

GLENN.—Charles A. Glenn, the old-time photographer who had been a familiar figure in Bellefonte during the past quarter of a century, passed away last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Fry, on east Logan street, the result of a general breakdown.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Glenn and was born at Boalsburg on May 28th, 1833, hence had attained the advanced age of 85 years, 7 months and 4 days. In April, 1861, shortly after the breaking out of the Civil war, he enlisted for service in Company H, Fourth Pennsylvania volunteers for a period of three months and was made a corporal in the company. When his term of enlistment expired he was on detached duty for a brief period. Returning from the service he took up photography and in later years purchased a photographer's car and traveled over the county, spending some time in each town and village. Upwards of thirty years ago he located in Bellefonte and his car stood where the Potter-Hoy hardware store is now located. Then it was moved further north on Water street, then to the site of the present hardware house on west High street and from there to its present location on south Water street. He was one of a family of five children and the last one to pass away.

Funeral services were held at the Fry home at ten o'clock last Saturday morning by Dr. W. K. McKinney, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Union cemetery.

BRESSLER.—Mrs. Minnie Bressler, wife of Michael Bressler, passed peacefully away at her home at Marango at eleven o'clock last Thursday night, following a little over a week's illness with the flu. On Christmas day she and her husband were quietly celebrating their seventh wedding anniversary when she was taken ill while eating dinner. Influenza developed which resulted in her death.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gummo and was born at Erbtown twenty-seven years ago. She was a splendid young woman and in addition to being a good housekeeper and homemaker was fond of outdoor sports, one of her favorite pastimes being hunting. During the recent deer hunting season she brought to earth a fine buck not far from her home. She is survived by her husband, her parents, one sister and a brother, namely: Mrs. Herbert Grove, living near Zion; William Gummo, of Baileyville; John, at home, and James, in Tyrone. She was a member of the Methodist church from early girlhood. The funeral services were held at her late home at twelve o'clock last Saturday by Rev. I. E. Fisher, after which the remains were taken to Pine Grove Mills for burial in the new cemetery.

McCLURE.—Following an illness of almost two years with Bright's disease and other complications William McClure passed away at his home on Bishop street at six o'clock on Tuesday evening. He had been confined to his bed since Thanksgiving day.

Deceased was the second son of Harvey and Sarah Riddle McClure and was born in the house in which he died on April 4th, 1851, hence was 67 years, 9 months and 3 days old. His father was a harness maker and as a young man William learned the same trade and followed it all his life.

In 1887 he was united in marriage to Miss Katharine Barnhart who survives with the following children: Mrs. Paul McGarvey, of Bellefonte; Martha and Helen, with the Armstrong Cork company in Pittsburgh; Thomas, at home; William, with the U. S. force in France; Mary, Caroline, Louise and Rebecca, all at home. He also leaves one brother, James H. McClure, of Bellefonte.

Funeral services will be held at his late home on Bishop street this (Friday) afternoon by Dr. Ezra H. Yocum, of the Methodist church, after which burial will be made in the Union cemetery.

Bad Accident at Whiterock Quarries.

John A. Weaver and his son Earl, of Pleasant Gap, were the victims of a serious accident at Whiterock quarries just before the noon hour on Wednesday. Some workmen were engaged in breaking up the frozen ground covering over the vein of stone and had put off a shot which dislodged quite a lot of material. But it left an overhang which several men went up to dislodge.

While they were on their way up to the top of the quarry Mr. Weaver and son went into the quarry to finish loading a car of stone, both believing it was entirely safe to do so, but hardly had they started work when a portion of the overhang fell down and the two of them were almost buried beneath a huge pile of frozen earth and stone. They were gotten out as quickly as possible and conveyed to their home. While no bones were broken Earl Weaver was knocked unconscious and remained in that condition for some time. Just how serious their injuries are was not determined yesterday, as very much will depend upon whether they are hurt internally.

The accident to the father and son comes at a most unfortunate time as just last week Mrs. Weaver had a leg amputated, at the Bellefonte hospital, owing to a bad case of blood poisoning.

Owing to the difficulty in securing sufficient help tailor A. C. Smith expects to close his shop in the Reynolds bank building on March 1st and devote his time to other interests.

Milkman Harry Corman is back on his wagon after quite a serious illness with the flu.

Most of the eighty-five young men and women of the congregation who have been in the service of our country, were represented by some relative or friend at the roll-call. Last evening was Community evening. A fellow-pastor's estimate of religious conditions in Bellefonte and how to improve them, held our interest. This evening will be young people's time. Congratulations are now being extended by their many friends.

BIRTHS.

A son, who has been named Robert Herman Olmstead Jr., was born to Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Olmstead, Christmas morning. A first child and on Christmas morning brings with it much good luck to both the little one and its parents.

A little daughter was born Sunday, January 5th, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beaver, and has been named for her cousin, Katherine Simonton Beaver, who died in the Presbyterian hospital of New York city, only a few weeks ago.

Winter weather struck us with a sudden thud. Snow began falling early Thursday evening and by Friday morning the ground was covered to a depth of six inches or more. And then just as naturally as ever a cold wave followed the snow and Saturday morning we had the first zero weather of the winter. Sunday morning thermometers in Bellefonte registered ten degrees below zero while at various places in the county sixteen degrees below were recorded. Monday morning was still colder, the mercury dropping from twelve to eighteen below zero. But of one thing we are assured: This winter won't be as long as last winter was.

On Tuesday morning Ives Harvey and J. E. LaBarre were driving into Bellefonte on the Buffalo Run road and in coming through Bush's Addition James Mitchell, the seven year old son of Mr. Harry Mitchell, coasted out into the road right in front of Mr. Harvey's automobile. Mr. LaBarre, who was driving, ran the machine into the ditch to avoid hitting the boy, but as it was struck the sled on the side throwing the lad off and breaking his left leg between the thigh and knee. The two men hurriedly picked the boy up and took him to the Bellefonte hospital where he is receiving the best of treatment.

William Witmer, of east Bishop street, had a fall on Sunday that resulted in his being confined to the house for a few days.

The George Coder family have all recovered from the flu and are able to be about as usual.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT DEAD.

Ex-President Died as Result of Blood Clot on His Lung.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Jan. 6.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt died in his sleep early today at his home on Sagamore Hill in this village. Death is believed to have been due to a blood clot on his lung caused by rheumatism which affected his heart.

The Colonel suffered a severe attack of rheumatism and sciatica on New Year's day, but none believed that his illness would likely prove fatal. The former President sat up most of Sunday and retired at 11 o'clock last night. About 4 a. m. Mrs. Roosevelt, who was the only other member of the family at Oyster Bay, went to her husband's room and found that he had died during the night.

The funeral was held at 12:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, burial being made in Youngs' Memorial cemetery at Oyster Bay.
