The remains were brought to Centre county on Saturday morning and taken to the Boal home at Boalsburg and later to the Boal chapel where they were viewed by hundreds of people from Boalsburg and vicinity.

McCORD.—Mrs. Rhoda McCord, widow of the late J. R. McCord, passed away at her home on the Black Moshannon, in Rush township, at 3:30 o'clock Sunday morning after a brief illness with pneumonia, aged 68 years.

Her maiden name was Rhoda Nason and she was born in Huston township though practically all her married life was spent at her home on the Black Moshannon. She was a member of the Baptist church of Phillipsburg and a noble christian woman.

BOYER.—Mrs. Marjorie Boyer died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ida Meyers, at Lemont, on Friday of last week, after an illness of six weeks with softening of the brain.

HAMER.—Ben Hamer, a young colored man who formerly lived in Bellefonte and worked in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Murry Andrews, died last Wednesday night at Washington, Pa., after an illness of some months with tuberculosis, aged twenty-five years.

BOYER.—Mrs. Marjorie Boyer died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ida Meyers, at Lemont, on Friday of last week, after an illness of six weeks with softening of the brain.

BEDLYON.—Rupert Bedlyon died at the Bellefonte hospital about noon last Thursday as the result of an accidental shooting on April 18th, at the George B. Thompson home at Alto. The man did a little farming and also worked for Mr. Thompson at his saw mill. On the day in question he was in Mr. Thompson's barn repairing a feed trough.

The following day the man was brought to the Bellefonte hospital, the bullet located by an X-ray examination and removed. About a week later Mr. Bedlyon was discharged, apparently as well as ever. Last week he complained about severe pains in his shoulder and fearing that the wound had become infected he was brought to the Bellefonte hospital last Thursday morning for examination.

Deceased was a son of Amos and Margaret Metzler Bedlyon and was born in Georges valley on November 7th, 1886, hence was 33 years, 6 months and 2 days old. The greater part of his life was spent in Pennsylvania but about four years ago he moved to Lewistown, returning last summer to work for Mr. Thompson at his saw mill.

SPOTTS.—Henry F. Spotts, a lifelong resident of Union township, died at three o'clock on Tuesday morning as the final result of a stroke of paralysis sustained about six years ago which left him an invalid.

TRESSLER.—David Tressler, a well known resident of Houserville, died at five o'clock on Saturday morning of general debility, aged 84 years, 4 months and 11 days.

LUCAS.—Alfred Thomas Lucas, a well known trolley conductor in Altoona, died at the Altoona hospital on Saturday morning following an illness of some weeks with a complication of diseases.

ALTERS.—Mrs. Mary Alters, wife of William Alters, of Altoona, died at the Altoona hospital Saturday night following a few week's illness with a complication of diseases.

(Continued from page 1, Col. 5). meals on the ship were not so very good but I managed to fare pretty well.

Now the trip I had by rail after landing is something long to be remembered. The beautiful scenery and historic places I passed through have been pleasures untold. If it were possible for me to describe the journey in detail I would do so, but owing to the censor it is impossible.

The Sanitary corps which has been in training at Camp Hancock and of which the hospital unit of the old First Pennsylvania cavalry is a part, passed through Chester, Pa., last Saturday on their way to Camp Mills, Long Island.

Hayes Schenck to be Discharged Next Week. On Wednesday of next week, May 22nd, the two years' term in the penitentiary of Hayes Schenck will expire and he will likely be discharged from the Rockview institution that day.

Benefits of Education. Green—Tell me, honestly now, have you ever found any practical use for what you learned at college?

Gray—I should say I have. One night when burglars got into my house I scared them off with our college yell.

The Guernsey Bull "Fearless Boy". Will be sold cheap to any one desiring a Herd Bull of the Highest type. He is of the Glenwood, the best American strain and was dropped February 26, 1912.

What a Soldier Has to Carry. Now that so many Centre county boys are either on their way to France or soon will be it may be interesting for their friends at home to know just what equipment they are sent away with.
