

MEYERS.—Joseph Meyers died very suddenly at his home at Axe Mann about 7:30 o'clock last Thursday evening of acute indigestion and heart trouble. He worked all day for Luther Lansberry, near the penitentiary helping to unload hay. After supper he complained about not feeling very well and decided to go home. He drove his own car to his home at Axe Mann and went into the house, dying before a physician could be secured.

Deceased was born at Boalsburg forty-nine years ago. He came to Bellefonte when a young man and worked in this vicinity several years finally going to farming in Benner township and later engaging in the dairy business. He sold his dairy interests in 1916 to Lewis Lansberry and since then had worked at various occupations. Since last spring he had been employed at the plant of the Titan Metal company but having a day off last Thursday assisted Mr. Lansberry with his hay.

He was married to Miss Mary Rosetta Wolf, of Wolf's Store, who died in January, 1915, but surviving him are three children, Ethel, Rebecca and John, all at home. Brief funeral services were held at his late home at Axe Mann at 1:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon after which the remains were taken to Boalsburg where final services were held in the Reformed church by Rev. M. C. Piper, after which burial was made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

HUMMELL.—Valentine Lorne Hummel, Jr., of Harrisburg, passed away at the Bellefonte hospital at 3:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon after a prolonged illness with nephritis. He was brought to Bellefonte from his home in Harrisburg about two months ago in the hope that the change would do him good, entering the hospital six weeks ago, expecting later to go to Rochester, Minn., for treatment at the Mayo sanatorium. His condition, however, grew worse instead of better and he died on Tuesday.

Decceased was a son of Valentine Lorne and Mary Ross Hummel and was born in Harrisburg twenty-nine years ago. He first came to Bellefonte as a student at the Bellefonte Academy and six years ago, after completing his education at that institution, he was united in marriage to Miss Lucretia Williams, youngest daughter of Mrs. George Williams, and all their married life had been spent in Harrisburg. In addition to his wife he is survived by one son, Valentine Lorne Hummel 3rd, who is now in the west with his grandmother. The remains were taken to Harrisburg on Wednesday, accompanied by the bereaved wife and her sister, Miss Helene Williams, where funeral services and burial will be held today.

KELLY.—Benjamin B. Kelly, a lifelong resident of Bald Eagle valley, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. M. Moore, at Port Matilda, shortly before five o'clock on Saturday afternoon, of a complication of ailments with which he suffered the past six months. He was 58 years, 6 months and 23 days old and was well known and highly esteemed.

His wife died twenty years ago but surviving him are two daughters, Mrs. R. O. Patterson, of Tyrone, and Mrs. L. M. Moore, of Port Matilda. He also leaves five step-daughters, Mrs. Frank Guelich, Mrs. Alexander Paul and Mrs. William Reese, all of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Dorie Adams, of Port Matilda, and Mrs. J. H. Moore, of Detroit. Three sisters and four brothers also survive.

Funeral services were held at two o'clock on Monday afternoon and burial was made in the Black Oak chapel cemetery in Worth township.

LOSE.—Calvin Lose, a one-time resident of Bellefonte, died at his home in Aaronsburg on Sunday as the result of a nervous breakdown. Mr. Lose became ill fifteen years ago while living at Atlantic City and about two years ago returned to Centre county and located at Aaronsburg. Two weeks ago he became critically ill and failed rapidly until his death.

He was a son of Isaac and Catharine Lose and was born in Bellefonte sixty-eight years ago. He was united in marriage to Miss Emma Neff, of West Virginia, who survives with no children. He leaves, however, three brothers, Isaac, of Williamsport; Scott, of Bellefonte, and Louis, of Hollidaysburg. Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church at Aaronsburg on Tuesday afternoon, after which burial was made in the Aaronsburg cemetery.

HOBBS.—William Theodore Hobbes, son of Harry and Edith Hobbes, of Sharon, died at the home of Mrs. Hannah Flack on Thursday of last week, of diphtheria. The parents with their three children came to Bellefonte on a visit almost three weeks ago and the boy was taken sick on the fourth of July. He lived just one week. He was six years old in May. In addition to the grief-stricken parents a sister and a brother survive, Evelyn and Paul. The remains were taken to Sharon on Saturday for burial.

Good crowds patronize the Lyric every evening, drawn there by the very interesting and instructive motion pictures now being shown there. A change of bill every night and every picture up-to-date. If you are not a regular at the Lyric go and see the pictures shown and you'll find them worth the money.

