HEROIC Y. M. C. A. WORKERS.

Ralph Dunlap, of Pine Grove Mills, Tells of Great Work Being Done by the Red Triangle.

Somewhere in France, Aug. 1, 1918. Still alive and well, but dare not write much of interest to you except that the Huns are moving faster than ever toward Germany. But, however fast they are traveling they cannot escape their pursuers, and no small number are being caught. This, I know, you have read in the papers but you know I must fill up my letter.

I saw Ray Reed the other day. He looks fine but I had no chance to talk with him.

We are having beautiful weather over here. This morning reminded me of one of those beautiful mornings back home. I think we will soon be back to see some of those beautiful mornings in old Pennsylvania.

Sometimes I may not find an opportunity to write as often as I should on account of moving so much, now that the Huns are on the go, but never worry, for I am o. k., and will look out for "yours truly." Just remember to have a good Christmas dinner for me for if we get to Berlin before Christmas I will be home. If not, I will eat some wienies and sauerkraut in Berlin.

I assure you we are all playing our part in the war. There are no cowards nor slackers in any organization on this side of the Atlantic. Some think the Y. M. C. A. workers keep out of the great danger, but such is not the case. They, too, are playing their part. The courage and tenacity exhibited by Y. M. C. A. workers during the present German attack have enabled the organization to meet the terrible lists in a manner that reflects great credit on the Red Triangle. Fifty secretaries working with American troops on the most exposed portions of the front have been constantly under shell fire and gas attacks, but the efficiency of the system of distributing supplies has not been interrupted.

One of the most exposed places was that occupied by W. W. Black, of Illinois, and A. W. Peel, of Massachusetts, who had charge of a canteen in a deserted village near the front line and well within range of the German guns, even of small calibre. During the push the Germans threw some gas shells into the town and the Y. M. C. A. men worked in their gas-masks. Black received slight burns from mustard gas. All of the selling in this canteen had to be done at night because no soldiers were allowed to collect about the place in daytime.

During the daylight Peel and Black packed cigarettes and chocolate on their backs and carried them to the front-line trenches. They were constantly under snipers' fire on these trips and shells burst all about them. The hut in which these men worked offered no protection from shell-fire and the nearest dug-out was one hundred yards away, and this an insecure one.

Another man from Massachusetts was a gas victim in the attack. He was carrying supplies on his back to the men in the front-line trenches when caught in the barrage. He showed the greatest coolness and courage and to this fact, doubtless, owes his life.

There has been practically no interruption of the Y. M. C. A. supply service because of the attack. As soon as the barrage lifted from one of the most exposed points of attack a truck loaded with supplies started for even more advanced points. Red Triangle workers, in addition to distributing canteen goods, have done excellent work in helping the army surgeons. In some cases the huts have been used as temporary dressing stations.

Two other fellows were for nine hours under shell-fire that partially demolished their hut. Thirty holes were found in the Y. M. C. A. sign on the front of the building when the barrage lifted. One fellow was ordered back for a rest, but the other stuck to his post, giving away the remnants of the stock to the wounded who were brought into the town.

Next Monday will be Labor Day and the proper way to celebrate it this year is by laboring hard as ever.

BRUCE STUMP A HERO.

Other Interesting News of Men in the Service.

Last week the "Watchman" printed the fact that Bruce Stump, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Stump, of Centre Hall, had been reported as among the missing. An interesting incident in connection with the young man's military career is told in a letter written by Sergt. Harry E. Clarke, of Altoona, to his parents under a recent date. Both were members of Company G, 110th infantry, and the letter is as follows:

"My Dear Dad and Mother: Of course, you all know I was slightly wounded as I stated in my cablegram. Today (Aug. 4) five days since being admitted to the hospital, is the first I have felt capable of writing.

"On the morning of the 29th of July, at 3 o'clock, we were ordered to advance against a wood on the far side of the Ourcq. It was machine gun snipers concealed in the woods that we had to contend with and about 8:30 a. m., I got struck with a machine gun bullet in the right calf, it passing through the ankle and protruding out. Orders to retire 200 yards for a barrage were given and I was simply s. e. o.

"Bruce Stump came along and said, 'There's a man going back with me or I don't go back.' He and 'Bill' Keller, a runner, picked me up and ran across 150 yards of open wheat fields, swept by machine gun bullets. They then carried me four miles through high explosive shell fire to the first aid station.

