Another real estate deal took place in west Ferguson township when Pierce S. Gray sold his farm to Frank Albright for $11,000.

Word has been received from Dr. R. M. Krebs, in Baltimore, that he is much improved in health and will return home in a few days.

The frame work of the barn on the Hamilton farm near State College was raised yesterday. Howard Evey is the builder of this barn.

Rev. A. M. Lutton is attending Lutheran Synod at Aaronburg this week, and Mrs. Lutton is visiting her parental home at Bellwood.

James B. Heberling, of State College, accompanied by his bright little son Roy, made a business trip to our village on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirk and son William came over from State College and spent the Sabbath at the W. H. Green home on east Main street.

Frank Henninger spent Sunday with his wife at the Bellefonte hospital, where she is making rapid recovery from her recent ailment.

Prof. George A. Dunlap, teacher of the Woodland grammar school, spent the Sabbath with his interesting little family on south Water street.

W. H. Roush came down from Altoona last week to see about having his barn re-roofed. Charles Louck and brother have charge of the job.

Miss Arienna Welland and Miss Ida Sweetwood, teachers in the Hollidaysburg schools, spent Sunday with their parents in Linden Hall and Centre Hall.

Pearson O'Bryan, who has been ill the past year, is somewhat improved and was able to visit his parental home on Church street, on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarlane went to Philadelphia on Tuesday where Mr. McFarlane will enter the Willis Eye hospital for the removal of cataracts from both eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Walker were Lovelle visitors last week. Mr. Walker is nursing a badly mashed finger and is taking advantage of his misfortune to do a little visiting.

A church social was held last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eberhart, on the Branch. The receipts netted $40.00 and were for the benefit of the Lemont Presbyterian church.

A. C. Kepler sold a ton of dressed porkers on Monday for 22 cents a pound, and 1000 bushels of potatoes which he sold recently at $2.00 per bushel will swell his bank account considerably.

Howard Wright, of Tyrone, spent the early part of the week visiting his mother in this place before leaving for a sanatorium in Dixie land to undergo treatment for rheumatism, with which he is badly afflicted.

Rev. L. V. Barber with Samuel Glenn as lay member from the Lemont church and John H. Bailey, lay member from Pine Grove Mills, attended the fall meeting of the Huntingdon Presbytery at Bellwood this week.

While going from her porch to the street at her home in State College on Sunday Mrs. Mary Sellers made a misstep and fell to the pavement, breaking her right leg above the knee. She was taken to the home of Mrs. Roop, where she is being amply cared for.

Lieut. William R. Dale is convalescing from the Bellefonte hospital nicely from an operation he underwent three weeks ago. He has only words of praise for both the surgeons and the nurses at the hospital, and the good treatment in general he received at that institution.

Mr. Edgar S. Swartz, of Punxsutawney, with his wife and several of her lady friends, arrived a few hours in our town on Sunday to enable Mr. Swartz to take a glimpse over the place where he was born and spent his boyhood days, away back in the sixties. He is a son of the late George M. Swartz and is a brother of Rev. Morris E. Swartz, now a prominent minister of the Methodist church. E. M. Watt now occupies the house that formerly was the Swartz homestead.

An old fashioned barn raising took place on Tuesday on the Hon. J. W. Kepler farm. Friends and neighbors from miles around gathered to assist in the work. The barn was framed by W. B. Ward and son and H. N. Walker and every piece fit in place as if made by machinery. A big dinner spread on tables in the spacious yard was served to all helpers. Mr. Ward has many buildings to his credit in this part of the county which will stand as monuments to his skill as a master mechanic. It is just possible that this will be his last contract, as his advancing age is making such work quite hazardous for him. He is one of the old Pine Grove Academy alumni.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

ORVISTON.

William Ridge visited friends here recently and spent Sunday with his wife and babies, who are visiting Mrs. Amelia Rickard. He has returned to his work in Bellefonte.

Little Relda Young has a world of troubles, quite enough for a big girl. She has gotten stronger since her bad attack of a week ago, and now is suffering with a badly inflamed eye.

Mrs. William Lucas, who was reported ill, is still in a very low condition and it seems almost impossible for her to gain any strength. She has been gradually losing all summer and is failing rapidly, although she tries to keep up.

Mrs. David Confer, of the lower works, has been very poorly of late, and her friends are concerned about her. Although she tries to keep about and do her daily work, she is really not at all strong. Mrs. Confer, of all our Orviston ladies, is deservedly popular and well loved.

Mr. and Mrs. William Walker and baby Dorothy recently took a nice trip to Howard, combining business with pleasure, and had such a pleasant time their business seemed part of their pleasure. William certainly knows how to enjoy himself, and show some one else a good time also.

Mrs. Rebecca Womer, who has been spending the warm months with relatives at Bigler, is with us once more. Grandma's unfailing cheerfulness makes her a very welcome member of any household. At present she is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Amelia Rickard, where she will remain for the winter.

Lieut. John Hume, and Mrs. Hume Jr., of Falconer, N. Y., are now visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Hume Sr., at Orviston. This is Jack's first visit

Testimony

Time is the test of truth. And Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test in Bellefonte. No Bellefonte resident who suffers backache, or annoying urinary ills can remain unconvinced by this twice-told testimony.

Mrs. J. F. Thal, 28 N. Thomas St., Bellefonte, says: "I suffered with backache and severe pains through my kidneys. I had headaches and dizzy spells, when I first got up in the morning. My kidneys acted irregularly. My attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I heard of so many being benefitted by their use that I procured a box at the Green Pharmacy Co. That one box removed the backache, the headaches and dizzy spells left and my kidneys became regular and I felt better in every way. I cheerfully recommend Doan's to anyone who suffers as I did." (Statement given on October 21, 1907).

On October 18, 1918, Mrs. Thal said: "I am very glad to confirm my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. Today I am a well woman and to recommend Doan's is a pleasure."

home since his marriage in February, and his friends are all glad to see him and his sweet young wife; but sorry to see that he has lost his eye, though very glad it was not both. Jack was always a very popular lad, and his many friends appreciate his visit. A bunch of the boys congregated at the Hume home and proceeded to make things pleasant for a time, after which they put Jack and his wife into a wagon and hauled them all over the town, and of course he stood treat to the crowd, and they were kind enough to bring them back to the house. Billie Hume-Jones accompanied them, as he thought it could not be done right without his co-operation. Mr. and Mrs. Louis N. Hume, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. Margaret Jones and Louis MacDonald, came up to welcome them, but were too late to enjoy the chivari. However, the boys are watching their opportunity to capture Louis and his bride and show them a good time, as they have not been married quite two months, while Jack has been a benedict for almost eight.
