Fish and Game Association Organized

Bellefonte lovers of outdoor sport, such as fishing, hunting, etc., are organizing in an effort to secure for Centre county proper recognition in the matter of the distribution of fish and game and the proper enforcement of the laws protecting both. A preliminary organization was perfected at a meeting held at the Republican office last Friday evening when the following officers were chosen:

President—F. W. Crider.
Secretary—Edward Robb.
Treasurer—John Curtin.
Vice Presidents—Charles M. McCurdy, Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick, T. H. Harter, Edgar Burns, George A. Beezer, Benjamin Bradley.

Board of Governors—Judge H. C. Quigley, Robert F. Hunter, J. M. Cunningham, Geo. R. Meek, Toner Aikie, Willis Shuey, Chas. E. Dorworth.
Legal Advisory Board—J. C. Furst, John J. Bower, N. B. Spangler, J. Kennedy Johnston, W. D. Zerby, Kline Woodring.

The organization will be known as the "Centre county association for the conservation of fish and game," and while the object was only tentatively expressed at the meeting last Friday evening, another meeting will be held this (Friday) evening in the grand jury room at the court house to further discuss the work of the association. As now outlined the membership fees will be but nominal and as there is opportunity of doing a great amount of good in securing closer cooperation between the State department of game and fisheries every sportsman in Centre county should rally to the support of the new organization.

Child Starts Fire in Barn, Building Burned.

While playing with a match last Saturday morning Lynn Stover, the four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Stover, of Lyontown, set fire to the barn and the flames had made such progress by the time they were discovered that it was impossible to save the building and it was burned to the ground. In fact the little boy narrowly escaped with his life.

Matches have always had an unusual attraction for the child and realizing the possible danger in the boy playing with them the parents were very careful to keep them out of his reach. But on Saturday morning he managed to find a match in his father's coat pocket and then he quietly meandered off by himself. Going to the barn he found all the doors securely fastened but he crawled inside through a hole made for the dog to get in and out. Of course it wasn't long until he struck the match and started a fire. Then, boy-like, he climbed in an old buckboard wagon and watched the fire burn until it began to get too hot for him when he scrambled out of the wagon and managed to make his way through the smoke to the hole through which he gained entrance to the barn and crawled out. But it was a narrow escape, as the child's hair was singed from close contact with the fire.

While the destruction of the barn is a total loss to Mr. Stover, as he allowed his insurance to expire just recently, there was little of value in the building owing to the fact that he is not engaged in farming at the present time.

Farm Loan Association News.

The "Watchman" last week told about the organization of the National Farm Loan association of Centre county. In connection with the officers chosen at that time James C. Furst Esq., has been appointed attorney for the association. The twenty applications made by the charter members for loans aggregating $72,500 will be acted upon this week, after which three appraisers will be appointed by the Board of directors of the association and an appraiser sent here by the Federal Land bank of Baltimore who will visit the farm of each applicant, appraise his property and make a recommendation relative to the requested loan. If everything is found in a condition to justify the loan the necessary papers will be prepared forthwith and the money should be forthcoming within three or four weeks. In the future any person can make application for a loan and membership in the association to Nelson E. Robb, the secretary and treasurer, at the Bellefonte Trust company.

Huntingdon Presbytery to Meet in Bellefonte.

The spring meeting of the Huntingdon Presbytery will be held in the Presbyterian church, Bellefonte, next Monday and Tuesday. While the Presbytery confines its semi-annual meetings to two-day sessions they are quite important epochs in the church history. In the Huntingdon Presbytery, for instance, are eighty churches with seventy ministers and eighteen thousand communicant church members. It is expected that not less than one hundred and twenty ministers and lay delegates will attend the meetings next week.

Rev. R. D. Daubenspeck is moderator of the Presbytery and the program arranged includes a business session on Monday afternoon when the various reports will be received. A public meeting will be held on Monday evening in the interest of foreign missions when the speaker will be Rev. John L. Eakin, D. D., for many years a missionary in Siam.

Business meetings will also be held on Tuesday morning and in the afternoon. One of the important things of the Tuesday morning session will be the election of commissioners to the next general assembly of the church which will meet in St. Louis on May 15th. The Huntingdon Presbytery is entitled to elect as commissioners three ministers and three elders. Presbytery trustees will also be elected at the same session. Final reports will be made on Tuesday afternoon and the appointment of the place for holding the next regular meeting of Presbytery.

Fred Slack started housekeeping in a part of the William Colyer home, near the station.

Arch. Moyer moved from the Kennedy farm above Centre Hall, to the McClenahan property on west Main street.

State Militia Muster July 12.

Harrisburg.—Formal announcement was made by Adjutant General Frank D. Beary that the Pennsylvania Reserve Militia camp of instruction would be held at Mount Getzeta July 12 to 19, and that the camp of instruction for officers would be held June 8 to 13. The current season for gallery practice of the reserve militia will open April 1, and outdoor rifle practice on May 1, and run until November 30.

"BUTT-IN" TO BEAT HECKLERS

Victory Loan Speakers Will get the Jump on Critics.

