

DORWORTH.—A brief item in last week's "Watchman" told of the death at four o'clock on Thursday afternoon of the venerable Dr. Edwin S. Dorworth, who passed away at his home on east High street after a prolonged illness. He was stricken with paralysis on April 13th, 1918, and never recovered therefrom.

Deceased was a son of Jonathan and Henrietta K. Dorworth and was born at Emanuel, Lehigh county, on February 19th, 1834, hence had reached the advanced age of 84 years, 8 months and 19 days. When a young man he taught school in Centre and adjoining counties and during one or two years was identified with the teaching staff of the Pine Grove Mills Academy. Later he took a course at the Iron City college, Pittsburgh, after which he studied medicine at the University of Pennsylvania. He then located in Howard for the practice of his profession but later went to New York where he took an advanced course in medicine at the University of New York. He located in Bellefonte in 1865, and at that time few of the country roads were passable for a vehicle all the year around and most of his traveling was done on horseback, with his saddlebags filled with medicine. He speedily acquired a large practice and traveled the surrounding country for miles. In his work he hearkened to the call of the rich and poor alike and used his fund of knowledge for the healing of the sick and relief of the distressed wherever the call came from and at any hour day or night. He practiced his profession even up to the day he was stricken and was the oldest physician in Centre county.

For many years he was a member of the Disciple church but later in life transferred his membership to the Presbyterian church, and always lived an upright, christian life. He was one of the oldest members of the Bellefonte Lodge of Masons and a man who not only commanded the respect of all but who had a host of friends in Bellefonte and throughout Centre county.

He was united in marriage to Miss Hannah Jenkins, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rees Jenkins, who survives with four children, namely: Misses Elizabeth J. and Alice K. Dorworth, and Charles E. Dorworth, of Bellefonte, and William J., of Baltimore, Md.

Funeral services were held at his late home on east High street at four o'clock on Saturday afternoon by Dr. W. K. McKinney, after which burial was made in the Union cemetery.

RUPP.—John A. Rupp died at his home at Boalsburg at 7:40 o'clock on Monday evening following an illness of some weeks with a complication of diseases. He was born in Haines township on July 14th, 1848, hence had reached the age of 70 years, 3 months and 26 days. His early life was spent on the farm but when he grew to manhood he learned the milling trade, a vocation he followed practically all his life.

In 1887 he was elected Register of Centre county on the Democratic ticket, being one of a very few Democrats elected that year. He was re-elected in 1890, serving all told six years and making a very efficient and accommodating official. At the completion of his official career he returned to Harris township and resumed his occupation as a miller. He was a life-long member of the Reformed church, a member of Bellefonte Encampment No. 72, I. O. O. F., and the Boalsburg Lodge No. 894 I. O. O. F. Surviving him are his wife and five children, namely: J. Edwin Rupp and Mrs. Charles Plummer, of Altoona; Alfred, of Fort Loudon, Pa.; Paul C., in service in France, and Robert O., in training at The Pennsylvania State College. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Alonza, of Altoona; J. Edwin, of Linden Hall; Mrs. Peter Weber, of Huntingdon; Mrs. James Swabb, of Linden Hall, and Miss Ina Rupp, of Oak Hall.

The funeral was held at two o'clock yesterday afternoon. After brief services at the house the remains were taken to the Reformed church where a funeral sermon was preached by Rev. S. C. Stover, after which burial was made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

BROWN.—Mrs. Mary Brown, wife of Edward A. Brown, died at her home on Bishop street at five o'clock on Monday evening following an illness with a complication of diseases dating back to August. The family spent the past two years in Sheffield, Ala., and only last Wednesday returned to Bellefonte, coming north in the hope that the change would be beneficial to Mrs. Brown's health, but she passed away within five days.

Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard McCafferty and was born in Bellefonte on August 17th, 1866, hence was 52 years, 2 months and 25 days old. Her entire life was spent here with the exception of the past two years in Alabama. She was a member of the Catholic church and home-loving christian woman. In addition to her husband she is survived by five children, namely: Catharine, Edward, Richard, Mame and Leo. She also leaves two brothers, James McCafferty, of New York city, and Martin, in Sheffield, Ala.

