

Bellefonte, Pa., June 21, 1918.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-At their lawn festival on Tuesday evening the Young Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church, cleared $97.25 and enough additional contributions have been received to make $100, which will be her canteen work in France.

-It is requested by Miss Morris that all the knitters of the town meet with her in the Red Cross work rooms, Masonic building, on Friday afternoon, June 21st, between two and five o'clock for the purpose of registration. If you have any finished work, take it along at that time as it will require all the available articles to fit out the drafted men leaving next

-There is a strong man out at the carnival who challenges all comers to wrestle at five dollars a throw. On Wednesday evening the fireman on the Lewisburg train took his challenge. J. Mac Heinle was chosen as referee and the fireman had no trouble throwing the strong man. In fact he literally made a monkey out of him. He also demanded his five dollars and got it.

The advent of the automobile to the parochial school. has even played havoc with the oldgypsy women and about half a dozen Boys band played "The Star children came to Bellefonte by train Spangled Banner." Immediately folfrom Lock Haven. The only man in the crowd drove here in an automobile and loading up the gang and paraphernalia at the railroad depot departed in the direction of Lewis-

-Flag day last Friday was probably more studiously observed in breadth of Pennsylvania there is not Bellefonte than ever before. Special ceremonies were held at the Elks didn't believe there is another town lodge, where Dr. W. K. McKinney de- in the State in which such a represenlivered the address. Washington tative crowd would have turned out pils. Camp P. O. S. of A. also had a special on such an occasion. Father Downes program and about seventy-five peo- gave a very brief outline of the Cathple attended the D. A. R. gathering olic church and then added that they at the Country club. The orator there asked no odds of any one and had no was Col. H. S. Taylor, while Rev. M. DePue Maynard also made an ad-

-Mrs. Isaac Smith, of Centre Hall, was eighty-six years old on Sunday and she celebrated the day with a family reunion of her children, which included W. Witmer and Clyde A. Smith, of this place; James Smith, of Williamsport, and Miss Grace at home. A number of friends also called on Mrs. Smith during the day to congratulate her upon having lived to attain four score and six years, and also upon her health, which is very good.

nen attended the flag raising at Scotia on Saturday evening. There was a good turnout of citizens from that vicinity and patriotism was at a high ebb. The speakers for the occasion were Edmund Blanchard and Col. H. S. Taylor, of Bellefonte. Prior to the raising of the flag the spectators were entertained with a base ball game. During the evening a festival was held for the benefit of the Red Cross, and a very tidy sum realized.

-The most benighted person, whether he be a native born American or a foreign emigrant, can always find amusement and entertainment in moving pictures and the Scenic theatre is a good place in Bellefonte to see them. The Scenic auditorium is large and well ventilated, cool and comfortable even in hot weather and the class of pictures shown there cansee good pictures, go to the Scenic.

the University of Southern California Touche medal for proficiency in clinpointment to the position of demonnext year.

-Andrew J. Engle, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Engle, of east Lamb street, had his right arm fractured in a peculiar manner on Monday evening about seven o'clock. He was coasting down the concrete pavement in his baby auto when the machine ran off the pavement and up the side of a terrace throwing the boy out onto the pavement. Danny Hines was also coasting down the pavement in a small wagon and being unable to stop ran over the Engle boy's right arm, resulting in a compound fracture between the wrist and elbow.

-Edwin M. Grove, son of County Commissioner D. A. Grove, is havperiences in his service for Uncle make the whole world free. Sam. Having recently returned from through New York on Tuesday, folbeing killed outright. Young Grove Tenn., and left on Wednesday.

FLAG RAISING AT ST. JOHN'S CATHOLIC CHURCH.

Several Thousand People Witnessed the Impressive Ceremonies. Big Parade Precedes Meeting.

Bellefonte Council Knights of Columchurch on Sunday afternoon with most impressive ceremonies, included forwarded to Miss Bertha Laurie for John's Dorcas society, containing the and privileges it is able to furnish of their country from that church, six more stars representing the additional number of young men over the forty-five to be added to the flag. The is in uniform. Dorcas society will also present a silk flag which, with the service flag, will be hung in the church.

