Bellefonte, Pa., October 25, 1918.

"DER TAG."

If we could only collect all the things that have been written by the Kaiser's enemies, and make him read them and then watch his expression -wouldn't it be interesting?

We are printing an especially choice bit that was written by Henry Chapell, an Englishman, and published in the London Daily Express.

The Kaiser had boasted that "The Day would come when a great war would start and that its passing would leave the German Empire the one single powerful nation, with himself lord and master of the whole world. "The Day" came, but its passing is not as the Kaiser had figured it would be. You boasted the Day, and you toasted the Day, And now the Day has come. Blasphemer, braggart and coward all, Little you reck of the numbing ball, The blasting shell or the white arm's fall As they speed poor humans home. You spied for the Day, you lied for the

And woke the Day's red spleen. Monster, who asked God's aid divine, Then strewed His seas with the ghostly

Not all the waters of the Rhine Can wash thy foul hands clean.

You dreamed for the Day, you schemed for the Day, Watch how the Day will go;

Slayer of age and youth and prime (Defenseless slain for never a crime). Thou art steeped in blood as a hog in False friend and cowardly foe.

You have sown for the Day, you have grown for the Day; Yours is the harvest red.

Can you hear the groans and the awful Can you see the heap of slain that lies, And sightless turned to the flame-split

The glassy eyes of the dead? You have wronged for the Day, you have longed for the Day

That lit the awful flame; 'Tis nothing to you that hill and plain Yield sheaves of dead men amid the grain; That widows mourn for their loved ones slain.

And mothers curse thy name.

But after the Day there's a price to pay For the sleepers under the sod, And He you have mocked for many Listen, and hear what He has to say 'Vengeance is mine, I will repay." What can you say to God?

The Cartoonist's "Uncle Sam."

The term "Uncle Sam" is intended to embrace, in a jocular way, the Government and people of the United States of North America, just as the term "John Bull" is meant to embrace the English Nation the United Kingdom and even the entire British Empire, according to the circumstances and relations in which that term is

The sobriquet of "Brother Jonathan" was applied, first, in mild derision by the Loyalists to the Patriots, between 1776 and 1783; later it was adopted by the Americans themselves to designate a country bumpkin, and lastly, used casually by George Washington in speaking of Gov. Jonathan Trumbull, of Connecticut, it came into popularity as a term applicable to the typical New England Yankee. This was probably because, in the somewhat crude drawings of the time, the native New Englander was pictured as a tall, rawboned, wiry, chin-whiskered, thoroughly alert and virile specimen of humanity. There is a tradition to the effect that during the War of 1812 some one having inquired what was meant by the initials "U. S.," seen on many casks and barrels intended for the army, a wag replied that the letters stood for Uncle Sam Wilson, of Troy, N. Y., a local character. According to the tradition, this incident led to the term "Uncle Sam" becoming a nickname for the Government and the Nation. There is, nevertheless, ground for the belief that the term was suggested naturally and directly by the initials, and, being a happy one, was universally adopted.

The usual drawings of "Uncle of "Uncle Sam," but, of the nation whose initials he bears, as having grown infirm and decrepit, and who vould have the cartoonists go even farther than they do now in discrediting its power, if they thought it prudent; but nation-respecting and nation-upholding editors and publishers who may, if they choose, determine how a figure characterizes American democracy shall be pictured in their newspapers and periodic. ed in their newspapers and periodicals, should see to it that those cartoonists whose vision has been obscured and whose art has been perverted either refrain from misrepresenting or caricaturing "Uncle Sam" in the future, or return to the original and true conception of him. For the Nation he is supposed to typify was never more vigorous than it is today, and never better qualified, or more determined to make its strength count for the right.

TRAITORS THREE.

Judas and Arnold and Kaiser Bill

Sat and talked on a brimstone hill. "I," said Judas, "I sold my Lord To murderers for a cash reward."

"And I," said Arnold, "betrayed my men; Every one talked of my deed then." The Kaiser spoke: "Why, boys, I broke A sacred treaty with peaceful folk;

Betrayed them, man and woman and child, To be shot and massacred and defiled.

'The remnant I work in armament town At shells to shoot their brothers down.' An envious thrill through the dead hearts

'What a traitor you are!" said the other two.

The reindeer has been known to pull 200 pounds at 10 miles an hour for 12 hours.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION SUBMITTED TO THE CITIZENS OF THE COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION, AT THE ELECTION TO BE HELD ON TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1918, BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, AND PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Number One. A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to article nine, section four of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; authorizing the State to issue bonds to the amount of fifty milliens of dollars for the improvement of the highways of the Commonwealth.

used. "Uncle Sam," as a nickname, is of later origin than the character he was destined to represent and practically supplant, and upon whom was bestowed the title of "Brother Jonathan," says the Christian Science Monitor.

The sobriquet of "Brother Jones" of the Monitor.

The sobriquet of "Brother Jones" of the State in war, or to pay existing debt; and the debt created to supply debt in the agreement supply debt and the debt created to supply debt in the agreement supply debt or Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—

Amendment to Article Nine, Section Eight.

with the provisions of the eighteenth arboyone, was universally adopted.

