

RUNKLE.—Charles David Runkle, a native of Centre county, died very suddenly at his home in Knoxville, near Pittsburgh, about one o'clock last Saturday morning. Mr. Runkle was an enthusiastic G. A. R. worker and had taken a very active part in the memorial services in Pittsburgh on Friday, apparently in as good health as ever. He retired Friday night without even a complaint but about one o'clock Saturday morning he got up, walked to his son's house and told him that he felt ill and it was such a feeling as he had never before experienced. He died shortly after and the physicians decided it was a combination of acute indigestion and exhaustion as the result of his hard work on Memorial day.

Deceased was a son of Judge John K. and Lucinda Geary Runkle and was born in Potter township seventy-six years ago. He was one of a family of thirteen children and his boyhood days were spent on the farm, working during the summer and attending school in the winter. When the Civil war broke out he enlisted in Company B, 148th regiment, Gen. Beaver's old command, and took part in some of the fiercest battles of the war, being wounded in the battle of Chancellorsville. At the close of the war he returned to Centre county and engaged in farming later devoting most of his time to buying and selling stock. In this capacity he became known throughout Centre and adjoining counties and acquired a reputation for fair dealing that extended throughout the State. But he outgrew the business in Centre county and finally went to Philadelphia where he remained a few years then went to Knoxville, near Pittsburgh, where he located and for years was connected with the Knoxville Land Improvement company. During the past two years he had lived a retired life.

He was an active member of the Presbyterian church all his life; was an enthusiastic G. A. R. man, a member of the Centre county Veteran club and a Mason in high standing.

In the autumn of 1867 he was united in marriage to Miss Margaret J. Love, a daughter of Associate Judge Love, of Potter township. They had two children, Gertrude, who was burned to death by the explosion of a coal oil lamp twenty-seven years ago, and William Love Runkle, of Knoxville, Pa. He is also survived by his wife, one brother and a sister, Jacob Runkle, in the far west, and Mrs. Simon Runkle, of Kansas. He also leaves the following half-brothers and sisters: Rev. James Runkle, of Jeanette; Dr. Stuart C. Runkle, of Philadelphia; J. H. Runkle, of Old Fort; Aaron Runkle, in California; Mrs. Catharine McClellan and Miss Sallie Runkle, of Newport, and Mrs. J. B. White, of State College.

Funeral services were held at his late home in Knoxville at twelve o'clock on Monday by Rev. Dr. McPherson, of the Presbyterian church, the G. A. R. also adding its tribute. On Tuesday afternoon the remains were brought to Centre county and taken to Centre Hall where burial was made direct from the train, the Masonic fraternity having charge.

CLEVENSTINE.—John S. Clevenstine, a well known farmer of Walker township, died very suddenly on the evening of Memorial day at his home on the Harvey Shaffer farm near Zion. He worked in the cornfield most of the day and was in the field in the evening, returning home about nine o'clock. A short time later the family retired and a few minutes after ten o'clock Mr. Clevenstine complained of a pain at his heart and before anything could be done for him he passed away, at just 10:20 o'clock.

Mr. Clevenstine was a son of Isaac and Mary Markley Clevenstine and was born in Walker township on August 10th, 1836, hence was 32 years, 9 months and 20 days old. His entire life was spent in the neighborhood of his birth and he was universally esteemed by all who knew him. During the past seven or eight years he had occupied the Harvey Shaffer farm and was quite successful in his work as an agriculturist. He had been a member of the Reformed church since boyhood and was an upright, christian gentleman.

About ten years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Lila Shaffer who survives with three sons, Henry, Paul and Crider. He also leaves his mother and one brother, Harry Clevenstine, proprietor of the City bakery, Bellefonte. Rev. Charles Faust had charge of the funeral services which were held in the Reformed church at Zion at two o'clock on Monday afternoon, burial being made in the Zion cemetery.

GLENN.—Miss Sarah C. Glenn passed away at her home at Baileyville at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, of exhaustion, following a lingering illness caused by a fall she sustained several years ago. She was a daughter of Robert and Nancy Bailey Glenn, and was born at Clarion, Pa., on May 19th, 1842, hence was in her seventy-eighth year. When but a child the family moved to Centre county and located on the well known Glenn homestead in west Ferguson township where practically her entire life was spent. She was a member of the Presbyterian church from girlhood and a woman who lived up to her christian faith. She was a charming neighbor and friend and will be greatly missed by a large circle of acquaintances. She is survived by one sister, Miss Nannie Glenn, as well as a number of nephews and nieces. Funeral services will be held at her late home at ten o'clock this (Friday) morning by Rev. R. M. Campbell, after which burial will be made in the Graysville cemetery.

The Mission of Swift & Company

Swift & Company has become one of the large businesses of the world through continuing to meet the growing needs of a nation and a world.

Society has a right to ask how the increasing responsibilities and opportunities for usefulness which go with such growth are being used by the men who direct its affairs—and the men have the right to answer:

To promote the production of live stock and perishables and increase the food supply;

To reach more people with more and better meat;

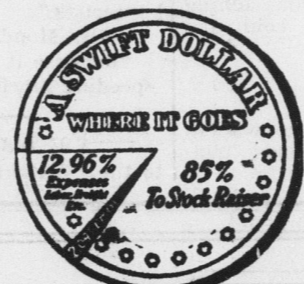

To make a fair competitive profit, in order to reimburse the 25,000 shareholders for the use of their capital, and to provide for the future development of the business;

To reduce to a minimum the costs of preparing and distributing meat and to divide the benefits of efficiency with producer and consumer;

To live and let live, winning greater business only through greater usefulness, with injury to nothing but incompetency, inefficiency and waste; to deal justly, fairly, and frankly with all mankind.

These are the purposes and motives of the men who direct the policies and practices of Swift & Company.