The ceremonies proper were preceded by a parade which formed in the Diamond. It was made up of Our Girls band of Milesburg, eight longing to the Catholic church now in veterans of the Civil war carrying the serivce: flag to be unfurled, children of the parochial school, the Dorcas society, Bellefonte Council Knights of Columbus, Our Boys band of Milesburg, Undine and Logan fire companies and the machine gun troop of the provisional reserve cavalry. The parade was down High street to Spring, Spring to Bishop and west on Bishop

The flag was hoisted to the top of time and picturesque gypsy caravans a forty foot pole erected between the of bright painted wagons, horses, school building and the convent by dogs, etc. On Monday morning three Miss Margaret Mignot, while Our lowing the school sang the above patriotic song.

Rev. Father William E. Downes, rector in charge, presided and in a brief speech told the purpose of the gathering. He prefaced his remarks by saying that in all the length and another town like Bellefonte and he apologies to make. That the church stood for itself in every phase of patriotism. In their parochial school they taught first love of God and second love of country. He pointed to the service flag with forty-five stars as evidence of the patriotism of the young men of the Bellefonte church and stated the fact that the first American troops cited for bravery in pleasant day. the war with Germany were from a Massachusetts regiment recruited from the parochial schools. He then introduced as the first speeker Indeed Francis Kelly Mary Beezer

Judge Quigley stated that he was present only to emphasize the fact fect in attendance during the year: A number of Bellefonte gentlethat the civil government which he Joseph Moerschbacher Joseph Smead
Nicholas Bruno Elizabeth Smead represented stood back of every movement for the welfare of the community as well as any and every movement that tends to the inculcation of patriotism in the hearts of the youth of the land; back of every movement that tends to the support of our boys at the front and the government in the successful prosecution of the war. Following Judge Quigley Thomas Todsock Jr., very splendidly recited the poem, "Flag of My Native Land," written by Father Constantine Pise, three quarters of a follows: century ago.

After another selection by the choir Father Downes introduced Col. H. S. Taylor, stating that he knew of no man imbued with a greater spirit of his sentiments publicly, because he E. Fenlon.-Merited by Robert Gherhas given three sons to the service, rity. not be seen anywhere else in Belle- has three brothers in it and is only fonte. Therefore, when you want to out of it himself because of reasons he cannot overcome. Col. Taylor con--Among the 620 graduates at gratulated Father Downes and the church congregation for the patriottwo weeks ago was H. McGee Barn- ism displayed by their young men as highest average in English, donated hart, a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. shown by the service flag. Pointing Barnhart, of Whittier, Cal., and a to the Stars and Stripes he recalled nephew of cashier James K. Barnhart, the fact that it is the oldest flag in of the First National bank of Belle- existence and has never yet been fonte. The young man graduated in trailed in the dust of defeat. He dentistry and was awarded the La stated that the only way to make it victorious this time is for every ical work. The medal carries the ap- man, woman and child to do their utmost to support the boys over there. strator at the University infirmary There will be still greater privations to undergo, there will be much suffering, many a mother's keart will be filled with pain and anguish over the death of her boy, but we must all look beyond to the glories of a victory won and an enduring peace for all countries. In conclusion he drew a picture of our boys going over the top with flag encased, fighting the kind of battle that only Americans know how to fight and if perchance they are overpowered by numbers, giving ground only with their face to the enemy and fighting with the butts of their guns. And at last when victory crowns their efforts, as it is sure to do if we at home do our part, how proud we all will be to see our boys come home, not with flags encased, but with colors flying, telling to the world that ing some thrilling and exciting ex- the land of the free has helped to

