LUTHERAN CHURCH.

St. John's Lutheran church, corner Allegheny and Linn streets. Rev. W. P. Ard, pastor.—The pulpit will be filled on Sunday, March 23rd, by the Rev. A. M. Lutton, of Selinsgrove. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Morning services at 10:45 o'clock, theme: "The Secret Growth." Evening services at 7:30 o'clock, topic: "The Priceless Gift." Everybody welcome.

During the Lenten season, litany services with an address will be held every Friday evening in the Reformed church, at 7:30. The public is cordially invited. Sunday morning, 10:45 sermon, "Caiphas the High Priest." Evening sermon, "Atrophy."

BOWER.—Emanuel Bower, an aged resident of Haines township, died at the home of his son William, near Aaronsburg on Monday evening, near a long illness, aged 68 years, 4 months and 28 days.

Mr. Bower engaged in farming most of his life but a number of years ago retired and moved to Millheim. Last August his health became so bad that his son moved him to his home. He is survived by his wife and two children, Mrs. J. S. Gramley, of Battle Creek, Mich., and William, at whose home he died. He also leaves three brothers and a sister, namely: Franklin, of Aaronsburg; Jacob, of Salona; Michael, of Altamont, Ill., and Mrs. Daniel Ulrich, of New Berlin.

Funeral services were held in the United Evangelical church at Aaronsburg yesterday morning by Rev. C. B. Snyder and interment made in the Lutheran cemetery at Aaronsburg.

PATTERSON.—Following an illness of four months as the result of an injury William Patterson died at his home in Boalsburg on Tuesday morning. He was a son of Robert and Susan Patterson and was born at State College in 1865, hence was in his fifty-fourth year. Practically all his life was spent in College and Harris townships. He was a member of the Reformed church and a good citizen. In addition to his wife he is survived by a son and daughter, John Patterson and Miss Frances, at home. He also leaves two brothers, Daniel, of Boalsburg, and Robert, in Illinois. Rev. M. C. Stover will have charge of the funeral services which will be held at 10 o'clock this morning, burial to be made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

ALLPORT.—Mrs. Edith S. Allport, widow of the late Dr. Hobart Allport, died at her home in Philipsburg on Sunday, following about a year's illness. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Henderson, of Philipsburg; David, in Florida; James H., of Barnesboro; Robeson, of Cleveland, Ohio; William, of Philipsburg; and Jeannette, married and living in Altoona. Burial was made in Philipsburg on Wednesday.

TRESSLER.—Rodney B. Tressler, the twelve day's old son of Samuel Tressler, died on Sunday night, just five days after its mother passed away. Burial was made in the Meyers' cemetery on Tuesday.

PINE GROVE MILLS MENTION.

Miss Sue Peters is ill with tonsillitis and the grip.

Mrs. C. E. Close was an over Sunday visitor in Altoona.

Mrs. Sadie Everts is plying her needle at the J. F. Kimpfort home.

J. F. Kimpfort, of Boalsburg, transacted business in town on Monday.

George Koch is a very sick man this week, suffering with an attack of pleuro-pneumonia.

The wet weather permits the farmers to continue to swell the crowds at the public sales.

Mrs. Samuel Wagner spent the early part of the week on a shopping expedition in the Mountain city.

Ed. Harpster is handling the ribbons over a mated team of blacks he purchased in Altoona last week.

The Mrs. Mary Wright property on Water street was sold last week to E. H. Auman, our very successful miller.

Mrs. Koch came up from Aaronsburg on Tuesday to help care for her son George, who is ill with pneumonia.

While John Bowersox attended a public sale on Tuesday Mrs. Bowersox spent the day with friends in town.

Among the sick are Endell Ward, Miss Eunice Johnson, little Ruth Yocum, Margaret Martin and William M. Dunlap.

Stockmen H. C. Tussey, W. S. Moore and D. Baumgardner, of Petersburg, have been in the valley this week buying stock.

Harry Trostle, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Bellefonte hospital, was brought home on Tuesday and is getting along fine.

Prof. George R. Dunlap, teacher of the Wallaceon grammar school, spent Sunday with his family on south Water street.

Rev. Ira E. Fisher, of the Methodist church, is attending the annual Central Pennsylvania conference at Sunbury this week.

Squire Isaac Woerner came down from Altoona to spend a few days roaming around amongst his old haunts at Grayville.

Mrs. Elmer Long returned home from the Bellefonte hospital last week and is making rapid progress toward a permanent recovery.

Misses Sadie and Nannie McWilliams spent the Sabbath with relatives in Tyrone, returning home on the early train Monday morning.

Farmer W. H. Stuart, with his brother David, of Pittsburgh, was in town bright and early on Monday morning to catch the bus westward.

Harold McWilliams and Mrs. John McWilliams came in from Johnstown and spent the Sabbath at the W. E. McWilliams home at Rock Springs.

Mrs. H. A. Elder is visiting friends at Warriorsmark and Tyrone this week. She has been undergoing medical treatment all winter and her recovery is very slow.

