SPAWLS FROM THE KEYSTONE

-The students of the Bellefonte Academy will hold their mid-year dance at the Academy this (Friday) evening.

-The Indiana Normal basket ball team defeated the Bellefonte Academy five last Friday evening by the score of 20 to 19.

-Another shoe repair shop is being established in the room in the Bush Arcade formerly occupied by R. C. Witmer, electrician.

- Centre county ranks third in the per capita of sales of war savings stamps of the 1919 issue. Union county is again in the lead with a per capita of $1.26; Clinton second with 79 cents and Centre 74. Clearfield is at the bottom with 12 cents.

-The regular term of February court will be held next week, but no very serious criminal cases are on the list for trial. One of the items of interest on Monday will be the court's decision on the application of I. G. Gray and sons for a new trial.

-The groundhog has been doing good his reputation as a weather prognosticator, but almost one-half of his allotted time is already behind us and every day Old Sol comes up a little earlier in the morning and sets later at night.

-Bear in mind the fact that Gregg Post will hold a public meeting in the post rooms at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in celebration of the anniversary of the birth of Washington. The public is cordially invited to attend this meeting. There will be good music and patriotic and interesting addresses.

---The Presbyterian Sunday school will hold a Washington's birth-Tuesday evening. Superintendent James R. Hughes has planned something unique and interesting but has his committees all working so that the exact nature of the entertainment will be a surprise to the members of the school.

-Good motion pictures bring results and that is why the attendance at the Lyric is big every evening. Manager Brandman has found out what the people of Bellefonte and surrounding community appreciate and he is giving it to them, no matter what the cost. Good pictures, good music and good accommodations, that's the Lyric way.

-The Lutheran congregation is fixing up a room in the basement of their church as a general meeting place for young people and in which to hold fairs, festivals, etc. The room will be 40x50 feet in size and will have an entrance from Allegheny street. A concrete floor has been put in and the room when completed will be cosy as well as commodious.

-The Bellefonte Lodge of Moose held their annual banquet last Friday evening in their lodge rooms in sumptuous supper served, quite a number of members and guests helped to entertain the crowd with interesting addresses on the advantages of being a Moose. Upwards of two hundred people attended the banquet.

-The reported purchase by George Rhoads & Son of the McCalold glass works site has not as yet culminated into anything definite, owing to difficulties encountered over the question of the railroad siding Whether the difficulty can be amicably adjusted in the future remains to be seen.

-Chauncey F. York, the well known malena manufacturer, believes in having everything first-class and because of this fact he has just completed a five thousand dollar slaughter house on his farm near Brooklyn, Mich. Mr. York not only owns a large stock and poultry farm but does his own killing and delivery to the Detroit markets and this accounts for his erection of such a complete slaughter house.

--Only one case was before the board of road and bridge viewers on Monday and that was an appeal of Lewis A. Scott for damages for land to touch with the home folks. taken by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania adjoining the penitentiary grounds in Benner township. The hearing on Monday, however, proved to be merely perfunctory, as the parties at interest have practically agreed upon a satisfactory settlement for the land taken. -The students of the Bellefonte High school held a valentine party at the High school building last Friday evening. A small admission was charged and refreshments served and as a result the students cleared over sixty dollars which will be used toward the expense of equipping and furnishing a dining room in the department of home economics, which through the influence of his teacher can be used in the future for supper or banqueting purposes.

-The days are growing longer and the evenings shorter but the pictures at the Scenic are just as interesting as ever. The motion picture is an educator as well as entertainer, and the big programs at the Scenic every evening include enough variety to please the most exacting. Manager T. Clayton Brown has a number of exceptionally good prospects for exhibition in the near future and that is one reason why you should be a regular attendant and not run the chance of missing any of them.

Wounded in Three Places.

Wounded in three places, but with every chance of a permanent recovery is the fortune of George Lauck, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lauck, of Clarence, whose picture is published above. The young soldier, who was a member of the 107th machine gun battalion, was wounded in the big Argonne drive and the following letter to his parents, written while he was his best the past fortnight to make in the hospital, will be of interest to "Watchman" readers:

France, Oct. 22, 1918. Just a few lines to let you know I am well but have been wounded. I was hit last Friday, October 17th, and now am in the hospital and getting along fine.

