See General Pershing from the cradle to date, wonderfully pictured in the "Land of the Free," which is a story of his life and also contains many fine battle scenes with which he was in contact. At the Scenic Monday, Feb. 17, matinee and night. 7-11

At a congregational meeting of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church on Sunday morning John Curtin was elected a member of the board of trustees in place of Thomas E. Mayes, removed from Bellefonte, and Thomas Beaver was re-elected for another term.

Gregg Post, No. 95, will hold a special meeting on the afternoon of Washington's birthday, February 22nd, at 2:30 o'clock, when there will be speeches and exercises commemorative of the Father of his country. The meeting will be public and everybody is invited to attend.

The Indiana Normal basketball team will be here this (Friday) evening and play the Academy five in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium at 8:30 o'clock. Don't forget to go.

"My Irish Cinderella" will be the attraction at the opera house next Wednesday, February 19th. It tells of the adventures of a little Irish girl in this country and abroad. It is pleasant and humorous throughout and to quote all the critics as one, "My Irish Cinderella" will stand out as one of the best plays seen this season and one you can't afford to miss. The play is clean-cut and full of "pep."

Just to prove that the groundhog is not a flat failure the weather man gave us a little touch of winter during the past week, with a slight fall of snow. Though it has been cold all week the mercury reached its lowest point on Tuesday morning when it was down to within four degrees of zero. Warmer weather, however, is promised for next week and as this is the middle of February the Fourth of July will be here before we realize it.

Mrs. Helen Malin Shugert spent several days at State College last week conducting a sale of children's dresses for The Basket Shop, of Bellefonte, and met with very gratifying success. The making of serviceable dresses for children is a new department which was added to The Basket Shop late last fall, and the success that has already been attained, and the demand for such garments, leads to the conclusion that it was a good move on the part of the management of The Shop.

Private "Bill" Startzell and the Galbraith brothers gave a most interesting entertainment at the High school building on Monday evening to a good sized audience. Private "Bill" makes no pretense of being an orator but he told the story of his experiences and observation in the European war in such a straightforward, sincere manner as to make it very interesting. And his assertion that when the true history of the war is written it cannot fail to give the Pennsylvania troops the credit of fighting the fiercest battle in the whole war and winning a glorious victory, brought forth hearty applause. The Galbraith brothers, with their singing and wit and humor, were a very pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment.

When Mrs. Rebecca Sparr, of Harris township, passed away she left a will disposing of the old homestead farm near Boalsburg to her heirs with the proviso that the farm was always to be known as the Sparr farm. Some time ago Dr. L. E. Kidder purchased the farm for $12,600, paying $600 on the deal. He declined, however, to pay the balance of the purchase money unless the proviso in the will stipulating that the farm should always be known as the Sparr farm be stricken out. Amicable proceedings were brought in the Centre county court to get a decision in the case and this week Judge Quigley handed down a decision in which he set aside the objectionable proviso of the will and gave judgment against Dr. Kidder for $12,000, the balance of the purchase money, and thus ended the Sparr name to the old homestead which had been in that family for several generations.

$15,632.00 RAISED FOR Y. M. C. A.

Big Drive Closed Tuesday Evening and Association Work to Continue in Bellefonte.

Sixteen thousand, six hundred and thirty-two dollars was the amount of money raised in the whirlwind campaign of four days to put the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. upon its feet and infuse new life into the work connected with it. The only thing now remaining to do to start it in what is hoped will prove an era of good work is to complete the organization for its management and select a competent man to place in charge as general secretary.

The "Watchman" has already told of the effort to be made to rehabilitate the Y. M. C. A. The work was in charge of C. H. Dreshman, of Harrisburg, a field man in the Y. M. C. A. work. He spent a month in Bellefonte preparing the preliminaries for the campaign to raise the money, as that was the vital issue in the work of putting the Y. M. C. A. on its feet. At a preliminary meeting of representative citizens of Bellefonte Hon. A. G. Morris was selected as chairman of the general committee in charge of the work and he surrounded himself with an able staff of lieutenants. A thorough canvass of the business people and citizens of the town was decided upon as the only way of raising the necessary money, and to do this thoroughly two battalions of canvassers were organized. Robert F. Hunter was selected as major of one battalion and George R. Meek major of the other one. Major Hunter appointed as his captains John Curtin, Fred Craft, John M. Bullock and Thomas Hazel, while major Meek appointed Thomas Beaver, Nelson E. Robb, H. C. Yeager and Edmund Blanchard as his captains.

As a start for the money raising campaign a dinner was held at the Bush house last Thursday evening which was attended by about ninety people. The tables in the dining room had been specially arranged for the occasion. At the head of the room were seated General A. G. Morris and staff, while along one side were seated Major Hunter and his corps of workers and along the other side major Meek and his corps. Music for the occasion was furnished by Griffith's Jazz band of State College, and as evidence of the enthusiasm manifested the dinner started at eight o'clock and it was after midnight when the gathering broke up.

