

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Campbell and son Ferguson were in town on Friday. Jovial Squire Zechman, of Boalsburg, was in town on Friday on a business trip.

Our popular grain merchant is loading a car of wheat at the $2.25 per bushel mark.

Mr. Alvin Corl is having his barn re-roofed with galvanized iron. R. B. Charles has the job.

Robert Harpster, of Fairbrook, is busy as a nailer shearing sheep with his automatic clipper.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rocky, of State College, visited the J. E. Wittmer home at White Hall on Sunday.

A. J. Tate and family are now snugly fixed up in the Dr. J. B. Krebs mansion on west College avenue.

Hon. J. W. Kepler is having the water piped from a pure spring of mountain water to his farm buildings.

W. H. Glenn and wife and Albert Corl and lady friend were Sunday callers at the Mac Fry home at White Hall.

Fred Williams is manipulating the throttle on a tin Lizzie and James Kline doing likewise with a new Overland.

Squire D. W. Miller brought in a dozen nice speckled beauties pulled out of the waters of Laurel run last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rossman are receiving congratulations over a new arrival, boy No. 2, at their home at Fairbrook.

H. N. Musser and N. C. Neidigh are two residents from this section who are serving their country as jurors this week.

Mrs. E. C. Close is in the Bloomsburg hospital, having undergone an operation last Saturday. She is now doing very well.

Mrs. Lillian Devine is visiting the home of her son-in-law, Fred Reitz, at Charter Oak, expecting to be there a month or more.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bierly motored to the county capital on Monday. Mr. Bierly to attend court while Mrs. Bierly visited friends.

Will Wagner, wife and daughter Helen motored down from Altoona for a several day's visit among friends down Pennsylvania.

Jack Frost laid his icy hand on vegetation in the Tadpole region on Monday, but it is not believed with sufficient strength to do any damage.

John Keller and Charles Louck motored to Bellefonte on Monday to visit Squire Keller in the Bellefonte hospital and found him getting along nicely.

The venerable D. I. Johnson spent Monday transacting business at Scotia. Though past four score years of age he is still quite brisk for an octogenarian.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. O'Neill, of Altoona, are now snugly fixed up at the home of their son-in-law, C. E. Close, at Fairbrook, and will assist in the farm work.

James Fetterhoff and lady friend and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Johnson motored to Lewistown on Sunday to view the spot of the horrible drowning catastrophe two weeks ago.

James Fetterhoff and lady friend and D. I. Johnson and son, J. M., made a flying trip to Hecla Park on Wednesday and stopped a short time in Bellefonte to do some buying.

Mrs. Eliza Meek is seriously ill at her home at Wilkensburg as the result of a stroke of paralysis. Her sisters, Mrs. Catharine Woods and Mrs. Sallie Musser, are at her bedside.

The new wagon shed and corn crib on the George Grimes farm is now under roof and nearing completion, under the skillful work of George Royer and his crew of carpenters.

A. C. Kepler and wife and N. T. Krebs are on a fishing trip along Youngwoman's creek in Clinton county.

Mrs. Kepler is spending part of the time with her sister at Jersey Shore.

A petition is being circulated among the farmers here, and being numerously signed, remonstrating against the passage of House bill No. 1374, which will prohibit traction engines with cleats being driven over state highways.

W. K. Corl is in receipt of a letter from the War Department stating that his son Clayton had been gassed, affecting his sight. He is now at Camp Dix and expects to be home soon. Clayton went out with Troop L, of Bellefonte.

The ladies of the Lutheran Sunday school at Pine Hall will hold a festival on the church lawn on the evening of May 30th. Sandwiches, coffee, ice cream and cake will be served. The proceeds will be devoted to buying Sunday school books.

Mr. J. S. Howell, of Cordell, Okla., is visiting his cousins, the Howersons, family, after an absence of twenty-seven years. He will leave for his home shortly to begin harvesting his bumper wheat crop, which he estimates at about 4000 bushels. He expects it to be ready to start work on by June 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Dale, of Sunbury, are mourning the death of their baby boy, Henry Lawrence Jr., who died on May 8th. As it was their first-born the young parents are heartbroken over their bereavement. The remains were brought to Centre county on the 10th and taken direct from the train to Boalsburg where burial was made, Rev. Mr. Long officiating.

The Memorial sermon to the G. A. R. will be preached in the Lutheran church at 10:30 o'clock on Sunday morning by Rev. A. M. Lutton. All Civil War veterans and returned soldiers are invited. For Memorial day the program for Pine Grove Mills includes a parade at 2 p. m., and civic organizations, school children and returned soldiers are invited to join with the G. A. R. The Citizens band will lead the parade to the cemetery. Rev. W. P. Ard, of Bellefonte, will be the orator of the day. Services will be held at Pine Hall at 6:30 p. m., where Rev. J. W. Long, of State College, will make the address. A detail of old soldiers will also decorate the graves at the Branch, Tadpole, Rock Springs and Meek's church.

—They are all good enough, but the "Watchman" is always the best.

A Good Tire Year

You have doubtless noticed the growing preponderance of United States Tires

Every one is asking for tires of known value and proved dependability.

And that is precisely what United States Tires represent in the minds of motorists here and everywhere.

The idea back of United States Tires—to build good tires—the best tires that can be built, is appealing to rapidly growing numbers.

We can provide you with United States Tires to meet—and meet exactly—your individual needs.

United States Tires are Good Tires

For Sale by P. H. McGARVEY, Bellefonte; J. H. BANEY, Howard.

Evident to All.
From the Cincinnati Inquirer.
The terrible effect of the demon cigarette and the demon wine and the demon beer on our boys who were over there was evident to any man who saw the parades of the home-coming heroes. The poor fellows were so husky and full of pep that they could not march more than forty-eight miles at a time and could not eat more than eight meals a day.