The usual drawings of "Uncle Sam" as an exceedingly lithe and active person, sharp of sight, quick of hearing, genial, benevolent, always democratic, but positive, determined, and disposed to "make things hum" when "stirred up." If presented in colors, his cheeks invariably showed a wholesome glow, while the charm of mature manhood was in his smile. From the beginning he was given a "full head" of light, not white, hair, which sometimes was allowed to fall in waves down his back. The prevailing artistic conception of him was what might have been expected in a figure intended to personate the youth and vigor and democracy of the nation. At least this was the prevailing conception, until recently, or about the time the United States entered the European war.

Since then the cartoonists have nearly all fallen into the habit of depicting "Uncle Sam" as a sort of "John Burns, of Gettysburg," or perhaps, the old friend whom Oliver Wendell Holmes was thinking of when he wrote:

But now his nose is thin.

And a crook is in his back.

And a melancholy crack

In his laugh.

Just why the average present-day cartoonist draws "Uncle Sam" as a aman who has seen his best days, it would be interesting and instructive to learn. One might, perhaps, easily make a good guess, but this is too serious a matter to be mixed up in a guessing contest. There are people no doubt, who like to think, not only

Last winter was a record breaker. This year it may be the same. Who knows? Are you prepared to keep warm no matter how hard the wind blows or how low the thermometer goes?

Better conserve your coal by using a Perfection Oil Heater. The Perfection is safe and it will keep any room in the house warm and comfortable in the most severe weather.

And, you will save money, for a Perfection burns an economical fuel. But be particular what kind of kerosene you use.

ATLANTIC Rayolight

is made by a special refining process

Safest and best.

Give a piercing, far-reaching light on the darkest night. Durable construction. Oil

founts never leak. At your dealer's.

Rayo Lamps

The always reliable

light makers. Handsome designs for every mellow light, ideal for all purposes. At your which gives it exceptional burning, heating and lighting qualities. It does not smoke, give off unpleasant odors or char the wick. Ask for it by name.

It's natural to put things off, but don't wait to buy your Perfection Oil Heater. Get it from your dealer now. They are reasonably priced -$5.65 to $10.00.

The Atlantic Refining Company Everywhere in Pennsylvania and Delawa

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Number Two.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section sixteen of article three of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—

That section sixteen of article three, which reads as follows:

"Section 16. No money shall be paid out of the treasury, except upon appropriations made by law, and on warrant drawn by the proper officers in pursuance thereof," be, and the same is hereby, amended so that the same shall read as follows:

Section 16. No money shall be paid out of the State Treasury, except in accordance with the provisions of an act of Assembly specifying the amount and purpose of the expenditure, and limiting the time in which said appropriation shall be expended. All public money shall be paid by the State Treasurer on warrant drawn by the Auditor General.

A true copy of Joint Resolution No. 2.

CYRUS E. WOODS.

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Number Three.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to article nine, section eight of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—

That article nine, section eight, be amended to read as follows:
Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as provided herein, and in section fifteen of this article, shall never exceed seven (7) per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, but the debt of the city of Phila-

the strate to tame bonds to the the their the State to tame bonds to the their their the State to tame bonds to the their thei

Number Four.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

An amendment to section one of article nine of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, relating to taxation.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

That section one of article nine, which reads as follows:

"All taxes shall be uniform, upon the same class of subjects, within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, and shall be levied and collected under general laws; but the General Assembly may, by general laws, exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes, actual places of religious worship, places of burial not used or held for private or corporate profit, and institutions of purely public charity," be amended so as to read as follows:

All taxes shall be uniform, upon the same class of subjects, within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, and shall be levied and collected under general laws, and the subjects of taxation may be classified for the purpose of laying graded or progressive taxes; but the General Assembly may, by general laws, exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes, actual places of religious worship, places of religious worship, places of the State, at the general election to be held on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in the year nineteen hundred and nineteen, for the purpose of deciding upon the approval and ratification or the rejection of said amendment. Said election shall be opened, held, and closed upon said election and in accordance with the provisions of the laws of Pennsylvania governing elections, and amendments thereto. Such amendment shall be printed upon the ballots in the form and manner prescribed by the election laws o

CYRUS E. WOODS, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

School Shoes FOR BOYS.

The kind of shoes that wear, made by the J. E. Dayton Company, and guaranteed to be all solid leather, high and low tops, $4.50 Per Pair.

Purchase your Rubbers now.

YEAGER'S SHOE STORE

THE SHOE STORE FOR THE POOR MAN

Bush Arcade Building

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Come to the "Watchman" office for High Class Job work.

LYON @ COMPANY.

Coats.

Don't buy a winter Coat until you compare our qualities and prices. We have frequently been told that our line of Coats is the largest, best styles, lowest prices. We can fit the infant, child, Miss and woman.

Suits.

Ladies' Suits, all colors, best styles; prices that will mean money saved. See our line.

Winter Underwear.

We have the most complete stock of wool and cotton (fleeced and plain) Underwear-men's, women's and children's. Union suits or two-piece suits that we can sell for less than the cost of manufacture to-day.

Dress Goods.

We are showing the All-Wool Dress Fabrics in Serges, Batistes, Poplins, Ottomans and Taffetas. Prices less than wholesale. All colors, black included.

Baskets for Christmas.

We have been lucky in getting a line of fancy baskets All kinds and shapes, all colors. These will make nice, useful and inexpensive presents. We are show. ing them now. SHOP EARLY.

Shoes. Shoes.

Mens' Women's and Children's Shoes for dress, work or school. Shoes at special low prices.

Lyon & Co. 60-10-19 Bellefonte.