

McQUISTION.—Low McQuiston, a life-long resident of Bellefonte, passed away at his home on west High street at 3:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon as the result of an attack of pneumonia. He was taken ill on Tuesday of last week and his case at first baffled the skill of his physician to diagnose, as there was such an absence of the usual symptoms of this dread disease. Everything possible was done for him but unfortunately his vitality was at ebb-tide and he could not withstand the ravages of this insidious disease.

Lewis Hanford McQuiston was a son of Simpson Arthur and Nancy Williams McQuiston and was born in Bellefonte about fifty-three years ago. He was educated in the public schools of the town and when he grew to manhood he went to work in the carriage and coachmaking establishment of his father and assisted in carrying on the business until his father's death since which time he has been in complete charge. While yet in his teens Lew developed a keen interest in politics and hardly had he maintained his majority when he loomed up as a factor in the councils of the Democratic party of the West ward. He early became a faithful worker in his party as well as one of the leaders in the West ward and wielded an influence that could always be depended upon at a critical period. He never sought any special political preferment for himself but years ago was elected assessor in his ward and has been re-elected at intervals after time so that he held that office at the time of his death. He was a member of the Bellefonte Lodge of Elks and was always interested in any movement that he believed would result in good to Bellefonte or the public at large.

He never married and his mother dying about thirty-three years ago and his father last October his only survivor is one sister, Miss Mary E. McQuiston, at home. Funeral services will be held at his late home tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at two o'clock by Dr. W. K. McKinney, of the Presbyterian church, and burial will be made in the Union cemetery.

SCHOLL.—The venerable George Scholl died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clement Dale, at Houserville, last Thursday afternoon as the result of a complication of diseases incident to his advanced age.

He was a son of Jacob and Olive Scholl and was born near Salona, in Nittany valley, on December 27th, 1840, hence had reached the age of 78 years, 6 months and 15 days. In his early life he learned the milling trade and almost fifty years ago he was associated with C. T. Gerberich in operating the old Hale mill. In 1874 he quit the milling business and moved to Houserville where he bought a farm, continuing in the active management of the same until his retirement a number of years ago. He was a member of the Shiloh Lutheran church and an exemplary citizen in every way.

His wife, who before her marriage was Miss Eliza Wagner, died eleven years ago, but surviving him are three daughters and a son, namely: Mrs. George Tibbens and Mrs. James Miller, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Clement Dale, of Houserville, and Elmer Scholl, in Akron, Ohio. He also leaves two brothers, Thomas Scholl, of Coburn, and James, of Farmers Mills.

Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church at Shiloh at ten o'clock on Monday morning. Revs. Stover and Brown officiated and burial was made in the Shiloh cemetery.

RAYMOND.—Kathryn Raymond, a daughter of the late Leonard and Kathryn Rosenhoover Raymond, died last Saturday at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rosenhoover, on South Water street, of cardiac dropsy. The child was 9 years, 3 months and 8 days old and was born in Clearfield. Her father died when she was quite young and since then she had made her home with her grandparents Raymond, in Clearfield. Last fall she had a serious attack of the flu and though she partially recovered the ailment which caused her death is believed to be traceable to that illness. She was brought to Bellefonte six weeks ago in the hope that the change would prove beneficial, but such did not prove to be the case. Surviving her are her mother, living in Bellefonte, and one sister, Mary. Funeral services were held in St. John's Catholic church at ten o'clock on Monday morning by Rev. Father Downes, after which burial was made in the Catholic cemetery.

GROVE.—Following a long illness with sarcoma Mrs. W. M. Grove passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. P. Cummings, at Reidsville, N. C., on June 7th. The Grove family had been residents of Spring Mills a number of years but early in the spring moved to Columbia county. A month or more ago Mr. Grove took his wife south in the hope that the change in climate would prove beneficial, but she grew worse rapidly and passed away at the time above stated.

She was fifty-eight years old and is survived by her husband and two daughters, Mrs. M. P. Cummings, of Reidsville, N. C., and Mrs. A. W. Zettle, of near Bloomsburg. She also leaves one brother and a sister, William Sweetwood, in California, and Miss Cora Sweetwood, in Connecticut. The remains were brought north and taken to Bloomsburg where funeral services were held on Monday afternoon of last week, burial being made in the Union cemetery at that place.

DEWEY.—Miss Elizabeth Dewey, who lived along the mountain above Jacksonville, was found dead in the yard of her home on Tuesday morning by a neighbor's child. Death was evidently due to apoplexy. She was about 75 years old and the last surviving member of the family of John and Hannah Dewey. Burial was made at Zion yesterday afternoon.

IRVIN.—William P. Irvin, for almost fifty years a resident of Pleasant Gap, dropped dead on the road in front of Noll's store about 8:15 o'clock yesterday morning. He had been complaining about not feeling very well the past few days but was out and around the town. Wednesday evening his youngest son returned home after a year's service in France and some think the joy of having his boy come home safe and well so overcame the father that he died of joy, though the physician avers his death was evidently a stroke of apoplexy.