Funeral services were held in the Catholic church at ten o'clock yesterday morning by Rev. Father Downes, after which burial was made in the Catholic cemetery.

BARRICKE.—Peter Barriicke, an Italian, died at the Bellefonte hospital last Friday, following a brief illness with influenza. He was born in Italy and was about forty years old. He leaves a wife and a number of children. Burial was made in the Catholic cemetery.

KOCHLER.—David B. Kochler, the itinerant peddler, who was known all over Centre and Clearfield counties, died of an attack of pneumonia at the John Ammerman home on Bishop street last Friday evening. He came home by train about ten days previous and at the time was so ill that he was sent to the Ammerman home, where his niece, Miss Ida Kochler resides, in a taxi. He grew rapidly worse and died at the time above stated.

Deceased was a son of George and Elizabeth Farringer Kochler and was born at Howard on December 24th, 1844, hence had attained the age of 73 years, 10 months and 14 days. Afflicted as he was from boyhood by Mr. Kochler elected to make his own way through life and for almost fifty years tramped through Centre and Clearfield counties with a pack on his back selling notions and linen and even dress goods, and thereby not only supported himself but accumulated enough that had he lived in an incapacitated condition it would have kept him for years. And he went about his humble work uncomplainingly and with a sublime faith that he was doing the best he could with his life. He was an ardent believer in the doctrine of the Methodist church and never lost an opportunity to attend divine worship. He got out of his life all that he was able to do and no one who knew him can even question the fact that he has gone to the reward he so well merited. He was laid to rest on Monday in the Union cemetery.

WOOMER.—Henry Woomer, an aged and well known resident of upper Bald Eagle valley, died on Thursday of last week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Joana Mothersbaugh, at Gardner Station, following an illness of three years with Bright's disease. He was born in Bald Eagle valley on February 6th, 1831, hence had reached the advanced age of 87 years, 9 months and 1 day. He followed the occupation of a stonemason all his life and was not only a good workman but a splendid citizen.

He was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Woodring, of Port Matilda, who died four years ago, but surviving him are the following children: Thomas and Andrew, of Wilkinsburg; Harry, of Blue Ball; William, of Tyrone; Mrs. Mothersbaugh, of Gardner Station, and Ida, who is married and lives at Wolf's Hollow, Blair county. He also leaves three brothers and a sister, namely: Porter Woomer, of Kane; Martin, of Vail; Abednego, of Bald Eagle, and Mrs. Harper Rice, of Bellefonte.

He was a member of the Methodist church and his nephew, Rev. G. S. Woomer, of Huntingdon, had charge of the funeral which was held at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, burial being made at Bald Eagle.

WATSON.—Mrs. Mary Alice Watson, wife of Henry C. Watson, died at her home in Juniata on Friday morning following a short illness with pneumonia, the result of an attack of influenza. She was a daughter of Ellsworth and Sarah Miller and was born in Bellefonte twenty-eight years ago. She was married to Henry Watson about six years ago and most of the time since they have made their home in Juniata. In addition to her husband she is survived by two children, Agnes and Melvin. She also leaves the following brothers and sisters: David and Alfred Miller, of Bellefonte; Zebulun Miller and Mrs. Frank Mackey, of Philipsburg; Mrs. James Saylor, Mrs. Preston Gorbert and Mrs. John Gordon, all of Bellefonte. The remains were brought to Milesburg on Saturday afternoon and the funeral held at three o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Burial was made in the Milesburg cemetery.

SMITH.—Mrs. Stella Margaret Smith, wife of Charles H. Smith, died at her home in the stone building corner of High and Allegheny streets at 12:15 o'clock on Monday morning, following a brief illness with influenza. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kennedy and was born at McKeesport on April 20th, 1892, hence was in her twenty-ninth year. She was a graduate nurse of the Bellefonte hospital and her death is the first in the ranks of the graduate nurses of that institution. She was united in marriage to Mr. Smith on July 12th, 1916, and he survives with two sisters and a brother, Charlotte, Esther and Glenn Kennedy, all of Belleville, Pa. Funeral services were held at her late home at eleven o'clock yesterday morning by Dr. Ezra H. Yocum, of the Methodist church, of which she was a member, after which burial was made in the Union cemetery.