Mrs. John Archey and daughter Edith were Monday visitors at the John Quinn home. Mr. Quinn is still confined to bed with an attack of the flu and neuralgia.

Our mutual friend, J. H. Strouse, is just now going through the various stages of a severe attack of rheumatism and finds his easy chair the most comfortable resting place.

Boyd Gardner, who was one of the Altoona P. R. R. shop men to be laid off recently in the conservation movement, has decided to take Horace Greeley's advice and go west.

Harry Markle sold his home at Oak Hall to John Durner for $400. Mr. and Mrs. Markle will now make their home with Mrs. Markle's mother, Mrs. James Poorman, at Boalsburg.

Among the flu-victims in this section this week are Mrs. George McWilliams, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Homan, Harry Johnson, Dr. W. M. Neidigh, Lincoln Henry and George Loesch.

Mrs. Milo Campbell returned from the Bloomsburg hospital last Friday and stopped for a much needed rest with friends at State College before returning to her home at Fairbrook.

One day recently while Mrs. Clyde Fishburn was in the act of removing a pot of rendered lard from the stove the boiling fat caught fire, the blaze going up her sleeve and badly burning her arm.

Bear in mind the fact that the I. W. T. band will give an entertainment tomorrow (Saturday) evening in the hall at Rock Springs. The title of the play will be "Honor the Mayor." Admission, 15 and 25 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Tussey came down from Blair county to make a brief visit among friends in the valley. Before her marriage Mrs. Tussey was Miss Margaret Goheen, a well known school teacher in this section.

Tiring of city life John Stamm will return to Centre county and take charge of the Capt. Boal farm at Boalsburg, which he left four years ago. He will also have general oversight of most of the Boal farms.

Mr. Samuel D. Fisher, grain merchant and dealer in feedstuffs at Franks-town, Blair county, accompanied by his son Ernest, spent several days here in the early part of the week buying a car load of grain for his milling trade.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarlane spent last week in Harrisburg to bestow their blessings on their little niece, baby Barbara Rankin Fleming, whose mother before her marriage was Miss Sara Hastings. Capt. Fleming, the child's father, is still on duty overseas.

W. H. Roush and family flitted to Altoona on Wednesday where they will make their future home. We were sorry to see them go but our loss will be their gain, as Mr. Roush has a good position in the Mountain city and all their friends hope they will find their new home congenial.

Quite a number of people of this section motored to Lock Haven on Sunday to felicitate with Fred Tillman on his fortieth birthday anniversary. A big dinner was served to all guests and Mr. Tillman was the recipient of a choice lot of remembrances. Since going to Lock Haven Mr. Tillman and family have been getting along very well.

In a letter to his mother last week James A. Gummo, one of our boys still somewhere in France, said he expected to get home by the 4th of July, but did not know what year. However, notwithstanding his great desire to get back, he stated, he was in to see it to a finish for a lasting peace. He is well and now tips the scales at the 200 pound notch.

Farmer Ed. S. Moore had another streak of hard luck on Wednesday when the team he was using on the farm frightened and ran away, throwing him from the wagon and breaking several ribs and badly injuring his head. The result will be that he will be housed up just when the spring work opens up. Mr. Moore has really had more than his share of misfortune. Three years ago he had a leg broken, last year an arm and now several ribs.

The James Hoover sale on the D. G. Meek farm at Fairbrook on Tuesday brought out a big crowd of buyers. Prices soared sky-high, cows bringing $140 and other things accordingly. The sale totalled $3700. The Hoover family will soon bid adieu to their Centre county friends and leave for eastern Maryland, where Mr. Hoover purchased a farm last fall. One of the pleasing incidents of the sale was the way a certain Bellefonte newspaper man—not an entire stranger to the "Watchman"—undertook to buy a whole box of chickens for $2.05 and the happy expression he wore until he found out that he had been bidding on each chicken and not the whole box.

The kid social at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Woods last Friday evening drew a large crowd and proved one of the most pleasant events of the season. Dr. Woods was master of ceremonies and drew out a number of snappy kid speeches which caused considerable merriment. Miss Mary Woods presided at the piano, and furnished delightful music for the occasion, being assisted in a number of selections by H. Bert Ward, on the cornet. A prize of a handsome china doll was awarded Mrs. J. H. Bailey for being the best "girly kid" present while Bert Ward drew the boy kid's prize, a silver horn. About two hundred people were present and the proceeds amounted to $40.00.

Why Prices Go Up and Down

Low PRICES
Much Livestock, Few Meat Buyers; Meat Prices Fall

High PRICES
Little Livestock, Many Meat Buyers; Meat Prices Rise

This shows why prices fluctuate. The number of animals shipped to market varies from week to week. The demand for meat also changes frequently, and often unexpectedly.

This means that live-stock prices and wholesale meat prices change from day to day. Competition determines prices so that the supply on hand at any one time is just taken up by the demand.

Swift & Company doesn't like these price changes. We have to use the utmost skill in buying and selling in order to get our average profit of a fraction of a cent per pound of meat.