Mr. Irvin was 68 years old and located at Pleasant Gap over forty-five years ago. He was a highly respected citizen and had many warm friends who regret his death. During the past ten years he had worked for the Whitlock quarries and was a most faithful employee. He was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Knoffsinger who survives with the following children: Mrs. Mary Peters, of Niagara Falls; Mrs. Margaret Lender and Miss Violet, of Punxsutawney; Mrs. Mabel Campbell, of Bellwood; Frank, of Pleasant Gap; Archibald, of Bellefonte, and Corp. Samuel Irvin, who served in France as a gunner in the heavy artillery of the Sixth division. He also leaves several brothers and sisters. The funeral will be held at ten o'clock on Monday morning, burial to be made in the Lutheran cemetery at Pleasant Gap.

KENNEDY.—T. Frank Kennedy, a well known resident of State College, died in the Cook hospital, at Fairmont, W. Va., on Tuesday of last week, of Ludwig's angina. Mr. Kennedy had gone to Fairmont to visit a daughter, was stricken while there and his death followed quickly.

Deceased was a son of John and Leah Kennedy and was born at Martinsburg, Blair county, on August 8th, 1845, hence was 73 years, 10 months and 2 days old. His boyhood life was spent on the Branch, this county, but forty or more years ago he moved to State College and engaged in carpentering and the contracting business. For a number of years he held the position of master mechanic in the department of carpentering at the College. In 1903 he took charge of the Nittany Inn but the year following it was destroyed by fire.

He was united in marriage to Miss Susan Musser who died in 1904, but surviving him are six daughters and one son, namely: Mrs. M. P. Helman, of Fairmont, W. Va.; Mrs. O. C. Edwards, of Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. J. Hamill Holmes, Misses Margaret, Elizabeth and Fredericka, and William, all of State College.

The remains were taken to State College where funeral services were held last Friday morning by Rev. John Harkness, burial being made in the Pine Hill cemetery.

REARICK.—Mrs. Susan Rearick, widow of Peter Rearick, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Ross, in Altoona, of general debility. Her maiden name was Susan Weiser and she was born in Millheim in 1834, hence was about eighty-five years old. The family lived in Penn township until 1888 when they moved to Altoona. Mr. Rearick died fifteen years ago but surviving the deceased is one daughter, Mrs. Ross, of Altoona, and an adopted son, W. Weiser, also of Altoona. She also leaves one brother, Charles Weiser, of Burbank, Ohio. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, burial being made in the Greenwood cemetery, Altoona.

Sale of Allison Bros. Mill at Spring Mills.

The Allison Bros., of Spring Mills, on Monday sold their flouring mill at that place to Lindsey H. Dennis and Howard Fetterolf, of Cumberland county. The purchase price was $10,500. Both Mr. Dennis and Mr. Fetterolf are practical and experienced millers and are members of the State Miller's association and the State Agricultural association. They will take possession of the mill immediately and a brother of Mr. Dennis will move to Spring Mills and manage the plant. A brother of Mr. Fetterolf has been chosen principal of the vocational school at Spring Mills and will also move there.

RINGLING BROTHERS AND BARNUM & BAILEY

Mammoth Shows are Now Combined and Announce Exhibitions at Altoona.

The world's biggest amusement institution, Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey shows combined, is to exhibit afternoon and night at Altoona, Monday, July 7th.

The consolidation of the "World's Greatest Shows" and the "Greatest Show on Earth" in one circus of colossal size, constitutes the amusement surprise of the country. Nothing to approach this gigantic, new circus has ever before toured America. It has been formed by merging the pick and the cream of all that was the biggest and best in the two famous shows. It would be folly to attempt to enumerate its many wonders. Some idea of the enormous scale upon which features are presented may be had when it is stated that a quarter of a million pounds of elephants take part in a single act. In other words—six times as many of the big-eared giants than have ever before been seen in one

So Big And Yet So Small!

Seen by itself, Swift & Company is one of the largest manufacturers and distributors of animal food products in the country.

Seen in relation to the total food business of the world, its size diminishes to small proportions.

We handle only about 22 per cent of the total output of the hundreds of packing plants under federal inspection, and only about 12 per cent of the total meat supply of the nation.

We handle only about 6 per cent of the total quantity of butter, eggs, and poultry sent to market in the United States.

Our tanneries handle less than 15 per cent of the hides made into leather in the United States.

Our soap factories make less than 10 per cent of the soap output of the nation.

This is done in keen and open competition with every concern handling these products, and at a profit of a fraction of a cent per pound.

In the meat packing industry there is no one dominant concern handling a large proportion of the output.

Swift & Company, U.S.A.

main-tenent exhibition. All else to be seen is in proportion. The arenic stars embrace all the world's foremost circus performers. There are sufficient things of novelties and big size three hours of the menagerie is far and away the most colossal ever traveled. For instance—a herd of eight giraffes are exhibited in place of the two or three shown in the past. The great tournament which opens the main-tenent program, is the most magnificent thing in pageantry yet produced in America. Hundreds upon hundreds of gorgeously costumed characters and beautiful horses take part in it. The morning street parade is the longest and most brilliant ever given anywhere. It is a stupendous, super-circus that baffles description.
