While the thermometer on the surface registered 36 degrees above zero on Tuesday afternoon it was 20 degrees below zero at an altitude of four thousand feet. That is what the thermometer carried by the aviator who was flying over Bellefonte registered.

In another article in this paper it will be noted that the government will furnish nitrate of soda to the farmers again at cost. The price will be $81.00 per ton. For further particulars get in touch with the Farm Bureau office. All orders must be placed by January 25.

The aviators at present attached to the Bellefonte station gave exhibition flights over Bellefonte and surrounding community on Tuesday and Wednesday, using the Curtiss Type E machine. On Wednesday three different men went up and did some spectacular flying as well as making very successful landings.

Within the past fortnight some unknown thief paid a visit to the A. M. Snook farm in Penn township while that gentleman was on a visit to the eastern part of the State and robbed his granary of a quantity of oats. While Mr. Snook cannot tell definitely the amount taken he is satisfied it was a good two-horse load.

The annual chicken and waffle supper will be served in the United Brethren church social room on Thursday, January 16th. This supper was to have been served on December 13th but had to be postponed on account of so much sickness in the congregation, but the ladies hope to carry out the affair in their usual efficient manner this time.

The county agent has on hand in the Farm Bureau office several farmers' account books that will be sold to any farmer desiring same at 45c, which is the cost price of having them printed. These account books are very complete yet simple, and for any farmer who wishes to keep such accounts to have accurate records to be used in figuring the income tax, etc., they are very desirable.

J. Harris Green, the druggist, who was special enrolling agent for the U. S. merchant marine during the war, has just been appointed permanent enrolling agent for the United States shipping board recruiting service by Henry Howard, director. Official notice of Mr. Green's appointment was received in Bellefonte this week. Owing to the rapid delivery of new cargo vessels the demand for trained seamen is increasing and young men desiring to enter the service should apply for information to Mr. Green.

Between six and seven o'clock on Monday evening a burning fire set fire to the roof of the rear portion of John Eckel's meat market on High street. A quick alarm brought out the fire companies and the flames were extinguished before they had done more damage than burn a small hole in the roof and badly charring the upper portion of a board partition between the two rooms. Aside from a little damage by water and the hole in the roof Mr. Eckel's loss was slight, and on Tuesday morning he was open for business bright and early as usual.

The Bellefonte Academy reopened yesterday after a two week's holiday vacation and to the credit of this old-time educational institution it can be said that for the first time in its history it is crowded to capacity limits with boarding students. In fact it might be stated that it is overcrowded. Its capacity is an even one hundred and enough new students came to run the total up to one hundred and three. Whether they will be able to accommodate the extra three has not been definitely determined at this writing, but it must be cause for genuine satisfaction on the part of headmaster James R. Hughes and his corps of able assistants to know that at last the old Bellefonte Academy is filled to overflowing.

Dr. Weston to Resign as Secretary of the Local Y.

At the meeting of the board of directors of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., which is scheduled for next Monday night plans will be discussed for the complete rehabilitation of the Association with a view to putting it in shape to give the soldiers particularly when they come home, and others also, a continuance of the benefits they found in the huts of the Red Triangle on the other side.

This means that after a thorough survey of the situation and of the needs for such endeavor in this community the Association will either be lifted out of the rut of inaction into which it has been allowed to fall because of indifference of our people and made a constructive, active centre of christian welfare work or be shut up entirely.

The entire situation will be viewed from a standpoint as if it were an entirely new proposition. Old prejudices, criticisms, failures and successes alike will be forgotten and the present and the future only taken into consideration. In order to make such an atmosphere possible it has called for some big, broad-minded action on the part of those heretofore connected with the Association and they have everyone tendered their resignations, so that it is now squarely up to the community as to whether we are going to put our shoulders to the wheel and make it what it should be or close it and save it from the further unfair criticisms that our indifference has continuously brought upon it.

DR. WESTON SPEAKS FOR HIMSELF.

The "Watchman" knows that Dr. Weston has shouldered a lot of the criticism. He has been almost alone in the work and like everybody else in a similar position has probably gotten more than his share of it. It knows, also, that in many ways he has been an efficient and very capable secretary and the proof of his deep interest in the welfare of the work here could not be more positively impressed upon our people than by the action he will take next Monday night when he will voluntarily resign. This proves beyond peradventure that he means just what he says in the following interview which he has accorded the writer:

After a service of ten years as secretary of the Y. M. C. A. I have decided to hand in my resignation Monday night when the new board of directors meet, so that they may have a free hand in carrying out their new plans.