We sure get fine attention from the doctors and the Red Cross nurses. It would be impossible for us to receive any better. I am afraid if they keep me here several weeks longer I won't want to leave, as I get treated so well.

I have three holes in my left side just under my arm, but they are merely flesh wounds. They took one day entertainment in the chapel next hickory-nut. They gave it to me and piece of shell out about the size of a I am going to keep it as a souvenir. Then one piece hit me on the left shoulder and came out on top of my shoulder, but did not break any bones. I was taking supper up the line to the boys when I got hit. Don't worry about me, for I am getting along fine and will be back with my company in due time.

Among the Soldier Boys.

Major S. M. Huff has at last been ordered to go abroad for duty in France. Mrs. Huff went to New York the latter part of last week to spend a few days with her husband before as the stock is reduced sufficiently to e left the States. While the exact date of his departure is not known it will likely be some time this week. Major Huff's going to France at this time is likely to relieve some doctor who has been in service there and will be sent home.

D. Reynolds, who when war was declared with Germany, enlisted in the navy and was assigned to the "Mosquito Fleet" off Newport, and later was commissioned with rank of the McCiain block. In addition to the ensign, being assigned to duty aboard a transport and after "crossing" to France several times was transferred to the staff of the Admiral in charge of the Newport News naval district, has just been advanced and commissioned a lieutenant in the U.S. navy.

Bernard Kane, a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kane, arrived home on mont & Co. coal yards down near the Tuesday from service overseas. Ever since going abroad he had been brigaded with the British and he crossed the channel from England to France and went into action as an engineer right-of-way into the property. early in August, being in the forefront of the service until the signing of the armistice. He returned to this country several weeks ago, was given his discharge and got home this week.

> Francis Crawford returned home on Sunday evening, having been discharged from the naval service at Newport News, Va., several days pre-

Italian Linguist Gets Letter from Home.

Mr. Angelo Fontana, a type of Itay's best, received this week a letter from his father, the first he has had for twenty months, although he resorted to strenuous methods to get in-

Mr. Fontana Sr., writes in reply to a letter sent via. the Bellefonte Chapter Red Cross, and states that he and his three daughters had been Austrian prisoners.

Their condition is pitiable to such an extent that the father says he cannot talk about it. The young man responded immediately with a generous check and is happy to know his loved ones are safe. The sisters are engaged in hospital work.

Mr. Fontana Jr., is somewhat of a inguist, speaking five languages and is here to learn the English language while he acts in the capacity of interpreter at the penitentiary. It was that he appealed to our local Red Cross with the above happy results. He feels very grateful to this organization for its successful efforts in his case. He is a member of the Red Cross and a most ambitious and exemplary young representative of his country. Angelo is studying English at the Bellefonte Academy.

her grandson, Vincent Dorris, had Potter-Hoy Hardware Co. Employees been killed in action in France on October 8th. He was a private in Company L, 30th U.S. infantry. The young soldier's father was killed in 1900 while at his work as a conductor on the West Virginia Central railroad, and from that time on Vincent had been the joy and hope of his mother, who resides in Wheeling, W. Va. The young man was not quite twenty-four years old.

-No. 1 flashlight, complete, for 49c., for one week beginning Saturday, Feb. 22nd.-Potter-How Hardware Co. 8-1t

-The annual inspection of the Bellefonte machine gun unit will take place this (Friday) evening in the armory. A full turnout of the members of the troop is expected.

-W. H. Clearwater, the champion pool player, gave an exhibition of his ability with the cue at the Finklestine pool room on Tuesday evening which attracted quite a good-sized crowd of devotees of the sport.

-Mrs. Nancy Miller is seriously with pneumonia, at her home on Thomas street. Mrs. Miller is the mother of the late Roland Miller, of Ford City, and of Mrs. Edward Parson, of Williamsport, who died not more than a month ago, of pneumonia.