All the canvassers were on the job bright and early Friday morning and they kept at it almost day and night until Tuesday evening, the end of the campaign. The goal set at the start was a minimum fund of $15,000 and a maximum of $20,000, and when a final summing up was made at the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday evening it was found that contributions and pledges had been secured totalling just $15,632.00. The amount of money raised by the several teams is as follows:

General A. G. Morris and staff.....	$ 4,500.00
Major Geo. R. Meek.....	1,000.00
Battalion Commander
By Capt. Thomas Beaver.....	1,305.00
By Capt. Nelson E. Robb.....	1,520.00
By Capt. H. C. Yeager.....	1,327.00
By Capt. Edmund Blanchard.....	1,160.00
Major Robert F. Hunter.....	1,000.00
Battalion Commander
By Capt. John Curtin.....	2,075.00
By Capt. John M. Bullock.....	1,080.00
By Capt. Fred Craft.....	1,388.00
By Capt. Thomas Hazel.....	787.00
Grand Total.....	$15,632.00

One of the most remarkable things about the campaign is that this large sum of money was raised among just 274 subscribers. Mr. Dreshman considered it the most wonderful campaign that has ever come under his observation. Ordinarily in raising that amount of money it will be divided among from six to seven hundred contributors, and that 274 men in Bellefonte and vicinity contributed over fifteen thousand dollars to put the Y. M. C. A. on its feet and start it on a new career in Bellefonte shows that they not only have the welfare of the town at heart but that they have faith in the association and the good it can be made to accomplish for the whole community in the years to come.

The money raised in this drive is to be used in putting the Y. M. C. A. in first-class shape and to help defray the running expenses for a period of two years. A board of directors has already been chosen, but not yet organized, and the next step will be the selection of the right kind of a man for general secretary and a thorough, business-like survey of the Y. M. C. A. to see what is necessary to put it in good condition and make it a place to be sought by the young and older men of the town alike. It is the purpose of the new board of directors to make of the association the kind of a place that men will select to spend their idle time, whether it be only a few minutes or an entire evening. No favoritism will be shown any individual, association or organization, but everybody will be treated impartially.

To become a success, however, the association will need the united support of everybody in Bellefonte, as well as the surrounding community. It will require membership to keep it going, and the larger the membership the greater interest will be created in the work. Hence it is now up to the people of Bellefonte to show that they appreciate what has been done in the past month by rallying to the support of the association.

The Pennsylvania conference of social welfare which convened in Harrisburg yesterday will continue throughout today and tomorrow. Important legislative problems will be given due consideration. S. Kline Woodring has been appointed chairman of the movement for Centre county.

"Hearts of the World."

"The sweetest love story ever told," is the description given to David Wark Griffith's latest spectacle, "Hearts of the World," to be seen at the Pastime theatre, State College, February 19th and 20th, the only presentation of it in this section of the State this season.

When it is recalled that Mr. Griffith is the man who gave playgoers "The Birth of a Nation," "Intolerance" and other tremendous productions so far unparalleled in the annals of the screen, it is a matter of interest to note that "Hearts of the World," while produced in France amid the din and devastation of the recent war, is after all not a war play but a wholesome romance wherein war figures merely as the background.

All of these facts are interesting to Griffith enthusiasts for the reason that any producer who could spend eighteen months in France during the very thickest of the fighting and bring back to America a production not engulfed by blood and horror proves himself an artist, a genius big enough not to yield to the temptation to reproduce the war, but rather to tell a simple story about the people to whom war came.

A large symphony orchestra will accompany the showing of "Hearts of the World," the music having been especially arranged to suit every scene and action throughout the production.

Red Cross Notes.

It is the earnest desire of the executive committee of our Red Cross Chapter that the district nurse, provided to this community for three months' trial, be made use of. The nurse is at the disposal of the public, and physicians are asked to send word to the hospital when the nurse's services are needed. The district nurse is intended chiefly for those who cannot afford to pay for a nurse, but those who can afford to pay, and want an hour or so of her time, can pay at the regular rates, or as much as they feel able to pay. Money so received will go into a Chapter fund for the equipment and maintenance of the nurse.

On Tuesday of this week the following supplies were sent as gifts to the hospital: 1700 yards of gauze, 650 pounds and four bales of cotton, and 600 pounds of cellul-cotton.

A new allotment of work has been received, morning blouses for women. The work is going on splendidly but there is still room for more workers.

A drive for junior membership is being planned for the first week of March, in all the schools within the Chapter. Teachers may secure, free of charge, copies of the fine manual of junior activities, by calling at the work rooms any afternoon except Fridays and Saturdays.

The Bellefonte hospital has received from the State College chapter of the Red Cross three large packing cases of assorted pads and strap buckles.

Now that the war is over and the influenza has run its course alarmists are predicting a plague of seven-year locusts this year.

POSTOFFICE SITE SELECTED.

Will be Moved from Temple Court to the Brockerhoff House.

On or about July first the Bellefonte postoffice will be moved from its present location in Temple Court across the street into the Brockerhoff house block. It will occupy the room where F. P. Blair & Son's jewelry store is now located, the present bar room of the hotel, and the two rooms in the rear of the latter, the middle drinking room and the cafe. F. P. Blair & Son's jewelry store will be moved into the room now occupied by the pool room conducted by Thomas Shaughnessy, while the latter has not decided just where he will locate.

