Delightful Family Reunion.

A delightful family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kaup, in this place, on Monday to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the arrival in the United States of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Owens, who came here from England in 1869 and settled at what was then called the Boiling Springs. Mrs. Owens died in 1889 and Mr. Owens in 1900, but their survivors include four sons and six daughters. The eldest is Mrs. Annie Fleming and the youngest Edward R. Owens, both of Bellefonte. The number of children, grand-children and great grand-children of Mr. and Mrs. Owens total one hundred and five. Those present at the family gathering were as follows:
Mrs. Annie Fleming, Mrs. Jennie Witmer, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kaup, Bellefonte; Mrs. Ella M. Gfrerer, Axe Mann; Mrs. Thomas Love and John M. Owens, Altoona; Mrs. W. H. Williams, Bradock; Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Owens, Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Owens, Swissvale; Mr. and Mrs. William Owens, of Zion, and Dr. and Mrs. Ambrose M. Schmidt and Dr. W. K. McKinney, as well as a few other invited guests.

Mike Trubitsky, of Niagara Falls, is spending this week with his parents.
J. A. Vazarik is spending a two week vacation with his parents at Plymouth, Pa.
Mrs. Etta Watson and Miss Cecil Watson attended the Knox reunion in Unionville last Monday.
On Friday, July 29th, little Adeline and Evelyn Kachik, twin sisters, celebrated their eighth birthday by giving a party to thirty-two of their little friends. The little guests assembled at seven o'clock in the evening, and after spending two hours in playing delightful games, they were led to the front porch by Mrs. Kachik, where a long table was spread with dainty and tempting things that would cause any youngster's eyes to bulge and his mouth water. When the children had done justice to the refreshments and their appetites, too, they bade their little hostesses "good night," declaring they had the best time ever.

Marriage Licenses.

Dale G. Bell, Mapleton, and Alice D. Sharp, Barree.
Milligan Richards, Julian, and Bessie V. Brunner, Bellefonte.

Overheard.

"Isn't Brown an aimless sort of chap?"
"Aimless? That guy spends half his time wondering what he's going to do with the other half."

After an absence of forty years Nora Morton in this week visiting the scenes of her childhood here, only to find so many changes she hardly recognizes the place. Though her hair is somewhat silvered she is well and happy. She now lives in New Jersey and is the mother of four sons and one daughter.

This week will see all of the bumper wheat crop housed, though some farmers were compelled to thresh a portion of their crop in the field because their barns were not big enough to hold it all. In a number of instances the wheat has shown a yield of 25 bushels and better to the acre, and of fairly good quality.

Jerry Metzger, recently returned from overseas, saw some hard service during the war. At one time he was eighteen days under fire and for four days all he had to eat was his reserve rations. He had a number of close calls but escaped without injury, and as soon as he got home donned his overalls and helped John Stover get in his crops.

Having sold their home in Philipsburg Emanuel Bolinger and wife now snugly quartered at the Will Dennison home on Tadpole awaiting the completion of their new home near the Dennison place, where they have planned to spend their remaining days. Mr. Bolinger is now ninety years old but in good health and as brisk as a man of sixty, and his returning to Ferguson township calls up a bit of local history. When a young man he and his brother Thomas conducted a general store and tailoring establishment at Rock Springs, Emanuel being the tailor. Away back in the 1850's he made and fit the uniforms of the one hundred members of the Scott guards, then a local military company, and which at the beginning of the Civil war became Company B, the color company of the 45th regiment. Shortly after the close of the war he moved to Philipsburg and conducted a tailoring establishment there until quite recently when he sold out and has now returned almost to the place of his birth to end his days.

More Modern Make.