The next speaker was Col. Spangler France he in company with a young and he confined himself principally to lieutenant, were sent to Boston in an reciting what the big men of our army truck to place an order for country are doing to help along with some carburetor parts. Having act the war. He cited Rockerfeller, whose complished their mission they were tax this year was $38,000,000, and on their way back and while driving who gave $5,000,000 to the Red Cross. He told of other men who are givlowing the car tracks, a wheel came ing sixty per cent. of their profits and off their truck. The truck was doing it uncomplainingly. And not thrown from the track and the lieu- only that, but that their sons were tenant was thrown from the truck among the first to enlist for service. right in front of a passing trolley car, He further predicted that when the war is over all the foolish class disluckily escaped. He was then given tinctions will have been swept away a two day's furlough to come home and a man will stand out before the but hardly had he gotten here when world for what he is worth as a man, not open this year until July first. In Walter Markle, Hanover; Rensselaer der and William Parker, all of Jersey he received orders to get to Nashville, whether he has a hundred dollars or former years the season opened June Institute gold medal, George Allen, a hundred million.

Mr. M. J. McEnery, of Philadelphia, who is prominent in the work of the Knights of Columbus at the different A Purely Personal Letter from Miss army cantonments in this country and abroad. He told of the work and stated that the K. and C. build-A beautiful flag, the gift of the ings at the various cantonments while erected primarily to look after the bus, was raised at St. John's Catholic spiritual welfare of the members of their church, were 'conducted on entirely non-sectarian principles; that in which was the dedication of a serv- the only badge required to gain enice flag made by the women of St trance thereto and all the comforts names of forty-five of the fifty-one is the United States uniform. young men who have either volun- Nothing is sold in these buildings but teered or been called into the service postage stamps, and they are kept merely for the convenience of the soldiers. Everything else is free, and no questions asked as long as the man

The meeting closed with "The Star Spangled Banner" by Our Boys band. At 5:30 o'clock Father Downes entertained the speakers and a few invited guests at dinner. Following is a list of the fifty-one young men be-

Joseph Beezer
John T. Saylor
Walter Gherrity
James Morrison
John F. Woods
Joseph Ceader
Vincent Taylor
Fred Hull
Fam Joseph W. Kane
Joseph Howard
Hugh Taylor
Joseph Morrison
Barnes
K Yeager
CNichol
Jines
Sherry
St Dimeo
Chas. Moerschbacher
Samuel Koch
James Kane
Diamont Veruchio
Robert Taylor
Thomas Shaughnessy Jr.

Pancement Exercises of P

The graduating exercises took place on Wednesday morning with a high dow, they whistle and wave to us. mass celebrated by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Downes, who also delivered a very appropriate sermon for the oc- a long list of things the boys ask us casion, in which he drew many illus- to buy. I purchased for one two lovetrations of good, sound advice for the ly bead bags for twenty-two and pupils about to leave the school.

themselves as having spent a very

The following pupils have completed the commercial course:

introduced as the first speaker Judge Henry C. Quigley.

Francis Kelly Mary Beezer Angeline Carpeneto Catharine Connolly Margaret Haupt

The following pupils have been per-Nicholas Bruno Loretta Kane Josephine Rearick John Anderson Anne Gherrity Elizabeth Smead
Carl Moerschbacher
Marie Kelleher
Eleanor Kelleher
Margaret Guisewhite
James Carpeneto
George McNichol
Margaret Mignot
Angeline Carpeneto
Catherine Connelly
et Haupt hristine Gillen Mary Beezer Margaret Haupt ouise Hartle

The following have received profi ciency diplomas in writing, from the American Penman:

Anthony Capani Eugenia Bauer Elizabeth Hazel Honors for the Senior class were as

Ten dollar gold piece for highest general average, first honor, donated by Knights of Columbus.—Merited by Angeline Carpeneto. Five dollar gold piece, for christian natriotism or more entitled to voice doctrine, donated by Mr. and Mrs. H. tated region, to a friend doctor who

> Five dollar gold piece, for highest average in spelling, donated by Rev. W. E. Downes .- Merited by Anthony > Capani and Catharine Connelly. Two and a half dollars given for by Mr. Louis Carpeneto.—Merited by Margaret Haupt.

> Two and a half dollars given for highest average in typewriting.-

> Merited by Mary Beezer. Two and a half dollars given for the highest average in mathematics. -Merited by Francis Kelly.