The lease on the old site will expire on July 1st, 1919, and several months ago the Postoffice Department instituted a search for a new location, as the present location is too small for the present demands of the office. Postoffice inspectors came to Bellefonte and viewed every possible site and the selection finally dwindled down to between the site selected in the Brockerhoff house and the rooms at the west end of the Bush Arcade. While the latter would probably have afforded a little more room than the Brockerhoff site yet in the site selected there is almost two thousand square feet of floor room. Dr. Brockerhoff returned from Washington on Monday where the papers were all signed for the new site.

As planned now the Blair store room will be the main postoffice room. The partitions will be removed between that room and the bar room and between the bar room and the rooms in the rear, throwing it all into one. The present bar room door will be used for the taking in and out of mail matter. The rear room will be used by the rural carriers while there will be ample room near the distributing table for the desks of the town carriers and the parcel post.

Landlord H. S. Ray will continue in charge of the hotel in the future as in the past. In the event that prohibition does not become effective on July first, just what arrangement he will make for his bar is not known, as the change in the postoffice is to be made July first. At present there is one or more additional changes in contemplation in connection with that block but they have not progressed to a condition where they can be made public.

Harry Clevenstine Has Purchased the Ceader's Store.

The deal has been closed whereby Harry Clevenstine, proprietor of the City bakery has become the purchaser of Ceader's store and will operate the same in connection with his bakery. The change will be made on March 3rd. Mr. Clevenstine will take the store that day, with the force of clerks, etc., and Mrs. Ceader will relinquish her charge of the same.

It was just two years ago on February first that Shaffer and Clevenstine purchased the bakery from Mrs. Ceader. At that time they wanted the store but Mrs. Ceader did not feel like relinquishing it at that time. The condition of her health at this time, however, was one of the causes that induced her to sell. In the two years Mr. Clevenstine has been in charge of the bakery he has more than doubled the capacity of the plant and has built up a profitable business. That he will conduct the store in the same successful manner is not to be doubted.

The Ceader's store, or bakery, as it is best known, is probably one of the oldest-established in central Pennsylvania. It was conducted for years by J. H. Sands for whom Joseph Ceader began work when he was sixteen years old, or about fifty-one years ago. Forty-two years ago last September Mr. Ceader took charge of the bakery and store and it was just forty-two years last month that Mrs. Ceader went into the store to assist her husband and she has been very closely identified with its management ever since, having entire charge of it since the death of her husband a number of years ago.

Speaking of her many years of intimate business relations with the people of Bellefonte and surrounding community Mrs. Ceader said she had only the most pleasant memories to cherish. She will now retire to private life and to the rest and ease she so justly deserves.

The "Watchman" office was favored with a call last Saturday from Mr. Walters, advance representative of "Hearts of the World," D. W. Griffith's latest masterpiece in motion pictures, and he informed us that the presentation of this wonderful picture at the Pastime theatre, State College, next Wednesday and Thursday would be the only occasion to see it in this section of the State this season; and the "Watchman" advises everybody who can do so to go see it next week.

The Independent Girls basketball team of Bellefonte played the Burnham High school girls on the Y. M. C. A. floor Wednesday night and won out by the score of 11 to 7. It was one of the most exciting games played in Bellefonte this season.

An Old Landmark Chopped Down.

The old horse chestnut tree which stood in the corner of the front yard of W. S. Zeller was removed on Wednesday by W. J. Musser, who cut it down and hauled it home for the wood there was in it. The tree was one of the old landmarks of the town and many people watched its removal with very great regret. The exact age of the tree is known within a few years. It was planted either in the year 1854 or 1856, hence is at least sixty-two years old. But it had attained a remarkable growth in that time. It was at least thirty inches in diameter at the stump and twenty feet from the ground was divided into forks, one growing toward the north and the other southward. The tree had wide-spreading branches and was one of the most magnificent shade trees in Bellefonte.

A few years ago while J. Linn Harris was a member of the Forestry Commission he condemned the tree as unsafe but it was not this fact that led to its removal. Mr. Zeller decided to have it taken down because of the dirt it made on his lawn and pavement, and he gave the tree to Mr. Musser for its removal. Mr. Musser removed the branches of the tree first then the trunk.

Appropriations Recommended.

The State Board of Charities has recommended an appropriation of $20,000 for the Bellefonte hospital, as against $15,000 received two years ago. The appropriation recommended for the western penitentiary is $665,068. Two years ago the penitentiary got $956,562. The recommendation for the Cottage State hospital, Philadelphia, is $54,000, as against $45,000 received two years ago.

It might be appropriate here to state that the Bellefonte hospital is known to the state board and the medical profession throughout the State as a "blue book" institution. This means that it is recognized as having a staff and management that have met the severest requirements of the state board and is in every way up to the standard required. This will be very gratifying news, we are sure, to the people of Centre county because when an institution attains such ranking it has something to be proud of.