I want to thank the many friends and the general public for the kind words, sympathy and support they have given me in all these years and trust the community will stand by the new Board of Directors for the sake of the boys and young men.

I have always stood for the best and highest things for the body, mind and spirit and pray in leaving this spirit may always be the motto of the Association.

R. C. WESTON.

With a view to effect a new re-organization of the Board of Directors of the local Y. M. C. A. and to consider steps necessary to place the work of the Association on a footing commensurate with present needs, representative citizens were called together at a meeting in the Bush house, Tuesday evening by C. H. Dresham, State Field secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

To secure for the Bellefonte Association the proper direction and unified support of the work it was felt that a live, active Board of Directors should be effected.

Former president Johnston appointed those present an executive committee to take proper steps for the re-organization of the Board of Directors. Hon. H. C. Quigley was elected chairman of the committee and was authorized to appoint a nominating committee to present the names of nine nominees for the Board, three to serve one year, three to serve two years and three to serve three years. This plan will allow for the election of three directors each year hereafter.

The committee presented the following nominees who shall be voted for by active members of the Association next Monday evening, 8 to 10 o'clock, in the local Y. M. C. A. building. The voting will be by ballot.

Nominees for one year: Hon. Henry C. Quigley, George R. Meek, R. H. Olmstead.

Nominees for two years: Charles M. McCurdy, John S. Walker, Calvin Troup.

Nominees for three years: James B. Cook, Nelson E. Robb, A. H. Sloop.

Following the election the Board of Directors shall meet for the election of its officers, appointment of committees, and taking such steps as it deems necessary to place the equipment and work on a basis that shall further its effectiveness in meeting the needs and demands of Bellefonte's young men and boys and especially the returning soldier to whom the "Red Triangle" has a new and real meaning.

Milesburg Has a New Postmaster.

Mr. A. T. Boggs has resigned as postmaster of Milesburg, and Wilbur Miles is acting as postmaster for the bondsmen until such a time as a successor is named.

Mr. Boggs, partly because of his advancing years and partly because there is such small return from the office, has been trying to get out for six months or more and failing to find relief just gave up the office.

He has been a very efficient and satisfactory official throughout his long term of office and has retired from the service with a fine record and the good will of all of the patrons.

The Surrender of the German Fleet.

The most wonderful scene ever filmed. The one and only picturization of this great event, which was impossible to put in a Weekly, as it is over 1000 feet long. At the Lyric theatre Monday, January 13th. 2-1t

Warfield vs. Kelley Case Reversed by Supreme Court.

Among the decisions handed down by the Supreme court, sitting in Philadelphia last Saturday, was a decision in the case of Warfield vs. Kelley, of Centre county, in which the action of the lower court was reversed and the costs put upon the appellee.

The case dates back to the old Coal Mining company of which the late Frank Warfield owned sixty-five shares of stock. The company later was re-organized under new management and in the reorganization new stock was issued at the rate of one share for three of the old. This was after Mr. Warfield's death and Mrs. Warfield brought an action against the new management to recover her full sixty-five shares of stock. The case was heard before Judge A. W. Johnson, of Lewisburg, presiding in the Centre county court, and he gave a decision in favor of the plaintiff. The defendants appealed with the above result.

The American Committee for Relief in the Near East.

The week from January 12th to January 19th has been appointed for the raising of $30,000.00 for relief in the Near East to sustain the lives of 3,950,000 Christians and Jews through their winter and their return to a new life free from religious and political persecution.

The name American committee in Armenia and Syrian Relief has been changed by the American committee for Relief in the Near East—covering all non-Moslem sufferers, Jew, Catholic and Protestant in Greece, Armenia, Syria and Persia. The committee is formed of the most prominent men in the United States of every shade of religious and political belief. Centre county is expected to do her share. Bellefonte already has an organized committee which expects next week to give every one in town a chance to voluntarily contribute through churches, other organizations, or individually to these people in their desperate need. Letters will be sent to all other communities in Centre county asking them to co-operate in this work.