Flag Raising at Hecla

The patriotic people of Nittany valley are arranging to hold a big stroyed are as follows: flag raising at Hecla on the evening of July 3rd, at eight o'clock. Our Girls band of Milesburg will be present and furnish the music while speeches will be made by W. Harrison Walker Esq. and Col. H. S. Taylor. A festival will be held during the Sons' bakery, John Brown's general evening for the benefit of the Red ## fonte.

The Red Cross work rooms need fifty regular workers at every session in order to meet the government work allotted to our Chapter. The work rooms are open Monday afternoon and evening, Tuesday afternoon and all day Wednesday from nine to five. Please respond to this appeal.

MARY MILES BLANCHARD.

Pennsylvania Industrial Reformatory. The exercises connected with the exhibit of the industrial departments, and the close of the present term of the reformatory schools at Huntingdon, Pa., will be held on Thursday, June 27th, at 2 and 7:30 p.m. These occasions are open to the public, and a cordial invitation is extended to all who may wish to attend, to do so.

-The bass fishing season does

The last speaker introduced was HOW YOUR BIT IS APPRECIATED IN FRANCE.

Laurie Published With the Thought That It May Suggest Other "Bits" for Her Appreciative Boys.

In an endeavor to do something that would prove helpful to Miss Laurie in her canteen service in France and, as it was rather a question what would be advisable and acceptable, three packages, at a hazard, were sent her on the fifteenth of March. These were of the regulation-parcel-post weight of seven pounds and contained games, curleycue cut puzzles, several series of late newspaper cartoons, the pictorial section of the Sunday minutes in the "Watchman" office. Public Ledger, assembled, for three months, six scrap books, travels and fiction, taken from Cosmopolitan and other magazines and put in heavy paper covers. How they were received may be read in the following letter from Miss Laurie:

May 4.

I think Nell said that you were hunting up games, posters and scrap books to be sent out here.

Two fine packages have come and I can't tell you how much the boys over | movement. in the hospital are enjoying them. ages came, we had received from one of the wards a note addressed to "Dear Miss Y. M. C. A., Our flowers are croaking—We need magazines and company." So we were so glad for all the things you sent. We had, too, a window full of blooming plants to take over and they were so pleasdie before you girls come in but after lives in Altoona during the winter. you have been here, they smile the -Frank M. Fisher, of Centre Hall, was rest of the day." You see they have a "Watchman" office visitor on Tuesday, The class day exercises for the only men orderlies and never see a having come to Bellefonte to attend took place on Tuesday evening in the we get over there only once a week. school hall and were well attended The hospital barracks, four of them, and enjoyed by the friends of the pu- are just across the road from our Y. M. C. A. kitchen window, and, as soon as they are able to come to the win-

Last Monday, our weekly holiday, we went to the city. We always have twenty-five francs and a piece of real After the exercises the children of filet lace, for sixteen francs; the last that the boys are always delighted with whatever we get for them. We went to market on Tuesday morning and bought an armful of lilies-of-thewe got home in the afternoon, we pital. way the boys buried their noses in those lilies and sniffed and sniffed and said. "It smells like home," it would have brought your tears.

Tell Mary I wish she were here. six months. I can scarcely believe it of Clearfield. but it has been the best and happiest half year in our lives. puzzles and Mrs. Walker and Miss McQuistion for the games. The rag doll, together with some children's scrap books, is going to a refugee hospital for children from the devaswas on the boat with us.

Yours sincerely,

Half of Loganton Destroyed by Fire. Loganton, the principal town in Sugar valley, was half wiped out by a fire on Wednesday which started at eleven o'clock in the Henry & Sons' bakery and burned until four o'clock North Tonawanda, a suburb of Buffalo. in the afternoon. The Lock Haven, Flemington and Mill Hall fire companies responded to an appeal for help and assisted materially in stopping the onrush of the flames. An estimate of the loss has not yet been made but in addition to the business buildings burned twenty families were rendered homeless. The buildings de-

Logan hotel, Lutheran and Evangelical churches, the Loganton club, Valley Ins. Co. office, Frank's barber shop, Logan club, Odd Fellows hall, Morris' hardware store, Henry & store, Guy Boone's general store, Morris & Sons' undertaking and hardware store, R. E. Berry's ice cream parlor, An Appeal to the Women of Belle- J. D. Kerstetter's meat market, and twenty residences.

