

PINE GROVE MENTION.

J. B. Whitmer is having concrete walk laid around his cozy home. Mrs. Amos Koch, of Aaronsburg, is visiting relatives in this section. I. O. Campbell, of Fairbrook, transacted business in town on Friday. The prolonged rainy spell put farming at a standstill for a few days. Mrs. George Irvin made short calls among her many friends in town on Saturday afternoon. John Stover and family motored to Bellefonte on a shopping tour Saturday and looked over the new bonnets and hats. Mrs. Guy Rossman is shy one hundred little chicks and a new incubator, all of which went up in smoke last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fishburn and Miss Sadie Deitrich, of Huhlersburg, were Sunday visitors at the G. B. Mc. Fry home at White Hall. Hon. J. Will Kepler spent Sunday at his home here. He is spending this week at Coalport in his line of duty as a deputy revenue collector. Little Thomas Homan, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Homan, is suffering with a bad laceration on one leg received by getting caught on a rusty nail. Dr. G. H. Woods, wife and daughter Mary closed their home for a ten day's visit with relatives at Greensburg and their son George, at Pitscairn. Hugh C. Dale was an over Sunday visitor with his brother, Henry C. Dale, at Sunbury, returning Monday morning in time for classes at Penn State. George W. Koch went to Pittsburgh last Friday to consult a specialist in the hope of recovering his shattered health. His many friends hope for the best. Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Cronover, of Saalsburg, are quartered at St. Elmo for a brief time in order to give Mr. Cronover a chance to look over his lumber job on old Tussey. In last week's "Mentions" we mentioned the fact that W. W. Oakes had purchased a blooded heifer from the E. C. Musser herd. We erred, as the animal was of the masculine gender. Aunt Mary Brungart, of Zion, is visiting relatives in this section. The aged lady intends to spend part of the summer with her sister, Mrs. Hannah Miller, at White Hall, her former home. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tillman and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dickey, of Lock Haven, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Markle, of Penns Valley, were royally entertained on Sunday at the J. A. Fortney home near town. Jacob Keller was taken to the Bellefonte hospital on Sunday where he went under the knife for the third time. Owing to his advanced age his family and friends are concerned as to the outcome. Walter Gates, of Company H, 118th engineers, 43rd division, is now at the home of his parents at Marengo. He is still suffering from the effects of a bad attack of diphtheria, but is on the road to recovery. Harry Rossman, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rossman, at their cozy new home near Baileyville. The latchstring is always on the outside at the Rossman home. Mr. and Mrs. James Dreese motored up from Adamsburg last Thursday for a few days' outing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Goss. Mrs. Dreese will be better remembered as Miss Amelia Koch before her marriage. Mrs. Henry Wagner entertained her son Roy and lady friend at dinner on Sunday. A. L. Weiland and Paul Sunday were also invited guests. Private Wagner has just returned home after being discharged from service. Claude Swabb was a Tyrone visitor on Friday and brought his little niece, Gladys Williams, home with him. The little girl is having a rollicking good time at the home of her grandpa, Mr. J. Harry Williams, on east Main street. Mrs. Mary Ferguson returned to her home at State College on Friday after spending a month very pleasantly among friends in Pittsburgh. In her maiden days she was one of Centre county's most popular school teachers. One of our soldier boys, Ray Reed, spent an eight day's furlough among relatives here but returned to Camp Dix in time to report for the big parade in Philadelphia yesterday and expects to be discharged in a few days. He belongs to the headquarters company of the 28th division. The S. A. Dunlap home on south Water street was the scene of a sort of a family reunion or get-together of the clan the past week. Mrs. Randall Dunlap and Miss Leah arrived last week. J. C., of Twin Oakes, and George R. and Miss Edith arrived on Saturday afternoon and the result was a sumptuous dinner on Sunday. N. C. Neidigh and daughter, Miss Esther, departed last Thursday for Butler, Pa., to attend the big reception to the soldier boys, among whom was Mr. Neidigh's son Judson. But the hard rain had made the roads almost impassable and when they got into Cambria county they found motoring so difficult that they gave up the trip and returned home, where they arrived on Saturday evening dirty and disgruntled, as well as hungry. District No. 10, comprising ten Sunday schools, met in their annual convention in the Methodist church here last Sunday. Two sessions were held, at two and eight o'clock p. m. Devotional exercises were held by Rev. A. M. Luton and the address of welcome made by Rev. I. E. Fisher. Rev. L. V. Barber made the response. With Miss Nancy Ward at the organ a splendid choir of well trained voices furnished the music. Very good and interesting talks were made by Rev. R. M. Campbell and Norman F. Johnson at the afternoon session. At the evening session Rev. Luton led the devotional exercises after which there was an interesting discussion of the question, "Is the Graded Sunday School Practical?" Several substitutes were offered but all met with some opposition. The officers elected for the district were as follows: President, E. F. Barr; advisory superintendent, W. E. McWilliams; vice president, J. D. Neidigh; secretary, C. D. Gates; treasurer, Robert Harster; teachers' training superintendent, F. B. Tate; adult superintendent, J. H. Neidigh; missionary superintendent, Viola Burwell; temperance superintendent, Ernest Trostle; primary superintendent, Mrs. Sadie Everts; young people's superintendent, Mrs. A. L. Albright; rural superintendent, L. D. Fye. A genuine surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton C. Neidigh, at White Hall, on Tuesday evening in honor of their son, Justice G., who has just returned from overseas duty where he distinguished service as a member of Company L, 12th regiment 28th division. Private Neidigh was in the thick of the fight in all the battles in which his regiment took part and came out without a scratch. His many friends took advantage of the occasion to give him a royal welcome home. Other invited soldiers present at the gathering were Ernest Hoy, Ernest Trostle, William Meckley, George Loesch and W. M. Neidigh. There were dancing and games during the evening and choice refreshments. Guests present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Albright and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Albright and daughters, Clyde Fishburn and son Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Neidigh and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bodle and daughter Gladys, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tate and daughter, Mrs. D. S. Neidigh and daughter, Wm. Meckley, Mrs. Hannah Hoy, Shannon Osman, Helen Ralston, Roy Strouse, Ethel Ralston, Dr. M. W. Neidigh, Margaret and Anna Ralston, Albert Corl, Clara Trostle, Fred, Bertha and Florence Corl, Mary Lutz, Henry Illingworth, Dora Dreibleib, Mae Spotts, Claire Marx, Eugene Irvin, Ernest Hoy, Nettie Lytle, Edna Dreibleib, Mrs. D. S. Neidigh and daughter Mary, George Loesch, Ralph Lytle, Ruth Felker, Alfred Harnish, Walter Dreibleib, Albert Lutz, Clarence Corl, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Musser, Mr. and Mrs. Madison Corl and son, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Fye, Mr. and Mrs. George Neidigh, son and daughter, Mrs. Annie Garner and daughter Luella, Blanche Neidigh, Esther Neidigh, N. C. Neidigh, Charles and Samuel Rudy, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Trostle and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Neidigh. Those from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cronmiller and Harold, of Patton; Mrs. John Lytle and daughter Sarah, of Altoona.

