Pay Your Last Installment Promptly.

The officers of the United War Work campaign in Centre county desire to call attention to the fact that Saturday, March 1st, 1919, is the date on which the last installment on deferred pledge cards is due. Collectors throughout the county are urged to make their collections and remit the same to the county treasurer at an early date, in order that he may make final remittance to the state treasurer.

Several of the organizations incorporated in this campaign are not yet out of debt, as vast sums of money had to be borrowed to carry on the magnificent work done by these institutions, which, by the way, did not cease their labors with the signing of the armistice, but still continue their work, looking after the welfare and entertainment of "Our Boys in Khaki." It is our duty therefore to support these organizations by making our subscriptions complete.

Centre County's subscription amounted to over $58,000.00, about $12,000.00 of which is still outstanding. Subscribers, help us make old Centre a banner county with one hundred per cent. full paid subscriptions. A complete statement of the treasurer's account will be published in the near future, and we trust we will be able to report Centre county's subscription fully raised.

NEVIN E. COLE,

County Treasurer,
United War Work Campaign.

Residents of Worth township are considerably annoyed because of a lot of petty thieving which is going on in different parts of the township. Last week the thief or thieves visited three farm houses in one night but at each place were frightened away before they succeeded in getting anything. The general impression is that these nightly depredations are being carried on by some one who has a pretty good knowledge of local conditions.

After July first no beverage can be legally sold which contains more than one-half per cent. of alcohol. Small chance there will be then to get a "bun" on. And this recalls the fact that only last Saturday Judge Quigley in suspending sentence on a man made him promise not to take a drink for one year lest he become intoxicated.

The Altoona High school basketball team will play the Bellefonte High aggregation on the Y. M. C. A. floor this (Friday) evening at 8:30 o'clock. This promises to be one of the fastest, snappiest games of the season and basketball fans should turn out in force to see it. Regular admission price will be charged.

Prothonotary David R. Foreman was confined to his home several days last week with quite a severe attack of rheumatism, but he managed to chase enough of it away to enable him to be in attendance at court as usual this week.

The round table conference of superintendents and principals of public schools in Central Pennsylvania will be held at the State Normal school, Lock Haven, on Friday and Saturday of next week, March 7th and 8th.

The War Department has finally announced that the Twenty-eighth division (Pennsylvania troops) will sail for home some time during May, which will get the boys home in time for the Fourth of July celebration.

Some picture is "Virtuous Wives," played by Anita Stewart at Scenic March 3 and 4. A tale of the idle rich which is true to life and written by one who understands women. See it.

Dr. J. C. Helfrich will leave Bellefonte to locate in Waynesboro. Dr. Helfrich's many friends here regret this move on his part, but the best of wishes for his success go with him to his new home.

Don't overlook the Lutheran church food sale tomorrow at Hazel's grocery. All members of the church are urged to contribute to the same anything in the food line.

The strong Mansfield Normal basketball team will play the Academy five in the Y. M. C. A. gym Saturday evening at 7:30. Admission, 25 cents. It will be a good game and worth seeing.

Mrs. Ben Bodle has been visiting friends at Wallaceon the past three weeks.

A. L. Weiland, of Altoona, and Will Miller were in town on Wednesday morning.

J. S. Miller and wife, of Pleasant Gap, were among the visitors in town on the 22nd.

George Edward Meyers, a busy man of affairs of Boalsburg, was in town on Saturday morning.

Mrs. H. A. Elder was taken to Williamsport Monday to undergo medical treatment by a specialist.

Eugene Irvin, of Pennsylvania Furnace, and Miss Mary Dale, of Lemont, were within our gates on Sunday.

While Ellis H. Bierly was in Bellefonte this week attending court Mrs. Bierly visited among friends at Milesburg.

Mrs. J. H. Bailey spent the latter end of the week in the Mountain city shopping and visiting old acquaintances.

Miss Emma Johnson, of State College, spent the Sabbath with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Johnson, on east Main street.

Mrs. Sadie Krebs, of State College, spent the latter end of the week at the home of her brother, W. H. Goss, on west Main street.

A. M. Lutton, a theological student at Gettysburg College, will fill the pulpit in the Lutheran church here at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening.

A congregational meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening, March 10th. A full turnout is requested.

Luther K. Strouse returned home from the Bellefonte hospital on Monday a well man and is loud in his praise of the hospital, doctors and nurses.

