DOWN NITTANY VALLEY.

Frank Long, of Flemington, has carpenters at work making repairs on the farm occupied by Mr. Weber, near Snydertown. One of the recent storms blew down the buggy shed, wrecked the barn door and did other damage to buildings.

Rev. W. J. Shultz and family returned on Friday from a two week's vacation at the parental home of Mr. and Mrs. Shultz. Glad to have them home, and the sermon at St. Mark's church on Sunday evening, was much appreciated by all present.

On Monday we had the pleasure of greeting our old friend, George B. Haines, of Rebersburg, who was passing through the valley in company with his daughter and Mr. and Mrs. in good health and strength, after his recent sad bereavement.

A number of Harris township's progressive farmers, accompanied by his wife, visited old friends here on Tuesday. Royer. We were sorry to have so brief a call but glad to see Mr. Haines

A number of people from the val-ley have been over to Loganton to see the ruins caused by the fire last week and all report the damage greater than expected. The town needs help and is deserving of assistance in the known residents of our to great misfortune which has come up-on it. Many of the people have lost their all, even clothes and furniture carried out of the house in many cases, caught fire and burned.

The month of June so far has been cool and Nittany valley has had an unusual number of storms and rain. Not for years have fields been washed and gullied by water as they have been this spring. Most of the storms were accompanied by thunder and lightning and many trees have been struck, but little damage done to buildings. The barns of Jared Cross and John D. Miller, at Hublersburg, were both struck recently but not much damage was done to either. One many light the state highway superintendent W. O. He reports business good, the only trouble being to get the goods. Miss Allison is a former Howard girl and is in charge of a department of one of the large Kauffman stores in Pittsburgh. Business engagements compelled them to go back on Monday with the promise go back on Monday with the promise to come again, later in the summer.

Politics in Pennsylvania for years past has been a muddy pool, but the situation at present beats anything on record. Both parties went the limit during the recent primary cam-paign, but the action of the Palmer-Donnelly crowd since the nomination of Judge Bonniwell would be silly on the part of a bunch of school boys. The Democratic party has had an opportunity to redeem the State from gang rule and clean up the corruption and mire into which it has been plunged, but the set of office brokers who have undertaken to run the party in the State will not allow any effort to succeed that might give the people clean government. The disgusting part of the matter is the dragging in of the administration and that the dragging is a make it appears that their trying to make it appear that their actions are sanctioned by the President. But there will come a day of reckoning. "You cannot fool all of the people all of the time."

Nervous, Run-Down, Haggard-Looking

Women and men suffer from blood and nerve conditions for which it is impossible to conceive of a better remedy than Hood's Sarsaparilla and Peptiron taken in conjunction, one before eating and the other after. These two great medicines aid each other, and it is economy to take both, a four-fold benefit being derived.

Peptiron is the ideal iron preparation—no injury to teeth, no consti-pating effect. All druggists. 63-23 C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.
