AARONSBURG.

The Reformed Sunday school has decided to have Children's day service on or about June 22nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Jackson, of Madisonburg, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Jackson's son, John Durst.

John Bright, of Akron, Ohio, arrived home on Saturday evening and will spend a short time at his home in the village.

Mrs. Mary Beaver, after having spent one week with her sister, Mrs. Andrew Meyer, of Woodward, returned home Saturday.

Lewis Donat and friend, of Wanamaker, Lehigh county, are guests of Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Donat, at the Reformed parsonage.

W. J. Krape was the delegate from the United Evangelical Sunday school to the Ministerial and K. L. C. E. and Sunday school convention which was held in the church of that denomination, in Centre Hall, May 21-22.

Dr. Patch, of Altoona, lectured in the Reformed church Sunday, the 25th, in the interest of the Anti-Saloon League, of which he is an enthusiastic worker. His lecture was inspiring and one of the best delivered in this village. Let us trust his efforts will bring forth great good.

Memorial day will be fittingly observed here as usual. The parade will form on the Diamond at 10:30 o'clock and proceed to the cemetery to decorate the graves of our departed heroes. Sunday schools, various societies and the Red Cross are called upon to participate in the exercises. Rev. J. J. Weaver will be the speaker.

Monday, the 19th, Clarence Eisenhauer arrived in our village from France, where he served with the engineers. While here he is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Alice Eisenhauer. Clarence has many friends in his native town who were glad to extend to him a hearty welcome. Army life apparently agreed with him as he is in splendid health. Harry Eisenhauer was also an arrival home from Akron, Ohio, on Saturday. He will spend Memorial day with his mother.

BOALSBURG.

Miss Ida Segner spent Saturday in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Irwin, of Millifunction, is visiting her son James and wife.

John Traxler, of Welland, Canada, spent a few days at the home of Henry Reitz.

Miss Anne Valentine, of Bellefonte, was a guest of Mrs. M. A. B. Boal last week.

Quite a number of Boalsburg people witnessed the parade at State College on Friday.

Capt. W. H. Fry, of Pine Grove Mills, attended the Memorial services in the Lutheran church on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Henry Reitz and grandson, Henry Traxler, visited among friends in Northumberland county several days last week.

Mrs. Bruce Lonebarger and little daughter Lois spent a few days with friends in Sunbury, where they were joined by Mr. Lonebarger, from Oakton, Va., who accompanied them home for a short visit.

Ray Lucas, of the machine gun troop, returned home on Friday and was gladly greeted by his many friends. Needless to say his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lucas, are happy over his safe return.

Mrs. Harold V. Coxey and daughter Eleanor, of Altoona, are visiting friends in town. Roy Coxey and family, who have been living in Altoona for several years, will return to Boalsburg and will occupy the Rothrock home.

ORVISTON.

Howard Moore, of the 109th field artillery, has arrived home safely from overseas. We were all glad to see him well and safe.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Gillespie and their three youngest children visited friends and relatives in Romola, Sunday, and report a very pleasant time.

Mrs. Mary V. Shearer, Mrs. Etta Nelson and Mrs. Margaret Jones left for Lock Haven Tuesday evening, where the two last named expect to be employed in one of the shops.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Russell are the proud parents of a big lovely boy. This makes three boys in the Russell home. Curley is sure the proud and happy daddy, for they are all splendid little chaps.

Mrs. Isabel Croll has given up the boarding house at the back camp, as her health is becoming impaired by her grief. The sudden and awful death of her husband was too much for her to endure.

Floyd Womer, of Co. A, 314th regiment, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Ed. Confer, of this place. Floyd was severely wounded and is only home for a short time, when he will return to one of the government hospitals for further treatment.

The Old Lady Again.

Mrs. Kowler—I suppose when your nephew's company landed they got a warm welcome.

Mrs. Blunderly—My dear, they received a regular innovation.

CASTORIA

Bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. In use for over thirty years, and The Kind You Always Bought.

STORMSTOWN.

Miss Maude Griffin spent several weeks with friends in Tyrone.

Memorial day services will be held at Gray's cemetery at 2 p. m., Friday. Children's day services will be held at the Methodist church on the evening of June 8th.

Dr. D. G. Coons and family, of Dry Run, are visiting J. M. Ryder and other friends in the valley.

Mrs. Lucas, of Unionville, visited her daughter, Miss Marie Lucas, at the home of J. M. Ryder.

Miss Miriam Matern, who is a trained nurse, is caring for a typhoid fever patient at Port Matilda.

Gray Beck, of Cleveland, Ohio, visited his aunt, Mrs. Belle Gray, and other relatives in the valley last week.

