

Mid-Year Sunday School Conference in Bellefonte.

The "Watchman" last week gave a brief report of the mid-year Sunday school conferences held here on Wednesday and Thursday but was unable at the time to do justice to the gathering, because it was one of the largest ever held in the county. Wednesday's sessions were held in the United Brethren church and were presided over by Hon. I. L. Harvey, president of the Sunday school association of Centre county. In his address to the conference R. A. Waite, of the International Sunday school association, said:

According to a survey made by the young people's division of the International association, juvenile crime has increased throughout the United States about one hundred and fifty per cent. during the last two years. Against this fact, Mr. Waite placed another and that is that only two out of five children in the country are in the Sunday school, and those two receive only twenty-six hours religious instruction a year. The Jewish children receive one hundred and sixty hours and Roman Catholic four hundred and sixty.

In order to insure a religious education for every child in the country, Mr. Waite stated that it was the object of the International association to parallel the public school system of education with a similar system of religious education. Two States' communities now have school boards which sponsor the work of religious education. Two States have laws giving credit in the High school for Bible study in the Sunday school. Reading circles, community training schools, and daily vocational Bible schools were suggested as a form of help for launching a program of religious education.

Mr. Preston G. Orwig presented the new State, county and district standards that have been set by the State association. These standards will develop the machinery that can be set in motion toward working out the program as it is handed down through the State to the county and district associations. Mr. Orwig spoke at length, emphasizing the need of better district organization.

Mr. Harvey presented the new plan of gathering the Sunday school statistics. It is the most complete plan ever advanced by the association and will be the means of more accurate records of the work. As the U. S. government compiles its statistics from these reports, Mr. Harvey urged great care in gathering them on the part of the schools.

Norman F. Johnson, of the State association, then presented the financial plans for the county. He stated that the great need was to show and teach the people of the county the value of the work of the Sunday school. The next step to be taken is to arrange a budget based on the need of the work. It has been the custom to take what money the folks give and plan work according to the funds. The work should be planned and the funds raised. In the face of what it has cost to maintain our communities, and the blood that has been shed to protect them, Mr. Johnson urged the people to invest their time and money in developing these communities and making them what they should be.

President Harvey closed the convention by thanking the delegates for being present and showing their interest in the work. He stated it was by far the best conference ever held.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONFERENCE.

On Thursday the young people's conference was held in the Methodist church. The work was in charge of Mr. Orwig and Mr. Waite. This was the tenth conference of its kind they have held in the State during the present tour. Thousands of young people are being trained for leadership in the Sunday school and church and as christian citizens.

This is the fourth young people's conference the Centre county Sunday school association has held. A great deal of the fine work that has been done by the Sunday schools of the county lately is the result of these conferences.

At this conference there were assembled nearly two hundred of the finest young people of Centre county. Mr. Waite and Mr. Orwig presented a strong program for the future work of the young people of the county.

A fine banquet was served by the young ladies of the Methodist church, which was enjoyed by every one. The Bellefonte High school orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Weik, furnished music, which was greatly appreciated by the delegates and all others associated with the conference. The promoters of these conferences wish to extend their sincere thanks and appreciation to every person who in any way helped to make them the success which they proved to be.

Mrs. Ellis Lytle spent last week among old associates in Halfmoon valley.

Miss Esther Cori, of Williamsport, was here over Sunday, much improved in health.

Mrs. Ira G. Burket, of Stormstown, is visiting the D. S. Peterson home at Baileyville.

Rev. C. C. Shuey, accompanied by several friends, of Bellefonte, was in town on Monday.

Mrs. J. W. Sunday and daughter Ida spent Friday on a shopping expedition in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Oscar Gilliland is under the doctor's care, suffering with a complication of diseases.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Switzer and two interesting daughters were visitors in town on Sunday afternoon.

A social will be held in the hall at Rock Springs on March 24th by the ladies of the missionary society.

William Foster, of State College, departed on Tuesday afternoon on a business trip to Lancaster county.

Will Mechtley came up from Milton the early part of the week for a brief visit among his old cronies at Pine Hall.

Owing to injuries sustained in a fall some time ago John E. Breen has been taken to the Bellefonte hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Trostle, accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Bierly, motored to Bellefonte on Wednesday on a shopping expedition.

A number of new cases of influenza have been reported in this section. John Quinn, who was quite seriously ill last week, is improving.

During the high wind on Saturday a portion of the roof was blown off of our flouring mill. Several small buildings were also unroofed.

Joe Johnson, one of our up-to-date farmers, has invested in an international tractor to help in tilling the acres on his large and fertile farm.