"Butt-in" speaking will be used to create enthusiasm for the Victory Liberty Loan, and 1000 speakers are being organized for the campaign which is opening in the southeastern district of Pennsylvania, severing Bucks, Montgomery, Delaware, Chester and Philadelphia counties. Other districts are expected to adopt the "butt-in" plan and get the jump on would-be hecklers.

These speakers will present themselves at all meetings and will discuss the Loan situation in a constructive way to dispel all criticism, hostility and heckling which might result when the selling drive opens if the public were not acquainted with facts in advance.

The speaking campaign was outlined at a meeting of county representatives in the Union League, Philadelphia, presided over by Arthur Peek, chairman of Group A, which includes the southeastern counties.

Harold B. Bellier, who will direct the speaking activities in this district, declared that an appeal must be made to the sense of decency of the American citizen to step up and pay the bills incurred. The nation, he said, needs a good reputation to figure as a respected member of the family of nations—a position which it cannot hold if it does anything toward repudiating honest debt.

DEDICATION DAY IN DELAWARE

Religious Ceremony Will Open Victory Loan Campaign.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Delaware will prepare for the opening of the Victory Liberty Loan campaign with a "Dedication Day" April 6 was selected as the day at a meeting of Delaware Loan leaders in the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel.

Governor Townsend will be asked to issue a special proclamation naming "Dedication Day" and the pastors of all churches will be urged to feature the Victory Loan at one or more services on that day. A suitable Biblical text will be suggested for the uniform introduction of the Loan theme into the pulpit discourses.

The plan of opening the Loan campaign with a religious ceremony was suggested by J. Hall Anderson, of Kent county. Men and women Loan leaders who attended the meeting expressed confidence in the ability of Delaware's organization to make the drive a complete success. Howard S. Kinney, of the Advisory committee for Delaware, presided.

Addresses were made by John H. Mason, Director of the Loan; Gilbert E. Gable, Director of Publicity; Benjamin H. Ludlow, speakers' chairman, and Mrs. Henry Ridgely, women's chairman, of Delaware.

FIVE COUNTIES IN LOAN RALLY

Northeast Pennsylvania Prepares for a Good Getaway.

To complete the organization for the Victory Liberty Loan drive, committee chairmen from the five counties comprising Group C, of the Third Federal Reserve district, Lackawanna, Wayne, Monroe, Pike and Susquehanna, held a luncheon meeting at the Scranton club. Speakers, from Philadelphia outlined plans for conducting the drive.

More than fifty Loan leaders attended. C. S. Weston, of Scranton, presided.

Addresses were made by B. H. Ludlow, of Philadelphia, chairman of the speakers' bureau, and George E. Lloyd, of Carlisle. The speakers explained how the drive will be conducted, and urged committeemen to begin the work of organization early.

THINK VICTORY LOAN IS EASY

Adams County Leaders Confident of a Speedy "Going-Over."

Confidence that the Victory Liberty Loan will go over easily in Adams county was expressed by Loan leaders at a meeting in Hotel Gettysburg.

Dr. William A. Granville, chairman of the Adams county Loan Committee, presided. He reported that his whole organization of workers in the Fourth Liberty Loan is intact for the campaign in the Fifth Loan.

Grier Hersh, advisory chairman of Group F of the Victory Loan organization and chairman of the York county Victory Loan Committee, delivered an address, in which he outlined the general plan of campaign in the counties comprising Group F, and offered suggestions of value to loan workers. Other speakers were John Kieth and Secretary Sunday, of the Adams county Victory Loan organization.

BUCKS' LEADERS START DRIVE

Victory Loan Workers Given Hearty Greeting at Somerton.

Lower Bucks county has a complete speakers' organization for the Victory Liberty Loan campaign. Some of the speakers have already been at work. J. H. Buckman and James E. Groome addressed the Philadelphia Driving Club at Somerton. The audience numbered 200 and gave the Loan arguments a hearty reception.

A meeting of all speakers will be held at Langhorne to formulate a plan of campaign. The speakers include Charles M. Eames, Yardley; J. Hibbs Buckman, Langhorne; Hon. Clarence J. Buckman, Langhorne; Howard I. James, Horace N. Davis, Hugh E. Eastburn, Thomas Scott, and Joseph R. Grundy, county chairman, of Bristol; Frank J. V. Sweeney, Newtown; Thomas B. Stockham, Morrisville; Arthur P. Townsend, Langhorne, and James E. Groome, Yardley.

ORVISTON.

Miss Mary Singer, of Romola, is visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Ola Cypher and children, Roy and Billy, have returned from a visit with Mrs. Cypher's sister, Mrs. Lila Fisher, of Sunbury.

Mrs. Wm. Barnhart, of the lower works, has returned from Sunbury, where she spent a very pleasant time with her daughter, Mrs. Fisher.

John Williams, of Howard, who recently received his honorable discharge from service, visited his sister, Mrs. William Lucas, at the upper works.

William Lucas is a very popular name in Orviston, as there are at least four of that name here, and they are all pretty good fellows, especially the littlest, who is not yet three months old.

Work has been resumed at the upper works, much to the joy of all concerned, both of the men and the employers, not to mention the women, who look after the household affairs.

New the lower works have closed down for repairs.