Mrs. H. F. Babcock and son Reed are spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Ida Reed, at Huntingdon, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Melville, and baby daughter, Edith Jane, of New York city, formerly of Madison, Wis., are visiting Mrs. Melville's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Harlachner.

Rev. H. F. Babcock left on Monday for Drew Theological Seminary to attend a summer session for rural ministers, he having been chosen for a scholarship out of the Williamsport district. Rev. Cook, of Port Matilda, will fill the appointments June 8th.

OAK HALL.

Miss Anna Korman is spending this week with her sister at Pleasant Gap.

Charles Whitehill returned to his work at Philipsburg, after having helped with the spring work.

Reuben Colyer, of Colyer, visited a few days last week at the Charles Whitehill home in this place.

Mrs. C. E. Radel left on Thursday for Millersburg, where she will visit her parents for a short time.

On Monday the Oak Hall Lime and Stone company began crushing stone for the road which is being covered from Lemont to Oak Hall.

Those who spent Saturday in Bellefonte were Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Zonr, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Dale, Mrs. Harry Wagner and Mrs. William Ferre.

David Snyder and daughters, Margaret and Flora, of Boalsburg, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Snyder's other daughter, Mrs. Walter Korman.

One of the Last of Old-time "Reds."

Tom-o-Wah-Teet, who remembered the first coming of the white man to the Kllektat valley, Washington state, has gone to the happy hunting grounds at the age of at least one hundred and ten. He was known and liked by everyone in the region, and would tell vividly of the events of days when white people invaded the territory of the Yakimas and Kllektats. He was present at the council of Walla Walla plains in 1855, and was a warrior under Kamiakin in the Yakima Indian war that followed. He took part in the black house battle and massacre of white settlers at the Cascades, where Lieut. Philip H. Sheridan was in command of the troops sent from Fort Vancouver to defend the garrison. After the revolt was crushed Tom-o-Wah-Teet was always friendly to the whites, and his many services have been repaid, for since he became nearly blind about five years ago and could no longer support himself and his aged squaw by working on farms, those he once aided have looked after his wants.

Lost Diamond Mine?

A fabulous fortune awaits the man who discovers the lost diamond mine of Arkansas. There are indisputable indications that such a mine exists, according to a statement by Capt. Frederick C. Packer, an English diamond mining expert who has twice come to this country from Kimberly, South Africa, in search of the lost mine.

Due to the peculiarity of the natural process by which diamonds were formed in the dim ages of the past, Capt. Packer said, the indications of a diamond field may be found a long distance from the field. These indications have been found in a certain section of Arkansas, but the mine has not been discovered. It may be near the Oklahoma line, he asserts.

Anxious.

Waiter—All right, sir. all right. You'll get served in time.
Diner—Well, rush it, I want to get through this meal before the prices rise again.

So There You Are.

Speaking of meat prices, it is said that a whole steer could once be bought in Merrie England for forty-five cents—but then, only the rich had that much money.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

Pure Tonic Value
In Peptiron, to the Last Particle of the Medicine.

The new and real iron tonic, Peptiron, is prepared in the convenient form of chocolate-coated pills, easy to take, easy to carry about with you; no water, no alcohol, no opiate. Peptiron is the essence of economy, the acme of efficiency. It is readily assimilated, acts promptly and powerfully upon the blood and nerves, corrects all run-down conditions, creates an appetite, gives stomach comfort and healthful digestion. It wards off impending illness, bridges over the danger spots, and increases power of resisting disease.

Do not put off treatment in these times so perilous to health, but get Peptiron and begin to take it today, two after each meal.
You'll not regret being particular to get Peptiron, and no other. Like many others, you will be surprised at its promptness in building you up.

BUT HE WENT WITH SPEED

That Was About All Witness Cared to Testify as to the Gait of Defendant.

The trial was in the Marlon circuit court, on appeal from the police court, where the defendant had been guilty of violating a city ordinance prohibiting the throwing of rubbish in the streets, relates the Indianapolis News. The charge had been preferred by a neighbor, who filed his affidavit setting forth that the defendant had willfully, unlawfully and maliciously thrown certain particles of glass into the street in front of affiant's residence.

During the hearing of testimony in the county court the defendant's lawyer, with all sails set, let loose his best line of cross-examination of the complaining neighbor.

"You say, Mr. Witness," the lawyer snarled, "that you saw this defendant throw some glass in front of your house and then run back to his front door—you mean to tell this court that he ran or just simply walked fast?"

"I guess I know when I see a man run," the witness half answered.

"I say, did he run or just walk fast?" the attorney thundered.