J. M. Campbell acted the good Samaritan on Sunday and conveyed L. E. Fisher to his various appointments on the Franklinville charge in his Buick car.

Mrs. Milo Campbell, of Fairbrook, is in the Bloomsburg hospital where she underwent an operation for the removal of two goiters. She is now getting along very well.

L. D. Fye, the popular merchant at State College, was a passenger east on Tuesday afternoon, bound for New York for the purpose of laying in a good stock for his spring trade.

Robert Gilliland, one of Snow Shoe's progressive citizens and postmaster at that thriving town, is spending a few days with his son, Ray D. Gilliland and family, at State College.

Mrs. John Osman is the proud possessor of a red, white and blue quilt which has been in the Tibbens family since 1776. It is still in good condition and is considered quite an heirloom.

Miss Clara McCracken was an Altoona visitor the early part of the week, seeing after the needs of Elmer Bloom, who has been quite ill with bronchial trouble but is now improving.

W. K. and Waldo Cori, Mrs. J. C. Struble and Miss Bertha Cori motored to Williamsport the beginning of the week, stopping enroute to visit the elder folks aunt, Mrs. Kate Shaffer, at Lock Haven.

The students of the Boalsburg High school will give a play in Boal hall tomorrow evening (Saturday) entitled, "Bobbie's Aunt Jane." Admission, 15 and 25 cents. The public is invited and all who attend are promised an evening of fun.

Public sales continue the attraction in this section of the county. The largest sale so far in this end was that of the Struble Bros. last Saturday. There was a big crowd of bidders and horses went up to $262 and cows $104. The sale totalled $650.

The annual congregational meeting was held in the lecture room of the Presbyterian church here on Monday ### evening at 7:30 o'clock, George Burtwell presiding. The account of David Barr, treasurer, showed a balance of $125.65 in the treasury. W. H. Gleason was re-elected a trustee for a three year term.

A big social affair was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Osman, on the Hon. J. W. Kepler farm in the Glades on Tuesday evening. About fifty guests were present. Music for the dancing was furnished by George Reed, violinist, and Bert Ward, mandolin. Delicious refreshments were also served and everybody present had a delightful time.

Harry Trostle was taken suddenly ill at school last Thursday and was promptly rushed to the Bellefonte hospital where it was found he was suffering with appendicitis and an operation was performed the next day. He is now getting along very well, and is kept from getting lonesome by his mother being with him most of the time.

A "kid" social will be held at the home of Dr. G. H. Woods this (Friday) evening at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, 15 and 25 cents. The public is invited. The proceeds will go to the Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church.

Backward, turn backward
Oh Time in your flight;
Let us all be kids again.
Just for tonight.

Rare Book's Price.

Collectors of rare books and manuscripts were very much interested in the announcement that a first edition of Shakespeare's works, published in 1623, was sold at auction in London a few weeks ago for 1,150 pounds sterling. The volume is said to be in excellent condition, though the binding is considerably worn.

This costly book has increased in price by bounds. At the beginning of the eighteenth century the volume was bought for five pounds from a book dealer. In 1800 it was valued at fifty pounds, and in the year 1890 240 pounds was paid for it. This was a record price until 1899, when its value again increased. The indications are that with the years the price of 1,150 pounds will again be advanced, as the value of the volume will be more and more enhanced as time passes.

Good Slogan.

An imposing cemetery was opened in a young and thriving town in the Middle West. The mayor, who had charge of the laying out of the grounds, was puzzled for an appropriate inscription to be placed over the gate. Riding along in his car one day he was cogitating over different holy texts, which were not entirely satisfactory; so he explained his difficulty to his chauffeur, an intensely practical man. Without hesitation the chauffeur suggested:

"We have come to stay."—Harper's Magazine.

Choice of Voices.

Edith—Mr. Boreleigh? Oh, dear! I'll have Ninette tell him I'm out.
Alice—Won't the still, small voice reproach you?
Edith—Maybe, but I'd much rather hear the still, small voice than Mr. Boreleigh's—Boston Evening Transcript.

Sad Blow to Pride.

"Mr. and Mrs. Whiffer put on a great many airs since they have returned from Europe."
"Yes, they do, but while they were away several people mistook the caretaker and his wife for Mr. and Mrs. Whiffer."—Brooklyn Citizen.

Americans Do Not Save!

Many of them happen to earn more than they spend and thus acquire a surplus, but the saving habit is not general. During the past two years the number of those who have acquired the saving habit has been largely increased. They have economized; they have saved and invested. They have learned to do without many things that they thought necessary.

Why not make saving a habit, and, as a necessary aid to this habit, why not start a bank account?