"From there I came on the A. M. H. No. 1, near the outskirts of Paris, and believe me, Dad, I owe those Boches something I never did before. Just wait.

"If you ever see Bruce's parents, they live at Centre Hall, tell them what Bruce did for me and thank them. They are old and it will make them feel good."

Private Stump's parents are readers of the "Watchman" and we know they will appreciate the fact that their son thus proved himself a hero on the battlefield and was able to rescue a comrade in distress. It is to be hoped that although he has been reported missing he will yet turn up to render his country more such valiant service.

KINER CURTIS MCCLURE REPORTED MISSING.

Kiner Curtis McClure, of Snyder-town, was reported "Missing in Action" in the government bulletin issued on Tuesday, August 27th.

The young man is a son of Mrs. Amanda C. McClure and had been working in Lock Haven up to the time he was called for service. He left Bellefonte for Camp Meade with the contingent that left on September 14th, 1917, and in April of this year went to Camp Merritt. His letters home from France give no information as to what service he was in or what unit he was attached to. The last letter received from him bore date of July 8th.

Missing in action means that he might have been taken prisoner and been unable as yet to get back to our lines. He might have been separated from his unit and be temporarily with another or he might have made the supreme sacrifice.

SERG. STOVER WOUNDED AGAIN.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Stover, of Penn township, this week received a letter from their son, Gervis E. Stover, a sergeant in the marines in France, saying that he is in the hospital as the result of another wound received in the battle of the Marne. Sergt. Stover was wounded and gassed on April 13th but recovered and rejoined his company only to be wounded a second time. Inasmuch as he was able to write to his parents it is not believed his condition is very serious.

CLAIRE DETRIK ORDERED TO SIBERIA.

A card received in Bellefonte on Monday from Claire Detrick, in France, stated that the organization of engineers of which he is a member had received orders to prepare to leave for Siberia, a five thousand mile trip.

Thomas E. Mayes, train dispatcher on the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, was on Saturday notified that he had been commissioned a second lieutenant of engineers. Mr. Mayes has been anxious to get into the service ever since war was declared. Last March he made application for admission to the engineers. Early in July he was ordered to Pittsburgh for examination. He passed very successfully and his commission coming to him now is very gratifying. He expects to receive orders to report within a week, in the meantime he is closing his home, as Mrs. Mayes, with her little daughter, will go to her home in Johnstown during her husband's absence in service.

William F. Bayletts, a former Bellefonte boy, ran into a streak of hard luck recently but overcame it with the help of Uncle Sam. In 1914 he enlisted in the marines and served a term of four years, most of which was along the Atlantic coast, principally South America. He was discharged at Norfolk on July 23rd, and went to Altoona, where he had lived before joining the marines. Hardly had he landed there, or on July 29th, when he received a card summoning him in the draft. He immediately telegraphed to Washington for a discharge from the draft as he wanted to re-enlist in the marines. He finally got the discharge and came to Bellefonte Saturday to see some of his old friends, going direct from here to Philadelphia to re-enlist in the marines, his favorite arm of the service.

John Smith, son of ex-Register J. Frank Smith, came home yesterday morning on a thirty-six hour furlough. John was one of the first bunch of High school boys to enlist in the navy in April, 1917. At Newport News he took up the study of the wireless radio system with the result that he was put in the radio service and he has made five trips across the Atlantic and back in a freight transport.

John Scholl, Lewis Schad and Thomas Lamb were home from Lancaster on Saturday and Sunday on brief furloughs. They have about ten days of training yet at the Bowman Technical Institute and have no idea where they will be sent from there.

Herbert Beizer, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Beizer, who some time ago took the examination for the navy, passed but unassigned, was assigned this week to the Pelham bay, N. Y. training station.

According to a cablegram from Col. Asher Miner the artillery brigade in which are detachments from Bellefonte, Lock Haven and Sunbury, has joined the infantry on the firing line in France.

Lawrence W. Hile, of Pleasant Gap, went to Williamsport last Friday, passed a successful examination and was accepted for service in the navy.

Robert Shortlidge Walker came to Bellefonte yesterday on a short furlough, expecting to leave for a naval base in Wales early in the week.