"Judge, your honor," the witness excitedly replied, as he turned and faced the judge, "This here same lawyer made me a liar in police court. He might for all I know gone sixty miles an hour. I ain't no judge of human nature."

PLEA FOR MEMORIAL TREES

Committee Would Have One Planted in Baptist Churchyards as Tribute to Roger Williams.

A memorial tree in every Baptist churchyard in the United States to commemorate establishment of religious freedom and soul liberty is the plan of the Roger Williams National Memorial committee of the District of Columbia. The committee, which is in charge of the drive to raise a fund for the erection in Washington of the Roger Williams memorial, announced it would ask every congregation in the country to plant a memorial tree.

"The tree stands for life," says a statement from the committee issued at the Washington headquarters, "and as the American Forestry association is urging the planting of memorial trees in honor of the American sailors and soldiers who gave their lives that political freedom should not perish from the earth, so we will ask that trees be planted in honor of Roger Williams, who worked and suffered that religious liberty might be woven into the national fabric of America."

—They are all good enough, but the "Watchman" is always the best.

Army Nurses Demand Military Rank.

Washington.—"Army nurses now demobilizing in New York are demanding military rank as a condition to further war, service in our army. They say they will absolutely refuse to volunteer again, unless present conditions are completely changed and ranks are granted," said Miss Alice Crandall, of New York, in Washington today, to close the work of the committee on nursing of the council of national defense, of which she has been secretary throughout the war.

MEDICAL.

Why Suffer So?

Why suffer from a bad back, from sharp, shooting twinges, headaches, dizziness and distressing urinary ills? Bellefonte people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Could you ask for stronger proof of merit?
Mrs. Christ Young, 16 Potter St., Bellefonte, says: "For more than a year I suffered with a dull pain in the small of my back. My back was always sore and when I bent over, I could hardly get up again. I didn't feel able to do anything about my house. I had a dull, drowsy feeling all day long and when I got up in the morning I could hardly dress. I was troubled a lot with dizzy spells and my kidneys acted irregularly. I read in our town paper where Doan's Kidney Pills had helped so many people of the same trouble that I decided to give them a trial. The first box that I got at the Green Pharmacy Co. cured me and it has been about three years now since I have had any trouble with my kidneys." (Statement given April 22, 1914).

On October 18, 1918, Mrs. Young said: "I am very glad to confirm my former endorsement recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had no kidney trouble since I used Doan's Kidney Pills and owe it all to Doan's Kidney Pills."

Are You Tall or Medium?

Every now and then somebody breaks loose with a statement that the man of genius is a man of small stature, or the tables are reversed and the statement is made that the first essential to greatness is a large stature.

Those who are of "middle" or "medium" height are too numerous to list. All of which goes to prove that there is hope for us all—"short," "medium" and "tall"—provided we are willing to sweat hard.

Among other short men whose names are by-words, either in the world's history or in modern times are John Quincy Adams, Andrew Carnegie, Chaucer, Alexander Hamilton, Ibsen, Charles Lamb, Thomas B. Macaulay, John Milton, Thomas Moore, Alexander Pope, Robespierre, William B. Seward, Thoreau, Martin Van Buren, and Michael Angelo.

To offset these we will list a few of the geniuses who measured over six feet: Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Jackson, Samuel Adams, Bismarck, Jonathan Edwards, Walt Whitman, and Eugene Field. Among those described as six-footers are Charles Darwin, Alexander Dumas, James Munroe, Alfred Tennyson and George Washington.

These were close to six feet: Henry Ward Beecher, Daniel O'Connell, Benjamin Franklin, Albert Gallatin, John Ruskin, Robert Louis Stevenson, Daniel Webster.

A Nurse for Over Forty Years.

Read What She Says About the Goldine Treatment.

Superlative praise many times fails to convince. It is the character and personality behind the praise that counts. When a person of Miss Braine's reputation as a successful nurse for over forty years endorses a preparation, that preparation must have merit.

Many people owe their lives to Miss Braine. She has been a nurse in Williamsport for over forty years. Miss Braine lives at 931 West Third street, and still follows her profession. She says: "I have always kept myself in pretty good health, but I contracted rheumatism on a trip south about twenty years ago and haven't been able to get rid of it, although I have doctored and tried everything I know, instead of getting better I kept getting worse and the last year it has been so bad that I have had difficulty in attending my duties as a nurse."

"I have been taking the Goldine Treatment about ten days now and I wish to say that it is remarkable the way it has relieved my pains. It is surely driving the rheumatism from my body and I am glad to give my endorsement to a good, honest medicine. I have been able to produce results, and I trust that those who know me will take advantage of my endorsement and give this wonderful medicine a trial.
