

Democratic Watchman

Bellefonte, Pa., November 7, 1919. F. GRAY MEER, Editor.

To Correspondents.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Terms of Subscription.—Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates: Paid strictly in advance $1.50

TUESDAY'S ELECTION ABROAD AND AT HOME.

(Continued from page 1, Col. 4.) Henry Keller's name was mentioned as a possible candidate for Prothonotary the writer interested Democratic friends in a movement to give Mr. Keller our party's endorsement.

It will not do for the Republican to say, as it said in its issue of yesterday, that Capt. Taylor was defeated because he ran as a Democrat.

They might undertake to square themselves with the soldiers of the county later by running some of them on their own ticket when opportunity presents but that will never make reparation for what they have done to Capt. Taylor.

ELECTION RETURNS FROM BOROUGHS AND TOWNSHIPS.

Realizing the fact that "Watchman" readers are entitled to all the election news we this week give the detailed vote cast for the candidates on the county ticket as well as the vote for all the candidates in the various districts of Centre county, as follows:

Table of election returns for various districts including Bellefonte, Centre, and other areas. Columns include candidate names and vote counts.

UNOFFICIAL VOTE OF ELECTION HELD TUESDAY, NOV. 4th

Main table of election results showing votes for various offices: Sheriff, Proth., Treas., Regist., Recor., Co. Commission, Dis. Atty, Co. Auditor, Coroner. Lists candidates and their respective vote counts.

NOTES. Harold B. Shattuck, the Republican candidate for County Surveyor, received 6,807 votes. A. H. Hartwick, (Republican) who ran on the Socialist ticket of County Treasurer, received 301 votes.

Continuation of election results table, listing candidates and vote counts for various offices and districts.

Office Republican Democrat

Table of election results for various offices, categorized by Republican and Democrat candidates, including names and vote counts.

Business Transacted by Borough Council.

Five members were present at Monday night's meeting of borough council, the sixth member making his appearance just as the bills were ready for approval. A written communication was received from Willis E. Wion submitting pictures and figures on chemical trucks for council's consideration.