Pennsylvania Conference D. A. R.

The postponed Pennsylvania State conference Daughters of the American Revolution will be held in Harrisburg January 27th to 30th inclusive, with the new Penn-Harris hotel as headquarters. All business sessions will be held in the convention hall of the hotel.

Special events will be a patriotic meeting on Monday evening, January 27th, when the president general, Mrs. George Thacher Guernsey; the state regent, Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, and the Rev. Dr. Robert Bagwell, who recently visited camps abroad, will be the speakers.

Tuesday evening Governor and Mrs. William C. Sprout will receive the conference and gentlemen guests at the executive mansion, which will be the first social event of their administration. An afternoon tea in the historic home of Mr. and Mrs. William Elder Bailey and an informal reception with the Bishop of the Harrisburg diocese and Mrs. James Henry Darlington at the See house will also be one of the enjoyable functions of the gathering.

The Rev. Dr. Henry A. Hanson will give an illustrated lecture on "The Man Without a Country."

H. E. C. OVERTON, State Pub. Com.

William H. Berry Guest of Bellefonte Presbyterians.

The male members of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church were all fed up last Saturday evening. First, they were given a supper in the chapel by the members of the Ladies Aid society which for "substantial eats" was declared by all to have been "the best ever." After eating they were treated to a breezy little talk by William H. Berry, collector of the port of Philadelphia.

Mr. Berry is no stranger in Bellefonte, having visited the town when he campaigned for the State Treasuryship and also when he ran for Governor on the Keystone ticket after bolting the regular Democratic nominee, but on this occasion he cast politics to the four winds and made a very entertaining talk, dealing in generalities mostly and not confining himself to any special topic. About seventy-five gentlemen attended the supper.

On Sunday morning Mr. Berry gave a talk in the Presbyterian church, taking for his topic environment. The point he emphasized to his hearers was that every man and woman should make the most of their immediate surroundings, be it in public life or private, and in that way they would not only be honored and respected in the community but would fill a sphere in life more completely than if they were always grasping after the unattainable.

LOCAL FARMERS TO GET NITRATE OF SODA.

Government to Sell Nitrate for Fertilizer Through County Agent.

Notice has been given to R. H. Olmstead, agricultural agent for Centre county, that the U. S. Department of Agriculture will sell at cost a supply of nitrate of soda to farmers in Centre county.

The nitrate will be sold under the authority of the Food Control act and subsequent legislation relating thereto. The price will be $81.00 a ton, free on board cars at loading point or port. Farmers are to pay in addition freight to their shipping points.

HOW TO OBTAIN NITRATE.

Applications for a part of the nitrate bought by the government will be received only from actual farmers or owners or holders of farms for use on their land, and may be made through County Agent R. H. Olmstead, or through any member of a local committee consisting of W. C. Smetzer, Bellefonte, and John S. Dale, State College.

No money will be required with the application but upon notice from the authorized representative of the Department of Agriculture farmers who have signed applications must deposit with a local bank, association, or individual, designated by the Secretary of Agriculture to act as the farmers' agent for that purpose, money to cover the cost of the fertilizer except the freight charge. In practically every case the money will be paid to a county nitrate distributor designated by the Department of Agriculture. Nitrate will be shipped to distributors on sight draft with bill of lading attached. Distributors will pay drafts, take up the bills of lading, collect money from farmers and distribute nitrate to farmers. Arrangements have been made to secure a large quantity of nitrate and it is believed that all reasonable requirements can be met.

All orders must be placed by January 25th. In communities where possible it will pay farmers to club together and order in carload lots, as about $3.00 per ton was saved to those farmers who ordered in this way last year.

Annual Meeting of Centre County Threshermen.

The annual meeting of the Centre county Threshermen and Farmers' Protective association was held in the grand jury room at the court house last Saturday. Owing to the cold weather and snow-drifted roads the attendance was not as large as it should have been, but a splendid and harmonious spirit was manifest among those present.

Most of the old officers were re-elected, the list being as follows: President—G. W. Smith, Zion. Vice President—J. S. Condo, Jacksonville.

