In the afternoon they all took a drive through the Glades and viewed the scenes familiar to the Potters years ago when they attended the Pine Grove Mills academy.

A fierce wind and rain storm passed over this section last Thursday. Big trees were uprooted and the wind played havoc among the fruit trees in various orchards. The barns on the A. S. Walker and Nevin Meyer farms were partially unroofed. A new silo being built on the Homer Grubb farm.

A big freight engine was thrown upside down in the Pennsylvania Furnace meadow dam, from the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad, by the spreading of the rails, the latter part of last week. William Musser returned home Sunday, from the army, after having spent more than a year in France and Germany. His many friends were glad to see him, he being the last one, excepting Albin Bohn, of Oak Hall, and it is truly hoped that he will soon turn up, or that his parents may be able to get some trace of him, for it seems that the latest news obtained was that he went into battle July 15th, 1918, and no trace of him has been secured since.

A Dangerous Position.

"That's a peculiar looking bruise you have on the back of your neck," observed the doctor.

"Yes," said the patient. "I'm subject to those. You see, I'm a clarinet player in an orchestra."

"I don't see how that can produce bruises on the back of your neck?"

"It doesn't produce them exactly, but it places me in a position where I am very liable to get them."

"How is that?"

HEALTH RESTORED TO WELL-KNOWN LADY.

Mrs. William Lash, of Ellwood City, Praises Goldine and Goldine Alterac as the Source of Her Happiness.

It's pleasant, indeed, to be restored to health, especially after long suffering from painful rheumatism and troubles peculiar to women. That is the experience of Mrs. William Lash, of the Fourth ward. She credits her wonderful cure to Goldine and Goldine Alterac.

"For two long years I suffered," she said. "I had pains in my joints and could hardly walk. At times my heart fluttered so I thought I would die. I was drowsy and sleepy all day; my head ached severely, and I was dizzy. My appetite was gone, and what I did eat caused me much suffering from gas and bloating. When I went to bed at night I could not sleep, and in the morning was more tired than when I retired. My husband was taking Goldine Alterac for catarrh of the stomach and kidney trouble. It did him so much good that I tried it. Relief came quickly. I took both Goldine and Goldine Alterac. I am now well, and do all the work for my family. I am indeed, a happy woman. I surely recommend Goldine and Goldine Alterac."
