PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

 Paul Grubb, who recently suffered a fractured leg, has recovered to that Mrs. Homan Walker is confined to her home on the Branch with an attack of sciatica.
 Our mutual friend, J. H. Williams, is somewhat indisposed with a bad attack of nervous stomach trouble.
 Farmer Lee Markle, wife and two bright boys, accompanied by Mrs. Anna Fortney, are visiting relatives in Altoona this week.
 Mrs. J. H. Strouse, who has been ill with bronchial trouble most of the winter, is now convalescing nicely and on a fair way to permanent recovery.

On Wednesday Mrs. William Yorum entertained a number of her lady friends at dinner, among the fortunate ones being Mrs. Margaret Bierly and Mrs. R. C. Fry. extent that he was discharged from the Bellefonte hospital last week and on Friday left for his home in Lebanon. Of course he will be compelled to use crutches for some time to come.

Rev. David Y. Brouse, of Houtzdale, called on old-time friends in town in the early part of the week, he and his mother having been called here to attend the funeral of his nephew, Edward Brouse, on Wednesday.
 While the William Jacobs family were attending church in Pine Grove Mills on Sunday night some heartless wretch forced an entrance to their home just west of town and stole three pieces of meat and a sum of money.
 Randall Dunlap and wife are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a dear little boy, their first born. The child has been christened Ralph Illingsworth, after his uncle, Ralph I. Dunlap, who died in France on October 12th, 1918.

Farmer Carey Shoemaker, of the Branch, was the victim of a vicious attack by a big boar on Tuesday. He was trying to separate his drove of hogs when the boar attacked him, sinking his long tusks into Mr. Shoemaker's thigh and tearing quite a large gash. Had the animal been a little closer when he made the attack the consequences might have been even more serious, but as it was it required quite a number of stitches to close the wound made in Mr. Shoemaker's thigh.

General Blue and Health Sunday.

Surgeon General Blue, of the Public Health Service, has asked the ministers of the country to set aside February 23 as public health Sunday and to preach sermons emphasizing the responsibility of the nation to protect the health of the returning soldiers and sailors and of the community at large, and particularly to take vigorous measures for combating social diseases. A formal proclamation has been sent to all ministers pointing out that drastic measures must be taken to prevent, during this period, those conditions in civilian life which made these diseases the greatest cause of disability in the army. The cities and towns through which the soldiers go in the process of demobilization must be made as safe as the camps. In closing, the proclamation urges the importance of this responsibility, "in order that the world may be made not only safe for democracy, but safe for posterity."

Borough is Deathless for Year.

Marysville, Pa.—This borough, with its less than 100 inhabitants, one of the smallest in the United States, is one of the few districts of the country that did not report a death last year. Another unusual record is that but a single birth occurred. These figures extend to January 10.

Miss Wilson Ill in Belgium.

Brussels, Feb. 1.—Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of President Wilson, according to the Ettoile Belge, is suffering from an attack of influenza. She is confined to her room in the American Legation.

Prizes for War Letters.

For those who have been in "Service" here is a fine chance to get some easy money. The "Philadelphia Record" is offering more than $1000.00 in cash prizes for letters telling experiences. The first prize is $100.00; second, $75.00; third, $50.00; fourth, $25.00; fifth, $20.00; twenty prizes of $15.00 each; twenty-five prizes of $10.00 each, and fifty prizes of $5.00 each.
 Any one is eligible who has seen service in the army, navy, marine corps, Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., U. S. C., or any other service organization. Your letter must relate an actual experience, and you may "tell how it happened" in your own way. There is no restriction as to where the incident occurred. It may have been in this country or "over there." Nor is it necessary for a letter to be especially written. Some of the best letters may have been written long ago.
 Write as much as is necessary to tell your story, but don't make it a long, drawn-out affair. Your name and address, with the designation of the service unit to which you are attached when the incident occurred must accompany your letter. If you have a photograph of yourself, write your name and address on the reverse side and send it along.
 The contest closes March 15th—but don't put off your letter too long. The prize-winning letters, with the names and units of the writers, will be published in the Magazine Section of the Sunday edition of "The Record."
 Mail your letter to "The War Letter Editor, The Philadelphia Record."

Farm Bureau Notes.

In order to improve our corn in the county the farm bureau is conducting several corn variety tests in order to find the high yielding varieties which are best suited in the different sections of the county. If any farmer has what he considers a good, heavy yielding variety, well suited to this county, the Farm Bureau will appreciate it very much if he can spare about twenty to twenty-five ears to be used in these tests. In our variety tests last year we found outstanding varieties and they will be used again this year. If you have an excellent variety of corn let us know about it.

WOOL.

We understand that there are some wool buyers in the county trying to contract for the next year's clip. We would suggest that those having wool act just a little careful until we know how the wool market is going to be for the coming year. During a recent conference with one of the best wool men in the State he said: "We do not know what the wool market is going to be during the coming year, and the farmers in our section are not going to contract their wool until they do know." Every wool grower should wait until the plans that different organizations are working on have time to develop and the market adjusts itself.
 R. H. Olmstead, County Agent.