William W. Braman, of State College, was on Monday commissioned a first lieutenant in the Sanitary corps of the army.

Luther Crissman Wants Letters and Papers Mailed to the Boys.

Vannes, France, July 18th, 1918.

Dear Editor: Would like to write you a big letter giving you all the details of our trip up to the present time and the things that we have seen but that is impossible owing to the strict censorship that our letters are receiving at the present time, but in the near future some of the boys may be able to give you some very good information as to what they have been through since their arrival in France, for this war is not going to last forever and some of us will surely come back to Bellefonte. I will give you a list of the old Troop L boys who are at the present time in the Supply Company, of the 108th field artillery, they are as follows:

- Henry M. Miller Arthur Beizer Edward Brooks William D. Brown Russell D. Confer Harry E. Dunlap Herbert S. Miller George R. Norris Wilfred Weakland Clayton L. Cori Peter A. DeJal William Aikay Jas. C. Campbell Luther H. Crissman Hugh C. Daley Victor P. Dawson

So that any of the Bellefonte people who want to write to them and do not know their address can write. They are all in the very best of health and getting the very best of things to eat; also we are getting our regular issue of tobacco, so that at the present time the only thing that we want is Bellefonte papers, so that we know what is going on at home all the time. If possible, will you please send us two or three a week, so that we will all be able to read them. Hoping to receive papers in the near future, I remain, Yours truly, LUTHER H. CRISSMAN. Address our mail to: Name..... Supply Company 108th Field Artillery American Expeditionary Force Via New York.

One of the Birdmen Killed.

The following interesting letter from Calvin L. Stamm, a former Centre county and for some months a resident of Bellefonte, will be appreciated by many readers of the "Watchman."

Turkey Foot Lake, Ohio, Aug. 20. While reading the "Watchman" this evening I noticed your account of an aeroplane passing over Centre county with Major Claude K. Rinehardt and Lieut. M. S. Cleary, as birdmen. On Wednesday, August 12th, about 12:30 o'clock, they landed on the widely-known F. H. Summit farm on Turkey Foot Lake, Summit county, Ohio, of which I am superintendent. They ran out of gasoline and seeing this beautiful spot, with its wide-stretching fields and beautiful residence, concluded to stop.

I got in a car and ran over to where they came down, and learning their wants supplied them with forty gallons of gasoline (with Mr. Mason's consent, of course). Then one of the Mason family, Mrs. Raymond, had me bring them to the mansion where they were served tea and also took a little swim in the lake.

At 3:45 p. m. they left for their flight to Dayton, Ohio, and when nearing that place, and while looking for a good place to land, Lieut. Cleary fell from the machine and was killed. It is a very common thing to see airplanes pass over this section. We also see quite a number of dirigibles, as they are manufactured by the Goodrich Rubber company, of Akron, Ohio, and all are well tested before being turned over to the government.

In closing I will say that the "Watchman" is a most welcome visitor in our home. It reaches us on Monday and we all make a grab for it as soon as it comes. My father, Benjamin Stamm, took the paper from the time it started until his death. Wishing you the best of success I remain,

CALVIN STAMM.

The postoffice at Axe Mann will be discontinued on September first and all the mail to residents in that locality will be delivered by the rural carrier.

Korman-Fisher.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Fisher, at Centre Hall, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday evening of last week when their only daughter, Miss Sarah Louise Fisher, became the bride of Rev. Roy E. Korman, of Cressona, Pa. About one hundred and twenty guests were present to witness the ceremony which took place at eight o'clock and which was performed by Rev. John Haney Keller, of China Grove, N. C., an uncle of the bride, the ring service being used.

The attendants were Miss Lola Ulrich, of Centre Hall, maid of honor; Miss Ruth Smith, Altoona; Miss Florence MacLaughlin, Chester, and Miss Martha Ruhl, of Millinburg, bridesmaids; John Korman, of Spring Mills, best man, and John Haney Keller, Jr., ring bearer. The ushers were Guy Korman, of Spring Mills; Franklin Heckman and Harold Keller, of Centre Hall. Immediately following the ceremony a delicious wedding dinner was served and later Rev. and Mrs. Korman were brought by motor to Bellefonte spending the night here and leaving on Thursday for a brief sojourn at Pocono Pines before going to Cressona to live.

