

HASTINGS.—George Gray Hastings died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Robert Kelley, in this place, at 10:30 o'clock on Sunday morning of cerebral hemorrhage, following an illness of more than a year with a complication of diseases.

Deceased was a son of Thomas and Mary Ann Gray Hastings and was born in Buffalo Run valley on April 11th, 1848, making his age 70 years, 8 months and 18 days. Most of his life was spent in farming in Buffalo Run valley but of late years he has been living a retired life. He was a great lover of the chase and in his earlier life spent weeks in the mountains, many deer being brought to earth by his unerring aim. He is also credited with having killed the last panther shot in Pennsylvania.

He was married to Miss Loretta Rogers, of Beech Creek, who died in 1904. Surviving him, however, are the following children: Mrs. E. P. Gray, of Uniontown; E. T. Hastings, of Jersey Shore; Gray, of Avis; Mrs. William Grindall, of Altoona; Mrs. Bruce Lingle, of Milesburg; Mrs. David Getz, of Altoona; Mrs. Robert Kelley, of Bellefonte; B. H. Hastings, of Altoona, and Mrs. Clarence Hazel, of Williamsport.

Funeral services were held at his late home at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon by Rev. C. C. Shuey, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

SPANGLER.—Mrs. Mary M. Spangler, wife of Jonathan Spangler, died at her home at Rebersburg on New Year's day following an illness of some months, aged 78 years and 3 months. Her maiden name was Mary Leitzell and she was born in Brush valley. She was thrice married, her first husband being Philip Woodling, and of this union two children survive, namely: Charles L. Woodling, of Nyack, N. Y., and Mrs. Florence J. Burd, of Philadelphia. Her second husband was John H. Reifsnyder, of Millheim, and after his death she married Mr. Spangler, who survives. She also leaves the following brothers and sisters: W. H. Leitzell, of DuBois; L. H. Leitzell, of State College; F. E. and H. H. Leitzell, of Mifflinburg; Mrs. Henrietta Jordan, of Crystal, N. D.; Mrs. W. J. Carlin and Mrs. W. S. Miller, of Rebersburg.

Mrs. Spangler was a devout member of the Lutheran church all her life and a woman who had the love and respect of everybody in the community in which she lived. Funeral services will be held at her late home at 1:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon by Revs. Shannon and Womelsdorf, after which burial will be made in the Rebersburg cemetery.

Refugees Flock to Paris.

Advices just received by Red Cross officials are to the effect that folks driven from northern France during the past four years are today flocking through Paris from all quarters—en route to what is left of home. Carrying for them as they pass through, arranging transportation, supplying needed clothing, food and the like, is taxing French government officials. The American Red Cross, especially equipped for refugee relief, has been called upon and is aiding in the work. Free railroad passage and every accommodation is placed at their disposal. Suitable quarters, too, are being provided to house them during the few days necessary for the vise of papers and permits and other essential business. The refugees, for the most part unfamiliar with Paris, are met at the station by French government agents. Big gray camions take them direct to the refugee community set up at Saint Sulpice.

There American Red Cross workers and American doctors work side by side with the French attendants in making things as comfortable and cheery as possible. Clean beds, hot meals, warm clothing and sympathy in full measure greet them. Refugee children play in a sunny garden set apart for them, watched over by Red Cross nurses; and doctors and attendants do what may be done for those who are weary and ill.

Just out from Paris, too, there is maintained a health farm for refugee children in need of fresh air, fresh milk and fresh eggs. Despite their hardships, the greatest concern of these afflicted folk is what they are going to find when they get back.

Are You Open-Minded?

The average American is open-minded.

American business is conducted by true Americans of vision, open-minded men who believe in their country and strive to meet their country's needs. The men in the packing industry are no exception to the rule.

The business of Swift & Company has grown as the nation has progressed. Its affairs have been conducted honorably, efficiently, and economically, reducing the margin between the cost of live stock and the selling price of dressed meat, until today the profit is only a fraction of a cent a pound—too small to have any noticeable effect on prices.

The packing industry is a big, vital industry—one of the most important in the country. Do you understand it?

Swift & Company presents facts in the advertisements that appear in this paper. They are addressed to every open-minded person in the country.

The booklet of preceding chapters in this story of the packing industry, will be mailed on request to