Attention, Odd Fellows!

All Odd Fellows are cordially invited to go to the I. O. O. F. hall next Monday evening, June 24th, at 8 o'clock. Bellefonte Encampment will triarchal Odd-Fellowship in Pennsylteresting addresses, also music by ner. Centre Lodge orchestra. A delegation of Patriarchs Militant from Canton Tyrone will be present. All Odd Fellows should attend and enjoy the evening.

-Prior to the closing of the Bellefonte Academy last Thursday announcement was made of the year's prize winners as follows: Mathematical work, Voigt, East Pittsburgh; classical, Nevin Hockman, Zion; historical, Paul Albright, Ravenna, Ohio; NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

at Mackeyville as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wycliffe Gardner.

-Charles Hughes and son James went to Princeton a week ago to attend Mr.

Hughes' class reunion. -Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker came here from Wilkinsburg Monday, owing to the death of Miss Mary Brockerhoff. -Judge Henry C. Quigley was in Pittsburgh on Tuesday to get his degree of Doctor of Laws at the DuQuesne University. -Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cole and a number of friends motored to Bellefonte on Sunday to attend the flag raising at St. John's Catholic church.

-C. D. Houtz, a representative citizen of College township, transacted business in Bellefonte on Saturday and spent a few

-James Trimmer, one of the P. R. R. force at Altoona, spent from Tuesday until Wednesday evening in Bellefonte with his cousin, Mrs. James Schofield and fam-

-Miss Lizzie Boozer, a nurse in training at the Allegheny General hospital, is spending a brief vacation with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Boozer, at Centre Hall.

-Col. J. L. Spangler is away on a trip through the Clearfield and Cambria county coal fields this week helping along the campaign in the speed-up-production Eckley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas

-Thomas King Morris Jr. arrived in They are the most appreciative crowd Bellefonte Tuesday, to spend the summer and just the day before your pack- vacation with his grand-parents and to bit in farm work.

-'Squire W. J. Carlin and Andrew Guiser, two representative citizens of Rebersburg, transacted business in Bellefonte on Tuesday and were very welcome callers at the "Watchman" office.

-Mrs. Wilson Gardner is on her farm near Pennsylvania Furnace, where she will ed to see us. The doctor said, "You spend the summer, as has been her cuswould think they were all about to tom for a number of years. Mrs. Gardner graduating class of St. John's school woman and we have so little time that meeting of the Farmers' Mutual Fire In- A Plea for the Red Cross Baseball surance company of Centre county. -Mrs. Harry A. Taylor left Saturday for Lewistown, where she spent a short > in Bellefonte and Pleasant Gap for ten days. -Mrs. Allen Donaldson, of Harrisburg, spent several days the fore part of the week, here with her cousin, V. Lorne Hummel, of Harrisburg, who has been a weeks. -Col. William R. Teller has been in Central Pennsylvania to see Dr. Haskins, worth watching. under whose care he has been for some time. valley and another of marsh mariweeks in Bellefonte with her mother, Mrs. golds for a ridiculously low price, John N. Lane, who is convalescing from a also two lovely blue potted plants and recent illness. During her sickness Mrs. two pots of forget-me-nots. When Lane was a patient in the Altoona hos-wards. If you could have seen the came here a week ago to help her sister, tween the North and West ward Mrs. Hicklen, get ready for her sale to- teams. It will give you one hour of morrow, and to help pack her furniture good amusement for the small sum of for shipment by truck, to Philadelphia, ten cents, and you will be helping the where Mrs. Hicklen expects to make her home.

She would love the work but she is his brother, Louis Shapiro, of Clearfield, the game on Tuesday evening and a not strong enough, I fear. You have whom he had been visiting, spent a short to be a horse, to go on week after time here the early part of the week with week, with always more to do than their sister, Mrs. Walter Cohen. The men there is time for. We have been here were accompanied by Edward Jacobson,

-Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Strawn and daugh-Will you please thank Boy for the Sunday to spend several days renewing will then play the South ward. Folold acquaintances in Bellefonte, and affording Mr. Strawn an opportunity to see how the trout are jumping in the Centre county streams.

