They will come to the States with the 42nd (Rainbow) division, which is expected to sail from Brest this week and should reach the United States the latter part of next week. Just what the plans of the two ladies are for the future are not definitely known, but as they are coming home on a furlough it is presumed they intend returning to France. -Ambrose Wolf, of Greenbriar, was brought to Bellefonte last Friday and lodged in jail by game warden Charles Batchelor, of Philipsburg, on the charge of illegal fishing. Several months ago Wolf and several companions did a little fishing with throw nets in the stream west of Coburn. Information was made against the men by Harry Wingard, local game warden at Coburn. Warden Batchelor went to Coburn last week and placed the men under arrest. All but Wolf paid their fines and costs and the latter refusing to do so was brought to jail.
