PINE GROVE MENTION.

William Miller is steering a new Overland car.

Mrs. J. C. Keith is spending a few days at her parental home at Enosville.

Harry Williams is building a new porch along the entire front of his home.

L. D. Fye and Thomas Williams spent Labor day over at Old Monroe furnace.

John C. Dunlap, of Twin Rocks, was here for a few days' visit with relatives in town.

Bear in mind the big community picnic to be held in the Academy grove here tomorrow.

E. C. Ross shipped a car load of seventy-five cent oats from this section early in the week.

The Citizens band will shortly be equipped with new uniforms, which have already been ordered.

Farmer Elias Shoemaker is spending some time on a motor trip through western New York.

T. G. Cronover and wife, with several lady friends from Pittsburgh, took dinner at the St. Elmo on Friday.

Farmer Budd Behrer lost a good horse on Thursday night which was turned over to the Milesburg horse undertaker.

Miss Mary Showalter, of Bellefonte, spent the latter end of the week with her friend, Miss Edith Dunlap, on south Water street.

Our mutual friend, P. O'Bryan, departed last week for a month's stay in Michigan, where he hopes to get rid of his rheumatic trouble.

The public schools of Ferguson township will open on Monday, September 15th, and not the 8th, as mentioned in these items last week.

Miss Ruth Illingsworth is spending her vacation with her grandmother Snyder. She intends enrolling in the Freshman class at State College.

Mrs. W. D. Port has closed her house on Main street and gone to Altoona, where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. William Yocum, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Yocum and J. L. Harsberger were among the throng on the Bellefonte aviation field on Sunday.

S. E. Ward and family and H. H. Goss and family spent Sunday on a motor trip through Mifflin and Huntingdon counties, returning home by way of Alexandria.

Dr. J. B. Baumgardner shipped a double decked car of hogs and lambs to the eastern market a few days ago, paying 19 cents a pound for hogs and 16 cents for lambs.

William Johnstonbaugh and wife, of Lemont, and Charles Johnstonbaugh and wife, of Fillmore, were royally entertained at the W. A. Collins home on Sunday.

Among the students enrolled at the State College High school from our town are Jacob Kenler, Anna Krebs, Ethel Burwell, William Ward, Ruth Thomas Watt and Catharine Krebs.

Will Grove and son Charles came down from the Mountain city to visit at the homes of his children. He is now one of the Penns's most efficient engineers on the Pittsburgh division.

Our village blacksmith, W. A. Collins, and William Johnstonbaugh, motored to Pitscairn on Labor day to visit Prof. G. W. Johnstonbaugh, who has been seriously ill for some time past.

Ralph R. Hartsock, one of the candidates for the nomination of County Commissioner on the Republican ticket, interviewed the voters hereabouts the latter part of the week.

Ed. Martz, in his big Studebaker car, took the E. M. Watt family on a drive through Kishacoquillas valley on Labor day, picnicking by the way and returning via Huntingdon and Spruce Creek.

Dr. Frank Bailey, of Milton, was here the early part of the week distributing advertising matter for the Milton fair to be held October 7 to 10. He was accompanied by a lady friend, Miss Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Musser came over from Clearfield and spent the Sabbath with Mr. Musser's brother, L. D. Musser, on south Water street, and visiting his aged mother, whose health is none of the best, at present.

Dr. George H. Woods received a telegram this week announcing the serious illness of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Walter Woods, at her home in Lincoln, Nebraska. The doctor and his wife left for Nebraska on the early train Tuesday morning.

Dr. R. M. Krebs, of Penns Valley Lodge I. O. O. F.; L. G. Burkett, of Stormstown Lodge; Percival Rudy, of State College Lodge, and Will Stover, of the Boalsburg Lodge, will attend the one hundredth anniversary meeting of the Grand Lodge to be held in Philadelphia September 17th and 18th.

The reunion of the 45th regiment veteran volunteer infantry will be held at State College on Friday, September 26th, 1919. Headquarters will be at the Nittany Inn, where all comrades are requested to report upon their arrival. The business meeting will be held in the Odd Fellows hall at 10:30 a. m. The afternoon will be spent on an automobile trip through picturesque Pennsylvania and a visit to Penns Cave. A campfire will be held in the old college chapel in the evening which will be presided over by President Sparks.

After spending a month with relatives in Centre county, Rev. W. C. Dunlap left Wednesday for his home in Louisville, Ky. Mrs. Dunlap, who is better known as Miss May Rhone, will remain here until after the Granger's picnic, having been on its board of managers for a number of years.

Mrs. Annie Brett Bradford, of Perry, Kansas, with her two interesting children, spent several days among her former acquaintances at her old family home at White Hall, and finds many changes in that neighborhood since she left twenty-five years ago. She is the youngest daughter of the late Robert G. Brett, a former Prothonotary of Centre county.

The spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wilson, near Graysville, was the scene of a happy gathering on Friday evening when over two hundred guests invaded the home to extend a merry greeting to the daughter, Mary Mattern, on her birthday anniversary. The gathering was intended as a surprise but the young lady "smelled a mouse" beforehand, but at that was manifestly pleased to see that she had so many warm friends. She was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Wilson and her assistants. At a late hour all the guests departed after wishing the young lady many happy returns of the day.

Very appropriate welcome home services were held in the Graysville church at 10:30 o'clock on Sunday morning in honor of the fifteen young men, members of that church who served during the war. The pastor, Rev. R. M. Campbell, was in charge and spoke briefly but very feelingly of the patriotism and valor of the young men who went to France and did so much toward bringing the Hun to submission. Lieut. Paul C. Ward was drafted for a speech and like the good soldier he was responded promptly. He was wounded and shell-shocked in France and his talk on the great war was thrilling in the extreme, relating as he did, many experiences that he and others had undergone in France.

LEMONT.

Sara Lenker spent the week-end in Berwick.

The corn and late potato crops will be good ones.

Mrs. C. M. KELLER, JOHNSTOWN, PA., R. F. D., SPENT LOTS OF MONEY.

Mrs. Keller said: "I will take this opportunity to let you know the good Goldine has done for me. I have suffered for eight years. Spent lots of money, getting very little results. I suffered from sick headache, rheumatism and bad kidneys and constipation and liver trouble and for the last four years had female trouble. After using three bottles of Goldine and one bottle of Goldine Alterac I am much better in every way. I wish to tell all my friends who Goldine has done for me and give the highest praise to Goldine."

Be sure and get the original and genuine Goldine; manufactured at Youngstown, Ohio.