-Mrs. David Dale and her daughter Anne Dodd arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday afternoon from Gettysburg, where they have been spending the winter. Mrs. Dale and Dr. Dale's mother, Mrs. J. Y. Dale, BERTHA A. LAURIE. will spend the summer in the home on the corner of High and Spring streets.

-Miss Lilly Smith went to Buffalo on Tuesday, to represent the Methodist Sunday school at the national convention in session there this week. During her stay Miss Smith will be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Grimm, at their home at -A "Watchman" office visitor on Tuesday was Calvin Stamm, formerly of Bellefonte but now in charge of the Brighton farms at Barberton, Ohio. Mr. Stamm was in Centre county in quest of help, mostly women and girls, and although he failed in getting all he desired he was partially successful.

-Mrs. John VanPelt and her daughter Rachel have been in Bellefonte for two weeks and will remain two weeks longer, as guests of Mrs. VanPelt's mother, Mrs. Rachel Harris. Since leaving in the Those present were as follows: Lutheran parsonage, postoffice, Sugar spring, Mrs. VanPelt and her daughter have been in Franklin with Mr. VanPelt's sister, Mrs. Smithgall.

-Miss Janet Potter, of Philipsburg, was an over Sunday visitor at her home in this place. Returning on Monday afternoon she took with her Tirrell and John Tuten, who had been out at the farm with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kirk, and were on their way to join their mother in Philipsburg.

-Katherine and Martha Johnston, the two younger daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kennedy Johnston, left here Tuesday, going alone to Hazleton, where they will spend two weeks with their cousin, Mrs. Hugh J. Boyle and her family. The return trip will be made by motor, coming celebrate the 89th anniversary of Pa- back with Mr. and Mrs. Boyle, who will come to Bellefonte to spend a short time vania. There will be several very in- with Mrs. Boyle's mother, Mrs. C. D. Tan-

> -Mrs. J. L. Young, of New York city, and Mrs. Sylvester Culveyhouse, of Utica, N. Y., are with their father, H. M. Bidwell, having come here for the funeral of their mother, two weeks ago. Mrs. Culveyhouse expects to return home next week, while Mrs. Young will remain until hens get along without an old rooster her sister, Mrs. John Matthews, comes from Buffalo for a visit with her father. Mr. and Mrs. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Cuiveyhouse, Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Glosser, of Linden, Pa., and Jesse Glosser, of Corning, N. Y.; Mrs. David Hartley, Miss Kate Parker, Mrs. Eva Sny-Shore, were among those in Bellefonte for Mrs. Bidwell's fneral.

left a week ago to resume her work in Philadelphia.

-Miss Elizabeth Walker spent Sunday -Miss Emily Valentine is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Bond, at Baltimore

-H. J. Hartranft spent the week-end with his son Horace, at Camp Meade. -Clarence Hamilton, of New York city, is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Thaddeus Hamilton. -Mrs. B. A. Harker and her mother, Mrs. Shultz, were guests of relatives at Mill Hall for a part of the week.

-Miss Helen Shaghnessy, who had been visiting in Bellefonte with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shaughnessy Jr.,

-Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Hall, of Titusville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Harrison Walker, while visiting in Bellefonte -Miss Aileen Hull and Miss Ruth Ba-ney, of Niagara Falls, came to Bellefonte Sunday for a two week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bicketts. -Mrs. A. O. Furst returned Tuesday from a short stay in Philadelphia and Atlantic City, having gone there from Milton, where she had been for the funeral of her brother, William Chamberlain. -Mrs. Joseph Undercoffer left Wednesday for Camp Meade for a short visit with her son Arthur, expecting to stop on her way back at her former home in Philadel--Mrs. Forrest Eckley, of Akron, Ohio, and her small daughter, are guests of Mrs. King, having come to Centre county Tuesday. Mrs. Eckley will be here for a month or more. -Mrs. Marcie Breese, who had been in join the boys in this locality in doing their Bellefonte for the greater part of the winter with her sister, Mrs. George F. Harris, left for her home in Downingtown last week. Mrs. Breese, at the time of leaving was rapidly recovering from her illness of the past several months. -Mrs. John Harter, of West View, was in Bellefonte between trains yesterday, on her way to State College for a visit of several weeks with her niece, Mrs. William Harter and her family. Mrs. Harter came here from Altoona, where she had been for three weeks with her sisters, Mrs. Houseman and Mrs. Musser.

