

O'NEIL.—Mrs. Mary O'Neil, widow of the late Daniel O'Neil, of Marsh Creek, died on November first, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. McCormick, at Sewickley. During the past few years Mrs. O'Neil had made her home at Moshannon and several weeks ago went to Sewickley to visit her daughter. She was taken sick while there and died at the above stated time. Had she lived until next March she would have been ninety-six years old. All her life was spent on Marsh Creek until twelve years ago when she went to live with her daughter, Mrs. Kerin, at Moshannon.

Her husband died twenty-one years ago but surviving her are the following children: William O'Neil, of Lilly; Mrs. Austin Kerin, of Moshannon; Mrs. James Burns, of Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. William McCormick, of Sewickley, and Michael, of Charleston, W. Va. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Minnie Delaney, of Philadelphia. The remains were brought to Bellefonte on Wednesday morning and taken direct to St. John's Catholic church where funeral services were held by Father Downes, after which burial was made in the Catholic cemetery.

Among the out of town people here for the funeral were Mrs. James Burns, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. William McCormick, Sewickley; Mrs. William O'Neil and family of Lilly; Mr. and Mrs. Austin Kerin and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Kerin and Tom Ward, of Moshannon; Mrs. Minnie Delaney, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Ward Deihl, of Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. George Myers, of Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. Carl McGinley, John Gallagher and Annie Smith, of Howard; Mrs. Rechner and three sons, of Marsh Creek; Miss M. Kane, of Bryn Mawr; James Kane, of Zion, and Mrs. James Caskey, of Renovo.

KINNEY.—Harry Kinney, for years a well known resident of Milesburg, dropped dead on the streets of that town on Monday morning shortly after leaving the store of the Milesburg Store company. He was a son of H. H. and Mary J. Kinney and was born sixty-three years ago. He had been a resident of Milesburg for many years and had the respect and esteem of a wide circle of friends. He never married but is survived by a brother and a sister, Edward T. and Miss Emma Kinney, both of Milesburg. Funeral services will be held at his late home at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon after which burial will be made in the Bellefonte Union cemetery.

HECKMAN.—William Heckman, a well known resident of Miles township, died very suddenly of heart failure last Friday morning, while leading an unruly heifer along the road. The animal struggled to get away from Mr. Heckman and he was thrown down and dragged a short distance, the shock causing failure of the heart. He was a son of John and Sarah Heckman and was fifty-six years old. He was married to Miss Anna Vonada who survives with the following brothers and sisters: A. P. Heckman, of Brush valley; Daniel, John, Alice and Mrs. Thomas Decker, all of Spring Mills. Burial was made in the Heckman cemetery on Tuesday afternoon.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

When you want your Ford Car repaired, insist always upon getting the genuine Ford Parts, made by the Ford Motor Company, in order to insure reliable quality. There are "spurious," "counterfeit," "imitation" parts made by outside concerns who have no regard for quality in material—so insist on your Garage or Repair Man furnishing you the genuine Ford Parts. All reliable garages may now buy the genuine Ford Parts from us—so there's no excuse for anyone using the "bogus" parts. To be sure, bring your car to us for repairs or replacements.