Among the sick are Mrs. Sadie Everts, Mrs. J. E. McWilliams, Mrs. J. W. Sunday, Mrs. W. E. Reed, J. H. Williams, Agnes Campbell and John Grimes.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Corl, N. J. Dale and J. D. Tanyere were in Bellefonte Monday attending to some business matters and making the rounds of the stores.

Mr. Henry L. Dale and wife have returned from a month's visit in Altoona and are now packing up their belongings to flit to Sunbury, where a good job awaits Mr. Dale.

The many friends of Robert Bailey will be glad to know that he has recovered entirely from fourteen weeks' illness, during which time he was under treatment in the Bellefonte hospital.

Ernest Jandel, a former college chum of Rev. L. V. Barber, is spending the week at the parsonage and attending the conference of student volunteers in missionary work at State College.

On Saturday while Jacob Keller was walking along the street he suffered an attack of vertigo and fell to the ground badly bruising his face. Kind friends took him home and under the care of a physician he is coming around nicely.

The first public sale in this section was held at the Charles Wolfe home near State College Tuesday, and everything brought big prices. Mr. Wolfe and family will flit to Jersey Shore and his father, John Wolfe, will return to the farm.

Miss Nannie McWilliams, teacher of the Glades school, with her interesting band of pupils, gave a most interesting entertainment on the eve of Washington's birthday. The children all took their parts splendidly, both as to recitations and singing. J. H. McCracken and D. S. Peterson were present and made brief addresses.

Mrs. J. Will Kepler departed on Saturday for Pittsburgh where she will spend a week with her husband. From there she will go to Washington, D. C., to visit her two daughters and before returning home will spend some time at the Dr. Meade home at the Maryland Experiment Station, Mrs. Meade prior to her marriage being Miss Florence Kepler.

The venerable George Everts, now past 82 years of age, came down from Altoona and is visiting old acquaintances and friends in the valley, where he spent most of his younger days as a blacksmith. Last October while cutting corn he injured one of his fingers which became infected and spread so that it became necessary to amputate his left hand above the wrist. For many days his life virtually hung in the balance but it is good news to his many friends to know that he has now entirely recovered.

Last Friday evening Pensvalley Lodge No. 276 held their seventy-first annual banquet in their spacious hall here. Covers were laid for 145 guests and all were taken. Being the eve of Washington's birthday the hall was beautifully and appropriately decorated. Brother William H. Fry was chosen toastmaster and on taking the chair he briefly outlined the work of charity and relief performed by the Lodge during its history. Mrs. D. S. Peterson presided at the piano and Miss Maude McWilliams sang a beautiful solo entitled "When the Boys Come Marching Home." In addition there were recitations by brothers Gates, Price and Close, and Miss Claire Martz, interspersed with music by a quartette. Rev. I. E. Fisher was the last speaker of the evening and the evening's delightful time was brought to an end by singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

War Revenue Bill Signed by President.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Announcement was made on the arrival of the presidential party in Washington today that the President had signed the six billion dollar war revenue bill. The bill was signed aboard the special train last night before the President retired. This measure carries a rider making the District of Columbia bone dry.

Higher taxes provided in the new bill go into effect today on liquor and soft drinks, including near-beer, grape-juice, soda water and mineral waters and on tobacco and on so-called luxuries. Anticipating the imposition of new taxes, thousands of gallons of whiskey had been withdrawn from government bonded warehouses within the last week, with tax paid at the old rate of $3.20 a gallon, to escape the higher rate of $6.40 a gallon, now effective.

Articles in the "luxury" class on which new taxes go into effect today include automatic admissions and club dues, pianos, sporting goods, chewing gum, cameras, candy, firearms, slot machines, toilet soaps, and art goods. The tax is paid by the manufacturer.

Other features of the tax bill which go into legal effect today, but which are retroactive, and which consequently are not practically effected by the time of the signing of the bill, include the following: Taxes on incomes, excess profits and war profits; estates and inheritances, and excess taxes on a number of special businesses, such as brokers, bowling alleys, insurance companies, theatre and amusement place proprietors, and liquor dealers. Drastic measures to prevent the narcotic drug traffic become effective at once.

On April 1, new taxes on railroad and steamship tickets, pipe lines, insurance, theatre admissions, and club dues, and a variety of stamp taxes become effective. Levies against the excess of value of so-called semi-luxuries, such as articles of dress, will be made after May 1. The soda fountain tax becomes effective May 1. Taxes on products of child labor will be imposed in sixty days.

Without awaiting signature of the bill by the President the internal revenue bureau has gone ahead preparing to administer the law. Tax return forms and regulations are being issued, and income and profits tax returns must be filed by March 15.
