Among our returned soldiers are Will Corl, J. B. Harpster, Ray Reed, George Louck, Will Meckley, W. M. and Justice Neidigh.

The many friends of C. E. Close will be pleased to learn of his recovery from a serious operation, performed at the Bloomsburg hospital.

Miss Mabel Claire Goss, formerly of Pine Grove Mills, was a member of the Tyrone High school graduating class at the commencement exercises last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cramer, of Pinecroft, spent several days among old neighbors and friends at State College, having come to Centre county for the funeral of Mr. Cramer's sister, Mrs. Krape, of Buffalo Run.

The C. E. society of Pine Grove Mills will hold a festival in the L. O. O. F. hall on June 7th, for the benefit of the Lutheran church. The Citizens band will be on hand and the band will be on hand and the public is invited.

Rev. R. M. Campbell will be the orator at the Memorial day services at Pennsylvania Furnace at 9:30 o'clock this morning, and one hour later similar services will be held at Gray's with Dr. L. G. Patch, of Tyrone, the orator. The Citizens band will furnish the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Ward are in receipt of an invitation to the graduation exercises of the Ohio Valley college, at Wheeling, W. Va. It is a young ladies' school and among the graduates is Miss Rebecca Stover Meyers, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Meyers, formerly of Pine Grove Mills.

Private Earl Wilson, of the 37th division, is home and a family dinner in his honor was served at the W. E. Johnson home on Main street on Sunday. At the gathering were his mother, Mrs. Rachel Wilson, and three sisters, Mrs. McMahon, of State College; Mrs. John Durner, of Boalsburg, and Mrs. Johnson. The young soldier escaped with only a slight shell shock. Clayton Corl, of the 28th division, returned home on Saturday evening. He was gassed but has completely recovered.

Mrs. E. E. Royer served a splendid dinner to a few friends on Sunday in honor of the arrival home of her son Will, who served in France with the famous 28th division. The young soldier had two narrow escapes in the battle of the Argonne forest. He was one of a squad of twelve on the firing line when a German flyer dropped a bomb which killed eight and wounded three. Private Royer was buried in the mud and when he dug himself out he found nineteen holes in his clothes but escaped without a scratch.

—A Western flock master says that the young ewes, and such ewes as are undersized and timid, should not be required to run with a large flock of vigorous ewes in winter. It will pay well to keep them by themselves. One quarter-pound of oats a day will help young ewes to develop and grow to a good size.