CENTRE HALL.

Miss Hazel Emery is at Camp Dix, N. J., where she has secured a position. Miss Grace Smith left for Williamsport the fore part of the week, where she will spend a short time. Miss Ruth Smith has returned to her home in this place, having finished her term of school at Boalsburg. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Heckman, of Johnstown, were guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kreamer, on Tuesday. George Emerick and Luther Emerick attended the funeral of their brother, Dr. Charles Emerick, at Harrisburg, last Thursday. John Spangler, of New York city, who was recently discharged from service, visited his father, Howard Spangler, for several days. Miss Carrabel Emerick accompanied her uncle, Oscar Emerick, to Freeport, Illinois, on Tuesday. Miss Emerick expects to make her home with her uncle. Mrs. Charles Garis, of State College, is at the home of John Slack in this place, where she is caring for Mr. and Mrs. Slack, who have both been in poor health. One of the most interesting discoveries by Egyptologists throws new light on the relative origin of copper and bronze in the Mediterranean countries. At Ortu Comique, alongside some ancient copper mines of prehistoric age, a foundry has been uncovered with all the furnaces for smelting and moulds for casting, just as it was abandoned thousands of years ago in the transition between the ages of stone and bronze. When white washable corduroy skirts have become worn, the best parts can be cut into squares or oblongs and hemmed for wash cloths and hand towels for the children. They are not unsightly to look upon and are equally as soft and absorbent as a Turkish towel.

Do You Pay 66¢ for Sirloin Steak? —or 33 Cents?
We serve all tastes
A recent Government bulletin quoted sirloin steak in different cities at prices ranging from 33 to 66 cents!
We buy live cattle, according to quality, all the way from $7.00 to $20.00 per hundred-weight, live weight. Sirloins from these cattle vary greatly in quality.
Some retailers sell 33 cent sirloins. These steaks come from cheaper cattle.
Customers of other retailers demand choice sirloins at 66 cents. These retailers buy meat from higher-priced cattle.
Also, the retailer who carries complete stocks, delivers to your door, and lets you run a charge account, has to get higher prices than the retailer who runs a "cash and carry" store.
We sell beef of a given quality at practically the same price all over the country—except for slight differences due to freight rates.
And our profit hardly affects the price at all—only a fraction of a cent per pound.