-Both Earl S. Orr and Fred Witmer having been discharged from the U. S. service the two young men resumed their old positions in the Bellefonte Trust company on Monday morning. Samuel Waite, one of the young men who have been with the Trust company during the absence of Orr and Witmer, has accepted a position in Green's pharmacy while Reuben Spangler will quit the bank on March first.

-Charles Stover, who since last October has been employed in the P. R. R. shops at Altoona, came to his home in this place last week and within two days was stricken with pneumonia. On Saturday his daughter Marion was also taken ill with the same disease and Mrs. Stover was likewise stricken on Sunday, so that three of the family are now in bed with pneumonia and all under the care of a trained nurse.

-The Millheim knitting mills have been closed down pending the disposition of the completed product on hand. The company claims to have manufactured goods to the value of $40,000 now in stock and W. S. Shelton, general sales manager, left on Wednesday for New York and other eastern cities to try and dispose of this big accumulation. Just as soon warrant it work at the mills will be resumed.

-The management of the Pastime theatre at State College is now in a position to testify as to the merits of judicious advertising. And Bellefonte people who went to the College on Wednesday afternoon see D. W. Griffith's "Hearts of the World" also realize that they should have purchased their tickets beforehand, as they could not get anyways near the theatre let alone in it. Neither could they get tickets for Wednesday evening or yesterday afternoon but finally managed to get seats for last night. The picture, by the way, was in every sense as elaborate as advertised.

-The American Lime & Stone company, through Hon. A. G. Morris, president of the organization, last week closed a deal with F. H. Thomas, superintendent of the Bellefonte Central Railroad company, for the purchase of the ground on which the present coal yard and offices of McCalmont & Co. are located as well as the repair shops of Isaac Underwood, implement dealer. The American Lime & Stone company a year or so ago acquired the old glass works meadow so that now they own about all the available land in that locality and will be able to go ahead with the operations of building that new commercial lime plant.

---The man who was blamed for being a "Jack, the Hugger" has left Bellefonte and the ladies need have no further dread of him. In fact the Bellefonte police aver that so far as they were able to learn he was no hugger at all. That he never made a move to apprehend a single person. The only accusation against him was that on two or three occasions he was accused of having followed women on the street at night, but at that he may merely have been going the same direction the women were and they imagined he was following them. The individual was known to the police but they had no case on which to arrest him. In any event he left Bellefonte the latter part of last week and may not return for another visit for some time.

-State Highway Commissioner Lewis Sadler has designated a number of state highway routes which will be the first to receive especial attention the coming summer, and the only one which will benefit Centre county is the route from Bedford to Williamsport by way of Hollidaysburg, Altoona, Tyrone, Bellefonte and Lock Haven. So far, however, no information has been given out as to whether the route from Tyrone to Bellefonte will be by way of the Bald to township dirt roads, were indulg-Eagle valley, or through Warriorsmark, Halfmoon and Buffalo Run valleys. It is only reasonable to conclude, however, that residents along The "Watchman" is in receipt of a both these routes will be putting in preferred claims as to why they should ver, Col., who has quite a number of have the highway, and no doubt very friends in Centre county, and she sent good arguments can be presented in

Given Annual Banquet.

The Potter-Hoy Hardware company gave their customary annual banquet to the members of the company and their employees last Friday night, the affair being held at that time especially in celebration of Mr. Frank M. Crawford's fiftieth birthday anniversary. Mr. Crawford's birthday was on Monday of last week but as he and his wife were away on a trip to Boston and up the Fall River line the banquet was naturally postponed until their return.

The guests at the feast, which was held in the Potter-Hoy store, numbered just thirty-eight, which included the employees and their wives, or such as were so blessed, and the following invited guests: Mr. and Mrs. Ives Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Marks, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. LaBarre, E. B. Sovereign, of Pittsburgh, and W. H. Bird, of Bellefonte. The feast consisted of chicken and waffles cooked right in the store and served pipin' hot from the griddle.