Houser.—Luther A. Houser died at his home in Canton, Ohio, on Tuesday morning of last week following a brief illness with influenza. Prior to his illness he nursed his wife through an attack of the disease, then became ill himself and died. He was a son of Emanuel and Mae Houser and was born near Bellefonte, being thirty-one years old in August. He worked for C. A. Vuille, in Huntingdon four years and while there was united in marriage to Miss Julia Lamberson who survives with no children. He leaves, however, his parents, living near Bellefonte, one sister, Mrs. Allen Hoy, of Wilkinsburg, and a brother, Fred Houser, of Bellefonte. The remains were taken to Huntingdon where burial was made on Wednesday afternoon.

BRADLEY.—Geraldine Grace Bradley, the young daughter of James and Ida Lucas Bradley, of Spring township, died on Saturday of an attack of influenza, aged 2 years and 9 months. Burial was made in the Union cemetery on Monday afternoon.

BEAVER.—The sad news was received in Bellefonte yesterday of the death at the Presbyterian hospital, New York city, on Wednesday evening, of Miss Katharine Beaver, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert A. Beaver. The young lady, who was twenty-one years old, had just recovered from a siege of influenza when she was stricken with appendicitis. She was taken to the hospital for an operation but in her weakened condition was not able to survive the shock to her system of the operation. Doubtless it is the fact that both Mr. and Mrs. Beaver, whose home is at Yorktown Heights, are patients in the Presbyterian hospital, quite ill with influenza. Miss Beaver, who is a grand-daughter of Mrs. James A. Beaver, has frequently visited in Bellefonte and has many friends among the younger set who deeply mourn her untimely death.

BECK.—Benjamin F. Beck, a well known farmer of Walker township, died on Tuesday following a ten day's illness with uremic poisoning. He fell unconscious about ten days previous to his death while husking corn and had to be carried to the house. While he regained consciousness he grew rapidly worse and died on Tuesday morning.

He was a son of Henry and Anna Ely Swartz Beck and was born in Walker township on October 20th, 1841, making his age 77 years and 23 days. He followed farming all his life and was a most estimable citizen in every way. His wife died a number of years ago but surviving him are three children, Lewis H. Beck, of Snyderstown; Lillie J., at home, and Mrs. George Hershberger, of Snyderstown. Burial will be made in the Snyderstown cemetery today.

KELLY.—Following an illness of about ten years with a complication of diseases Robert Franklin Kelly died at his home on north Thomas street at ten o'clock last Thursday morning. He was a son of John and Mary Hinton Kelly and was born at Howard on August 26th, 1879, hence was 39 years, 2 months and 12 days old. He had been a resident of Bellefonte most of his life. He was married to Miss Emma Hastings who survives with two children, Pearl and Gilbert, both at home. He also leaves one brother and a sister, James Kelly and Mrs. George Robb, of Coleville, and a half-sister, Mrs. William Keen. Funeral services were held at three o'clock Saturday afternoon by Rev. T. Hugh MacLeod and C. C. Shuey, after which burial was made in the Union cemetery.

SMOYER.—Mrs. Minnie Smoyer, wife of Joseph Smoyer, died at her home at Pleasant Gap on Wednesday of last week following an illness of some months with tuberculosis. She was a daughter of Harry and Anna Uhl Rice and was born in Spring township about twenty-seven years ago. She is survived by her husband and three small children; also her father, one sister, Mrs. Andrew Shively, of Buffalo Run, and two brothers, Blair, of Pleasant Gap, and Merrill, of Spring township. The funeral was held last Saturday. Rev. Shuey had charge of the services and burial was made at Pleasant Gap.

JONES.—William Jones died at his home at Orviston on Tuesday of last week as the result of an attack of influenza and heart trouble. He was born at Wilkes-Barre and was 26 years and 10 months old. He is survived by his wife and a little son, William Jr., also his parents, three brothers and a sister, David, John, Thomas and Margaret. Funeral services were held on Thursday after which the remains were taken to Wilkes-Barre where burial was made on Friday.

PINK.—Mrs. Gertrude Fink died on Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watkins, at Centre Furnace, after five days' illness with influenza. She was thirty-three years old and is survived by three children, her parents and one brother. Burial was made in the Pine Hall cemetery on Tuesday afternoon.