The bride is a graduate of the West Chester Normal school and is a prepossessing and charming young woman. The bridegroom is a native of Spring Mills but is now pastor of the Reformed church at Cressona. A pleasing feature of the wedding was the fact that the three bridesmaids were classmates of the bride at the West Chester Normal school.

Cooney-Murray.—C. D. Cooney, of McKees Rocks, and Miss Edna Murray, of Centre Hall, were quietly married in Pittsburgh on Wednesday afternoon, going directly to the bridegroom's home at McKees Rocks. Mr. Cooney was born and raised in Pennsylvania but for a number of years past has been employed as a fireman on the Pennsylvania railroad with headquarters at McKees Rocks.

Miss Murray is the only daughter of Mrs. Rebecca Murray and for about eighteen years was the very efficient head operator in the Bell telephone exchange at Centre Hall. She came to Bellefonte on Wednesday morning and went to Pittsburgh where she met Mr. Cooney, who had everything arranged, and they were at once united in marriage. The many friends of the bride in and around Centre Hall wish her many years of happiness and prosperity.

Huey-Louck.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized by the Rev. T. Hugh MacLeod in the United Brethren parsonage on Thursday, August 22nd, when Miss Katherine N. Louck, of Snow Shoe, was united in marriage to Clark H. Huey, of Bellefonte, the ring ceremony being used. The bridal couple were attended by Miss Annie Louck, sister of the bride; Miss Maude Walker and Mr. Newton Louck, brother of the bride.

These young people are held in the highest esteem in their respective communities, and their hosts of friends join in best wishes for their future happiness.

Mr. Huey was one of the national army men who went to Camp Meade on Monday morning. Mrs. Huey will stay at her home in Snow Shoe while her husband is in service.

Shay-Shivery.—David M. Shay, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shay, of Howard, and Miss Mary Jane Shivery, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Harry Shivery, of Benner township, were married at the Presbyterian parsonage in Lemont last Saturday evening, by the pastor, Rev. L. V. Barber. Only the necessary witnesses were present. The bridegroom was one of the national army men who left with the contingent on Monday morning for Camp Meade and while he is in service his bride will stay with her parents.

Irvin-Franks.—Arthur T. Irvin and Mrs. Mary Martin Franks, both of Bellefonte, were married in Lock Haven last Friday by alderman J. C. Smith. The bride for a number of years worked as a compositor in the Republican office in this place.

Mignot-Jacobs.—Boniface Mignot and Mrs. Florence Jacobs, both of this place, were married in Lock Haven on Saturday by a justice of the peace. They returned to Bellefonte and are now occupying the bride's home on east Lamb street.

Auto Accident Near Fish Hatchery.

About 4:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon Charles Wolfe, of Aaronsburg, who had been in Bellefonte seeing his son, Frederick O. Wolfe, one of the national army men, was on his way home accompanied by another gentleman. At the same time he was driving out the state road Mr. Watson and family, of Lock Haven, drove out the road from the fish hatchery, intending to come in the road to Bellefonte. The latter kept to the right so as to cross to his proper position on the state road, but Mr. Wolfe, evidently believing he could pass before Mr. Watson got onto the road, swung to the left and the result was the two cars came together on an angle and ran up over a six foot bank and through a wire fence.

Mr. Wolfe was driving a heavy Wylis-Knight car while Mr. Watson was driving a Ford. The heavy impact threw Mr. Watson's wife and children from the car but fortunately none of them, or any of the men in either car were hurt. But Mr. Watson's car was badly wrecked. The whole front of it was smashed back to the windshield. Mr. Wolfe managed to get his car back onto the road and after a few minor repairs was able to proceed on his journey home.

In a destructive fire which swept through Canton, Ohio, on Sunday evening the job printing office of the late R. A. Cassidy was entirely destroyed by fire. Rumor has been rife in Bellefonte since that W. C. Cassidy, who went to Canton during his father's last illness, may decide to return to Bellefonte to live.

Boyd Vonada on Monday resigned his position in the Potter-Hoy hardware store and Tuesday morning left for Sunbury to accept a job with the Pennsylvania railroad company.