Following the banquet and various toasts several hours were spent at cards and dancing to the music of a victrola. The Potter-Hoy company instituted the annual banquet to their employees a number of years ago and have found it a means of engendering the best of spirit and good fellowship among their entire force of clerks and traveling salesmen.

Aviation News.

S. C. Ebersole, one of the aviators who drove the first three DeHaviland Four machines to Bellefonte from New York, came here last Thursday and on Friday left in the Curtiss machine, which had been at the Bellefonte station the past six weeks, for Chicago, intending to fly as far as Cleveland Friday afternoon and go on to Chicago on Saturday. He was accompanied by Kryder, one of the mechanicians of the field here. They were forced to land at Clarion because of a heavy rain storm that they flew into. Their flight to Cleveland was completed the next morning. In this connection it might be said that the Handley-Page machines which the Postoffice Department took over for the New York to Chicago airmail route will soon be ready to put in service and according to reports these machines will be distributed among the different stations on the route in the near future. One will be placed in Bellefonte, one at Cleveland and one in Chicago. These machines are so constructed that they can land at a minimum speed of eight miles an hour, as against about seventy-five miles for the DeHaviland Fours. Harry Powers, superintendent of the Bellefonte field, was summoned to Washington in the beginning of the week, but whether it means his permanent recall from Bellefonte is not known. Maurice A. Kelly is now in charge of the field.

Brief Meeting of Borough Council.

Seven members were present at the regular meeting of borough council on Monday evening but there was little business to transact.

E. C. Musser, manager of the State-Centre Electric company, presented a list of delinquents on the water duplicate for 1917, totalling $877.99. He went over the list to council and explained each separate case in detail, telling the efforts that had been made to collect the same. On motion council relieved the State-Centre company of any further obligation in connection with the 1917 duplicate, ordered their bond cancelled and the 1918 duplicate given to them as soon as a new bond is executed. This does not mean, however, that delinquents on the 1917 duplicate have been exonerated of their taxes, but that the Water committee will now take the list and the water will be turned off of all those who do not pay, or make some arrangement for the payment of their

Mr. Harris, of the Street committee, reported that the work of opening up the west High and Potter street sewer has about been completed and another day or two will see the work accomplished.

Chairman Flack, of the Fire and Police committee, reported a slight fire at the Pontius house on Curtin street on February 6th.

There being no further business bills to the amount of $365.87 were approved and council adjourned.

County Supervisors Held Annual Convention.

The road supervisors of Centre county held their annual convention in the court house on Tuesday and as evidence of the interest these men are now taking in improved road construction close to sixty of the seventy-five supervisors in the county were present. Milford Pletcher, president of the association, presided, and secretary W. H. Austin, of Blanchard, looked after the minutes of the meet-

Hon. Ives L. Harvey, Centre county's member of the Legislature, was introduced and not only told the supervisors of the increased sentiment in favor of good roads among the members of the present Legislature, but pledged his efforts toward looking after Centre county's interest. Quite a number of interesting discussions on road making, especially in regard ed in as well as other questions of vital interest to road supervisors in Grove, of Spring Mills, was : Bellefonte visitor on Monday and in calling to express his sympathy and regret over the death of the editor of the "Watch man" stated that he had been a constan reader of the paper for fifty years and a subscriber himself for over thirty-fiv years. Incidentally it might be mentioned that Mr. Grove contemplates moving to Berwick along about the middle of March.

-George M. Harter, the well known Marion township farmer, was in town yesterday attending to some business and calling on friends. Mr. Harter is considering the suggestion of many of his friends that he become a candidate for County Commissioner. It is rather an interesting political incident that Marion township has not had a county official since Adam Yearick was county treasurer away back

-Togged out in a brand new hat A. A. Dale Esq., boarded the train east on Monday and naturally there was considerable speculation as to his probable destination some venturing the opinion that he had been summoned to Harrisburg by Governor Sproul for a conference in connection with a good appointment of some kind. But the fact finally developed that he had gone to Philadelphia to consult a special ist regarding his health.

-Arthur Ward, who has been in New
