

COURT HOUSE NEWS.

SEPTEMBER TERM OF COURT CONTINUED.

The following decree was filed by Judge Quigley on Wednesday:

Whereas, the farmers of Centre county are at this time engaged in the heaviest work of the season and because of the large number of young men ordinarily engaged on the farms being now in army service and the consequent shortage of labor on the farms, as well as in all other occupations;

And Whereas, the registration under the draft law, the filing of the questionnaires, and the fourth Liberty Loan campaign will require a great deal of time and attention on the part of the members of the Centre county bar, which will interfere with preparation for the trial of cases at the September term of court;

And Whereas, it is our desire to do all things possible to assist in any way in the prosecution and speedy termination of the war, the Court is moved to continue generally the September term of court.

And Now, September 9th, 1918, for the reasons above stated, it is ordered and decreed that the regular term of court fixed for the fourth Monday of September, 1918, is hereby continued generally and the Sheriff of Centre county is directed to notify all jurors summoned not to appear.

Court will open to hear motions and petitions, receive accounts for confirmation, etc., at the usual time.

By the Court,
HENRY C. QUIGLEY, P. J.

AT THE PROTHONOTARY'S OFFICE.

Some time ago the Penn Public Service Co., of Philipsburg, entered a bill in equity against a number of coal operators in Centre and Clearfield counties to restrain them from polluting the waters of Cold Stream with sulphur water and refuse from their mines, and now the plaintiff filed an amended bill asking for a continuance of the injunction of restraint until the matter is finally decided by the court.

The Branch House Man

This is one of the Swift & Company Branch House Men. They are all pretty much alike in the way they feel toward their work—and that is what this ad is about. They know that most people couldn't get such good meat promptly and in good condition if it weren't for the branch houses of which they are in charge. They know that the branch house is one of the most important links in the chain of preparing and distributing meat for a nation. They know that Swift & Company must have its branch houses run at the highest notch of usefulness; that even a Swift & Company branch house won't run itself, and that it is up to the branch house man to run it properly. Any branch house man who doesn't see his work in this light is transferred to some other place with Swift & Company to which he is better adapted. They are picked men, these branch house men. Every time you sit down to a steak or chop, or cut of roast, you can give a grateful thought to the whole crew of them. And remember, in a general way, that everything that makes life smoother and more convenient for you, is the result of the thoughtfulness and effort of a lot of people of whom you have never heard.

The Master Mind of Modern Pictures
D. W. GRIFFITH
Presents his Newest Triumph, the Supreme Photo-Play of the War
"THE GREAT LOVE"
After four years of absence from the feature-play field, four years devoted to the making of these world-famous super-pictures, "The Birth of a Nation," "Intolerance," "Hearts of the World," D. W. Griffith returns to the theatre audiences of America with a lordly gift. He now presents the D. W. Griffith conception of a great war feature-picture, a great war-time romance. He shows Love against a background of Hate. He shows the splendid part Woman has played in the War, and the depth and devotion of her love as expressed by arduous service. "The Great Love" is rich in European color. You see London and Paris as they are now, Zeppelins in the very act of bombing, bombs in the very act of exploding, soldiers in the very act of fighting, attacking, rescuing, suffering. Through it all you follow the fortunes of one young American soldier who enlisted in the Canadian forces, and you see his expression of "The Great Love" both in his own tragic courtship and still more in the terrible blow he suffers as his best pal dies on the battlefield in his arms. "The Great Love" will lift you out of yourself and make you proud of the stuff humanity is made of.
MATINEE—Starting at 2 P. M.
EVENING—Starting at 6 P. M.
ADMISSION—Adults 13 cents; Children 9 cents. Plus War Tax.