HARSHBERGER.—Zachariah D. Harshberger, the well known butcher of Milesburg, died yesterday morning following an illness that has dated back for several years. He was a son of David and Nancy Rhone Harshberger and was born in Snow Shoe in 1844, hence was in his seventy-fifth year. During his early life he lived in the vicinity of Hublersburg but about thirty years ago he located in Milesburg and engaged in the butchering business which he followed until his health compelled his retirement.

In 1875 he was united in marriage to Miss Jennie McMonigle, of Milroy, who survives with two daughters, Misses Maude and Elsie, both at home. He also leaves two sisters and one brother, namely: Mrs. James Low, of Pasadena, Cal.; Mrs. John Yearick, of Spring township, and Dr. S. U. Harshberger, of Port Matilda. He was a member of the Presbyterian church for many years and Dr. W. K. McKinney will have charge of the funeral services which will be held at his late home at two o'clock on Sunday afternoon, burial to be made in the Milesburg cemetery.

PEARL.—Miss Catherine Cecille Pearl died at the home of the Pearl sisters in Petrikin hall on Sunday afternoon of dilatation of the heart, following an illness of two years. She was a daughter of Patrick and Nora Hayes Pearl and was born in Bellefonte on March 31st, 1865, hence was 53 years, 4 months and 24 days old. She was a faithful member of the Catholic church all her life. Surviving her are four sisters, Mrs. Edward Brown, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Annie and Bridget, at home, and Sister Linus, (Ella) of the Immaculate Heart convent, Manayunk.

Funeral mass was held in the Catholic church at ten o'clock on Wednesday morning by Rev. Father Downes, and burial was made in the Catholic cemetery. Accompanying Sister Linus to Bellefonte for the funeral was Sister Everista, of Philadelphia. Others who attended the funeral were Dr. and Mrs. Winner and children; and two cousins of the deceased, John Hayes and Miss Annie Daley, all of Wilmington, Del.

BOTTORF.—Ethel Bottorf, the young daughter of William and Marguerite Bottorf, died at the Bellefonte hospital at ten o'clock on Sunday evening of exhaustion, following an operation ten days previous for appendicitis. She was born in College township and was fourteen years and six months old. The family have lived in Bellefonte going on three years and during that time the young girl made many friends by her death was a great shock to all. She was a member of the Methodist church and Sunday school and always a faithful attendant.

In addition to her parents she is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Alfred, John, Mrs. Edward Markley and Ruth, all of Bellefonte. Funeral services were held at ten o'clock yesterday morning by Rev. C. S. Shuey, assisted by Rev. T. Hugh McLeod, after which burial was made in the Union cemetery.

BALDRIDGE.—Mrs. David Baldridge died quite suddenly at her home in Milesburg about four o'clock yesterday morning. Her husband died about six years ago but surviving her are three children: Frank, living near Pittsburgh; Mrs. Howard Nagle, of Milesburg; and Catherine at home. She was a member of the Presbyterian church and Dr. W. K. McKinney will officiate at the funeral which will be held on Sunday afternoon.

YOUNG.—Robert E., infant son of William C. and Margaret Pease Young, died at the family home in Spring township on Sunday, following a brief illness with acute gastritis. The child was born May 25th, hence was just three months old to the day. Burial was made in the Curtin cemetery on Tuesday.

Prominent Among Those Who Are Ill.

Dr. E. H. Yocum, pastor of the Methodist church, was taken suddenly ill at his home Saturday night and his condition became so alarming that he was taken to the hospital. Reports yesterday were to the effect that he has improved considerably.

Mr. S. A. McQuiston, whose condition has not been favorable for the past several weeks is no better and is confined to bed at his home.

The condition of the venerable Joel Johnson is not improving any. He is gradually growing weaker and little hope of his recovery is entertained.

Col. W. R. Teller is quite ill at the Bush house. In fact his condition has been such as to give his friends considerable concern.

No change is noticed in the condition of Dr. E. S. Dorworth. Reports are to the effect that his vitality is remarkable and he shows little effect from his long confinement in bed.

The condition of Mrs. F. W. Crider is giving her friends grave concern. No improvement in her health is noticeable.

J. Harris Hoy has disposed of his interest in the Morgan & Hoy coal operations in Snow Shoe, has resigned the office of treasurer of Snow Shoe borough and will leave the town on the top of the Allegheny mountains today to try his fortunes in some other field, Pittsburgh appearing to be the most likely place at the present time.