League.

The majority of the people of time before returning to her home in Phil- Bellefonte are missing a lot of good, adelphia. Mrs. Taylor had been visiting clean amucement by not attending the Red Cross baseball games Tuesday and Friday evenings on Hughes field. For instance: The game last Friday evening between the North and South ward teams was won by the latter by patient in the Bellefonte hospital for two the score of 5 to 4 in an extra inning contest. On Tuesday evening of this week the North won from the South the school enjoyed a picnic in Humes' was for a boy who used to attend the woods, prepared for them by the laBellefonte Academy—all presents for with Mrs. J. M. Dale. Mr. Teller, who is boys play games with such close dies of the Parish. All expressed their best girls. We think it so nice now located in Washington, D. C., came to scores it is evident that they are

But aside from this fact the predominating feature is that the boys -Mrs. Robert H. Fay, of Altoona, has are playing for the benefit of the Red goes to them. They work hard to put attended any of these games go out made bouquets and took over to the -Miss Anna Peters, of Philadelphia, this evening and see the game be-Red Cross just that much.

A meeting of the baseball associaschedule compiled for the remainder of the season. It provides for twenty more regular games and two exhibition games on July 4th. The first of the latter will be between the North ter Ellen motored in from Brownsville on and West ward teams, and the winner lowing is the completed schedule: wing is the completed scheduled June 21—North vs. West ward. June 25—South vs. West ward. June 28—North vs. West ward. July 2—South vs. West ward. July 5—North vs. South ward. July 16—South vs. West ward. July 16—South vs. West ward. July 19—North vs. West ward. July 23—South vs. West ward. July 23—South vs. West ward. July 26—North vs. South ward. July 26—North vs. South ward. July 30—North vs. South ward. July 30—North vs. South ward. Aug. 6—South vs. West ward. Aug. 6—South vs. West ward. Aug. 16—South vs. West ward. Aug. 23—North vs. South ward. Aug. 23—North vs. West ward. Aug. 27—South vs. West ward. Aug. 32—North vs. West ward. Aug. 30—North vs. West ward.

A Pleasant Surprise.

Monday was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Harry Corman. In the evening she was sent out for an auto ride and upon returning an hour later found her home packed with guests who had gathered to do honor to the lady and the occasion, which was a great and an agreeable surprise to her. A most pleasant social evening was spent and refreshments served Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs.

S. D. Gettig, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Grove and daughter Helen, Mr. and Mrs. John Gross, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bartley, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Young and daughter Ella, Mr. and Mrs. James Gunsallus, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Bartley and daughter Flora, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Musser, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Shaffer. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Houser and daughter Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Benner, Mrs. Edward Cain, Mrs. Joseph Garbrick. Mrs. William Witmyer, Mrs. Gust Armor, Miss C. J. Warner, Miss Mary Strunk, Miss Nellie Armor, Miss Clara Warner, Miss Belle Confer, Miss Minnie Solt, Herman Hazel, Henry Houser, Mrs. Calasa Corman, Clark Houser, William Lutz, Clarenne Lutz. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Corman and daughter. Through the courtesy of Mr. E. E. Bartley, Herman Hazel and D. H. Bartley, the entire party was conveyed to and from their homes by au-

-Just to show how much better worrying 'round in the pen with them we state a fact concerning the flock in a Bellefonte coop. Up to Wednesday the owner rarely got more than four or five eggs a day. On Wednesday the rooster was killed and yesterday the hens celebrated by laying nine eggs. There are ten hens in the flock.