Secretary and Treasurer—Isaac Underwood, Bellefonte. Executive Committee—E. S. Weiser, Millheim; George W. Seaton, Linden Hall; O. H. Nason, Julian; James N. Smith, Howard, and W. K. Corl, State College.

Compensation insurance is now one of the foremost questions of interest to threshermen and strong protests were voiced against what is termed the exorbitant increase in the premium charges, increases not warranted by the facts, because so far as known there was not an accident to a thresherman in Centre county last year, and consequently no demand for compensation insurance. A thorough discussion of the matter was finally deferred for a special meeting to be held in the near future for the purpose of hearing the report of the state committee. The feeling among the threshermen is that if reasonable rates cannot be obtained a mutual threshermen's insurance company should be organized in Pennsylvania similar to the kind organized in some of the other States, and which are proving a success in every way.

W. Fred Reynolds, food administrator for Centre county, was present and read a letter from Howard Heinz, federal food administrator for Pennsylvania, calling upon threshermen to make their machines good now for one hundred per cent. work during the season of 1919. This is something that should be done before storing the machines, as the grain threshing division of the Federal Food Administration, as well as manufacturers, have given assurance that there will be no reduction in the price of supplies and repairs the coming year due to peace negotiations.

Prof. R. W. Blasengame, of State College, who is the state leader under the grain threshing division of the Federal Food Administration, was introduced by C. L. Gooding, superintendent of the State College experimental farms, and gave a brief talk on the importance of care in operating the thresher so that all waste be prevented, assuring the threshermen that if any difficulty is experienced in securing necessary machinery or repairs he will gladly lend his aid if the matter is properly reported to him.

When the meeting adjourned it was with the understanding that it is to convene at the call of the president.

Brief Meeting of Borough Council.

Seven members were present at the regular meeting of borough council on Monday evening, the first in the new year but which in reality was devoted principally to the closing up of business for the old year.

A written communication was received announcing the election of Joseph Shaughnessy as chief fire marshal; Harry Haag first assistant and William Steele second assistant. The elections were approved by council.

The Street committee had nothing of special importance to report while the Water committee reported that the reservoir had been cleaned.

The Fire and Police committee reported a fire at the James Herron home, in the Shoemaker property on north Allegheny street, on January 2nd, when a coal oil stove exploded, and another fire Monday evening in the John Eckel meat market on High street.

Mr. Fauble, of the Finance committee, reported a balance in the hands of the treasurer on January 1st of $2367.56. He also recommended a note be drawn in favor of the borough treasurer for $1,400 to renew in part a note for $1500 due January 2nd, for a period of six months. Mr. Fauble also stated that J. S. Ginter, of Tyrone, secretary and treasurer of the Pruner orphanage, had consented to the investment of the proceeds of the sale of the Pruner property in Tyrone and in Ness county, Kan., in Liberty bonds, but also requested that his letter of a recent date urging that the money be put out on mortgage at six per cent, interest be spread upon the minutes of Bellefonte council as a matter of record, and it was so ordered.

Supt. H. J. Thompson and bookkeeper E. C. Musser, of the State Centre Electric company, appeared before council for the purpose of adjusting the accounts of the water duplicate for 1917 and the matter of the cost of pumping the water into the reservoir. Their statement on the water tax duplicate was referred to the Water committee to go over and check off all exonerations allowed, the balance to be turned back to the State Centre company with power to collect at once or turn the water off of all delinquents until the tax is paid in full. Regarding the pumping of the water council agreed to pay the State Centre company the amount due them up to January first and postpone the adjustment until the termination of the six month's experiment of the borough's control of the Phoenix pumping station, which will be on March first, which was satisfactory to all concerned.

Superintendent Thompson stated to council that he realized the street lights are not kept in the condition they should be but gave as the reason the very inferior supplies which they are getting at present, and the impossibility of getting a better grade. He hoped, however, that with the return of all kinds of business to normal conditions they will be able to get good stuff and get it promptly, and until that time he asked the forbearance of council.

Bills to the amount of a little over six thousand dollars were approved and council adjourned.

At a meeting of the executive board of the Woman's club, Monday evening, it was decided to resume the regular meetings of the club, at its original home and place, at seventy-third, in the directors' room of the High school building, on the last Monday night of each month. A later announcement will be made of the subject and speakers for the January meeting, to be held on the night of the 31st.