Lieut. Quentin Roosevelt Met Death in Air Fight.

Pais, July 18.—Lieut. Quentin Roosevelt, youngest son of the former President, has been killed in an air fight, the semi-official Havas News Agency announces. His machine fell into the enemy lines.

Lieutenant Roosevelt was last seen in combat on Sunday morning with two enemy airplanes about 10 miles inside the German lines in the Chateau-Thierry sector. He started out with a patrol of 13 American machines. They encountered seven Germans and were chasing them back when two of them turned on Lieutenant Roosevelt.

Reports of the fight state that the Germans appeared to be shooting at the lieutenant from the rear, the three machines being close together. Then one of the machines was seen tumbling through the clouds, and a patrol which went in search of Lieutenant Roosevelt returned without trace of him. He appeared to be fighting up to the last moment.

One account of the combat states that the machine caught fire before it began to fall.

COUSIN WITNESSED TRAGEDY.

Philip Roosevelt, Quentin's cousin, witnessed the air battle in the vicinity of Chateau-Thierry, in which Quentin was engaged, and saw the machine fall, but did not know until later that the airplane was that of his cousin.

Quentin Roosevelt, in April, 1917, joined the Canadian aviation corps to train for service with the American army. He was commissioned last fall and in the present spring began active service with the American air forces on the French front. On July 3 he took part in the aerial battle between American and German machines in the Marne region and a few days later, on July 10, it was announced that he had brought down his first German airplane in a fight north of Chateau-Thierry.

In this fight Lieutenant Roosevelt, with three other pilots, was eight miles inside the German lines at a height of 5,000 yards when he became separated from his companions. Sighting three airplanes which he thought were those of his fellows, he started toward them and was close by when he saw he had been mistaken and that the airplanes were German. He opened fire and saw that after some 50 shots his tracer bullets had penetrated the fuselage of the nearest German plane. The machine went into a spinning nose dive and fell through the clouds 2,000 yards below. Lieutenant Roosevelt was certain that the enemy machine must have crashed.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT'S STATEMENT.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 17.—"Quentin's mother and I are very glad he got to the front and had the chance to render some service to his country and to show the stuff there was in him before his fate befell him."

Holding Stop Watch on Pensions.

From the New York Evening Post.

It took the Senate only five minutes to pass the general pension bill, carrying $220,000,000, the biggest pension bill in our history. Stop-watch records show that the addition of every ten million dollars to a pension bill reduces the time of its passage in the Senate by one minute and in the House by four minutes and thirty-nine seconds.

SPRING MILLS.

C. P. Long was in Bellefonte last Friday on business.

Mrs. T. B. Jamison was rather ill last Sunday but at this writing is somewhat better.

Rev. E. Roy Corman, of Cresona, Pa., spent a few days last week with his mother and brothers. Rev. Corman is pastor of the Reformed church of Cresona.

Reuben Breon, of Port Clinton, returned to Spring Mills last week and on Sunday was married to Miss Ellen Crater. Mr. Breon is employed by the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Co. as a fireman.

Viewing the following, war times seem to be demoralizing to some people of Spring Mills, or, perhaps, some visitors: Four new automobile tires were stolen from the Spring Mills garage; a stone thrown through a window of a public building with no good intent, and renters of automobiles substituting water for gasoline.

An accident that might have ended disastrously, occurred on Sunday morning when Randall Hosterman, of Millhous, running P. P. Leitzell's automobile, made a misturn in rounding the curve at the Spring Mills hotel. The automobile with its occupants would more than likely have gone into the big spring near the hotel if a small tree had not been struck. After a little repair work was completed they continued on their way to Millroy.

A big reception and parade for the 117 men to be sent to Camp Lee, Va., will be given in Bellefonte at 3:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Spring Mills was well represented at the reception given for the last contingent sent away and this being on Sunday not one home should be unrepresented. Do not forget to go and if you want to make your friend smile, give him a Smilage book. When the train passes through Spring Mills Monday afternoon, be sure and be out. One will never forget these events.

The following persons have been elected as teachers to the respective schools of Gregg township by the Gregg township school board:

Spring Mills Grammar—Mr. E. E. Haney.

Spring Mills Intermediate—Mr. A. L. Duck.

L. Spring Mills Primary—Miss Helen Finkle.
